Finance Calendar of Duties

for City and County Officials

FINANCE CALENDAR OF DUTIES

By state statute, Chapter 103, Section 4 of the North Carolina General Statutes (hereinafter G.S.), eighteen days are “legal public holidays” in North Carolina. Each such holiday is indicated in the sidebar found on this page on its proper date (with the exception of Election Day, which occurs on Tuesday after the first Monday in November in years in which a general election is to be held). However, the law does not require state or local governmental offices to close on these days. Each year the State Personnel Office promulgates a list of holidays to be observed by state offices. This list customarily omits nine or ten of the eighteen statutory holidays (Robert E. Lee’s Birthday, Greek Independence Day, Halifax Resolves Day, Confederate Memorial Day, Mecklenburg Declaration Day, Washington’s Birthday, Columbus Day, Yom Kippur, and sometimes Veterans’ Day) and adds one day at Thanksgiving and two or three days at Christmas. Insofar as information could be obtained, the calendar shows whether state offices are open or closed on each statutory holiday. Holiday schedules observed by county and city governments across the state vary considerably. No effort has been made to indicate holidays commonly observed by local governments.

Weekend closing policies also vary widely throughout North Carolina. All state offices are closed all day Saturday and Sunday. All local governments observe Sunday, but some are open on Saturday mornings, and a very few are open all day on Saturday.

This state of affairs makes it difficult to apply the provisions of G.S. 103-5, which permit transfer to the next business day of duties that are to be performed on dates that fall on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. In this calendar, duties that fall on a Sunday have been transferred to the next following business day and the transfer noted in the footnotes. Duties that fall on a Saturday have not been transferred. Calendar entries noting legal consequences that attach to a state of affairs as of a given date, as opposed to duties to be performed by some official, are never transferred.

In using this calendar, county and city officials are cautioned to take into account the Saturday closing and holiday schedules they actually observe, as these may differ in several instances from the schedule assumed in the calendar. In case of doubt, refer to the statutory reference given for each calendar entry, to G.S. 103-5, and to the local holiday schedule.
