

2025 Juvenile Defender Conference

Wednesday, August 20, 2025

8:50 - 9:00	Welcome Timothy Heinle, Albert and Gladys Coates Term Professor UNC School of Government, Chapel Hill, NC
9:00 - 10:00	Uncomfortable Situations for Juvenile Defenders Samantha Baker, Public Defender, Guilford County, NC Terri Johnson, Asst. Juv. Defender, N.C. Office of the Juvenile Defender
10:00 - 10:10	Break
10:10 - 11:10	Artificial Intelligence and Juvenile Defense [Technology CLE] Timothy Heinle, Albert and Gladys Coates Term Professor Kristi Nickodem, Assistant Professor of Public Law & Government UNC School of Government, Chapel Hill, NC
11:10 - 11:20	Break
11:20 - 12:20	Strategies for Defending Higher-Level and More Complex Cases Dustin Pittman, Attorney, Pittman Agner, Goldsboro, NC
12:20 - 1:05	Lunch
1:05 - 2:05	Capacity: Scientific, Legal, and Practical Considerations Jacqui Greene, Assoc. Prof. of Public Law & Gov't, UNC School of Gov't Burcu Hensley, Public Defender, Wake County, NC Maureen Reardon, PhD, ABPP, Forensic Psychologist, Raleigh, NC
2:05 - 2:15	Break
2:15 - 3:45	What's New in NC Delinquency Law: Juvenile Remediation, Legislation, and Case Law Jacqui Greene, Associate Professor of Public Law & Government UNC School of Government, Chapel Hill, NC

This program offers 5.5 hours of CLE credit, including 1.0-hour Technology, pending Bar approval.