Hearing Deadlines in Cases of Delinquent or Undisciplined Juveniles G.S. Chapter 7B, Subchapter II

	First appearance in all	Within 10 days of the	Court may continue to § 7B-1808(a).	felony cases	filing of the petition.	time certain unless ş / D 1000(a).	leiony eases	ining of the petition.	juvenile is in secure or nonsecure custody.
§ 7B-1808(b).	Probable cause hearing in	Within 15 days of the first	Court may continue the
§ 7B-2202(a).	felony cases for juvenile	appearance.	hearing for good cause.
	age 13, 14, or 15.
§ 7B-1906(a).	First hearing on need for	Within 5 calendar days	Cannot be continued or continued secure custody.	after juvenile placed in	waived.
		custody.
	or
		Day of next scheduled
	If custody order entered by	session of district court in someone with delegated	city or county where the authority, not a judge.	order was entered, or within 5 calendar days, whichever is earlier.
§ 7B-1906(a).	First hearing on need for	Within 7 calendar days	Cannot be continued or
	continued nonsecure	after juvenile placed in	waived.
	custody.	custody.
	or	Day of next scheduled session of district court in
	If custody order entered by	city or county where the someone with delegated	order was entered, or authority, not a judge.	within 7 calendar days,
		whichever is earlier.
§ 7B-1906(b).	Second and subsequent	Within 10 calendar days	May be waived only hearings on need for	of first hearing, then at	with consent of the continued secure custody.	intervals of no more than	juvenile, through 10 calendar days, as long	counsel for the
		as juvenile remains in	juvenile.
$ 7D 100(4)	Cocord and subscreent	custody.	If invenile allog - 1 + - 1
§ 7B-1906(b).	Second and subsequent	Within 7 business days of	If juvenile alleged to be hearings on need for	first hearing, then at	delinquent, may be continued nonsecure	intervals of no more than	waived only with custody.	30 calendar days.	consent of the juvenile, through counsel for the 87D 1002(a)	Doct adjudication bearing	At intervals of no man	juvenile.
§ 7B-1903(c).	Post-adjudication hearings on need for continued	At intervals of no more	May be waived only with consent of the than 10 calendar days, as secure custody pending	long as juvenile remains	juvenile, but for no more than 30 calendar disposition or out-of-home	in custody.
	placement.		days.

§ 7B-2403. § 7B-2406.	Adjudication hearing.	Within a "reasonable time."	May be continued for good cause; otherwise, court may continue only in extraordinary circumstances when necessary for proper administration of justice.
§ 7B-2510(c).	Extension of probation hearings that occur after the initial probation term has expired.	At the next regularly scheduled court date; or at the court's discretion, if the juvenile fails to appear.
§ 7B-2515.	Extension of juvenile's commitment beyond 18 th birthday or maximum commitment period (if requested by the juvenile or the juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian).	Before the juvenile's 18th birthday or completion of the maximum period of commitment.

Hearing Deadlines in Proceedings under the Interstate Compact for Juveniles G.S. Chapter 7B, Article 40 and ICJ Rules

ICJ Rule 6-103	Requisition hearing for the non-voluntary return of an out-of-state runaway or accused status offender.	Within 30 calendar days of receipt of Form I – Requisition for Runaway Juvenile.	Court may continue hearing with approval of both ICJ offices (home state and holding state).
ICJ Rule 6-103A	Requisition hearing for the non-voluntary return of an out-of-state escapee, absconder, or accused delinquent juvenile.	Within 30 calendar days of receipt of Form II – Requisition for Escapee, Absconder, or Accused Delinquent Juvenile.	Court may continue hearing with approval of both ICJ offices (home state and holding state).
ICJ Rule 7-105	Hearing on the need for continued secure custody when the home state has failed to return the juvenile within the time required by this Rule (i.e., 5 business days after receipt of the order granting the requisition, unless extended with consent of both ICJ offices).	Within 10 business days after the failure of the home state to return the juvenile within the time required by the ICJ Rules.	