

Popular Government

WINTER 2006 • VOLUME 71, NUMBER 2

Cover Article

4 A Metamorphosis in the Maintenance of Land Records

Charles A. Szypszak

Recent state legislation fundamentally changed the role of registers of deeds by limiting their responsibility for reviewing documents submitted for recording. Soon, implementation of widespread electronic recording will change their role even more dramatically.

Feature Articles

14 Essential Responsibilities of Local Governing Boards

Vaughn Upshaw

A new governance model helps elected city and county board members understand, plan, organize, and be accountable for their work.

26 Marriage in North Carolina

Janet Mason

Asking who may marry in North Carolina brings fairly straightforward responses, but asking what constitutes a valid marriage in the state yields surprising answers.

Departments

2 NC Journal

Digests of Bills Now Available Online through School of Government • Gastonia Mayor Honored as Woman Municipal Leader • Workshops to Build Community Capacity to Stop Domestic and Sexual Violence • A Treasure Chest of Practical Knowledge • First Class Graduates from CIO Certification Program

37 At the School

Brown-Graham Awarded Two Fellowships • 2006 Essentials of Municipal Government Course Held, with Major Support from Food Lion • Former President Broad to Join School Faculty • Stenberg to Lead MPA Program • O'Brien Named Director of N.C. Civic Education Consortium • Volk Becomes Head of Finance and Information Technology • The Founding of the Institute

ON THE COVER: North Carolina is transforming its laws and procedures for maintenance of land records.