

ORGANIZATIONAL OVERVIEW

The Rockingham County Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) is the County government's principal agency for protecting the health of all citizens and providing essential human services, especially for those who are least able to help themselves. Rockingham County HHS is responsible for managing programs that cover a vast spectrum of activities that impact public health and human services outcomes for citizens of all ages and socio-economic backgrounds.

CURRENT STRUCTURE

The organizational chart below represents a high-level view into the Health and Human Services Agency as structured entering into the consolidation. The current organizational structure is of a silo model which consists of an organizational structure for Social Services and an organizational structure for Public Health Services.

