Mission

The mission of the School of Government is to improve the lives of North Carolinians by engaging in practical scholarship that helps public officials and citizens understand and improve state and local government.

Values

Consistent values for more than 75 years have built a legacy of trust with North Carolina's public officials:

- Nonpartisan
- Policy-neutral
- Responsive

How We Serve North Carolina

As the largest university-based local government training, advisory, and research organization in the United States, the School of Government offers up to 200 courses, seminars, and specialized conferences for more than 12,000 public officials each year.

In addition, faculty members annually publish approximately 50 books, periodicals, and other reference works related to state and local government. Each day that the General Assembly is in session, the School produces the Daily Bulletin, which reports on the day's activities for members of the legislature and others who need to follow the course of legislation.

History

Established in 1931 as the Institute of Government, the School provides educational, advisory, and research services for state and local governments. The School of Government is also home to specialized centers focused on information technology, environmental finance, and civic education for youth.

On the Civil Side

A UNC School of Government Blog

We are creating this blog – “On The Civil Side” – in direct response to the popularity of The Criminal Law Blog, administered by our colleague Jeff Welty. Our contributors believe civil cases can be just as interesting and exciting as criminal proceedings and we are going to use this forum to prove it. We will write about issues of interest to court personnel and lawyers working in a variety of civil court proceedings, including general civil district and superior court, domestic relations matters, juvenile cases, small claims court, and hearings before clerks. We hope readers will contribute to the discussion by using the comment feature or by emailing the author directly.

There are three ways to follow this blog. First, you can regularly check this site. You can expect two posts a week—one on Wednesday and one on Friday. Second, you can use an RSS feed, which automatically sends new posts to an RSS reader. Third, you can subscribe by email, which will result in new posts magically arriving in your inbox.

We look forward to sharing our thoughts, hearing yours, and revealing the intrigue that lies on the civil side.

2020 Criminal Law Legislation

Posted on Jun. 2, 2020, 7:00 am by John Rubin

Each year the School of Government summarizes legislation enacted by the North Carolina General Assembly affecting criminal law and procedure. If you would like to receive periodic summaries of enacted legislation (as well as summaries of appellate decisions), subscribe at no charge to the School's criminal law listserv here. We also explore selected legislation in more depth on this blog. So far in 2020, one bill has been enacted that affects criminal law and procedure.

S.L. 2020-3 (S 704): COVID-19 measures. This act addresses various matters relating to COVID-19, including the following criminal law provisions, which are effective May 4, 2020 and expire August 1, 2020 unless otherwise noted.

Wearing mask for health purpose. New G.S. 14-12.11(a)(6) creates an exception to G.S. 14-12.7, 14-12.8, 14-12.9, 14-12.10, and 14-12.14, which prohibit wearing a mask on public ways, public property, and other settings unless an exception applies. The new provision allows a person to wear a mask "for the purpose of ensuring the physical health or safety of the wearer or others." New G.S. 14-12.11(c) requires the person to remove the mask during a traffic stop, including a checkpoint or roadblock under G.S. 20.16.3A, or when approached by a law-enforcement officer with reasonable suspicion or probable cause during a criminal investigation.

Electronic signatures on search warrants and court orders. Section 4.4 of the act provides that any signature required for the issuance of a search warrant pursuant to Article 11 (Search Warrants) of G.S. Chapter 15A, or for any judicial order issued following a court hearing conducted by remote audio or visual transmission in a civil or criminal case, may be signed by use of an electronic signature.

Extension of credentials issued by the Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV). Section 4.7 of the act extends for five months the validity of any "credential" issued by DMV that expires on or after March 1, 2020 and before August 1, 2020. The act contains a list of 27 credentials, including driver's licenses, commercial driver's licenses, and vehicle registrations, and provides that the extension applies notwithstanding renewal, duration, or expiration provisions in various Ch. 20 statutes or any other provision of law. The act requires DMV to notify individuals affected by an extension, including information on new expiration dates and how the extension affects subsequent renewal and expiration dates. The act provides that a person may not be convicted or found responsible for any offense resulting from the failure to renew a credential issued by DMV if the person shows that the offense occurred during the period of the extension; however, if a credential expires after the extension, the expiration is treated as occurring on the date prescribed by law without regard to the extension.

Security services at state prisons. New G.S. 74C-3(a)(6)e. includes in the definition of security guards providing services subject to G.S. Chapter 74C, Article 1 (Private Protective Services Board) "security services related to entry and exit, direction and movement of individuals at entry and exit, security working towers, and perimeter security patrols at State prison facilities." New G.S. 148-5.5 requires that these security guards receive training on State prison policies, including policies on the use of force, before providing security services at a State prison; and it authorizes personnel who receive such training “to detain and use necessary force pursuant to State prison policies to prevent contraband entry or inmate escape.”

Release of communicable disease information to law enforcement. Effective May 4, 2020, revised G.S. 130A-143(7a) allows the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) and local health departments to release otherwise confidential information subject to G.S. Chapter 130A, Article 6 (Communicable Diseases) “to prevent or lessen a serious or imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public, to the extent that disclosure is permitted under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.512(j).”

Extension of training and certification of law enforcement officers by Forensic Tests for Alcohol Branch of DHHS. Effective March 10, 2020 and expiring January 1, 2021, Section 4.39 of the act authorizes the Forensic Tests for Alcohol Branch to delay or modify educational or examination requirements for recertification of law enforcement officers and, for any certification issued before March 10, 2020, to extend that certification until December 31, 2020 if education or examination requirements are delayed.

Modification of sentence of imprisonment in local jail. Section 4.41 of the act, entitled “Authorize Modification of Criminal Judgments Requiring Intermittent Active Time,” allows the chief district court judge where the judgment was entered to modify any criminal judgment requirement that a defendant serve periods of confinement or imprisonment in a local confinement facility if the chief judge finds all of the following: “(1)The defendant is unable to serve one or more ordered periods of confinement or imprisonment due to the local confinement facility’s restrictions on inmates during the COVID-19 state of emergency. (2) Without modification, the defendant will be in violation of the criminal judgment. (3) The District Attorney consents to modification of the criminal judgment.” The act states that any modification should be as minimal as possible to allow the defendant to comply with the requirements of the criminal judgment.

2020 Motor Vehicle Legislation of Interest — To Me and the Kids

Posted on Jul. 13, 2020, 9:22 pm by Shea Denning

It is somewhat rare for one of my children to know more about recently enacted legislation than I do. But it happened a few weeks ago when the General Assembly adopted legislation that allows my sixteen-year-old to get his driver's license without taking a road test. This post will cover that legislation and other recent amendments to the state's motor vehicle laws.

Temporary road test waivers. The North Carolina Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) halted road tests in March 2020 due to COVID-19. That left many 16- and 17-year-olds unable to obtain a Level 2 limited provisional driver's license. To obtain such a license, a driver must, in addition to meeting other requirements, have held a limited driving privilege for a year, log 60 hours of supervised driving, and pass a road test. G.S. 20-11(d). S.L. 2020-30 (H 158) permits teenagers who meet all of the requirements other than passing a road test to obtain a Level 2 limited provisional license. This is a reprieve — not a permanent waiver. To obtain a Level 3 full provisional license (which allows unsupervised driving after 9 p.m.), a Level 2 limited provisional licensee who was granted a road test waiver must first pass a road test.

S.L. 2020-30 became effective June 19, 2020. DMV instructs limited provisional license applicants who qualify for a road test waiver to make an appointment at a DMV license office. And, yes, we have an appointment.

New limited driving privilege. S.L. 2020-77 (S 488) enacts new G.S. 20-24.1(f), effective December 1, 2020, authorizing a new limited driving privilege for a person whose license is revoked under G.S. 20-24.1(a)(2) for failure to pay a fine, penalty or court cost. The privilege may be valid for up to one year or until any fine, penalty or court costs is paid. If the person's license also is revoked for another reason, the person is not eligible for the privilege.

The privilege is granted in the same manner and under the terms and conditions that authorize the granting of a limited driving privilege for a first offense of excessive speeding. See G.S. 20-16.1. Thus, to obtain a G.S. 20-24.1(f) privilege, the person must apply to the trial judge, who may impose any restrictions that he or she deems advisable, including conditions of days, hours, types of vehicle, routes, geographical boundaries, and specific purposes for which the limited driving privilege is allowed.

A person may not apply for a limited privilege under this subsection if the person has held a G.S. 20-24.1(f) limited driving privilege within the previous three years.

Regulation of modified utility vehicles. S.L. 2020-40 (H 307) enacts new G.S. 20-4.01(27), defining a modified utility vehicle as a motor vehicle that

- is manufactured for off-road use;
- has headlamps, stop lamps, turn signal lamps, tail lamps, reflex reflectors, parking brakes, rearview mirrors, windshields, windshield wipers, speedometer, and seat belts;

- has four wheels,
- has an engine displacement greater than 2400 cubic centimeters;
- is at least 142 inches long, at least 58 inches wide, and at least 70 inches tall;
- has a maximum speed of at least 40 miles per hour; and
- does not require an operator or passenger to straddle a seat.

A modified utility vehicle does not include an all-terrain vehicle, golf cart, utility vehicle as defined in G.S. 20-4.01(48c), or a riding lawn mower.

Having trouble picturing this vehicle? So was I. I found this article from Popular Mechanics and the accompanying photographs to be helpful.

S.L. 2020-40 amends G.S. 20-121.1 to authorize the operation of modified utility vehicles on streets or highways where the speed limit is 55 miles per hour or less and to require that modified utility vehicles be registered and insured in accordance with G.S. 20-50 and G.S. 20-309.

The act is effective October 1, 2020.

2019 Legislation Affecting Criminal Law and Procedure

December 2, 2019

Below are summaries of 2019 legislation affecting criminal law and procedure, enacted before the North Carolina General Assembly adjourned on November 15, 2019 (to reconvene on January 14, 2020). To obtain the text of the legislation, click on the link provided below or go to the General Assembly's website, www.ncleg.gov. Be careful to note the effective date of each piece of legislation.

1. S.L. 2019-13 (H 130): Game nights east of I-26. Effective June 1, 2019 and applicable to areas of the state located east of I-26 as that interstate highway was located on November 28, 2011, the act adds a new Part 4, Game Nights, to G.S. Chapter 14, Article 37, Lotteries, Gaming, Bingo and Raffles. The new part, G.S. 14-309.25 through 14-309.37, makes it lawful for a tax-exempt organization, defined in G.S. 14-309.25, to conduct a game night at a qualified facility, defined in G.S. 18B-1000(5a) as a facility that has a permit to serve beer, wine, and mixed beverages. The part details the permits required, limits on events, permissible prizes, types of games (slot machines and like devices remain prohibited under new G.S. 14-309.37), and use of proceeds. If an exempt organization conducts a game night in violation of the new part, the person who applied for the permit is guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor under new G.S. 14-309.26(b). A game night conducted other than in accordance with the provisions of the new part constitutes gambling within the meaning of G.S. 14-292 and G.S. Chapter 19, Article 1, Abatement of Nuisances. The act also allows employers with 25 or more employees to hold game nights for employees, guests, or a trade association with 25 or more members in accordance with the requirements of new G.S. 14-309.34. The new part exempts from the prohibitions on gaming tables and gaming equipment the possession or transportation of such equipment for game nights in compliance with new G.S. 14-309.35 and 14-309.36. G.S. 14-309.35(b) makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor to use a gaming table or gaming equipment not registered with the Alcohol Law Enforcement Branch of the Department of Public Safety. G.S. 14-309.36 prohibits issuance of a permit to a person who has a prior gambling conviction within the previous five years, any pending gambling charges, any active order prohibiting involvement in gambling, and any felony conviction regardless of the nature or date of the offense. The same disqualifiers apply to employment of a person by a game night vendor. The Department of Public Safety must report to the 2020 General Assembly about game night activities and make any recommendations to modify the law.
2. S.L. 2019-33 (H 301): Juvenile Code revisions. Effective October 1, 2019, revised G.S. 7B-101(18a) expands the definition of "responsible individual," a designation that affects a person's ability to adopt, foster, or care for children and obtain employment in the childcare field. The revised definition designates as a responsible individual a person who is responsible for subjecting a juvenile to human trafficking under G.S. 14-43.11, 14-43.12, or 14-43.13. Revised G.S. 7B-324(a1) provides that the court must dismiss a petition for judicial review of placement on the Responsible Individuals List (RIL) if the petitioner has been convicted as a result of the incident that resulted in placement on the RIL. The act also adds G.S. 7B-3100(c), which states that a juvenile's guardian ad litem attorney advocate appointed under G.S. 7B-601 in an abuse and neglect proceeding may share confidential information about the juvenile with the attorney representing the juvenile in a delinquency or undisciplined matter. For further discussion, see Jacquelyn Greene, New Delinquency Laws—It's Not Just Raise the Age, N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (Sep. 24, 2019).

3. S.L. 2019-36 \(H 82\): Railroad signals and crossings. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, the act revises several statutes to require vehicles to follow the stopping rules at railroad crossings and signals for on-track equipment as well as trains. See G.S. 20-4.10(24)(b), 20-142.1(a), 20-142.3(a), (b), 20-142.4(c), 20-142.5.
4. S.L. 2019-40 \(S 151\): Breaking and entering a pharmacy. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, the act enacts G.S. 14-54.2(b) to create a new crime, a Class E felony, for a person to
  1. break or enter
  2. a pharmacy permitted under G.S. 90-85.21
  3. with the intent to commit a larceny
  4. of a controlled substance as defined in G.S. 90-87.5.

Unless the conduct is covered by another provision of law providing for greater punishment, new G.S. 14-54.2(c) makes it a Class F felony for a person

1. who receives or possesses
2. any controlled substance
3. stolen in violation of new G.S. 14-54.2(b)
4. knowing or having reasonable grounds to believe the controlled substance was stolen.

New G.S. 14-54.2 provides that any interest in property obtained in violation of G.S. 14-54.2 is subject to forfeiture under G.S. 90-112.

5. S.L. 2019-41 \(H 617\): Teen court. Effective June 21, 2019, revised G.S. 7B-1706(c) allows a juvenile court counselor to refer a case to a teen court program regardless whether the juvenile previously had been referred to teen court. For further discussion, see Jacquelyn Greene, New Delinquency Laws—It's Not Just Raise the Age, N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (Sep. 24, 2019).
6. S.L. 2019-47 \(H 415\): Photograph of juvenile during show-up. Effective June 26, 2019, revised G.S. 15A-284.52(c1), a part of the Eyewitness Identification Reform Act, requires an investigator to photograph a juvenile suspect who is 10 years of age or older at the time and place of a show-up if the juvenile is reported to have committed a nondivertible offense under G.S. 7B-1701 or common law robbery. G.S. 15A-284.52(c1) has generally required a photograph of a suspect in a show-up but did not specifically state whether the requirement applied to juveniles. Photographs of juveniles in show-ups must be retained or disposed of as required by G.S. 7B-2108, except the law enforcement agency must certify in writing that it has destroyed the photograph if a petition is filed. Such photographs are not public records and may not be examined without a court order except by the juvenile, juvenile's attorney, juvenile's parent or guardian, prosecutor, and court counselors. For further discussion, see Jacquelyn Greene, New Delinquency Laws—It's Not Just Raise the Age, N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (Sep. 24, 2019).

7. S.L. 2019-48 \(S 148\): Release of body cam and dash cam recordings. Effective June 26, 2019, revised G.S. 132-1.4A(h) allows law enforcement agencies to release recordings, including body camera and dashboard camera recordings, for the purpose of suspect identification or apprehension and to locate a missing or abducted person. For a further discussion of the law governing release of recordings, see Jeff Welty, Body Camera Footage May Now Be Released for "Suspect Identification or Apprehension", N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (Aug. 26, 2019).
8. S.L. 2019-62 \(S 262\): Hunting and fishing on private property without permission and hunting while impaired in Union County. Effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2019, and applicable to Union County only, this local act makes it a Class 2 misdemeanor for a person to: hunt or fish on another's property without written permission; or hunt on another's property while under the influence of any impairing substance or with an alcohol concentration of .08 or more.
9. S.L. 2019-70 \(H 934\): Stem cells. Effective for acts committed on or after December 1, 2019, new G.S. 90-325.14 makes it a Class A1 misdemeanor to knowingly offer to buy, offer to sell, acquire, receive, sell, or otherwise transfer any adult stem cells for valuable consideration for use in an investigational adult stem cell treatment.
10. S.L. 2019-77 \(S 529\) Increased processing fee for worthless checks. Effective for checks dated on or after October 1, 2019, revised G.S. 25-3-506 increases from $25 to $35 the maximum processing fee that may be assessed by a person who accepts a check in payment for goods and services when payment on the check is refused by the payor bank because of insufficient funds or because the drawer did not have an account at that bank.
11. S.L. 2019-83 \(H 474\): Death by distribution of certain controlled substances. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, new G.S. 14-18.4 creates two new offenses. A person is guilty of death by distribution of certain controlled substances if the person
  1. unlawfully and without malice
  2. sells

3. at least one certain controlled substance, defined in new G.S. 14-18.4(d) as any opium, opiate, or opioid; any synthetic of those substances; cocaine or derivative described in G.S. 90-90(1)(d); methamphetamine; depressant described in G.S. 90-92(a)(1); or mixture of one or more of these substances, and
4. ingestion of the substance causes the user's death, and
5. the sale was the proximate cause of the death.

