

272.80 KNOWINGLY MAKING A FALSE STATEMENT IN AN APPLICATION FOR REISSUANCE OF A SPECIAL OCCASION PERMIT. MISDEMEANOR.

The defendant has been charged with knowingly making a false statement in an application for a permit reissuance.

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove two things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant made a false statement in an application for a permit reissuance.

And Second, that the defendant did so knowingly.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date, the defendant made a false statement in an application for a permit reissuance, and that the defendant did so knowingly, it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.
