

Redistricting for Local Governments After the 2020 Census
January 21, 2021
Via Zoom

10:00	Basics of Local Government Redistricting Robert Joyce, UNC School of Government The redistricting obligation, redistricting authority, and redistricting procedures	30 min.
10:30	The Census and Demographics—Part One Rebecca Tippett, Director of Carolina Demography, Carolina Population Center, UNC Blake Esselstyn, Principal, Mapfigure Consulting, Asheville Demographics, census changes and developments, creation of districts from census data	30 min.
11:00	Break
11:15	The Census and Demographics—Part Two	45 min.
Noon	Lunch break
12:45	The Law of Redistricting Anita Earls, Justice, North Carolina Supreme Court Caroline Mackie, Poyner Spruill, Raleigh Marshall Hurley, Greensboro One person one vote, continuing Voting Rights Act concerns, partisan gerrymandering, relevant populations, and the integration of local values into lawful districts	75 min.
2:00	Break
2:15	The Mechanics of Redistricting Adam Mitchell, Tharrington Smith, Raleigh Blake Esselstyn Gary Sims, Director of Elections, Wake County Procedural requirements, open meetings and public records, using technology, managing the process, maintaining public confidence, and coordinating with elections officials	60 min.
3:15	Adjourn Applied for 4 hrs. General CLE credit	