The principal difference between this new crime and murder by distribution of controlled substances under current G.S. 14-17(b)(2) is that the new crime does not include malice as an element.

A person is guilty of aggravated death by distribution of certain controlled substances if, in addition to the above, the person has a previous conviction under new G.S. 14-18.4 or for other specified controlled substances offenses within the previous seven years. Any period of incarceration is excluded from the seven-year period.

Unless the conduct is covered under another provision providing for greater punishment, death by distribution of certain controlled substances is a Class C felony and aggravated death by distribution is a Class B2 felony. The new statute does not prohibit lawful distribution as defined in subsection (g) of the statute. It remains a Class B2 felony under current G.S. 14-17(b)(2). For further discussion, see Shea Denning, General Assembly Creates New Crime of Death by Distribution, N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (Jul. 18, 2019).

12. S.L. 2019-84 (H 67): Roadway construction barriers. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, amended G.S. 136-26 makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor to drive onto transportation infrastructure closed to the public due to damage posing a danger to public safety. The amended statute exempts various personnel, including law enforcement officers and Department of Transportation personnel.

13. S.L. 2019-91 (H 770): Limitations on consideration of criminal convictions for occupational licenses. Effective for certificates of relief granted or applications for licensure submitted on or after October 1, 2019, the act limits in the following ways consideration of criminal convictions for occupational licensing and other decisions.

Many occupational licensing statutes in North Carolina have allowed or required licensing boards to disqualify a person from obtaining a license if he or she has been convicted of a crime of one kind or another. This authority usually appeared in the chapter of the General Statutes governing the occupation. In 2013, the General Assembly revised Chapter 93B, which governs licensing boards generally, to restrict consideration of a criminal conviction. G.S. 93B-8.1 has provided that an occupational licensing board could not automatically deny licensure based on an applicant's criminal record unless the law governing the board provided otherwise. It also directed licensing boards to consider various factors in deciding whether to deny licensure.

The act goes much further in the following new and amended provisions, including amended G.S. 93B-8.1.

- G.S. 93B-1 makes Chapter 93B applicable to state agency licensing boards as well as occupational licensing boards. The amended section includes a nonexclusive list of state agency licensing boards, such as licensing boards within the Department of Health and Human Services, Department of Labor, and Department of Public Instruction.
- G.S. 93B-2 requires occupational and state agency licensing boards to include as part of their annual reports to the General Assembly the number of applicants with a criminal record and, of that number, the number granted a license, denied a license for any reason, and denied a license because of a conviction.
- G.S. 93B-8.1(b) provides that unless federal law provides otherwise, a board may deny an applicant on the basis of a criminal conviction only if the board finds that the applicant's criminal conviction history is "directly related" to the licensed occupation or the conviction is for a crime that is violent or sexual in nature. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a board may not automatically deny licensure based on an applicant's criminal history and may not deny an applicant a license based on a determination that a conviction is for a crime of moral turpitude.
- G.S. 93B-8.1(b1) provides that before a board may deny a license based on a criminal conviction, the board must specifically consider several listed factors. The list, enacted in 2013, is expanded to require consideration of the completion of or active participation in rehabilitative drug or alcohol treatment and a certificate of relief granted under G.S. 15A-173.2.
- G.S. 93B-8.1(b2) provides that if a board denies an applicant a license, the board must make written findings within 60 days of the denial specifying the factors deemed relevant by the board and explaining the reasons for the denial.
- G.S. 93B-8.1(b3) requires every board to include in its license application and on its public website whether it requires applicants to consent to a criminal record check, the factors it considers when making a license decision, and the appeals process if the board denies licensure because of a criminal conviction.
- G.S. 93B-8.1(b4) provides that if a board requires a criminal record check, the board must require the provider of the record check to provide the applicant with access to the record check or deliver a copy of the record to the applicant. If the applicant's record includes matters that may prevent the board from issuing a license to the applicant, the board must notify the applicant in writing and allow the applicant the opportunity to provide additional information to the board. An applicant has thirty days from being notified to correct any inaccuracy in the record check or submit additional information for the board's consideration.
- G.S. 93B-8.1(b5) provides that if a board denies a license application, the board's written order must specifically identify any criminal conviction that formed the basis for the denial and the rationale for the denial. The order also must refer to the process for appealing the denial and the right of the applicant to reapply no more than two years after the most recent application.

- G.S. 93B-8.1(b6) gives a person with a criminal record the right to petition a board at any time, including before starting any mandatory education or training requirements, for a predetermination whether the person's record will likely disqualify the person from obtaining a license. If the board determines that an applicant would likely be denied licensure, the board must notify the person in writing of the reasons for its predetermination, that the person has the right complete any requirements for licensure and have the board consider the person's application, and that further evidence of rehabilitation will be considered.
- G.S. 93B-8.1(b8) provides that a predetermination that a petitioner is eligible for a license is binding if the petitioner applies for a license, the petitioner fulfills all other requirements, and the petitioner's criminal record was correct and has not changed.

The act also strengthens North Carolina's certificate of relief law, enacted in 2011. One effect of a certificate of relief has been that it converts mandatory penalties, disabilities, or disadvantages based on a criminal conviction into discretionary disqualifications. As part of its discretionary decision, an administrative agency, government official, or court in a civil proceeding has been permitted to consider a certificate of relief favorably in determining whether to impose penalties, disabilities, and disadvantages, including licensure denials. Amended G.S. 15A-173.2(d) now mandates that agencies, officials, and courts consider a certificate of relief favorably in determining whether a conviction should result in disqualification in licensing and other matters.

14. S.L. 2019-109 \(S 191\): Temporary intergovernmental law enforcement agreements. The title of the act expresses its purpose: "To authorize a city with a population of more than five hundred thousand people which holds a national convention [that is, the 2020 Republican National Convention in Charlotte] to contract with out-of-state law enforcement agencies to provide law enforcement and security for the national convention." New G.S. 160A-288.3 implements this purpose, which applies to intergovernmental law enforcement agreements entered into on or after January 1, 2020, and expires October 1, 2020.
15. S.L. 2019-115 \(H 257\): Using face mask while operating motorcycle. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, new G.S. 14-12.11(b) creates an exception to G.S. 14-12.7 and 14-12.8, which prohibit wearing a mask on public ways and public property unless an exception applies (such as the wearing of traditional holiday costumes in season). The new subsection allows a person to wear a mask to protect the person's head or face while operating a motorcycle. The person must remove the mask during a traffic stop, including a checkpoint or roadblock under G.S. 20-16.3A, or when approached by a law enforcement officer.

16. S.L. 2019-116 (H 224): Increased punishment for assault with firearm on law enforcement officer. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, amended G.S. 14-34.5(a) makes it a Class D instead of Class E felony to assault with a firearm a law enforcement, probation, or parole officer while the officer is in the performance of his or her duties. (S.L. 2019-228 (H 283), discussed below, makes the same change and increases the punishment for assaults on other personnel.)
17. S.L. 2019-130 (H 629): Mutual aid agreements with out-of-state-law enforcement agencies. Effective July 19, 2019, amended G.S. 160A-288 authorizes mutual aid agreements with out-of-state law enforcement agencies if the law of the other state allows for mutual aid with out-of-state law enforcement officers.
18. S.L. 2019-117 (S 594): False liens. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, revised G.S. 14-118.6 makes the filing of a false lien against the real or personal property of an owner or beneficial interest holder a Class I felony. Previously, the statute applied to more limited conduct—namely, the filing of a false lien against a public officer, a public employee, or an immediate family member of a public officer or employee on account of the performance of the officer’s or employee’s official duties.
19. S.L. 2019-134 (H 138): Damaging fire alarms and related equipment. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, new G.S. 14-286(b) makes it a Class H felony for a person to
  1. willfully
  2. interfere with, damage, deface, molest, or injure
  3. any part or portion of a fire alarm, fire detection, smoke detection, or fire extinguishing system
  4. in a prison or local confinement facility.Other violations of G.S. 14-286 remain a Class 2 misdemeanor.
20. S.L. 2019-150 (H 323): Court costs for local lab fees. Effective for costs assessed on or after July 1, 2019, the act amends G.S. 7A-304(8) (DNA analysis), (9b) (digital forensics), and (12) (expert testimony) to provide for court costs for the services of a crime lab when the local government operates the lab or pays for the lab services. Previously, the subsections stated that they applied to crime labs operated by a local government. The other conditions for imposition of these expenses remain the same.
21. S.L. 2019-155 (H 546): Counterfeit supplemental restraint systems and nonfunctional airbags. Effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2019, the act amends G.S. 20-71.4(a) to make it a Class 2 misdemeanor to transfer a motor vehicle when the transferor knows that a counterfeit supplemental restraint system or nonfunctional airbag, as defined in revised G.S. 20-4.01, has been installed in the vehicle. The new provision also states that it applies when the vehicle has no airbag; the provision does not appear to make an exception for transferring older cars with notice to the transferee. It also states that if a franchised motor vehicle dealer has no actual knowledge that a counterfeit supplemental restraint system component or nonfunctional air bag has been installed in the vehicle, knowledge of others is not imputed to the dealer, who is deemed not to have committed an unlawful act. The act amends G.S. 20-136.2 to broaden the prohibitions in that statute. Effective October 1, 2019, it is a Class 1 misdemeanor and an unfair and deceptive trade practice under G.S. 75-1.1 to knowingly import, manufacture, sell, offer for sale, distribute, install, or reinstall a counterfeit supplemental restraint system or nonfunctional airbag or other component that causes a motor vehicle to fail to meet federal motor vehicle safety standards as provided in 49 C.F.R. 571.208. It is a Class H felony if a violation contributes to a person's physical injury or death. The statute includes an exception for franchised motor vehicle dealers without actual knowledge.

22. S.L. 2019-157 \(S 29\): Move over law and flashing amber lights. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, amended G.S. 20-157(i) makes it a Class F instead of a Class I felony for a person to violate the move over law when the person causes serious injury or death to certain personnel, including law enforcement officers and other emergency response personnel. Amended G.S. 20-130.2 prohibits any vehicle from operating a flashing or strobe amber light while in motion on a street or highway unless a specific exception applies, such as when a vehicle exceeds a width of 102 inches. A violation is an infraction under G.S. 20-176.

23. S.L. 2019-158 \(H 198\): Human trafficking. The act makes the following changes related to human trafficking. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, revised G.S. 14-43.13 makes it the crime of sexual servitude to subject, maintain, or obtain another for the purposes of sexual servitude (was, subject or maintain another in sexual servitude).

Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, new G.S. 14-208.1 makes a person guilty of promoting travel for unlawful sexual conduct, a Class G felony, if the person

1. sells or offers to sell
2. travel services as defined in G.S. 14-208.1(a), which includes transportation, lodging, package tours, vouchers for future travel, or accommodations for a fee or other consideration,
3. that
  - a. the person knows to include travel for the purpose of committing any of the listed offenses, or
  - b. for the purpose of engaging in conduct that would constitute any of the listed offenses if occurring within North Carolina.

The listed offenses include offenses under G.S. Chapter 14, Article 7B (rape, sexual offense, sexual battery and other offenses); offenses involving sexual exploitation of a minor; offenses involving indecent liberties with a minor; and prostitution offenses.

Effective for causes of action arising on or after July 1, 2019, new G.S. 14-43.18 provides that a person who is a victim may bring a civil action for the relief described in the new statute against a person who violates G.S. Chapter 14, Art. 10A, Human Trafficking, or against a person who knowingly benefits financially or by receiving anything of value from participation in a venture which that person knew or should have known violates Art. 10A. The new statute details the available relief and includes a statute of limitations. A civil action under the new statute is stayed during the pendency of any criminal action, including investigation and prosecution, arising out of the same occurrence in which the plaintiff is a victim.

Effective for petitions filed on or after December 1, 2019, the act expands expunction relief in three ways. (1) Revised G.S. 15A-145.6(b) omits the requirement to obtain an expunction of a prostitution conviction that the offense was the result of having been a trafficking victim. (2) New G.S. 15A-145.9 authorizes an expunction of a conviction of a nonviolent offense as defined in the statute if the court finds that the person was coerced or deceived into committing the offense as a direct result of having been a trafficking victim. The new statute details the procedures, conditions, and effects of the new expunction. Revised G.S. 15A-151.5(a) gives prosecutors access to the new type of expunction to calculate prior record level if the person is convicted of a subsequent criminal offense. (3) Revised G.S. 7B-3200 removes the requirements for expunction of a juvenile adjudication of an 18-month waiting period after release from juvenile court jurisdiction and no subsequent adjudication or conviction if the person's participation in the offense was a result of having been a victim of human trafficking.

Effective for motions filed on or after December 1, 2019, revised G.S. 15A-1415(b)(10) expands the grounds for a motion for appropriate relief to include convictions of nonviolent offenses as defined in the new expunction statute, G.S. 15A-145.9. The act deletes the reference to first prostitution offenses, which fall within the definition of nonviolent offense. Revised G.S. 15A-1416.1(a) expands the grounds for vacating a conviction to include nonviolent offenses as set out in G.S. 15A-1415(b)(10). The court may grant the motion to vacate if the defendant demonstrates by the preponderance of the evidence that the violation was a direct result of the defendant having been a victim of human trafficking or sexual servitude and the offense would not have been committed but for the defendant having been a victim of human trafficking or sexual servitude. New G.S. 15A-1416.1(d) provides that a previous or subsequent conviction does not affect eligibility for relief.

- 24. S.L. 2019-159 \(H 325\): Decriminalization of drug testing equipment to detect contaminants. Effective July 22, 2019, the act adds G.S. 90-113.22(d) and 90-113.22A(c) providing that it is not unlawful for a person who introduces or intends to introduce a controlled substance into his or her body to knowingly use or possess with intent to use equipment to identify or analyze the strength, effectiveness, or purity of the controlled substance. The new subsections also allow testing by governmental and nongovernmental organizations that promote scientifically proven ways of mitigating health risks to distribute such testing equipment to a person who intends to introduce a controlled substance into his or her body. For further discussion, see Jeff Welty, Drug Testing Equipment Isn't Drug Paraphernalia Anymore, N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (Jul. 29, 2019). The act also repeals G.S. 90-101(a1), which required annual registration by prescribers of buprenorphine, used to treat opiate dependence.

25. S.L. 2019-163 (S 154): Sports and horse race wagering on tribal lands. Effective July 26, 2019, amended G.S. 14-292.2(b) allows sports and horse race wagering, as defined in amended G.S. 14-292.2(e), in addition to other forms of gambling allowed on tribal lands.
26. S.L. 2019-169 (S 523): Venue for violations of tax laws. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2018, amended G.S. 105-236(b) deletes the provision that a criminal violation of a tax law is in the county where the charged offense occurred. With this change, a violation of a tax law is considered an act committed in part at the office of the Secretary of Revenue in Raleigh.
27. S.L. 2019-170 (S 604): Unauthorized practice of veterinary medicine. Effective when the Veterinary Medical Board adopts implementing rules under the act, G.S. 90-187.12 does not make each act of unlawful veterinary medicine practice a distinct and separate offense.
28. S.L. 2019-171 (H 108): Inmate medical transfers and payments. Effective for prisoners transferred on or after October 1, 2019, the act amends G.S. 162-39(d), which has empowered judges to order transfer of a prisoner in need of medical or mental health treatment from a county jail to a state prison. The amended subsection limits the period of an initial transfer order to a maximum of 30 days. Before the end of this initial period, the Department of Public Safety, Division of Adult Correction and Juvenile Justice (DACJJ), must assess the prisoner's treatment and venue needs. To extend the order beyond the initial period, the sheriff must present the assessment and other relevant information to a judge, who may then decide to extend the transfer. If a judge renews the transfer, he or she must set a date certain for further review. If the judge does not renew the order, the prison must release the prisoner in accordance with the court order and with instructions of the attending medical or mental health professional. The act also amends G.S. 162-39(c) to specify additional health care and related costs for which the county is responsible while the prisoner is in DACJJ custody. Amended subsection (f) provides that if the county does not take custody of a prisoner after receiving notice from DACJJ that the prisoner may be returned, the county is responsible for an additional $20 per day unless the transfer order is extended or extenuating circumstances exist. Subsection (e) states that DACJJ may not refuse to accept a prisoner because of the county's failure to pay for services. New G.S. 148-19.3 provides that health care charges that are the responsibility of the transferring county are to be submitted by the health care provider to the Inmate Medical Costs Management Plan through the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association, not to DACJJ. For further discussion, see Jamie Markham, New Rules for Safekeepers, N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (Oct. 31, 2019).

