

N.C.P.I.—Crim—101.25
DUTY TO ABIDE BY TRANSLATION PROVIDED IN COURT.
CRIMINAL VOLUME
JUNE 2013

101.25 DUTY TO ABIDE BY TRANSLATION PROVIDED IN COURT.

NOTE WELL: The following instruction should be given whenever testimony will be received in court with the assistance of an interpreter.

Some testimony may be given in _____ (insert name or description of language other than English). An interpreter will provide a translation for you at the time that the testimony is given. You must rely on the translation provided by the interpreter. Do not retranslate any testimony for other jurors. If you believe that the court interpreter translated testimony incorrectly, it is your duty to immediately notify the bailiff or the court.

