Communication

Consequences

Other Considerations

Trauma is the lasting emotional response that often results from living through a distressing event.

Experiencing a traumatic event can harm a person's sense of safety, sense of self, and ability to regulate emotions and navigate relationships.

Judges who are trauma-informed expect the presence of trauma, take care not replicate it and understand that trauma may affect participant's feelings, behavior and overall success.

Communication

Introduce and Explain

Introduce yourself and greet parties

Explain the purpose of the hearing

Explain the roles of the parties

Discuss what to do if breaks are needed

Avoid Legal jargon

Be Respectful and Courteous

Demonstrate Active Listening

- Establish eye contact and be attentive
- Ask clarifying questions
- Eliminate distractions

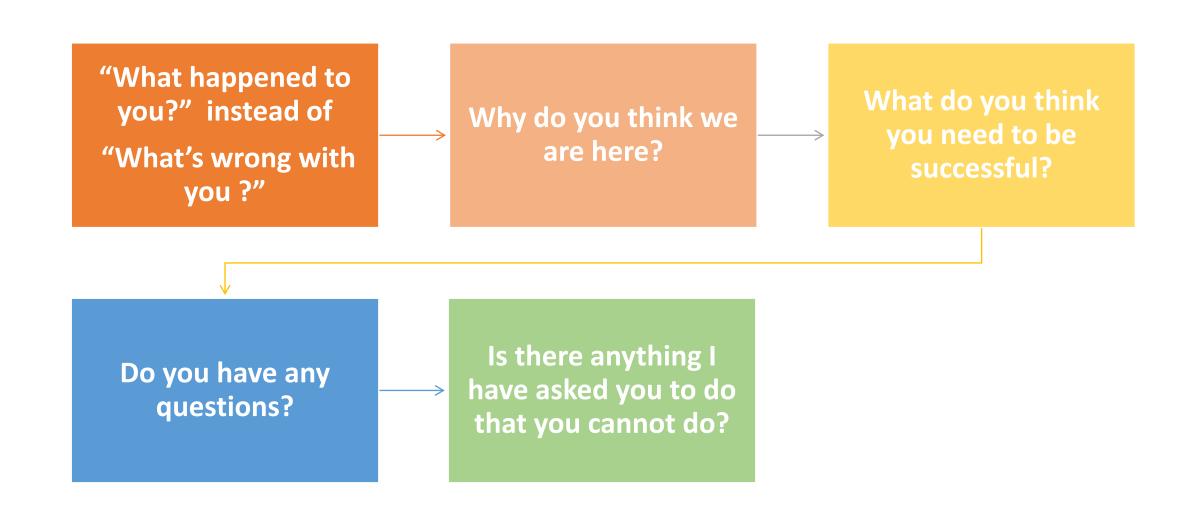

Be Mindful of Names

- Say names of parties ("Mr. Doe" instead of "Father"; "Tommy" instead of "juvenile")
- Use the name(s) the parties prefer

Affirm the Dignity of Parties

- Refrain from chastising participants for being late, dress, etc.
- Be mindful of barriers, triggers and shame

Ask Thoughtful Questions

COURTROOM COMMUNICATION

JUDGE'S COMMENT	PERCEPTION OF TRAUMA SURVIVOR	TRAUMA-INFORMED APPROACH
"Your drug screen is dirty."	"I'm dirty. There is something wrong with me."	"Your drug screen shows the presence of drugs."
"Did you take your pills today?"	"I'm a failure. I'm a bad person. No one cares how the drugs make me feel."	"Are the medications your doctor prescribed working well for you?"
"You didn't follow the contract, you're going to jail; we're done with you. There is nothing more we can do."	"I'm hopeless. Why should I care how I behave in jail? They expect trouble anyway."	"Maybe what we've been doing isn't the best way for us to support you. I'm going to ask you not to give up on recovery. We're not going to give up on you."
"I'm sending you for a mental health evaluation."	"I must be crazy. There is something wrong with me that can't be fixed."	"I'd like to refer you to a doctor who can help us better understand how to support you."

Be Positive

Encourage

- Lead with participant's strengths and close with positive comments
- Acknowledge milestones and celebrate progress and accomplishments

Cultivate Care, Concern, and Connection

Courtroom Policies & Procedures

Courtroom Management

PRE-HEARING CHAMBERS CONFERENCE

FOR UPDATES ABOUT ANY RECENT TRAUMA (ILLNESS/ DEATH, MENTAL HEALTH CRISIS, NEWLY DISCOVERED HARM/ABUSE) GIVE BREAKS AS NEEDED

(FOR PARTIES, LAWYERS, CLERKS, AND DEPUTIES)

TAKE A "BEAT"

WHEN WITNESSES PRESENT AS SAD, ANGRY, SCARED

EMOTIONS ARE ALLOWED BUT RESPECT
CANNOT BE COMPROMISED

CONSIDER GOING WITHOUT A ROBE (E.G., MENTAL HEALTH COURT, WITH KIDS IN DSS CASES, ON ZOOM)

Docket Management

- Avoid cattle calls (everyone comes at 9:00 am and stays all day waiting for their case)
- Handle "quickest" cases first to prevent waiting
- Schedule specific times for more involved cases
- Staggered/grouped dockets—being thoughtful about
 - School schedules
 - Employment schedules
 - Other conflicts
- Consider adding a scheduling conference each Friday to get necessary info to manage docket (instead of asking parties to wait while you schedule future cases)

Testimony

Give

• Give attorneys use of courtroom to prepare with witnesses

Ask

• Ask juveniles to testify in chambers where appropriate (no robe)

Permit

Permit service animal or adult for child testimony; Use Remote Technology

Bifurcate

• Bifurcate hearings in some instances (e.g., DV: victim/batterer)

Reminders & Questions

Remind

Remind parties about respect and the confidentiality and/or sensitivity of proceedings

Remind

 Remind parties that we are all accountable (this includes judges, attorneys, and service providers)

Ask about

Ask about support systems/"village" and allow supports to attend hearings if needed

Use of assessments

ASSUME trauma

Order assessments as a default (nearly always)

Order at least a comprehensive clinical assessment (CCA) in every juvenile case that is adjudicated (pre-adjudication to minimize # appearances)

Order
assessments first, then treatments (once recommended by a doctor)

Resources

Use of Community Resources

- Programs
- Transportation
- System of care coordinators
- Be involved in Juvenile Crime Prevention Council—statutorily required in each county
- Help build resource network in your role as judge
- Be engaged in the community

Resources not available?