31. S.L. 2019-183 (S 9): Female genital mutilation of a child. Effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2019, the act enacts G.S. 14-28.1 creating the following crimes related to female genital mutilation. It is a Class C felony for a person to:

1. knowingly and unlawfully
2. circumcise, excise, or infibulate
3. the whole or part of the labia majora, labia minor, or clitoris
4. of a child under age 18.

New G.S. 14-28.1(e) creates exceptions for surgical operations for medical purposes. G.S. 14-28.1(f) provides that it is not a defense that circumcision, excision, or infibulation is required as a matter or custom or ritual or that the person on whom the acts were performed consented to the acts.

Revised G.S. 75-102(i) prohibits telephone solicitors from causing misleading information to be transmitted to users of caller identification technologies or otherwise block or misrepresent the origin of the telephone solicitation. It is not a violation for the solicitor to give the name and number of the entity the solicitation is being made for rather than the name and number of the telephone solicitor. G.S. 75-105 continues to provide for civil enforcement by the Attorney General and individuals.

34. S.L. 2019-191 (H 228): Sexual acts during medical treatment, other medical practice crimes, and evidentiary privileges. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, new G.S. 14-27.33A creates the crime of sexual contact or penetration, as defined in the statute, under the pretext of medical treatment or while the patient is incapacitated. The statute provides that a person is guilty of a Class C felony unless some other provision of law provides greater punishment; it also states that the statute does not prohibit a charge, conviction, or punishment of any other violation of law committed by that person while violating the statute.

Effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2019, the act amends several medicine-related licensing statutes (G.S. 90-12.1A through 90-12.4B) to make violations punishable by a fine up to $500 (was, $25 to $50).

- 35. S.L. 2019-193 (H 760): Loss prevention workers; jurisdiction and venue for false pretenses prosecutions. Effective October 1, 2019, the act amends G.S. 74C-3(b)(14) to exempt from that chapter, which regulates private protective services, employees whose primary duty involves loss prevention or who conduct investigations related to the location, disposition, or recovery of lost or stolen property from that business. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, amended G.S. 14-100 provides that the State is not required to establish that all of the acts constituting the offense of obtaining property by false pretenses occurred in North Carolina or within a single city, county, or local jurisdiction of North Carolina; and it is no defense that not all of the acts occurred within North Carolina or a single city, county, or local jurisdiction.
- 36. S.L. 2019-194 (H 391): Transportation network company (TNC) drivers. Entitled the “Passenger Protection Act,” the act makes the following changes to TNC laws regulating transportation enterprises (such as Uber and Lyft). Effective October 1, 2019, revised G.S. 20-280.5(c) requires TNCs to keep a record of each driver’s address at the time the driver’s relationship with the TNC ended. Effective July 1, 2020, new G.S. 20-280.5(d) requires a TNC driver to display the license plate number of the driver’s vehicle that is visible from the front of the vehicle; and new G.S. 20-280.5(e) and (f) require a TNC driver to display consistent and distinctive signage or emblems or an alternative technological identifier while active on the TNC digital platform or providing any TNC service. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, new G.S. 14-401.26 make it an infraction, punishable by a fine of $250, for a TNC driver to fail to display a front license plate as required by new G.S. 20-280.5(d) (not effective until July 1, 2020); new G.S. 14-401.27 makes it a Class 2 misdemeanor for a person to impersonate a TNC driver and makes it a Class H felony to do so during the commission of a separate felony; and new G.S. 14-33(c)(9) makes it a Class A1 misdemeanor to assault a TNC driver providing a TNC service.
- 37. S.L. 2019-198 (S 584): Legislative review of regulatory crimes. Effective for rules adopted on or after January 1, 2020, any rule adopted or amended pursuant to G.S. Chapter 150B, Art. 2A, that creates a new criminal offense or otherwise subjects a person to criminal penalties is subject to G.S. 150B-21.3(b1), which contains procedures for legislative review of agency rules. This provision applies regardless whether the rule received written objections from ten or more people pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3(b2). The act extends to November 1, 2019, the time for state agencies, boards, and commissions that have the power to create crimes in the North Carolina Administrative Code to submit a list of such crimes to the Joint Legislative Administrative Procedure Oversight Committee. The act grants a similar extension to submit a list of ordinance violations subject to criminal punishment under G.S. 14-4(a) and makes the requirement applicable to counties with a population of 20,000 or more (was, counties), cities or towns with a population of 1,000 or more (was, cities or towns), and metropolitan sewer districts (no change). If a county, city, or town misses the extended deadline, any ordinance adopted on or after January 1, 2020, and before January 1, 2022, may not be subject to a criminal penalty under G.S. 14-4; a violation may still be subject to civil penalties. The act directs the General Statutes Commission to study these reports and make recommendations regarding whether any of the listed conduct should have criminal penalties provided by a generally applicable state law. The Commission must submit its report to the 2020 General Assembly and to the Joint Oversight Committee on General Government by May 1, 2020.

38. S.L. 2019-203 \(H 99\): Alcohol law enforcement. Effective October 1, 2019, the Alcohol Law Enforcement (ALE) Branch of the State Bureau of Investigation is relocated as a division of the Department of Public Safety. The act repeals G.S. 143B-928 and modifies G.S. 18B-550 to implement the organizational change. Revised G.S. 18B-500 also specifies the jurisdiction of ALE agents. The statute has provided that ALE agents' primary responsibility is to enforce Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC), lottery, and youth tobacco laws, but they also have authority to take action for any criminal offense. Amended subsection (b) and new subsection (b1) specify that ALE agents have authority over criminal offenses in certain circumstances, such as offenses on premises or when related to locations holding a permit from the ABC Commission or Education Lottery Commission; offenses occurring in the agents' presence; and crimes of violence or breaches of the peace. New subsection (b2) states that ALE agents' primary responsibility remains enforcement of ABC laws under Ch. 18B, lottery laws under Ch. 18C, youth tobacco laws under G.S. 14-313, and lottery, gaming, bingo, and raffle laws under Parts 1 and 2 of Ch. 14, Art. 37.

Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, the act revises G.S. 14-417.2 to require that transport containers for crocodilians be designed to be escape-proof and locked (was, escape-proof only); and revises G.S. 14-419 to modify the steps a law-enforcement officer or animal control officer must take in investigating possible violations of Article 55, Regulation of Certain Reptiles, of G.S. Ch. 14. Under the latter statute, as amended, an officer may kill a reptile, without initially notifying or consulting with other authorities, if it has escaped or the officer has probable cause that it is being possessed in violation of Article 55 and poses an immediate risk to officer or public safety.

Effective for offenses committed on or after August 31, 2019, the act makes the following changes for adult criminal cases:

- G.S. Ch. 15A, Art. 45, Fair Treatment for Certain Victims and Witnesses, has described a more limited set of responsibilities of law-enforcement agencies, prosecutors, and others with respect to victims in cases not subject to G.S. Ch. 15A, Art. 46, the Crime Victims' Rights Act. The act revises the definition of family member in G.S. 15A-824 to include a spouse, child, parent, legal custodian, sibling, or grandparent of the victim (was, spouse, child, parent or legal guardian, or closest living relative). The act also revises the definition of crime in G.S. 15A-824 to include acts by a juvenile covered in new G.S. Ch. 7B, Art. 20A, Rights of Victims of Delinquent Acts, summarized in detail after this summary of adult criminal cases.
- G.S. 8-53.12 provides a privilege for information acquired by agents of rape crisis centers and domestic violence programs in providing services to a victim of a sexual assault or domestic violence. The revised statute directs agents, centers, and programs to make every effort to inform the victim of any request for such information and provide the victim with a copy of the request if the request was in writing. The revised statute also provides that in any court proceeding to compel disclosure of the information, the judge must inquire whether the victim is present and wishes to be heard and, if so, must grant the victim an opportunity to be reasonably heard, including in the victim's discretion through an oral statement, written statement, or audio-video statement.
- The act's remaining provisions about adult criminal cases make the following changes to G.S. Ch. 15A, Art. 46, the Crime Victims' Rights Act.
- The act makes several changes to the definitions section, G.S. 15A-830, and thus the coverage of the article.
  - New subdivision (a)(2a) of G.S. 15A-830 defines "court proceeding" as "a critical stage of the post-arrest process heard by a judge in open court involving a plea that disposes of the case or the conviction, sentencing, or release of the accused." The subdivision states that the term does not include preliminary proceedings described in Ch. 15A, Art. 29, First Appearance Before District Court Judge.
  - New subdivision (a)(3a) defines a "family member," which is a person who may assert the victim's rights if the victim is a minor or incapacitated, as a spouse, child, parent, guardian, legal custodian, sibling, or grandparent of the victim. The subdivision states that the term does not include the accused. New G.S. 15A-

830(d) provides that the district attorney may determine that an individual would not act in the victim's best interest and may not exercise the victim's rights and gives the individual the right to petition the court for review of that determination.

- New subdivisions (a)(3b) and (a)(6a) define "felony property crime" and "offense against the person," which constitute the offenses that give rise to the victims' rights in the article. Revised subdivision (a)(7) defines "victim" as a person against whom there is probable cause to believe that such an offense has been committed. For a discussion of covered crimes, see Jamie Markham, *Crimes Covered under the New Victims' Rights Law*, N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (Sep. 27, 2019).
- New G.S. 15A-830.5 states the general rights of a victim covered by the article, including the right to timely notices of court proceedings (as defined in the article), the right to receive notice of release of the accused, and the right to confer with the district attorney's office.
- G.S. 15A-831 details the responsibilities of law enforcement agencies. It is revised to require the arresting agency to inform the investigating agency within 72 hours after arrest of a person believed to have committed a crime covered by the article. Following receipt of this information, the investigating agency has 72 hours to notify the victim of the arrest. The investigating agency continues to have the obligation of providing the victim with a form, now created by the Conference of District Attorneys, that asks whether the victim wants to receive further notice from the investigating agency during the pretrial process. The revised statute requires the victim to return the form to the investigating agency within 10 business days. The investigating agency must share the form with the district attorney.
- G.S. 15A-832 details the responsibilities of district attorneys. The statute is revised to delete the provision requiring the court to make every effort to permit the fullest attendance by the victim when the victim is to be called as a witness. It adds a requirement that the district attorney make every effort to ensure that a victim's personal information is not disclosed unless required by law.
- G.S. 15A-832.1 details the responsibilities of judicial officials.
  - Under the revised statute, a judicial official who issues a pleading for a misdemeanor offense, when based on testimony from a complaining witness and not a law enforcement officer, must: record identifying information about the victim unless the victim declines to provide the information and deliver the information to the clerk of superior court. Previously, the statute applied to arrest warrants and for specific misdemeanor offenses only.
  - The judge in any court proceeding subject to the article must inquire whether the victim is present and wishes to be heard. If so, the judge must grant the victim the opportunity to be heard and, in the victim's discretion, allow the victim to be heard through an oral statement, written statement, or audio-video statement. The court must make every effort to secure a waiting area during court proceedings that does not place the victim in close proximity to the defendant or the defendant's family.

- New G.S. 15A-834.5 details procedures for victims to enforce their rights under the article.
  - For purposes of utilizing the procedures in the new statute, the term "victim" includes others acting on the victim's behalf, including the victim's attorney, the prosecutor at the victim's request, and in certain circumstances a parent, guardian, legal custodian, or family member as defined in G.S. 15A-830.
  - A victim may allege a violation of rights provided in the article by filing a motion with the clerk of superior court in the pending criminal proceeding. If the motion alleges a violation by the district attorney or a law enforcement agency, the victim must first file a written complaint with and afford that office or agency an opportunity to resolve the issue. A motion alleging a violation by the district attorney or law enforcement agency must include a copy of the written complaint.
  - A victim has the right to consult with an attorney about an alleged violation but does not have the right to counsel provided by the State.
  - The clerk of superior court must provide victims with the form motion created by the Administrative Office of the Courts, AOC-CR-182 (Aug., 31, 2019), to enable them to allege violations of their rights. There is no filing fee for the motion.
  - The statute states that a copy of a filed motion must be provided to the prosecutor, the elected District attorney, and the judge in the criminal proceeding. If the allegation is that a law enforcement agency failed to comply with a victim's rights, a copy of the motion must be provided to the head of the law enforcement agency. The AOC form provides that the clerk of superior court is to provide these copies to the indicated people. The statute and the AOC form do not require that a copy of the motion be provided to the defendant or the defendant's attorney.
  - The judge must review the motion and, following review, dispose of the motion or set it for hearing. The statute states that "review" may include conferring with the victim, the prosecutor, the elected District Attorney, and, if the subject of the motion, the head of the concerned law enforcement agency. The statute and AOC form do not require that the defendant or the defendant's attorney be given notice of the review and any hearing.
  - The judge involved in the criminal proceeding may, on the judge's own motion, recuse himself or herself if justice requires it. A judge appointed by the AOC in the event of recusal must dispose of the motion or set it for hearing. (This recusal provision is part of revised G.S. 15A-832.1, Responsibilities of judicial officials.)

- If a judge fails to review the motion and dispose of it or set it for hearing in a timely manner, the victim may petition the North Carolina Court of Appeals for a writ of mandamus.
- The statute states that failure to provide a right or service under the article does not provide grounds for relief to a defendant, an inmate, any other accused person or, except as provided by Art. 1, Sec. 37 (Rights of victims of crime) of the North Carolina Constitution, a victim or family member of a victim.
- G.S. 15A-835 details posttrial responsibilities. The revised statute states that a victim does not have a right to be heard on appeal but is permitted to be present at any open appellate hearing.
- G.S. 15A-836 details responsibilities of an agency with custody of a defendant after a final judgment and commitment. The revised statute states that in addition to other information, it must notify the victim of the procedure for alleging a failure of the custodian to notify the victim of the required information.
- G.S. 15A-840, which has limited the relief for violations, and G.S. 15A-841, which has indicated when a family member may assert the rights of a victim, are repealed. Similar provisions are incorporated into the new and revised statutes described above.

The following summary, prepared by School of Government faculty member Jacqueline Greene, summarizes the victims' rights provisions in the act for juvenile delinquency proceedings, which are effective for delinquent acts committed on or after August 31, 2019:

- Adds a new Article 20A, "Rights of Victims of Delinquent Acts," to Chapter 7B of the General Statutes.
- Provides definitions for the meaning of "court proceeding," "family member," "felony property offense," "offense against the person," and "victim" for the purposes of the new Article. G.S. 7B-2051(a).
- Allows for a parent, guardian, or legal custodian, if not the accused person in the matter, to assert the rights of any victim who is a minor or who is legally incapacitated. G.S. 7B-2051(b).
- Allows a family member to assert the victim's rights if the victim is deceased. The guardian or legal custodian of a deceased minor has priority over a family member, and the right to restitution under G.S. 15A-834 can only be exercised by the personal representative of the victim's estate. G.S. 7B-2051(b).

- Allows an individual entitled to exercise the victim's rights as the appropriate family member to designate any family member to act on the victim's behalf. G.S. 7B-2051(c).
- Provides that if an individual is determined by the district attorney's office to be someone who would not act in the best interests of the victim, that person is not entitled to assert the victim's rights. Any such determination can be reviewed by the court following a petition for review. G.S. 7B-2051(d).
- Establishes victim rights, including the right to: reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of court proceedings (on request); be present at court proceedings of the juvenile (on request); be reasonably heard at court proceedings involving the adjudication, disposition, or release of the juvenile; receive any ordered restitution in a reasonably timely manner; be given information about the offense, how the juvenile justice system works, the rights of victims, and the availability of victim services; receive information about the adjudication or disposition of the case (on request); receive notification of the escape or release of the juvenile (on request); and reasonably confer with the district attorney's office. G.S. 7B-2052.
- Establishes the following responsibilities of the office of the district attorney:
  - Provide the victim certain information within 72 hours of petition filing;
  - Provide the victim a form on which he or she can request to receive notice of court proceedings and information regarding case adjudication and disposition;
  - Make every effort to ensure that a victim's personal information is not disclosed unless otherwise required by law;
  - Offer the victim the opportunity to reasonably confer with an attorney in the district attorney's office to obtain the victim's views about, at least, dismissal, plea or negotiations, disposition, and any dispositional alternatives;
  - Provide and document reasonable, accurate, and timely notice to the victim of the date and time of scheduled court proceedings, as requested;
  - Whenever practical, provide a secure waiting area during court proceedings that does not place the victim in close proximity to the juvenile or the juvenile's family;
  - Prior to the dispositional hearing, notify the victim of the right to request to be notified in advance of the juvenile's scheduled release date if the juvenile is committed to a Youth Development Center (YDC) and of any escape of the juvenile if the juvenile is being held in secure custody or is committed to a YDC. Submit a form to the court at disposition regarding the victim's request for these further notices;
  - Following disposition, provide the victim with information on the adjudication and disposition of the juvenile as requested by the victim. This information is limited to: whether the juvenile was adjudicated, adjudicated offense classification, available dispositions, any no contact orders as they relate to the victim, and any orders for restitution. G.S. 7B-2053.

