CONSENT ORDER FOR CONTINUANCE AND FOR PSYCHOLOGICAL
EVALUATION

THIS CAUSE coming on to be heard and being heard before the Honorable JUDGE of the XXXX Judicial District, XXXXX County, North Carolina, on a return hearing for the plaintiff's ex parte domestic violence restraining order. The plaintiff, XXXX, ("Plaintiff") was present in Court and was represented by his attorney, XXXXXX and The defendant, XXXXX, ("Defendant") was present in Court and was represented by her attorney, XXXXXX. The parties, through their respective attorneys, voluntarily consent to the entry of this Order as evidenced by their attached signatures.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Plaintiff and Defendant are both citizens and residents of COUNTY County, North Carolina with the Defendant also being a citizen of Lithuania.
2. There is a current Domestic Violence Protection Order of March 3, 20cc.
3. The Plaintiff and Defendant are the natural parents of the minor children.
4. The Plaintiff has requested that the Court appoint an expert to perform a psychological evaluation of the parties pursuant to Rule 35(a) of the North Carolina Rules of Civil procedure and N.C.G.S. 8C, Rule 706.
5. Good cause exists for this Court to appoint a licensed practicing psychologist to perform a psychological and psychiatric evaluation of the parties.

6. Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to bear their own costs for their individual evaluations.

7. Both parties shall fully cooperate with the psychologist, his/her agents and/or any recommendations that the psychologist may have for a psychiatric evaluation or follow up recommendations from the psychologist.

8. The Court will benefit from this expert testimony.

9. The psychological evaluations for each party shall be kept under seal and shall only be viewed by the parties' attorneys and the presiding judge in this case.

10. The parties waive further findings of fact.

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, this Court makes the following:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this action.

2. The terms of this Order are fair and reasonable.

3. The parties are able to comply with the terms of this Order.

4. The parties waive further conclusions of law.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that:

1. It is in the best interest of the minor children that each party shall submit to a psychological evaluation;

2. The psychological and psychiatric evaluation shall be performed by Dr. Gooddoctor, his/her agents and any psychiatrist acting in conjunction with Dr. Gooddoctor;

3. Each party will bear the cost of their individual evaluation;

4. The evaluator(s) shall answer the following questions:

(a) What is the mental and physical condition of Plaintiff and Defendant;

(b) Whether either party has any untreated mental illness that affects his or her parenting abilities and his or her ability to care for and/or have custody of the minor children;

- (c) Whether either party poses any danger to the children or other party;
- (d) Whether either party needs any medication and how the medication will affect his or her ability to parent; and
- (e) Such other matters as are appropriate for consideration regarding the welfare of the minor children.

5. The return hearing that was originally scheduled shall be continued until after both parties have obtained their psychological evaluations.

6. Upon receipt of both parties' psychological evaluations, Plaintiff's counsel and Defendant's counsel shall reschedule the court date for the return hearing on Plaintiff's ex parte domestic violence protection order.

This the _____ day of March, 2010, nunc pro tunc the 12th day of March, 2010.
