

Criminal Domestic Violence Issues: Pretrial Release

SELF-TEST

1. TRUE or FALSE: The 48-hour rule means that a person must be held 48 hours after arrest.
2. When does the clock start for the 48-hour rule?
3. Is a Thompson dismissal with prejudice or without prejudice?
4. Is a violation of pretrial release conditions for a DV offense subject to the 48-hour rule?
5. Is a charge of “interfering with emergency communication” (G.S. 14-286.2) subject to the 48-hour rule?

Criminal Domestic Violence Issues: Pretrial Release

SELF-TEST

1. TRUE or FALSE: The 48-hour rule means that a person must be held 48 hours after arrest.
2. When does the clock start for the 48-hour rule?
3. Is a Thompson dismissal with prejudice or without prejudice?
4. Is a violation of pretrial release conditions for a DV offense subject to the 48-hour rule?
5. Is a charge of “interfering with emergency communication” (G.S. 14-286.2) subject to the 48-hour rule?