- Adds the following responsibilities for judicial officials:
  - In any court proceeding subject to this article and in which the victim may be present, inquire as to whether the victim is present and wishes to be heard. If the victim wishes to be heard, grant an opportunity to be heard through an oral statement, submission of a written statement, or submission of an audio or video statement;
  - Provide the victim an opportunity to be heard regarding the victim's right to be present in the event that an entire hearing has been closed to the victim;
  - Review any motion alleging a violation of the victim's rights established by this Article;
  - Make every effort to provide a secure waiting area during court proceedings that does not place the victim in close proximity to the juvenile or the juvenile's family. G.S. 7B-2054.
- Creates the following responsibilities within the Division of Adult Correction and Juvenile Justice:
  - If a victim has requested to be notified of a juvenile's release from a YDC, notify the victim at least 45 days before releasing the juvenile to post-release supervision, including only the juvenile's initials, offense, date of commitment, projected release date, and any no-contact release conditions related to the victim;
  - Provide the victim an opportunity to be reasonably heard regarding release of the juvenile when determining whether the juvenile is ready for release and consider the victim's views. If the juvenile is determined to be ready for release, consider the victim's views during the post-release supervision planning conference process;
  - If a victim has requested to be notified of the juvenile's escape, notify the victim within 24 hours of any escape from a YDC or from secure custody. If public disclosure of the escape is required, make a reasonable effort to notify the victim before releasing information to the public. Notify the victim within 24 hours of the juvenile's return to custody, even if the juvenile is returned before notification of the escape is required;
  - Notify the victim of the procedure for alleging a failure of the Division to notify the victim of any requested notification of release or escape. G.S. 7B-2055.
- Prohibits examination by and release of confidential juvenile records to victims. Limits disclosure of information contained in a juvenile record to a victim to the information expressly allowed in this Article. G.S. 7B-2057.
- Establishes a judicial process for enforcement of victim rights. Any allegation involving failure of the district attorney to comply with the provisions of this article must begin by filing a written complaint with the district attorney. The Administrative Office of the Courts must create a form to serve as a motion to enable a victim to allege a violation of the rights provided under this article. The motion must be filed with the clerk of the superior court in the same proceeding giving rise to the rights in question. Victims have a right to consult with counsel, although victims do not have a right to counsel provided by the State. The judge may dispose of the motion through conference or following a hearing. If the judge does not review and dispose of the motion, the victim may petition the Court of Appeals for a writ of mandamus;

- Provides that failure or inability to provide a right or service under this article may not be used as a ground for relief in a juvenile or other civil proceeding except as provided in Section 37 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution (Rights of Victims of Crimes). G.S. 7B-2058.
- Makes conforming changes regarding existing release and escape notification provisions and confidentiality of juvenile records. G.S. 7B-2514(d), 7B-3000(b), 7B-3100(b), 7B-3102(e).
- Repeals G.S. 7B-2513(j), which previously provided a process for victim notification of release of certain juveniles from YDC commitments.
- Requires the Conference of District Attorneys and the Administrative Office of the Courts to develop and disseminate required forms by August 31, 2019.
- Requires the Administrative Office of the Courts, in consultation with the Conference of District Attorneys, to develop procedures to automate required court date notifications.
- Requirements for development of automated court date notifications are effective September 4, 2019.

Effective September 4, 2019, the act directs the North Carolina State Lottery Commission to study several matters related to gaming, including authorizing sports betting, on-site betting at horse steeplechases, and the creation of a commission to oversee gambling. The Commission must report its findings and any proposed legislation to the General Assembly by April 15, 2020.

42. S.L. 2019-221 (H 29): Testing of sexual assault kits. The act, entitled “The Standing Up for Rape Victims (SURVIVOR) Act of 2019,” adds new G.S. 15A-266.5A establishing requirements for testing of sexual assault examination kits, effective September 18, 2019. (For CODIS hits, the act applies to hits received on or after that date.) The act appropriates $3,000,000 each year of the 2019–21 biennium for the testing of sexual assault examination kits as required by the act. The State Crime Lab must report to the General Assembly by March 1, 2020, on the use of the funds.

New G.S. 15A-266.5A(b) defines three types of sexual assault examination kits:

- reported kits, meaning a kit from a person who has consented to collection of the kit and consented to participate in the criminal justice process by reporting the crime to law enforcement;
- unfounded kits, meaning where on completion of the investigation, law enforcement concluded based on clear and convincing evidence that a crime did not occur; and
- unreported kits, meaning a kit from a person who consented to collection of the kit but has not consented to participation in the criminal justice process.

For kits collected on or after July 1, 2019, new G.S. 15A-266.5A(c) requires the collecting agency to preserve the kit in accordance with State Crime Lab guidelines and notify the appropriate law enforcement agency within 24 hours of collection. That agency must take custody of the kit within seven days of receiving notice, and it must submit a reported kit to the State Crime Lab or other approved lab within 45 days and must submit an unreported kit to the Department of Public Safety (DPS) within 45 days for storage under G.S. 143B-601(13). (That statute authorizes storage and management of rape kits under the federal Violence Against Women Act and requires protections against release of the victim's name without the victim's consent.)

New G.S. 15A-266.5A(d) requires any law enforcement agency that possesses a kit completed before January 1, 2018, to take the following steps:

- establish a review team within three months of the effective date of the act;
- have the review team survey the agency's inventory of untested kits and conduct a case review to determine the kit's priority within six months of the effective date of the act; and
- submit a request for testing of kits determined to be a priority and continue the review process until all untested kits in its inventory eligible for testing have been submitted for testing.

Unreported kits are not subject to the above requirements and are to be sent to DPS for storage. Kits determined to be unfounded kits are also exempt from the requirements; however, if the law enforcement agency receives additional information or evidence of value, the agency must submit the kit for testing as soon as practicable. Kits not subject to either G.S. 15A-266.5A(c) or (d) also must be submitted for testing as soon as practicable. G.S. 15A-266.5A(g) states that lack of compliance with any of the testing requirements does not afford the accused with remedies such as exclusion of evidence or dismissal of the charges. The act also adds G.S. 15A-266.8(d) requiring a law enforcement agency that receives a CODIS hit on a submitted DNA sample to provide electronic notice to the State Crime Lab of any arrest or conviction in connection with a CODIS hit within 15 days.

43. S.L. 2019-223 (S 118): Prison safety appropriations and prison report. Effective July 1, 2019, the act appropriates approximately $4.5 million to the Department of Public Safety (DPS), Division of Adult Correction and Juvenile Justice, for implementation of prison safety provisions, including additional stab resistant vests, security netting over prison fences to deter and intercept contraband, additional handheld metal detectors, and information technology security equipment upgrades. The act requires for the 2019–21 biennium that DPS report quarterly to the General Assembly on various initiatives, including modifications to policies on disciplinary actions against correctional officers, frequency of staff training, adequacy of staffing of prison facilities, and other matters.
44. S.L. 2019-225 (S 458): Use of third-party toxicology labs. Effective September 18, 2019, the act authorizes the Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Justice, local health departments as defined in G.S. 130A-2(5), and local law enforcement agencies to engage third-party toxicology laboratories, capable of providing clinical intelligence and data related to prescription and illicit drug usage trends and developments, for the purpose of providing data to guide the delivery of drug treatment and law enforcement resources.
45. S.L. 2019-227 (H 211): Helmet requirements. Effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2019, the act amends G.S. 140.4(a)(2) to provide that the helmet requirements therein do not apply to the operator of or any passengers within an autocycle that has completely enclosed seating or is equipped with a roll bar or roll cage. Formerly the exception from helmet requirements applied only if the autocycle had completely enclosed seating. For a discussion of remote license renewals, digital license plates, and other changes made by the act, see Shea Denning, What's New in Motor Vehicle World, N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (Nov. 14, 2019).
46. S.L. 2019-228 (H 283): Increased punishment for assaults on law enforcement, probation, and parole officers, firefighters, healthcare providers, and others. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, amended G.S. 14-34.5(a) makes it a Class D instead of Class E felony to assault with a firearm a law enforcement, probation, or parole officer while the officer is in the performance of his or her duties. (This provision is identical to S.L. 2019-116 (H 224).) Effective the same date, amended G.S. 14-34.6 makes it a Class G instead of Class H felony to assault a person listed in that statute (emergency health care technicians and providers, medical responders, hospital personnel and licensed healthcare providers providing healthcare services, firefighters, and hospital security personnel) when the person is discharging his or her duties and the assault inflicts serious bodily injury or is with a deadly weapon other than a firearm. Amended G.S. 14-34.6 makes it a Class E instead of Class F felony to commit such an assault with a firearm. The amended statute revises the definition of hospital personnel and licensed healthcare providers to delete the requirement that they be providing healthcare services in a hospital and require that they be providing healthcare to a patient. The act also creates an additional death benefit for individuals murdered in the line of duty who are covered under G.S. 143-166.2 and 143-166.3.

47. S.L. 2019-229 \(H 1001\): Funding for Raise the Age legislation. Effective July 1, 2019, the act adds several positions to implement the Raise the Age legislation, including sixteen assistant district attorney positions (the act provides that seven of the positions are to be used to address existing deficiencies in district attorney office workload), three district attorney legal assistant positions, seven district court judge positions, and one assistant juvenile defender position. The funding for the positions, allocation among districts, and start dates are as provided in the act. The act allocates approximately $75 million to the Department of Public Safety for positions in the Division of Juvenile Justice, including at Division of Juvenile Justice facilities; transportation positions and vans; increased bed capacity at juvenile detention centers; positions at the C.A. Dillon Youth Development Center; school counselor positions for juveniles exiting secure custody; community-based and residential programs; Juvenile Crime Prevention Council programs; juvenile court counselors; and positions in the Court Services and Community Programs sections of the Division of Juvenile Justice.
48. S.L. 2019-236 \(S 579\): Study of alternative organization and management structures for Division of Adult Correction and Juvenile Justice \(DACJJ\). Effective November 1, 2019, the act directs the Joint Legislative Program Evaluation Oversight Committee to include in the 2019–20 work plan of the Program Evaluation Division a study of alternative organization and management structures for DACJJ, including among other possibilities the creation of a separate Department of Correction consisting of the Division of Prisons and Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission and a separate Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention consisting of the current Juvenile Justice Section of DACJJ, Teen Court, Youth Development Centers, Juvenile Court Services, and Juvenile Crime Prevention Councils. The Program Evaluation Division is directed to submit its findings by November 1, 2020.
49. S.L. 2019-239 \(S 683\): Absentee ballot crimes. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, the act amends G.S. 163-237 to increase the punishment for existing absentee ballot crimes from a Class 2 to Class 1 misdemeanor and adds six new felony offenses.
50. S.L. 2019-240 \(S 537\): Special police officers at State facilities; denial of social work certificate or license; criminal history record checks for child care institutions. As part of a larger act dealing with the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), the act amends G.S. 122C-183, effective November 6, 2019, to authorize the Secretary of DHHS to assign special police officers employed at a State facility to other State-operated facilities on a temporary basis. When so assigned, the special police officers have the same powers at the facility and in the county in which the facility is located as authorized for other officers at that facility. See G.S. 122C-421, 122C-430, 122C-430.10, 122C-430.30.

Effective January 1, 2021, amended G.S. 90B-11 authorizes the North Carolina Social Work Certification and Licensure Board to deny, suspend, or revoke an application, certificate or license based on a conviction involving moral turpitude, misrepresentation or fraud in dealing with the public, conduct otherwise relevant to fitness to practice social work, or any misdemeanor reflecting inability to practice social work (was, misdemeanor under G.S. Ch. 90B). This provision may conflict with S.L. 2019-91 (H 770), discussed above, which authorizes denial of an occupational license on the basis of a criminal conviction only if the conviction is “directly related” to the licensed occupation and which prohibits the denial of a license based on a determination that a conviction is for a crime of moral turpitude.

Effective November 6, 2019, and applicable to employees, volunteers, and applicants on or after that date, new G.S. 108A-133 requires a criminal history record check of all current employees and volunteers, applicants for employment, and individuals wishing to volunteer at a child care institution as defined by Title IV-E of the Social Security Act. An offer of employment or acceptance as a volunteer is conditioned on consent to a state and national criminal history check. If the record check reveals one or more convictions of a “relevant offense,” the Criminal Records Check Unit of DHHS considers several factors in determining whether to recommend that the person be hired or allowed to volunteer. New G.S. 108A-133(e) defines “relevant offense” as a misdemeanor or felony that bears on a person’s fitness to have responsibility for the safety and well-being of children; it provides that such offenses include offenses in numerous articles of the General Statutes. But see S.L. 2019-91 (H 770), discussed above. New G.S. 143B-972 authorizes the Department of Public Safety to provide these record checks to DHHS. An applicant for employment or to be a volunteer who willfully furnishes false information on an employment application that is the basis for a criminal history record check is guilty of a Class A1 misdemeanor.

Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, the act revises G.S. 143B-135.16 to convert several Class 3 misdemeanors at State Parks into infractions, including such matters as using skateboards in prohibited areas, bathing animals, and parking motor vehicles outside of designated areas.

52. S.L. 2019-243 (H 470): Miscellaneous changes and corrections to laws governing administration of justice. The act makes the following changes effective on the dates indicated:

- Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2019, amended G.S. 14-209 defines perjury as knowingly and intentionally making a false statement under oath or affirmation (was, willfully and corruptly committing perjury on oath or affirmation) in the indicated proceedings. A violation remains a Class F felony.
- Effective November 6, 2019, the fee for recording or docketing a document is not chargeable when an attorney is designating a period of secured leave.

- Effective for any mandate of the appellate division received in the trial division on or after December 1, 2019, amended G.S. 15A-1452 distinguishes between judgments imposing an active sentence or monetary obligations without probation versus judgments imposing a suspended sentence. For the former, when an appeal is withdrawn or judgment is affirmed, the clerk of superior court follows the current procedure and enters an order directing compliance with the judgment. For the latter, the amended statute requires the clerk to notify the district attorney, who must calendar a review hearing. At the review hearing, the court must enter an order directing compliance with the judgment unless modified because any date or period of time specified in the original judgment has become impractical or impossible due to the pendency of the appeal. The court may not modify the judgment in other respects unless it complies with the procedure for modifying probation in G.S. 15A-1344. The defendant is entitled to be present and represented by counsel at the hearing.
- Effective November 6, 2019, amended G.S. 20-217(g2) gives a person 40 days (was, 20 days) to pay any fine or costs imposed for a violation of that statute (failing to stop for a school bus) before the clerk of court notifies the Division of Motor Vehicles to withhold renewal of motor vehicle registration.
- Effective November 6, 2019, amended G.S. 7B-2102(c) allows law enforcement agencies to enter the fingerprints of a juvenile, if the juvenile is adjudicated delinquent of an offense that would be a felony and was 10 years of age or older at the time of offense, into a local fingerprint database maintained by a secure crime laboratory facility.
- Effective for offenses committed and expunctions ordered on or after December 1, 2019, the act amends S.L. 2019-186 (S 413), discussed above, regarding expunction of records when charges are remanded to district court for juvenile adjudication.
- G.S. 15A-952(g) has provided that good cause for a continuance includes instances when the defendant, a witness, or counsel has an obligation of service to the State of North Carolina. Effective December 1, 2019, the amended provision provides that a continuance request must be granted if to fulfill an obligation of service as a member of the General Assembly or service on the Rules Review Commission or any other board, commission, or authority as appointee of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or General Assembly.
- Effective for complaints or investigations pending or after November 6, 2019, amended G.S. 7A-377(a) prohibits the Judicial Standards Commission from investigating, on its own motion or on written complaint by a person, when the motion or complaint is based substantially on a legal ruling by a district or superior court judge and the legal ruling has not been reviewed and ruled on by the North Carolina Court of Appeals or Supreme Court. The amended statute also states: "The Commission is limited to reviewing judicial conduct, not matters of law."

Failure to report crimes against juveniles. New G.S. 14-318.6 makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor for

1. any person
2. who is 18 years of age or older and
3. who knows or should have reasonably known
4. that a juvenile
5. was the victim of a violent offense, sexual offense, or misdemeanor child abuse
6. to knowingly or willfully
  - a. fail to report
  - b. prevent another person from reporting
7. as required by subsection (b) of G.S. 14-318.6.

Subsection (a) of the new statute defines some of these terms.

