SPEAKERS

Phil Dixon Jr., Teaching Assistant Professor; Director, Public Defense Education

Phil Dixon primarily works with public defenders and defense lawyers. He joined the School of Government in 2017. Previously, he worked as a defense lawyer in eastern North Carolina for over eight years. During that time, he represented criminal defendants and juveniles charged with all types of crimes at the trial level. In 2023, he was named director of the School's Public Defense Education group. In collaboration with Indigent Defense Services, he works to provide training and consultation to defenders and other court system actors, as well as to research and write on criminal law and related issues. He earned a bachelor's degree from UNC-Chapel Hill and law degree with highest honors from North Carolina Central University School of Law.

Brittany Bromell, Assistant Professor of Public Law and Government

Brittany Bromell is an expert in criminal law and procedure, with expertise in domestic violence and computer crimes. As a faculty member, Bromell teaches and advises courtroom professionals, including judges, magistrates, prosecutors, defense attorneys, and law enforcement officers. She joined the School of Government in July 2020. Prior to joining the School, she received a bachelor's degree from Duke University and a J.D. from the North Carolina Central University School of Law, summa cum laude, where she served as the notes and comments editor for the North Carolina Central Law Review. Bromell is a member of the North Carolina State Bar.

Daniel Spiegel, Assistant Professor of Public Law and Government

Daniel Spiegel is an assistant professor at the School of Government, specializing in criminal law, procedure, and evidence. He joined the School's courts faculty in January 2024. Spiegel serves as a criminal law expert and teaches and consults with court actors on criminal justice issues, with an emphasis on public defense. Previously, he practiced criminal law in North Carolina for 13 years, serving as an assistant public defender in
