259.95 ILLEGAL OPERATION OF AMUSEMENT DEVICES CAUSING [DEATH] [SERIOUS INJURY]. FELONY.

NOTE WELL: A person who willfully violates any provision of Article 14B of Chapter 95 of the General Statutes, which includes the illegal operation of an amusement device, and the violation causes serious injury to or death of any person is guilty of a Class E felony, which must include a fine. See N.C. Gen. Stat § 95-113.13(j).

The defendant has been charged with the illegal operation of an amusement device<sup>1</sup> causing [the death of] [serious injury to] a person.

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove two things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant

- a. [operated (an) amusement device(s) without certificate of operation];
- b. [operated (an) amusement device(s) after [defendant was refused a certificate of operation] [a certificate of operation was revoked];
- c. [knowingly permitted the operation of (an) amusement device(s) in violation of operator requirements pursuant to the Amusement Device Safety Act of North Carolina]<sup>2</sup>;
- d. [operated (an) [unsafe amusement device<sup>3</sup>] [amusement device(s) while impaired]].

And Second, that the defendant's operation of (an) amusement device(s) caused [the death of] [serious injury to] a person.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date the defendant [operated (an) amusement

The defendant has been charged with [counterfeiting] [selling] [lending] [permitting use of] photo identification for voting.

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove three things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that defendant [counterfeited] [sold] [lent] [permitted the use of] a form of photo identification<sup>1</sup>.

Second, that the person receiving this photo identification was not entitled to its use.

And Third, that defendant [counterfeited] [sold] [lent] [permitted the use of] this photo identification for the purposes of voting.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date the defendant [counterfeited] [sold] [lent] [permitted the use of] a form of photo identification, to a person not entitled to the use of the photo identification, and that the defendant [counterfeited] [sold] [lent] [permitted the use of] this photo identification for the purposes of voting, it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find, or if you have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.