- The statute applies to any person, unlike the current obligation to report under G.S. 7B-301, which requires reporting to social services by the juvenile’s parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker.
- The statute states that a juvenile is as defined in G.S. 7B-101 and, for purposes of the statute, the age of the juvenile at the time of the abuse or offense governs.
- A violent offense is one that inflicts serious bodily injury or serious physical injury as defined in G.S. 14-318.4(d), the felony child abuse statute, by other than accidental means. The term includes an attempt, solicitation, conspiracy, and aiding and abetting.
- Sexual offense is not defined. Rather, the statute defines “sexually violent offense” as an offense against a juvenile that is a sexually violent offense as defined in G.S. 14-208.6(5), which governs sex offender registration. The term “sexually violent offense” includes an attempt, solicitation, conspiracy, and aiding and abetting.
- Misdemeanor child abuse means misdemeanor child abuse under G.S. 14-318.2, which involves physical injury of a child under 16 years of age by a parent or other person providing care or supervision of the child.

Subsection (b) of the new statute details the reporting requirements. A person who knows or should have reasonably known that a juvenile is the victim of one of the specified offenses must immediately report the case to the appropriate law enforcement agency where the juvenile resides or is found. The person must include specific information, such as the name of the person who committed the offense. The reporting person must identify himself and herself, including his or her address and telephone number; the statute provides that the person’s identity is protected. If as a result of a report a law enforcement officer finds evidence that the juvenile may be abused, neglected, or dependent as defined in G.S. 7B-101, the officer must make a report to social services, which in turn must investigate and take appropriate action.

The statute does not require reporting when a person is subject to the following privileges: attorney-client, G.S. 8-53.3 (psychologists), G.S. 8-53.7 (social workers), G.S. 8-53.8 (counselors), and G.S. 8-53.12 (rape crisis centers and domestic violence programs).

Revised G.S. 15-1 provides that the statute of limitations for a charge under new G.S. 14-318.6 is ten years from commission of the crime.

For further discussion, see Sara DePasquale, *BIG NEWS: S.L. 2019-245 Creates a New Universal Mandated Reporting Law for Child Victims of Crimes and Changes the Definition of "Caretaker"*, N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (Nov. 13, 2019).

Ten-year statute of limitations for some misdemeanors. Revised G.S. 15-1 provides that the following misdemeanors may be charged within ten years of the commission of the crime:

- G.S. 7B-301(b) (failure to report abuse, neglect, dependency, or death due to maltreatment)
- G.S. 14-27.33 (sexual battery)
- G.S. 14-202.2 (indecent liberties between children)
- G.S. 14-318.2 (misdemeanor child abuse)
- New G.S. 14-318.6 (failure to report crimes against juveniles)

Ban on online use by people registered as sex offenders. "In *Packingham v. North Carolina*, the Supreme Court of the United States struck down G.S. 14-202.5, North Carolina's ban on sex offenders accessing commercial social networking websites. The law violates the First Amendment." Jamie Markham, *North Carolina's Commercial Social Networking Ban for Sex Offenders Is Unconstitutional*, N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (June 22, 2017).

The act rewrites G.S. 14-202.5. Under the revised statute, it is a Class H felony for

1. a high-risk sex offender
2. to do any of the following online
  - a. communicate with a person that the offender believes is under 16 years,
  - b. contact a person that the offender believes is under 16 years old,
  - c. pose falsely as a person under 16 years old with the intent to commit an unlawful sex act with a person that the offender believes is under 16 years old,
  - d. use a website to gather information about a person that the offender believes is under 16 years old, or
  - e. use a commercial social networking website in violation of a policy, posted in a manner reasonably likely to come to the attention of users, prohibiting convicted sex offenders from using the site.

The statute defines some of these terms.

- Subsection (c1) of the revised statute defines “high-risk sex offender” as any person registered under G.S. Ch. 14, Art. 27A, the sex offender registration statutes, who was convicted of specified offenses against a person under 18 years old. Together, the listed offenses appear to include almost all registrable offenses if committed against a person under 18 years old.
- The statute does not define “online.” Rather, subsection (b) defines “commercial social networking website,” and subsection (c) excludes certain websites from that definition. In addition, revised G.S. 14-202.5A protects from civil liability commercial social networking websites that impose restrictions on use of their websites by high-risk sex offenders.

The statute includes a severability clause providing that if any provision or its application is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications that can be given effect.

Extended statute of limitations for civil actions. Effective for civil actions commenced on or after December 1, 2019, revised G.S. 1-17 allows a plaintiff to file a civil action against a defendant

- until the plaintiff is 28 years old for claims related to sexual abuse while the plaintiff was under 18 years old, or
- within two years of a criminal conviction for a felony sexual offense for claims related to sexual abuse while the plaintiff was under 18 years old.

The act makes conforming changes to statutes of limitations in G.S. 1-53 and G.S. 1-56. It also provides that civil actions for child sexual abuse that are otherwise time-barred under G.S. 1-52 are revived from January 1, 2020, to December 1, 2021.

Training for school personnel. The act amends various statutes in G.S. Ch. 115C and Ch. 116 to require schools to adopt and implement a child sexual abuse and sex trafficking training program for school personnel who work directly with students in grades kindergarten through 12. New G.S. 115C-375.20 describes the required program. Schools must adopt and implement a training program by January 1, 2020, and must require the training for school personnel beginning with the 2020–21 school year.

Revocation of consent to sex. The act revises the definition of “against the will of the other person,” a required element of proof for forcible rape, forcible sexual offense, and sexual battery (except when the other person is mentally incapacitated, mentally disabled, or physically helpless and effectively incapable of consenting). New G.S. 14-27.20(1a) defines the element as either:

- without consent of the other person, or
- after consent is revoked by the other person, in a manner that would cause a reasonable person to believe consent is revoked.

The second clause explicitly recognizes the right to withdraw consent, responding to the North Carolina Supreme Court's 1979 decision in State v. Way, 297 N.C. 293 (1979), in which the Court appeared to take the position that if a woman consents to sexual intercourse and in the middle of the act changes her mind, the defendant is not guilty of rape for continuing to engage in intercourse with her. For further discussion, see John Rubin, "No" Will Mean "No" in North Carolina, N.C. CRIM. L., UNC SCH. OF GOV'T BLOG (Nov. 6, 2019).

Capacity to consent to sex. The act revises the definition of "mentally incapacitated," an alternative to proving that a sexual act was by force and against the will of the person. Revised G.S. 14-27.20(2) defines the term as a person who due to "any act" is rendered substantially incapable of either appraising the nature of his or her conduct or resisting the act of vaginal intercourse or a sexual act. Previously, the act had to be committed upon the victim or a poisonous or controlled substance had to be provided to the person without the knowledge or consent of the person.

The act also revises G.S. 14-401.11, which makes it a crime to distribute certain substances, to include beverages and other drinkable substances that may contain controlled substances or ingredients that may harm a person's health. Previously, the language referred to food and eatable substances.

Right to be heard on petition to terminate sex offender registration. New subsection (c) of G.S. 14-208.12A provides that the victim of the underlying offense may appear and be heard regarding a petition to terminate sex offender registration. If the victim has elected to receive notice of such proceedings, the district attorney's office must notify the victim of the date, time, and place of the hearing. The judge in any court proceeding must inquire whether the victim is present and wishes to be heard and, if so, must grant the victim an opportunity to be reasonably heard. The victim may choose to be heard through an oral statement, written statement, or audio or video statement.

Residential restrictions. G.S. 14-208.16, which prohibits a person who must register as a sex offender from residing near a school, is revised to provide that the term "school" includes "any construction project designated for use as a public school if the governing body has notified the sheriff or sheriffs with jurisdiction within 1,000 feet of the construction project of the construction of the public school."

Questions on Conspiracy, Solicitation, Attempts, Principals, and Accessories

1. Tonya Hardnose, world class roller skater, suspects that her husband, Jeff McGillicuddy, and her bodyguard, Bill Moose, are planning to assault Hardnose's chief rollerskating rival, Bambi Carrigan. The plan is to break Bambi's nose with a baseball bat so that potential sponsors will not be interested in using her in commercials even if she wins the upcoming world rollerskating championship. Hardnose says nothing to the authorities, and Bambi is later assaulted. What crimes, if any, has Hardnose committed?
2. Hardnose is concerned that if the World Rollerskating Association (WSA) learns of her prior knowledge of the planned assault on Bambi, the WSA will not let her skate at the world rollerskating championship next month. After the assault takes place, Hardnose agrees with McGillicuddy that she will not report him to the police if he will not say anything to the WSA. What crimes, if any, has Hardnose committed?
3. Assume Bill Moose, Hardnose's bodyguard, goes to John Indifferent and offers him $10,000 to break Bambi's nose with a baseball bat. Indifferent says he's not interested. What crimes, if any, has Moose committed? What about John Indifferent?
4. Same facts as Question # 3, except Indifferent accepts the money. However, three weeks later he changes his mind and does not commit the assault. What crimes, if any, have Moose and Indifferent committed? What if Indifferent returns the money?
5. Suppose Bill Moose goes to Jim Survivalist and makes the same offer. Survivalist accepts the money and agrees to break Bambi's nose. Two weeks later Survivalist follows through on the plan. At the time of the assault, Moose is home asleep. What crimes, if any, has Moose committed?

Basic School for Magistrates, August 2019

1. Donna Davis has been arrested for DWI. The officer discovered her sleeping in the driver's seat of her car in the parking lot of a closed business. The engine of the car was running, but the officer did not see it move. Donna was noticeably impaired and admitted to the officer that she had consumed several mixed drinks that evening. She said, however, that she only turned on the engine in the car to keep it warm inside. Do you find probable cause for DWI?
  - a. No, because Donna did not drive the car anywhere.
  - b. No, because the business was closed.
  - c. No, for the reasons in (a) and (b).
  - d. Yes, I find probable cause because Donna was in actual physical control of a vehicle in a public vehicular area whose engine was running.
2. Luther Logan was riding his bicycle on a city street, when he lost control of it and ran into a ditch. An officer who was concerned that Logan might be hurt, approached. He noticed that Logan was unsteady on his feet, smelled of alcohol, and that his speech was slurred. Logan admitted that he had consumed several beers at a nearby bar and that he was riding his bicycle to avoid driving his car while impaired. The officer arrested Logan for DWI. Do you find probable cause for DWI?
  - a. No, because Logan was riding a bicycle.
  - b. No, because Logan was trying to do the right thing.
  - c. No, for the reasons in (a) and (b).
  - d. Yes, I find probable cause, because a bicycle is a vehicle.
3. Paul Jones has been arrested for DWI. A security officer stopped Jones while he was driving his Mercedes on a private road within the gated subdivision where Jones lives. The security officer called a city police officer to the scene. The city officer formed the opinion, based on Jones' strong odor of alcohol, slurred speech, and his poor performance on field sobriety tests, that Jones was impaired and arrested him. Do you find probable cause for DWI?
  - a. No, because Jones was driving in a gated subdivision on a private road.
  - b. No, because I need to know the results of the breath test before I can find probable cause.
  - c. No, for the reasons in (a) and (b).
  - d. Yes, I find probable cause because Jones was driving while impaired in a public vehicular area.
4. Marla Manning was driving her moped on a city street when she was stopped on suspicion of DWI. Marla smelled strongly of alcohol, her speech was slurred, and she was unsteady on her feet. She also performed poorly on field sobriety tests. The officer discovered that Marla's driver's license was revoked. Which of the following statements is true?
  - a. Marla may properly be charged with DWI only.
  - b. Marla may properly be charged with DWI and DWLR.
  - c. Marla may not be charged with DWI or DWLR because she was driving a moped.

5. Marla is 20 years old. May she also be charged with Driving after consuming by a person under 21?
- Yes
  - No
6. Cassie Clayton was convicted two years ago of driving after consuming while under 21. Cassie is now 24 years old. Her license has been restored with a restriction that she not drive with an alcohol concentration of .00 or more. She is stopped at a checkpoint, and the officer asks whether she has had anything to drink. She said that she had wine with dinner a few hours ago. The results of a portable breath test are positive. The officer requires Cassie to submit to a breath test. She blows a .03. For which, if any, of the following offenses do you find probable cause?
- DWI
  - Driving while license revoked
  - Driving after consuming
  - Driving in violation of a license restriction
  - None of the above
7. Merle Maynard's license was revoked last year for a DWI conviction and he obtained a limited driving privilege from the court. Because Merle had an alcohol concentration of 0.15, the limited driving privilege requires that he operate only a motor vehicle equipped with ignition interlock. Merle is stopped for speeding, and the officer discovers that the car Merle is driving does not have ignition interlock. What is the proper charge (in addition to speeding)?
- DWI
  - Driving while license revoked
  - Driving in violation of a license restriction
  - None of the above
8. May Merle continue to drive pursuant to the limited driving privilege until the charges are disposed of?
- Yes, the limited driving privilege remains in effect until it is revoked by the trial court
  - No, the magistrate must suspend and order Merle to surrender the limited driving privilege
9. Suppose that the ignition interlock was imposed as a restriction on Merle's driver's license rather than as a condition of a limited driving privilege. If Merle is discovered to be driving a car that does not have ignition interlock, what is the proper charge?
- DWI
  - Driving while license revoked
  - Driving in violation of a license restriction
  - None of the above
10. May Merle, in this second example, continue to drive until the charges are disposed of?
- Yes, the license remains in effect until it is revoked by the trial court
  - No, the magistrate must suspend and order Merle to surrender his license

RECOMMENDED BEST PRACTICES FOR MANAGEMENT OF CRIMINAL PROCESSES INVOLVING INDIVIDUALS 16-17 YEARS OF AGE

MAGISTRATE

NOTE:

- ❖ Juveniles, as referenced in this document, refer to unemancipated defendants who, at any point while committing an offense on or after 12/1/2019, were 16- or 17-years-old.
- ❖ For additional details regarding Raise the Age (RTA) legislation and its impact on Judicial Branch operations, please see the FAQs and Legislative Summary located on the Raise the Age Resources web page on JUNO.

Before Issuing Initiating Processes (ex. Magistrate Order) Determine if Juvenile Has Any Prior Convictions

NOTE: When processing Chapter 20 offenses, there is no need to check for prior convictions as described below — process Chapter 20 offenses using normal procedures.

- ❖ Juvenile has no prior convictions:
  - ✓ If the current charge is NOT a Chapter 20 offense, refer law enforcement officer (LEO) and citizen complainants to the local Division of Adult Correction and Juvenile Justice (DACJJ)
- ❖ Juvenile only has prior convictions for misdemeanor or infraction Chapter 20 offenses that are not offenses involving impaired driving as defined in G.S. 20-4.01(24a):
  - ✓ If the current charge is NOT a Chapter 20 offense, refer LEO or citizen complainant to the local DACJJ
- ❖ If juvenile has other prior convictions, including convictions for misdemeanor or infraction Chapter 20 offenses that involve impaired driving as defined in G.S. 20-4.01(24a):
  - ✓ Create the process manually

When Issuing Release Orders for Juveniles Who Were Charged as Adults

- ❖ Warrants for Arrest (WFA) charging an offense other than a Chapter 20 offense:
  - ✓ Create Release Order manually
  - ✓ For those processes that exist in NCAWARE
    - Update the WFA with service information via Process Tracking in NCAWARE
- ❖ In cases in which the original WFA is not available:
  - ✓ Refer to local practice regarding service without process
- ❖ WFA or Magistrate Order issued for an arrestable Chapter 20 offense:
  - ✓ Enter Release Order in NCAWARE using current procedures
- ❖ When issuing a release order and it is later determined that the WFA should not have been issued because either no age was entered, or the wrong age was entered when the WFA was issued:
  - ✓ Print the unserved WFA
  - ✓ Recall the unserved WFA via Process Tracking in NCAWARE
  - ✓ Forward the printed WFA and any additional paperwork to the criminal clerk
    - Notify the criminal clerk that the WFA was recalled because the defendant is under juvenile jurisdiction
    - Advise the criminal clerk to delete the case from CCIS-CC and forward the paperwork to DACJJ
  - ✓ Refer LEO to DACJJ if they wish to proceed with a juvenile petition

Additional Recommended Best Practices

- ❖ Refer to local practice regarding who is responsible for making initial contact with the local Juvenile Justice Office (DACJJ) and what information is required from the local DACJJ for the magistrate to move forward with issuing a process on a 16- or 17-year-old juvenile.
- ❖ When a request is made to issue a warrant on a juvenile who is (or assumed to be) 16- or 17-years of age, confirm that the juvenile should be charged as an adult before issuing the process.
- ❖ If the process which was issued in error is unable to be recalled*:
  - *Issued processes can only be recalled by the issuing magistrate*
    - ✓ Print the issued unserved process(es)

- ✓ Forward the printed process and any additional paperwork to the criminal clerk
  - Refer to local rules regarding the correct process for notifying the criminal clerk
  - Advise the criminal clerk to immediately delete the case from CCIS-CC and forward the paperwork to DACJJ

Resources to Identify Prior Convictions, If Necessary

❖ Local Juvenile Justice Office (DACJJ)

- ✓ Refer to local practice regarding who is responsible for making this initial contact (magistrate or LEO/complainant)
- ✓ If the LEO or complainant is responsible for contacting DACJJ to confirm a juvenile's status, and it is determined that the juvenile should be charged as an adult, refer to local practice regarding what information is required for the magistrate to move forward with issuing the process(es)

❖ ACIS

- ✓ Magistrates who have inquiry access to ACIS can view prior convictions
- ✓ Contact your BSA or consult the Learning Center for ACIS training
- ✓ ACIS access can be requested via the AOC-A-151 form

❖ CJLEADS

- ✓ Magistrates who have access to CJLEADS can view prior convictions
- ✓ Consult the Learning Center for CJLEADS training
  - Search for DIT CJLEADS (End User Training) Judicial Only
- ✓ CJLEADS access can be requested via the CJLEADS Judicial Users Access Request Form available on JUNO.
  - Search for CJLEADS Judicial Users Access Request Form

JUVENILE FORMS AND THE DELINQUENCY PROCESS

Please note that this chart does not reflect every form that may possibly be used in a delinquency matter. For a chart with additional forms that may be used, please see Juvenile Delinquency/Undisciplined Forms issued by the NCAOC in July 2020 at <https://juno.nccourts.org/resources/references/juvenile-delinquency-process-and-forms> Additionally, it will not be necessary to use some of the forms listed on this flowchart in every delinquency proceeding. Many of the forms are needed only if the court issues certain orders.

