DISTURBING HUMAN REMAINS—PHYSICAL ALTERATION OR MANIPULATION.
FELONY.

The defendant has been charged with [disturbing] [vandalizing] [desecrating] human remains¹ by [physical alteration] [manipulation].

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove two things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant [disturbed] [vandalized] [desecrated] human remains by [physical alteration] [manipulation] [(describe other means)] of the human remains;

And Second, that the defendant acted willfully.

¹ G.S. 14-401.22 (f) defines "human remains" as "any dead human body in any condition of decay or any significant part of a dead human body, including any limb, organ, or bone."

G.S. 14-401.22 (c)

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date the defendant willfully [disturbed] [vandalized] [desecrated] human remains by [physical alteration] [manipulation] [describe other means] of the human remains, it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, then it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.
