

Pop Test - Extra and Quasi Judicial Activities

- 1) True or False
A retired/recalled judge can accept an appointment to a local Airport Commission. The airport commission is a body concerned with policy issues.
- 2) True or False
A judge may not accept an appointment from the governor to the commission with oversight of public financing of the 2004 election. The appointment has been approved by the Attorney General's office for compliance with statutory requirements and the permissibility of holding dual offices.
- 3) True or False
An emergency superior court judge may serve as legal counsel for an entity.
- 4) True or False
A judge may negotiate with an insurance company regarding a spouse's personal injury claim.
- 5) True or False
A judge may serve as the executor of the estate of his/her neighbor and long time client. While in private practice, the judge prepared the will for the deceased neighbor and was named as the contingent executor therein. There is no relation to the deceased by blood or marriage.
- 6) True or False
A judge may not serve as an officer and director of a closely held, family owned corporation that is managed by the judge's spouse. The judge serves without compensation and the service does not interfere with the judge's judicial duties.
- 7) True or False
A judge may buy an ad in an area high school sports program. The ad contains the judge's picture and copy that reads: "Good luck this season. Judge Jane Doe". The judge is not a candidate for election to a judicial office at the time.
- 8) True or False
A Judge may serve as a deacon in his/her church, including service on the finance committee and have his/her name listed on the church letterhead as a deacon. The request to sever came from the pastor.
- 9) True or False
A judge may serve as a waitress/waiter at an American Cancer Society fund raising dinner. Local officials and celebrities wait on tables at the event and those waited upon make donations to the American Cancer Society.

10) True or False

A judge may not serve as honorary chair for a local chapter of the American Cancer Society. Duties of the position include making speeches about the judge's personal bout with cancer and encouraging others to take preventive and screening measures.

11) True or False

A judge may not appear in a video for Crime Stoppers. The scene in which the judge appears shows the judge on the bench, in his/her robe, pronouncing the word "life" as he/she raps a gavel. The video is used as a promotional tool for the organization but does not contain requests for funding.

12) True or False

A judge may donate to and be listed as a sponsor on an invitation for a cocktail party to raise funds to benefit a community concert series, organized by the local arts council.

13) True or False

A judge and his/her spouse may attend a County Bar Association's Law Day dinner free of charge. The Bar Association invited the judiciary to attend as honored guests.