EXCEPTIONS TO PRETRIAL RELEASE PROCEDURES: A GUIDE FOR MAGISTRATES

THE GENERAL RULE: Upon arrest, the defendant must be taken without unnecessary delay before a magistrate, who MUST hold an initial appearance and set pretrial release (PTR) conditions. G.S. 15A-511; G.S. 15A-533(b) (right to pretrial release determination). There are LIMITED exceptions to this rule.

| Category  | Specific Situation   | Response  | Statutory Basis | Form to Use   |
| Delay initial appearance altogether                                       | Person is unable to understand rights (ex., person is unconscious, grossly intoxicated, does not understand English)   | Delay initial appearance for reasonable time without setting PTR conditions. If you commit person to jail until able to understand rights, set reasonable outer time limit and check regularly with jail. To avoid delay of initial appearance if person does not speak English, use telephone interpreting service when possible.                        | 15A-511(a)(3)   | AOC-CR-200Fill out commitment portion of form only. Check the box to hold person “for the following purpose” and write purpose. Do not set PTR conditions in upper portion of form. |
| Conduct initial appearance, BUT delay setting pretrial release conditions | Person is charged with domestic violence offense under “48-hour” law   | Conduct initial appearance, but do not set PTR conditions. Order that person be returned to magistrate if judge does not set PTR conditions within 48 hours. After 48 hours, magistrate has authority to delay setting of PTR conditions for reasonable time if person continues to pose danger   | 15A-534.1       | AOC-CR-200Fill out commitment portion of form only. Check the domestic violence box and indicate when defendant should be returned to magistrate if judge has not acted.            |
|   | Felony by person on probation if insufficient information about danger to public   | Conduct initial appearance, but do not set PTR conditions. Order that person be brought for first appearance before judge no later than 96 hours. If sufficient information before then, set PTR conditions.  | 15A-534(d2)     | AOC-CR-200, AOC-CR-272 (side one)Check the appropriate box in AOC-CR-200 and fill out AOC-CR-272 (side one)   |
|   | Violation of probation by person who has pending felony charge or who is subject to sex offender registration if insufficient information about danger to public | Conduct initial appearance, but do not set PTR conditions. If defendant has been held for 7 days without PTR conditions, defendant must be brought before any judicial official to set PTR conditions. If sufficient information before then that not a danger, set PTR conditions.   | 15A-1345(b1)    | AOC-CR-200, AOC-CR-272 (side two)Check the appropriate box in AOC-CR-200 and fill out AOC-CR-272 (side two)   |
|   | Violation of 14-277.6 or 14-277.7 (threat of mass violence on educational property or place of worship)  | Conduct initial appearance, but do not set PTR conditions. Order that person be returned to magistrate if judge does not set PTR conditions within 48 hours. After 48 hours, magistrate may retain defendant for reasonable time while determining PTR conditions if immediate release poses danger of injury and appearance bond will not prevent injury | 15A-534.7       | AOC-CR-200  |

Domestic Violence Crimes and the 48-Hour Rule

Overview

G.S. 15A-534.1 provides that, for certain domestic violence crimes, only a judge may set conditions of release in the first 48 hours after the defendant's arrest. A magistrate is empowered to set conditions only if 48 hours pass without a judge setting conditions. For example, if a defendant is arrested on Friday night and no judge is available during the weekend, a magistrate could set conditions on Sunday night. This provision is known across the state as "the 48-hour rule." Note that the rule does not require or permit the defendant to be held for 48 hours if a judge is available to set conditions of release sooner. If a judge is available and the defendant is not presented to him or her, the case may be dismissed. See State v. Thompson, 349 N.C. 483 (1998) (finding a due process violation where a defendant was held despite several judges being available). Thus, the rule is not a "48-hour hold."

The rule applies "[i]n all cases in which the defendant is charged with assault on, stalking, communicating a threat to, or committing a felony provided in Articles 7B, 8, 10, or 15 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes upon a spouse or former spouse, a person with whom the defendant lives or has lived as if married, or a person with whom the defendant is or has been in a dating relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1(b)(6), with domestic criminal trespass, or with violation of an order entered pursuant to Chapter 50B, Domestic Violence, of the General Statutes." G.S. 15A-534.1.

This document is intended to assist magistrates and others in applying the 48-hour rule. It is current as of December 1, 2019. It does not address the similar rule contained in G.S. 15A-534.7 regarding defendants charged with communicating certain threats of mass violence.<sup>1</sup>

48-Hour Rule Flow Chart

The 48-hour rule applies if:

<sup>1</sup> Previous versions of this document also addressed whether certain offenses were covered by the Crime Victims' Rights Act, Article 46 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes. However, the victims' rights statutes were substantially revised by the General Assembly during the 2019 legislative session. Whether an offense is covered by the victims' rights statutes now depends exclusively on the offense charged, regardless of the relationship between the defendant and the victim, and thus is an entirely separate question from whether the 48-hour rule applies. A complete list of offenses covered by the new victims' rights statutes may be found at Jamie Markham, Crimes Covered under the New Victims' Rights Law, N.C. CRIM. L. BLOG (Sept. 27, 2019), <https://nccriminallaw.sog.unc.edu/crimes-covered-under-the-new-victims-rights-law/>.

Option A: When the offense charged is domestic criminal trespass or violation of a 50B order

The 48-hour rule always applies when the defendant is charged with

- G.S. 14-134.3: Domestic criminal trespass
- G.S. 50B-4.1: Violation of valid protective order (note that although G.S. 50B-4.1 addresses violations of both North Carolina protective orders and out-of-state orders, G.S. 15A-534.1 applies only to defendants charged with “violation of an order entered pursuant to Chapter 50B,” i.e., to defendants charged with violating North Carolina protective orders)

When one of these crimes is charged, no further inquiry into the relationship between the defendant and the victim is required.

Option B: When there is a covered offense and a qualifying victim

The 48-hour rule also applies when the defendant is charged with committing what this paper will call a covered offense against what this paper will call a qualifying victim. Both a covered offense and a qualifying victim are required for the rule to apply. This paper will address the existence of a covered offense as step 1 of the analysis, then will proceed to address the existence of a qualifying victim as step 2.

Step 1: Covered offenses

Covered offenses include charges of “assault on, stalking, communicating a threat to, or committing a felony provided in Articles 7B, 8, 10, or 15 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes upon” a victim. G.S. 15A-534.1. A list of each offense that is covered by the statute is below, organized by the word or clause within G.S. 15A-534.1 that covers the offense.

Assaults

The 48-hour rule applies to “assault[s].”<sup>2</sup> Many assault crimes are contained in Article 8 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, and the 48-hour rule also applies to all “felon[ies] provided in Article . . . 8,” so the list of assault crimes set forth below is partly redundant with the list of felonies contained in Article 8 that is set forth later in this document.

The list below includes many assault crimes that are unlikely to arise in a domestic violence context and normally will not involve a qualifying victim. For example, G.S. 14-16.6 makes it unlawful to assault certain executive, legislative, and court officials “because of the exercise of that officer’s duties.” Such an assault normally will be committed by a disgruntled citizen with no personal relationship to the official in question. But the offense is an assault crime and therefore is a covered offense under the terms of the 48-hour rule, so it is included below.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup> It is possible to imagine unusual circumstances under which the offense would involve a qualifying victim. For example, suppose that a district court judge finds a DWI defendant guilty and imposes an active sentence. The

- G.S. 14-16.6: Assault on executive, legislative, or court officer (including with a firearm and inflicting serious bodily injury)
- G.S. 14-23.5: Assault inflicting serious bodily injury on an unborn child (note that it appears to be impossible for an unborn child to be a qualifying victim, but the statute requires “a battery on the mother of the unborn child,” and the mother could be a qualifying victim)
- G.S. 14-23.6: Battery on an unborn child (same note as for G.S. 14-23.5)
- G.S. 14-28: Malicious castration (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does appear to require unconsented contact; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-29: Castration or other maiming without malice aforethought (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does appear to require unconsented contact; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-30: Malicious maiming (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does appear to require unconsented contact; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-30.1: Malicious throwing of corrosive acid or alkali (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does appear to require unconsented contact; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-31: Maliciously assaulting in a secret manner
- G.S. 14-32: Felonious assault with deadly weapon with intent to kill or inflicting serious injury
- G.S. 14-32.1: Assaults on individuals with a disability
- G.S. 14-32.2: Patient abuse and neglect (includes several gradations depending on the defendant’s intent and the severity of the injury inflicted; it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does require physical abuse; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-32.3: Domestic abuse, neglect, and exploitation of disabled or elder adults (note that “assault” is one way of establishing the element of abuse but not the only way, so the assault provisions of the 48-hour rule might apply to some offenses under this statute but not others; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-32.4: Assault inflicting serious bodily injury; strangulation
- G.S. 14-33: Misdemeanor assaults, batteries, and affrays, simple and aggravated (this statute includes simple assault, assault inflicting serious injury, assault on a female, and assault on a child under 12, as well as several other assault offenses less likely to arise in a domestic violence context)
- G.S. 14-33.2: Habitual misdemeanor assault
- G.S. 14-34: Assaulting by pointing gun
- G.S. 14-34.1: Discharging certain barreled weapons or a firearm into occupied property (includes several gradations; it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does require discharging a firearm into occupied property, which defendant is angry and assaults the judge. If, years ago, the defendant and the judge had engaged in a dating relationship, the 48-hour rule would apply.

arguably inherently amounts to an assault; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)

- G.S. 14-34.2: Assault with a firearm or other deadly weapon upon governmental officers or employees, company police officers, or campus police officers
- G.S. 14-34.5: Assault with a firearm on a law enforcement, probation, or parole officer, or on a member of the North Carolina National Guard, or on a person employed at a State or local detention facility
- G.S. 14-34.6: Assault or affray on a firefighter, an emergency medical technician, medical responder, and hospital personnel
- G.S. 14-34.7: Certain assaults on a law enforcement, probation, or parole officer, or on a member of the North Carolina National Guard, or on a person employed at a State or local detention facility
- G.S. 14-34.9: Discharging a firearm from within an enclosure (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does require discharging a firearm toward a person; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-34.10: Discharge firearm within enclosure to incite fear (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does require discharging a firearm with the intent to incite fear in another person; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-288.9: Assault on emergency personnel

Stalking

The only offense that is clearly covered under this provision is

- G.S. 14-277.3A: Stalking

A frequent question is whether cyberstalking, as defined in G.S. 14-196.3, is a covered offense. At least under most circumstances, it probably is not for the reasons given in Jeff Welty, Cyberstalking and the 48-Hour Rule, N.C. CRIM. L. BLOG (Nov. 28, 2012), <https://nccriminallaw.sog.unc.edu/cyberstalking-and-the-48-hour-rule/>.

Communicating threats

As with the list of assault crimes, above, the list below includes several offenses that are unlikely to arise in a domestic violence context and normally will not involve a qualifying victim.

- G.S. 14-16.7: Threats against executive, legislative, or court officers
- G.S. 14-277.1: Communicating threats
- G.S. 14-277.6: Communicating a threat of mass violence on educational property<sup>4</sup>
- G.S. 14-277.7: Communicating a threat of mass violence at a place of religious worship<sup>5</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Note that when charging this offense, the 48-hour rule set forth in G.S. 15A-534.7 will apply regardless of whether there is a qualifying victim.

- G.S. 14-394: Anonymous or threatening letters, mailing or transmitting

A frequent question is whether harassing phone calls, as defined in G.S. 14-196, is a covered offense. At least under most circumstances, it probably is not as discussed in Jeff Welty, Cyberstalking and the 48-Hour Rule, N.C. CRIM. L. BLOG (Nov. 28, 2012), <https://nccriminallaw.sog.unc.edu/cyberstalking-and-the-48-hour-rule/>.

Felonies in Article 7B (“Rape and Other Sex Offenses”)

The following felonies are contained in Article 7B. As with several other categories of offenses addressed in this paper, some crimes on this list may be unlikely to involve a qualifying victim and so may rarely require the application of the 48-hour rule.

- G.S. 14-27.21: First-degree forcible rape
- G.S. 14-27.22: Second-degree forcible rape
- G.S. 14-27.23: Statutory rape of a child by an adult
- G.S. 14-27.24: First-degree statutory rape
- G.S. 14-27.25: Statutory rape of person who is 15 years of age or younger
- G.S. 14-27.26: First-degree forcible sexual offense
- G.S. 14-27.27: Second-degree forcible sexual offense
- G.S. 14-27.28: Statutory sexual offense with a child by an adult
- G.S. 14-27.29: First-degree statutory sexual offense
- G.S. 14-27.30: Statutory sexual offense with a person who is 15 years of age or younger
- G.S. 14-27.31: Sexual activity by a substitute parent or custodian
- G.S. 14-27.32: Sexual activity with a student

Felonies in Article 8 (“Assaults”)

The following felonies are contained in Article 8. As noted above, many of these crimes are also assault offenses, making this list partly duplicative of the above list of assault crimes. As with several other categories of offenses addressed in this paper, some crimes on this list may be unlikely to involve a qualifying victim and so may rarely require the application of the 48-hour rule.

- G.S. 14-28: Malicious castration
- G.S. 14-29: Castration or other maiming without malice aforethought
- G.S. 14-30: Malicious maiming
- G.S. 14-30.1: Malicious throwing of corrosive acid or alkali
- G.S. 14-31: Maliciously assaulting in a secret manner
- G.S. 14-32: Felonious assault with deadly weapon with intent to kill or inflicting serious injury
- G.S. 14-32.1: Assaults on individuals with a disability (note, not all offenses defined in this statute are felonies)
- G.S. 14-32.2: Patient abuse and neglect
- G.S. 14-32.3: Domestic abuse, neglect, and exploitation of disabled or elder adults
- G.S. 14-32.4: Assault inflicting serious bodily injury; strangulation
- G.S. 14-33.2: Habitual misdemeanor assault
- G.S. 14-34.1: Discharging certain barreled weapons or a firearm into occupied property

- G.S. 14-34.2: Assault with a firearm or other deadly weapon upon governmental officers or employees, company police officers, or campus police officers
- G.S. 14-34.4: Adulterated or misbranded food, drugs, or cosmetics; intent to cause serious injury or death; intent to extort
- G.S. 14-34.5: Assault with a firearm on a law enforcement, probation, or parole officer, or on a member of the North Carolina National Guard, or on a person employed at a State or local detention facility
- G.S. 14-34.6: Assault or affray on a firefighter, an emergency medical technician, medical responder, and hospital personnel
- G.S. 14-34.7: Certain assaults on a law enforcement, probation, or parole officer, or on a member of the North Carolina National Guard, or on a person employed at a State or local detention facility
- G.S. 14-34.9: Discharging a firearm from within an enclosure
- G.S. 14-34.10: Discharge firearm within enclosure to incite fear

Felonies in Article 10 (“Kidnapping and Abduction”)

The following felonies are contained in Article 10. As with several other categories of offenses addressed in this paper, some crimes on this list may be unlikely to involve a qualifying victim and so may rarely require the application of the 48-hour rule.

- G.S. 14-39: Kidnapping
- G.S. 14-41: Abduction of children
- G.S. 14-43.3: Felonious restraint

Felonies in Article 15 (“Arson and Other Burnings”)

The following felonies are contained in Article 15. As with several other categories of offenses addressed in this paper, some crimes on this list may be unlikely to involve a qualifying victim and so may rarely require the application of the 48-hour rule. Additionally, for several of the offenses in this Article, it may be difficult to determine whether the offense was committed “upon” a qualifying victim because the principal target of the offense is property, not a person. For example, if A burns B’s residence, has A committed an offense “upon” B? What if A burns a residence that does not belong to B but B is injured in the fire? There is no case law explaining when an arson offense is committed “upon” a person for purposes of G.S. 15A-534.1.

