Bond Issues with YO's...

and any custody release.

- Youthful Offenders (YO): the defendant may have a $1000 bond. When he/she appears for First Appearance, many times we've seen this type of wording: "Release Only to Father, or parent."
  - We need an actual name. Many times a brother, sister, or friend comes to pick up the YO.
  - Also, with the scenario above, and since the bond is not addressed on the back of the blue sheet, the parents feel there's no need to pay a bond, just sign for the YO.
     (MCSO would require the $1000 bond be paid and release only to the specified parent.)
  - Readdressing the co-sign issue. (Many times parents leave a YO in jail and simply will not sign for the YO in order the teach a lesson, and are simply fed up with the actions. Just please be aware of this once the next court date arrives, or a jailer brings it to your attention.

POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Chapter:BSection:.0100Title:Sentence ReductionCreditsIssue Date:10/05/07Supersedes:08/01/07

.0109 SCOPE

This section establishes the rules and methods for computing sentence reduction credits in the form of Good Time for satisfactory behavior, Gain and Earned Time for participation in work or program assignments, and Meritorious Time for exemplary acts or for working under emergency conditions, and working overtime or for program achievement. These rules apply to offenders sentenced to the custody of the Department of Correction for confinement in its facilities and sentenced jail prisoners. This policy does not establish procedures for parole eligibility.

.0110 DEFINITIONS

The following definitions apply whenever these terms are used in this Chapter:

(a) Good Time – Good time is sentence reduction credit awarded, at the rate of one day deducted for each day served in custody for good behavior and/or without an infraction of inmate conduct rules, to eligible inmates sentenced for crimes committed prior to October 1, 1994. Inmates convicted of Driving While Impaired, regardless of offense date, will be eligible for good time on that sentence only. For inmates sentenced under the Fair Sentencing Act, Good Time reduces the time required to be served for unconditional release from prison.
