General Criminal Volume

Replacement June 2011

The defendant has been charged with [giving] [lending] [selling] [obtaining] a certificate of title for a vehicle for the purpose of using the certificate of title for any purpose other than the [[registration] [sale] of a vehicle] [use in connection with the vehicle for which the certificate was issued].

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove the following beyond a reasonable doubt:

That the defendant [gave] [lent] [sold] [obtained] a certificate of title for a vehicle for the purpose of using the certificate of title for any purpose other than the [[registration] [sale] of a vehicle] [use in connection with the vehicle for which the certificate was issued].

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date, the defendant [gave] [lent] [sold] [obtained] a certificate of title for a vehicle for the purpose of using the certificate of title for any purpose other than the [[registration] [sale] of a vehicle] [use in connection with the vehicle for which the certificate was issued], it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.