- Remember—Resources do not always need to come from "systems"
- What would we encourage our friends to do if they were not court-involved?

Consequences

Consequences/Sentencing

Consequences are:

- tailored to the specific facts
- imposed thoughtfully
- geared toward addressing underlying behavior
- doable for the participants (e.g., transport, time off work, etc.)

Judge always:

- considers less restrictive measures
- balances needs of juvenile with needs of community

Judge explains the consequences clearly

- Facts and law that led to the ruling
- Be sure everyone understandings the information/thinking that went into an order
- Connect consequences to real life (e.g., curfew)

Creating an Order

1

Ask for recommendations from both attorneys and from court counselors, as well as social workers, mental health providers, and other professionals 2

Be clear and direct about consequences and which behaviors will lead to certain consequences

3

Explain why you are imposing a consequence/sentence

Creativity, Positivity

Build creative orders

- Request book report/oral report
- Extra therapy sessions as "sanction" instead of detention
- Be sensitive to language barriers

Stay positive

- Encourage/affirm even if detention is necessary
- Provide parties ways to move forward following a sanction or set back

Juvenile-Specific Considerations

Secured custody reserved for juveniles whose actions show they pose a danger to the community

Pre-adjudication: In most cases, placement of juvenile with appropriate guardian, along with curfew and/or e-monitoring is sufficient

Remind DJJ to use parenting and community sanctions prior to request for detention

Remind Youth & Family Services Team to redirect parents instead of ceasing Family Time/Visits

Follow-ups so social workers/court counselors can make sure parents understood what the judge said

Suggested Alternative Approaches

Instead of: ordering drug testing as a matter of course

Try: ordering drug testing only if underlying offense involves drugs

Instead of: cookie cutter orders

Try: thinking about what would serve this particular person and best get to root of the issue

Instead of: defaulting to community service

Try: thinking outside the box (e.g., written essays)

Instead of: assuming the tasks included in an order can be done

Try: asking participants: "Is there anything you can't do?" (transportation, job requirements may be barriers)

Other Considerations

Remember . . . A B C

Acknowledge Trauma

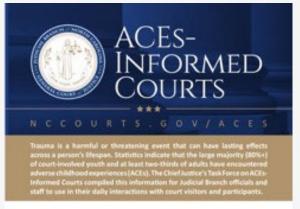

- Assume from the outset that trauma is involved
- Attend trauma trainings
- Refer to the bench card

Be Positive (Be a Hope Dealer!)

- Acknowledge milestones
- Encourage families to never give up, to dream

Cultivate and Communicate Care

- Celebrate: birthdays, graduations, reunifications, adoptions, probation terminations
- Ask What can we do better?
- Court room design and interior (Books, Art, Plants)

Attending court can be scary, especially for children. Those who have experienced trauma may act out. When possible, responding to hostility with partience and calm can help de-escalate situations.

Understand the signs and symptoms of trauma and how it impacts decisionmaking. Ask questions to learn more, and try to reframe thinking as "what happened to you?" rather than "what is wrong with you?"

The better those suffering from trauma understand what is happening to them and why, the more likely they are to comply and achieve intended outcomes. Explain court procedures and decisions; where appropriate, ask questions to involve those appearing before you ("what do you think brought you to this point?").

Be intentional in how you arrange and run your courtroom. The environment significantly impacts experiences and participation. There is flexibility to maximize safety and build trust, and you are encouraged to take the initiative to make positive changes (e.g., seat victims away from abusers, minimize loud notices).

One consistent and positive adult in the lives of children significantly buffers the impact of trauma and helps children thrive. Be intentional: help build positive relationships and experiences.

Trauma can be masked as another disorder (conduct disorder, bipolar disorder, ADHD). Order trauma assessments in combination with treatments so that the reatment plan can be tailored to what the assessment indicates. People are resilient and can heal from trauma if given the opportunity.

Self-Care Tips

Inside the Courtroom

- Relax the formality of what we do
- Encourage attorneys to support each other
- Promote collaboration between attorneys
- Promote positive work environment
- Remind lawyers/professionals about their own self-care (We cannot adequately serve if we are not mindful of our own needs)

Self-Care Tips

Outside the courtroom

- Strive for balance
- Connect with friends and family
- Exercise
- Read
- iChill app
- Informal check-ins with colleagues
- Seek help/counseling if you need it

Self-Care Tips

In the moment

 Personal time for prayer, breathing, or quiet time during lunch breaks

• Take 10 minutes to do something that affirms humanity (reading, walking, crossword puzzle)

- Remember your WHY during tough cases
- Recognize the signs of activation ("triggers")

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

- HOMEWORK:
 - READ THE BODY KEEPS SCORE BY BESSEL VAN DER KOLK
 - READ WHAT HAPPENED TO YOU BY BRUCE PERRY AND OPRAH WINFREY
 - PARTICIPATE IN MOTIVATIONAL INTERVIEWING TRAINING
 IF YOU HAVE A CHANCE
 - CHECK OUT THE ICHILL APP
