

2022 Juvenile Defender Conference

Friday, August 19, 2022

8:50 to 9:00	Welcome Timothy Heinle, Civil Defender Educator UNC School of Government, Chapel Hill, NC
9:00 to 10:00	Depressed...Angry...Delinquent? Mental Health and School-Based Charges Jacqui Greene, Assistant Professor of Public Law and Government UNC School of Government, Chapel Hill, NC
10:00 to 11:00	Why Can't I Just Go Home? Placements, Denials, and Alternatives Burcu Hensley, Assistant Juvenile Defender North Carolina Office of the Juvenile Defender, Raleigh, NC
11:00 to 11:15	Break
11:15 to 12:15	At-Risk Youth and Human Trafficking Christine Long, Executive Director North Carolina Human Trafficking Commission, Raleigh, NC
12:15 to 1:15	Lunch (provided)
1:15 to 2:15	Communicating with Clients Aleta Ballard, Partner Ballard Law Firm, Smithfield, NC
2:15 to 3:15	The Injustices of Imposing Lifetime Imprisonment on Children Eric Alexander, Senior Advocate Donnell Drinks, Leadership Development & Engagement Coordinator The Campaign for the Fair Sentencing of Youth, Nashville, TN
3:15 to 3:30	Break
3:30 to 4:30	New Frontiers in Working with Parents [Ethics] Barbara Fedders, Associate Professor & Director, Youth Justice Clinic University of North Carolina Law School, Chapel Hill, NC

This program offers an estimated 6 hours of CLE credit, including 1 hour of Ethics credit, pending Bar approval.