

DESTROYING OR DAMAGING COIN- OR CURRENCY-OPERATED MACHINES.
MISDEMEANOR. G.S. 14-56.2.

The defendant has been charged with willfully and maliciously [destroying] [damaging] a [coin] [currency] -operated machine.¹

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove two things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant [damaged] [destroyed] a [coin] [currency] -operated machine.¹ (Describe machine) is a [coin] [currency] -operated machine.

And Second, that the defendant did this willfully and maliciously, that is, intentionally and without justification or excuse.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date, the defendant [damaged] [destroyed] a [coin] [currency] -operated machine and that he did so willfully and maliciously, it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.

¹G.S. 14-56.1 defines "coin- or currency-operated machine" as any coin- or currency-operated vending machine, pay telephone, telephone coin or currency receptacle, or other coin- or currency-activated machine or device. This definition is incorporated by reference to G.S. 14-56.2.
