

PERMITTING UNLICENSED MINOR TO DRIVE. G.S. 20-32.<sup>1</sup>

The motor vehicle law provides that it is unlawful for any person to cause or knowingly permit any minor under the age of eighteen years to operate a motor vehicle upon a [highway] [street], unless the minor has an operator's license.

A violation of this law is negligence within itself.

However, a finding of such negligence does not alone establish a causal connection between it and [the collision] [(describe other occurrence)]. Such negligence would not be a proximate cause if the operation of the vehicle was otherwise in accordance with the duties imposed by law.<sup>2</sup>