- G.S. 14-58: Punishment for arson (note that this statute defines the punishment class for first- and second-degree arson; perhaps an argument could be made that because arson is a common law offense, arson is not a “felony provided in” Article 15 notwithstanding this statute; no case law addresses this issue)
- G.S. 14-58.2: Burning of mobile home, manufactured-type house or recreational trailer home
- G.S. 14-59: Burning of certain public buildings
- G.S. 14-60: Burning of schoolhouses or buildings of educational institutions
- G.S. 14-61: Burning of certain bridges and buildings
- G.S. 14-62: Burning of certain buildings
- G.S. 14-62.1: Burning of building or structure in process of construction
- G.S. 14-62.2: Burning of churches and certain other religious buildings

- G.S. 14-63: Burning of boats and barges
- G.S. 14-64: Burning of ginhouses and tobacco houses
- G.S. 14-65: Fraudulently setting fire to dwelling houses
- G.S. 14-66: Burning of personal property
- G.S. 14-67.1: Burning other buildings
- G.S. 14-67.2: Burning caused during commission of another felony
- G.S. 14-69.1: Making a false report concerning destructive device
- G.S. 14-69.2: Perpetrating hoax by use of false bomb or other device
- G.S. 14-69.3: Arson or other unlawful burning that results in serious bodily injury to a firefighter, law enforcement officer, fire investigator, or emergency medical technician

Step 2: Qualifying victims

If a defendant is charged with a covered offense, the applicability of the 48-hour rule depends on the existence of a qualifying victim. The statute provides that such a victim is “a spouse or former spouse [of the defendant], a person with whom the defendant lives or has lived as if married, or a person with whom the defendant is or has been in a dating relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1(b)(6).” Thus, a qualifying victim must have one of the following relationships to the defendant:

- Spouse. Presumably this applies when the victim and the defendant are legally married, even if separated or in the process of divorce.
- Former spouse. There is no time limit in the statute, so this provision appears to apply even if the defendant and the victim divorced years or decades ago.
- Person with whom the defendant lives as if married. Although this term is not defined in the statute, presumably this provision applies when the victim and the defendant live together and have a romantic or sexual relationship.
- Person with whom the defendant has lived as if married. As with the category “former spouse,” there is no time limit in the statute regarding when the defendant and the victim must have lived together.
- Person with whom the defendant is in a dating relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1(b)(6). Under G.S. 50B-1(b)(6), a “a dating relationship is one wherein the parties are romantically involved over time and on a continuous basis during the course of the relationship. A casual acquaintance or ordinary fraternization between persons in a business or social context is not a dating relationship.”
- Person with whom the defendant has been in a dating relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1(b)(6). Again, there is no time limit in the statute regarding when the dating relationship must have existed.

It is not relevant whether the defendant and the victim are the same sex or different sexes. Persons of the same sex or of different sexes may be “spouses,” may “live together as if married,” and may have a “dating relationship.” Confusion sometimes arises on this point because of the reference to G.S. 50B-1(b)(6). If one looks at G.S. 50B-1(b) generally, rather than at (b)(6) specifically, one might focus on the definition of the term “personal relationship.” G.S. 50B-1(b)(6) states that a “personal relationship” includes:

persons of the opposite sex who are in a dating relationship or have been in a dating relationship. A dating relationship is one wherein the parties are romantically involved over time and on a continuous basis during the course of the relationship. A casual acquaintance or ordinary fraternization between persons in a business or social context is not a dating relationship.

Note that nothing in the definition of “dating relationship” requires the parties to be of different sexes. Under the statute, a “dating relationship” is a “personal relationship” only if the parties are of different sexes, but the applicability of the 48-hour rule turns on the existence of a “dating relationship,” not the existence of a “personal relationship.”<sup>6</sup>

Conclusion

To sum up, the 48-hour rule always applies when the offense charged is domestic criminal trespass or violation of a 50B order. It also applies when a defendant is charged with committing a covered offense against a qualifying victim.

<sup>6</sup> Whether it would be constitutional to apply the 48-hour rule only to different-sex couples might be questioned under Obergefell v. Hodges, 576 U.S. ___, 135 S. Ct. 2584 (2015) (holding that laws limiting marriage to same-sex couples are unconstitutional, in part on equal protection grounds).

PROBLEMS IN DETERMINING THE CONDITIONS OF PRETRIAL RELEASE

[Choose best answer(s) for each problem]

1. Frank Furrillo is arrested and brought before you for communicating threats to Joyce Davenport. Furrillo has been living as if married with Davenport for the past 18 months. Furrillo appears to be very upset at being arrested, but he cooperates with you and makes no threats. What action should you take?
  - a. Set release conditions as usual.
  - b. Set release conditions and commit him to jail for a reasonable time.
  - c. Do not set release conditions and commit him to jail for a reasonable time.
  - d. Place him in a holding cell for about 30 minutes.
  - e. Commit him to jail because only a judge may set release conditions for the period of 48 hours from Furrillo's arrest.
2. Charles Manson was arrested and was charged with being drunk and disruptive. After you have found probable cause he starts screaming obscenities in a loud voice. You ask him to be quiet and he yells louder. This continues for several minutes and then he quiets down. Every few minutes he continues to mumble obscenities. What action should you take?
  - a. Place him in a holding cell for about 30 minutes.
  - b. Set release conditions as usual.
  - c. Set release conditions and commit him to jail for a reasonable time.
  - d. Do not set release conditions and commit him to jail for a reasonable time.
3. Amy Ames, a local prostitute, is arrested and charged with assault on a government officer. She walked up to his patrol car, leaned in the open window, yelled "buzz off," and slapped him in the face. You have placed her under a $500 secured bond. May you specify that the bond is to be satisfied with "cash only"?
  - a. Yes
  - b. No, unless authorized by a judge in local pretrial release policy
4. It is near the end of your shift and you have just conducted an initial appearance for Wilson Snipes. You have placed him under a $2,000 secured bond. Snipes is resting uncomfortably in the jail because he cannot make bond. On the next shift (you are asleep at home) another magistrate, without consulting you, modifies Mr. Snipes' bond and places him under an unsecured bond. Snipes is released. Was the second magistrate's modification legally authorized based on these facts?
  - a. Yes
  - b. No
5. Willis Souse has been charged with disorderly conduct. He is grossly intoxicated and you have decided to delay the initial appearance pursuant to G.S. 15A-511(a)(3). You have checked the box to "hold him for the following purpose" on the commitment order. What is the best choice for completing that part of the order?
  - a. "Hold until sober."
  - b. "Hold a maximum of 8 hours."
  - c. "Hold until sober or a maximum of 24 hours."
  - d. "Hold until sober or a maximum of 8 hours."

6. Ruby Jones tells you that her husband, Will Jones, beat her and she asks you to issue an assault warrant against him. Ruby is badly bruised and her husband has a history of hitting her. You issue a warrant for his arrest. When Will Jones is brought before you he mumbles “that bitch will pay for this when I hit the street tonight.” What action should you take?
- Set release conditions as usual.
  - Set release conditions and commit him to jail for a reasonable time.
  - Do not set release conditions and commit him to jail for a specified reasonable period of time.
  - Commit him to jail for 12 hours.
  - Commit him to jail because only a judge may set release conditions for the period of 48 hours from Will Jones' arrest.
7. Pierre “Happy Feet” Jones has been arrested and charged with criminal trespass. This is the fifth time that he has been arrested for trespass after being forbidden. On each occasion he has trespassed on the property of Joan Arke. You have placed him under a $500 secured bond and have attached a condition that he refrain from going on her property. Is that a legally authorized condition?
- Yes
  - No
8. Otis, the town drunk, is arrested and charged with misdemeanor breaking and entering. He has a bottle of Thunderbird stuffed into his coat pocket and he reeks of alcohol. Otis falls asleep on the floor while you are talking with the officer. He wakes up when prodded, but each time he goes back to sleep. Otis does not appear to recognize you, though you have known him for years. What action should you take?
- Set release conditions as usual.
  - Set release conditions and commit him to jail for a reasonable time until he is sufficiently sober to appear before you for an initial appearance.
  - Do not set release conditions and commit him to jail for a reasonable time until he is sufficiently sober to appear before you for an initial appearance.
9. Peter “The Rabbit” Martin has been arrested and charged with misdemeanor breaking and entering. You have known Peter for years and believe that basically he is a good kid. He does not have a criminal record. Recently you have heard that he is being influenced by a group of thugs (who have been charged with break-ins) who hang out at the local pool hall, the Corner Pocket. You release Peter on his written promise to appear and attach a condition that he stay away from the Corner Pocket. Is this condition legally authorized?
- Yes
  - No

Are you required to change his pretrial release conditions if Peter gets mad and demands a secured bond without conditions?

- Yes
  - No
10. L. Winston Vanderbilt has been arrested and charged with second-degree forcible rape. You have placed him under a $10,000 secured bond. Vanderbilt has lived in the community all his life and certainly will appear for trial. However, he has no friends, is not married, and has no relatives in North Carolina. He is a millionaire, but his assets are frozen in numerous investments. May Vanderbilt be released if he agrees to sign his own secured bond by posting his own cash?
- Yes
  - No

11. Walt Crowell has been arrested and charged with assaulting his wife, Wanda Crowell. Walt Crowell is brought before you after 48 hours have elapsed because a judge was not available to set conditions of pretrial release. You place him under a $500 secured bond. You also have attached a condition that Walt stay away from Wanda at home and at work. In addition, you have attached a condition that he not harass or assault her. Are these conditions legally authorized?

a. Yes

b. No

12. Defendant was arrested by law enforcement officers on a DCI hit on a warrant from another county. The officers do not have the warrant when they bring the defendant to you. What should you do?

PROBLEMS IN SELECTING THE PROPER CHARGE AND SETTING PRETRIAL RELEASE CONDITIONS

Instructions: For the following problems: (1) decide, if appropriate for the problem, what criminal offense was committed; and (2) set the conditions of pretrial release as you would do so in your county. Each magistrate should complete one release order from one of the problems.

To assist in doing these problems, the following is a list of each class of felonies and the minimum and maximum punishment for each, with the minimum based on a mitigated sentence in Prior Record Level 1 and the maximum based on an aggravated sentence in Prior Record Level VI:

1. Detective Steve Roman arrests without a warrant and brings in Allen Watts Ewing, age 26, of 1150 Brookside Drive. Earlier this evening—in the course of a search of Ewing’s home with a search warrant—ten pounds of marijuana were found in his bedroom. He also had a .38 caliber pistol under his jacket in his belt. Ewing has two previous arrests and convictions for misdemeanor assault and has been employed as a cook at the same place for the past two years.
2. Officer Kerry Davis arrests without a warrant Jerry Dennis Lawrence, age 18, of 1407 Roosevelt Drive, and brings him to you. Early this afternoon, Lawrence saw the keys in the ignition of Marsha Williams’ 1982 Volkswagen, license TRG 887, when the car was parked on Kennedy Street. Lawrence got in the car, drove it to Frame Street on the other side of town, and abandoned it, just before being apprehended by Davis. Lawrence lives with his parents and is a high school student. He has a previous conviction for reckless driving.
3. SBI agent Felix Katz brings in Troy K. Cake, age 24, arrested under an arrest warrant for selling heroin and possessing heroin with intent to sell and deliver. The arrest warrant was issued in a county located 200 miles from your county. Cake has no prior arrests. Cake has $1,500 cash and says he would be willing to post a cash bond.

4. A Highway Patrol Officer arrest K.T. Rowse, age 19, of 65 Roosevelt Drive, for DWI. Rowse's alcohol concentration is 0.27. Rowse is cooperative but appears to be extremely intoxicated. There is no sober adult willing and able to take care of him.
5. A new .45 caliber Smith & Wesson revolver, serial #RR456J77, fair market value of $345, was stolen from Smithville Gun and Hobby Shop during a nighttime break-in two days ago. An undercover officer bought it this morning for $30 from Fred Lloyd, age 30, and then arrested him without a warrant and brings him to you. Lloyd is a resident of the county and has one prior conviction for felonious breaking and entering.
6. Detective Nancy Stone arrests Wayne Buchanan without a warrant and brings him to you and explains: Last night Wayne Buchanan poured gasoline inside and set fire to Donald Bell's 1991 Ford Mustang. The entire back seat was burned before the fire was extinguished. Buchanan is 16 years old and lives with his parents in town. He refuses to be released to the custody of his parents and he has previously failed to appear in court for a reckless driving charge.
7. Deputy Sheriff Samuel Burden arrests Steve Wiles, age 18, with an order for arrest for Wiles for failing to appear in court for the charge of accessory after the fact of armed robbery. The order for arrest was issued by a district court judge in your county and bears the notation "$25,000 secured bond."
8. A city police officer arrests Susan T. Jones, age 35, of 66 E. Main Street, for DWI. Jones's alcohol concentration is 0.20. Jones is uncooperative and extremely intoxicated. Her husband, age 37, was a passenger in the car that Jones was driving. He is sober, has a valid driver's license, and states that he will take care of her until she becomes sober.
9. Officer Jesse Wilson appears at your office with Ron Z. Bloat, age 31. The officer has arrested Bloat based on an outstanding arrest warrant for a $55 worthless check. It is Saturday night. Bloat has a long history of mental trouble. Shortly after his appearance a worker from the Franklin Mental Health Clinic appears and says the Clinic would be happy to see to it that Bloat appears in court.

ESSENTIALS OF CONTEMPT FOR MAGISTRATES

Different kinds of contempt

There are two kinds of contempt: criminal contempt and civil contempt.

Criminal contempt is used to punish for acts that disrupt a court proceeding or show disrespect, and also can be used for violation of court orders. Criminal contempt can be direct or indirect. Direct criminal contempt occurs in the court's presence; indirect does not. Criminal contempt can be punished by imprisonment and/or a fine.

Civil contempt is used to get someone to comply with a court order. There is no distinction between direct and indirect civil contempt; in any event, virtually all civil contempt takes place outside the court's presence. The only means of enforcing civil contempt is to imprison the person until the person complies with the court order.

Magistrate's authority

A magistrate's authority to use contempt is stated in G.S. 7A-292(2). A magistrate may punish only for direct criminal contempt. That is, a magistrate may punish only for criminal contempt that takes place in the magistrate's presence. Any other kind of contempt must be referred to a district court judge.

Meaning of criminal contempt

Criminal contempt is defined in G.S. 5A-11. Only the acts listed in the statute may be punished by criminal contempt.

The contemptuous acts listed in G.S. 5A-11 most likely to be committed directly before a magistrate are:

- "Willful behavior committed during the sitting of a court and directly tending to interrupt its proceedings."
- "Willful behavior committed during the sitting of a court in its immediate view and presence and directly tending to impair the respect due its authority."

It is also possible, though less likely, that this form of criminal contempt will be committed directly before a magistrate:

- “Willful refusal to be sworn or affirmed as a witness, or, when so sworn or affirmed, willful refusal to answer any legal and proper question when the refusal is not legally justified.”

One can also think of unusual situations in which the following forms of criminal contempt could occur directly before a magistrate, but most often they would not be direct contempt because the magistrate would not have actually observed the violation:

- “Willful disobedience of, resistance to, or interference with a court’s lawful process, order, directive, or instruction or its execution.”
- “Willful or grossly negligent failure to comply with schedules and practices of the court resulting in substantial interference with the business of the court.”

Meaning of direct contempt

G.S. 5A-13 says that an act is direct criminal contempt only when the act:

- “(1) Is committed within the sight and hearing of a presiding judicial official; and
- (2) Is committed in, or in immediate proximity to, the room where proceedings are being held before the court; and
- (3) Is likely to interrupt or interfere with matters then before the court.”

Summary or plenary proceeding

Contempt may be dealt with in a summary proceeding or a plenary proceeding. A summary proceeding means that the magistrate deals with the contempt right then and there as it occurs. That choice is always available for direct contempt. If for whatever reason the magistrate does not wish to deal with the contempt immediately, the magistrate may issue a show cause order for the defendant to appear before a district judge at a later time for a plenary proceeding. A summary proceeding is an on-the-spot quick determination of contempt; a plenary proceeding is more like a regularly-scheduled trial.

The summary proceeding

At a summary proceeding for direct criminal contempt the magistrate must tell the person that the magistrate is considering holding the person in contempt; describe what the person did that was contemptuous; and give the person a chance to respond why it is not contempt. Even if the conduct which is the basis for contempt is obvious to everyone, and it is clear that the defendant has no good excuse, the magistrate still must explain the basis for the contempt and still must give the defendant an opportunity to respond. The magistrate should also inform the person that contempt can be punished by imprisonment for up to 30 days and a fine of up to $500.

