

RELIGIOUS BELIEFS OR OPINIONS. G.S. 8C-1, Rule 610.

When evidence has been received with regard to a witness' religious beliefs or opinions, you must not consider that by reason of such evidence that witness' credibility is impaired or enhanced. You may, however, consider such evidence for the purpose of showing [interest] [bias] and therefore what weight you wish to accord that witness' testimony.

