

Judicial Philosophy Discussion Questions

1. What is your job? What does it mean to do a good job in your position?
2. How would you define your judicial philosophy? How has that philosophy affected the way you do (or expect to do) your work?
3. What has been (or is likely to be) the biggest challenge to your using that philosophy in practice?
4. If you are already on the bench, what has been most surprising about your work as judge? Most inspiring? Most disappointing?
