

JUDICIAL NOTICE OF ADJUDICATIVE FACT.
G.S. 8C-1, Rule 201(b); (g).

There has been judicial notice of certain facts. A judicially noticed fact is one not subject to reasonable dispute in that it is [generally known within the territorial jurisdiction of this court] [capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned]. You may, therefore, accept a judicially noticed fact as conclusive but you are not required to do so. You should give it such weight as you decide it should receive in connection with all of the other evidence presented.