The summary proceeding must be held “substantially contemporaneously” with the contempt. As a practical matter that means just as soon as the contempt occurs or within a few minutes thereafter. There can be situations in which it is permissible to delay the summary proceeding for a day or so, but a magistrate should not attempt to do that. If the contempt proceeding is not going to be held right away the magistrate should issue a show cause order for the defendant to appear before a district judge at a later time.

G.S. 15A-511(a)(3) says that if a defendant at an initial appearance is so unruly or is unconscious or so intoxicated as to be unable to understand what is going on the magistrate can order the person held for a short time before conducting the initial appearance. If the defendant’s unruliness includes contemptuous behavior, the magistrate may wait on the summary proceeding until the defendant is brought back for the initial appearance. If the defendant acts contemptuously but is too intoxicated for the initial appearance or for an orderly summary proceeding, the defendant probably is not capable of acting willfully (see below) and contempt is not appropriate.

G.S. 5A-16(a) authorizes a magistrate to order a person being charged with direct criminal contempt to be held and restrained “to the extent necessary to assure his presence for summary proceedings . . . .” That statute should be used only when necessary to keep the person from fleeing.

A magistrate conducting a summary proceeding should use form AOC-CR-390. The form should describe in detail the behavior that was contemptuous, including direct quotation of words that were spoken.

Show-cause order for a plenary proceeding

Although direct criminal contempt always may be punished summarily, it does not have to be done summarily. The magistrate may choose to issue a show cause order and direct the person to appear before a district court judge in a plenary proceeding. The plenary proceeding should be used when the person is so belligerent or disruptive that it is not possible to conduct a summary proceeding; when the office is too busy to stop for a summary proceeding; or when the magistrate has become too personally involved to decide the contempt.

The form a magistrate should use for a show-cause order for contempt is AOC-CR-219, but the form is not designed for the most common kind of direct criminal contempt. The simplest way to use the form usually will be to check box IV for “Failure To Obey Other Order Of the Court” but strike through that heading and substitute “Interruption of Court Proceeding” or “Disrespect to Court” and then describe the behavior which is contemptuous.

Willfulness and warning

G.S. 5A-12(b) provides that a person may be punished for criminal contempt only if the person’s actions are “willfully contemptuous” or the person was given “a clear warning by the court that the conduct is improper.” Willfulness has been defined by appellate court opinions to mean “more than deliberation or conscious choice; it also imports a bad faith disregard for authority and the law.” Some acts such as spitting at a magistrate or yelling profanity or kicking a table are willfully contemptuous by their nature and so inherently disruptive and disrespectful that no warning is needed. However, when the defendant is doing something less disrespectful and disruptive, such as talking so much that no one else can speak or refusing to sit down and await one’s turn to be heard, the magistrate must warn the person that the behavior is unacceptable before using contempt.

To avoid later questions about whether the contempt was “willfully contemptuous,” it is better for the magistrate to always give a warning before holding a person in contempt. The willfully contemptuous defendant is not likely to stop just because of the warning.

Right to counsel

If a lawyer is present with a person charged with direct contempt, of course the lawyer may represent the defendant in the summary contempt proceeding. It is not necessary to delay the summary hearing to allow the defendant to get a lawyer, however. And it is not necessary to appoint a lawyer to represent an indigent defendant in a summary contempt proceeding. If the contempt is not addressed summarily by the magistrate and instead proceeds to a plenary hearing before a judge, the indigent defendant is entitled to have counsel appointed.

Recusal

Contemptuous conduct often can be very personal. A defendant may use degrading terms to speak to the magistrate and may be openly hostile in close quarters. In those circumstances the magistrate may feel personally insulted and want to get back at the defendant. If anything about the contemptuous behavior causes a magistrate to feel that way, the magistrate should not conduct a summary proceeding for contempt but instead should issue a show-cause order and allow the contempt charge to be heard by a judge at a later time.

Proof beyond a reasonable doubt

The standard for criminal contempt is the same as for conviction of a crime: A person may not be held in criminal contempt unless the contempt is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. Because direct contempt occurs in the presence of the magistrate, the magistrate’s own view of the defendant’s conduct will establish the proof.

Punishment

G.S. 5A-12 sets out the punishment for criminal contempt. The possible punishments include censure, imprisonment for up to 30 days, a fine of not more than $500, or any combination of those three options. A magistrate will not use censure, leaving imprisonment and a fine as the choices. Before sentencing a defendant to jail for contempt, or imposing a fine, the magistrate should consider how the penalty will compare with the punishment a defendant likely would receive for conviction of a crime. If a fine is being imposed, the magistrate needs to consider the person's ability to pay.

Although it will not be appropriate in most instances when a magistrate holds a person in contempt, the sentence for criminal contempt may be suspended with conditions, just as for other criminal offenses.

If a magistrate sentences a defendant to jail for criminal contempt, the magistrate may go back and reduce or terminate the sentence at any time. For example, if a magistrate sentenced a person to jail for two days for contempt, the magistrate could terminate the sentence after one day. Likewise, if a magistrate imposes a fine the magistrate may later reduce or eliminate the fine.

Appeal

Appeal for criminal contempt is from the magistrate to superior court. The appeal is for a hearing de novo.

G.S. 5A-17 provides that an appeal from criminal contempt is the same as an appeal in a criminal action. The statute on criminal appeals generally, G.S. 15A-1451, provides that the payment of a fine and costs is stayed upon the defendant's giving notice of appeal, but confinement is stayed only when the defendant is released pursuant to the bail statutes. Thus, if the defendant gives notice of appeal from a sanction of criminal contempt the payment of any fine is stayed automatically but the defendant starts serving the jail time until released on bail. Starting December 1, 2013, G.S. 5A-17 will require that the bail hearing be held by a district judge when a magistrate orders someone to jail for criminal contempt and that the hearing has to be within 24 hours. If a district judge has not held the bail hearing within 24 hours, any other judicial official may do so.

Three Steps

Is there probable cause that the offense was committed by the person to be charged?

What process, if any, should be issued?

What is the correct charging language for the offenses to be charged?

I. Determining Probable Cause

"The probable-cause standard is incapable of precise definition or quantification into percentages because it deals with probabilities and depends on the totality of the circumstances. We have stated, however, that "[t]he substance of all the definitions of probable cause is a reasonable ground for belief of guilt.'"

Maryland v. Pringle, 540 U.S. 366 (2003)

Credibility Factors

- Basis of Knowledge
  - First hand? Detailed? Consistent?
- Indicators of reliability
  - Officers or others trained to be neutral, victims presumed to be reliable, disinterested parties, history of truthfulness
  - Corroborating evidence or witnesses
  - Be more wary of interested and anonymous parties

Reasons Not to Charge

- Felonies
- School employees. G.S. 15A-301(b1), (b2)
- Patient abuse. G.S. 14-32.2(g)
- Obscenity offenses. G.S. 14-19.20

Can you consider whether evidence may be excluded or suppressed?

II. Purposes of Criminal Process

Establishes the court's authority to act

Compels the defendant to come to court

Gives the defendant notice of the charge

Selecting Process:
Warrant vs. Summons

- Statutory preference
- Statutory factors
- Felonies
- Citizens

15

---

---

---

---

---

---

Statutory Preference

- "A warrant for arrest may be used, instead of or subsequent to a criminal summons, when it appears to the judicial official that the person named should be taken into custody."

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Statutory Factors

- "Circumstances to be considered . . . include
  - failure to appear when previously summoned,
  - facts making it apparent that a person summoned will fail to appear,
  - danger that the person accused will escape,
  - danger that there may be injury to person or property, or
  - the seriousness of the offense."

---

---

---

---

---

---

G.S. 15A-303 Official Commentary

- " The appropriate use of the criminal summons is in any case in which it appears that it is not necessary to arrest the defendant and take him into custody. . . ."
- "This should be true in many misdemeanors and a number of felonies. If the defendant is simply directed to appear in court on the appropriate date, the entire machinery of arrest, processing, and bail can be avoided with resultant savings to the system of criminal justice"

---

---

---

---

---

---

Citizen-Initiated Charges (G.S. 15A-304)

- If probable cause is based solely on an affidavit or oral testimony of a person who is not a law enforcement officer, the issuing official shall issue a summons instead of a warrant unless:
  - There is corroborating testimony from an officer or disinterested witness.
  - Investigation by law enforcement would be a substantial burden for the complainant.
  - There is substantial evidence of one or more statutory factors favoring a warrant.

Criminal Process Requirements (G.S. 15A-924)

(4) A criminal pleading must contain:
(1) The name or other identification of the defendant but the name of the defendant need not be repeated in each count unless required for clarity.
(2) A separate count addressed to each offense charged, but allegations in one count may be incorporated by reference in another count.
(3) A statement or cross reference in each count indicating that the offense charged therein was committed in a designated county.
(4) A statement or cross reference in each count indicating that the offense charged was committed on, or on or about, a designated date, or during a designated period of time. Error as to a date or its omission is not ground for dismissal of the charges or for reversal of a conviction if time was not of the essence with respect to the charge and the error or omission did not mislead the defendant to his prejudice.
(5) A plain and concise factual statement in each count which, without allegations of an evidentiary nature, asserts facts supporting every element of a criminal offense and the defendant's commission thereof with sufficient precision clearly to apprise the defendant or defendants of the conduct which is the subject of the accusation. When the pleading is a criminal summons, warrant for arrest, or magistrate's order, or statement of charges based thereon, both the statement of the crime and any information showing probable cause which was considered by the judicial official and which has been furnished to the defendant must be used in determining whether the pleading is sufficient to meet the foregoing requirement.
(6) For each count a citation of any applicable statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, or other provision of law alleged therein to have been violated. Error in the citation or its omission is not ground for dismissal of the charges or for reversal of a conviction.

---

---

---

---

---

---

More Requirements

- Name of victim (when there is one)
- Prior convictions if element of offense
- Feloniously if felony
- Any requirements for particular offense
- And, please do not abbreviate.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Charging Language: Common Problems

- In larceny cases, failing to allege victim's name and, if a business, that it is an entity capable of owning property
- In larceny cases, failing to describe the property stolen accurately
- In drug cases, failing to identify the controlled substance accurately
- In R/D/O cases, failing to include the specific duty the officer was performing

In Class Exercises

Jeff Welty

Rev'd Feb. 2020 by John Rubin

Considering Evidence from Citizens

1. Lisa Lopez comes before you. She reports that her boyfriend, Dan Spillane, pushed her to the ground during an argument last night. She has no visible injuries. She says that she did not call the police at the time, but she has decided that what Dan did was not OK. You know that Lisa has taken out charges on Dan twice before and has asked that the charges be dropped each time. What do you do?

2. Do you have an office policy regarding citizen complainants who have been drinking? What is the policy? Is it written or unwritten? What is the justification for the policy?

3. Tom Tanker comes before you. He just turned 16 and got a red Ford Mustang for his birthday. He says that Sam Singleton, a 19-year-old from his neighborhood, "keyed" the car yesterday afternoon while taunting Tom by saying, "How do like your new car now, pretty boy?" Tom reports that Sam has bullied him before and that Sam may be jealous of Tom because Tom's family is better off financially than Sam's. What do you do?

Considering Defenses

1. Officer Smith comes before you. She has arrested Jim Anderson and Alex Zimmerman for assaulting one another during a bar fight and has Anderson with her for his initial appearance. She tells you that she responded to a call at the bar and found the two men punching each other. All the witnesses agreed that the fight began when Anderson offered to buy a drink for Zimmerman's girlfriend, and Zimmerman pushed Anderson to the ground and started kicking him. Anderson says "I was just defending myself!" What do you do?

2. Felicia Jackson comes before you. She wants you to charge her sister Angela with misdemeanor larceny for stealing Felicia's Olympic silver medal. Felicia tells you that she keeps the medal in a display case in her guest bedroom. Angela came for a three-day visit recently and when she left, the case had been opened and the medal was gone. Felicia says that Angela struggles with mental illness and substance abuse and during one part of the visit claimed to be "Athena reborn, goddess of the Olympics." At other times, she acknowledged that she was Angela. Felicia has no idea what Angela was thinking when she took the medal or whether she even understood that it was wrong to do so. What do you do?

3. Ophelia Welborn comes before you. She is a 21-year-old college student. She wants you to charge her former high school classmate, Thad Brinks, with sexual battery. She describes an incident that took place during a “beach week” trip three years ago, just after graduation, when both she and Thad were 18 years old. Thad grabbed her buttocks without her consent and made a lewd remark about her body. Ophelia did not report the incident at the time, but she has decided that Thad should be held accountable. You know that the statute of limitations for misdemeanors in North Carolina is two years. What do you do?

Warrant vs. summons

1. There is probable cause that Darlene stole a soccer ball from a neighbor’s yard and gave it to her nephew for his birthday. Darlene lives in town, works as a cashier at the local Wal-Mart, and has no criminal record. Would you issue a summons or a warrant?

2. There is probable cause that Eric assaulted Zeke after the two got into an argument over a parking space at Food Lion. Eric punched and kicked at Zeke, who received several bruises before another patron intervened. Eric lives in town, works as a plumber’s apprentice when the plumber has work for him to do, and was charged with simple possession of marijuana 8 years ago but the charge was dismissed. Would you issue a summons or a warrant?

3. There is probable cause that Sterling, a businessman who owns multiple fast-food franchises in town, committed statutory rape of a person 15 years or younger. He had sex with a 14-year-old girl he met when she came to interview him for her school newspaper. Sterling has lived in town his entire life, owns significant property in town, and has no criminal record. Would you issue a summons or a warrant?

4. Alexis was stopped while driving on an interstate highway that passes through your county. She consented to a search of her car, which revealed several small baggies of cocaine in the glove compartment. You plan to charge her with PWIMSD cocaine. She is from New Jersey and is not working right now. She has two cocaine-related charges, and one conviction resulting in probation, in the New York/New Jersey area. Would you issue a summons or a warrant?

Arrest warrant form treasure hunt

G.S. 15A-924(a) lists six things that a criminal pleading must contain. (Don't worry about G.S. 15A-924(a)(7), as it is only rarely applicable.) Looking at the arrest warrant form, AOC-CR-100, find and mark the spot on the form where each of the items listed in G.S. 15A-924(a) is addressed.

Drafting charging language

In the 2018 legislative session, the General Assembly enacted a new statute, as follows:

14-277.7. Communicating a threat of mass violence at a place of religious worship.

(a) A person who, by any means of communication to any person or groups of persons, threatens to commit an act of mass violence at a place of religious worship is guilty of a Class H felony.

(b) The following definitions apply to this section:

(1) Mass violence. – As defined in G.S. 14-277.5(a)(2).

(2) Place of religious worship. – Any church, chapel, meetinghouse, synagogue, temple, longhouse, or mosque, or other building that is regularly used, and clearly identifiable, as a place for religious worship."

Neither NCAOC nor the School of Government has drafted charging language for this offense. You want to charge Kevin Denny with a violation of this statute based on his statement to his ex-girlfriend Alexis Anderson that he "will blow up her stupid church with all her stupid friends and family in it." She attends First Baptist Church of Hometown, NC. How should the charge read?

Statutory Limits on Issuing Process

John Rubin, UNC School of Government, Feb. 2020

G.S. 15A-301(b1) and (b2)

Charges against school employees

Basic rule: Except as described below, a magistrate may not issue an arrest warrant or other criminal process against a school employee for an alleged offense committed in the discharge of his or her duties.

Exceptions: This policy does not apply to traffic offenses and offenses committed in the presence of a law enforcement officer.

Procedure: Before issuing process, the magistrate must obtain the approval of the DA's office unless one of the above exceptions applies. If the DA's office has declined approval authority, the magistrate must obtain the approval of a magistrate appointed by the chief district court judge before issuing process against a school employee for an alleged misdemeanor committed in the discharge of his or her duties. If the appointed magistrate is unavailable to review the case, the magistrate may proceed as in other cases.

G.S. 14-32.2(g)

Patient abuse causing death or bodily injury (felony)

Basic rule: Criminal process for a violation of G.S. 14-32.2 may be issued only on the request of a District Attorney.

Exceptions: None stated.

Procedure: None indicated.

G.S. 14-19.20

Obscenity offenses (felony/misdemeanor)

Basic rule: Criminal process for a violation of G.S. 14-190.1 or G.S. 14-190.5 may be issued only on the request of a prosecutor.

Exceptions: None stated.

Procedure: None indicated.

G.S. 15A-304(b)

Warrant for arrest

(b) When Issued.--

- (1) Generally.--A warrant for arrest may be issued, instead of or subsequent to a criminal summons, when it appears to the judicial official that the person named should be taken into custody. Circumstances to be considered in determining whether the person should be taken into custody may include, but are not limited to, failure to appear when previously summoned, facts making it apparent that a person summoned will fail to appear, danger that the person accused will escape, danger that there may be injury to person or property, or the seriousness of the offense.
- (2) Repealed by S.L. 2018-40, § 7.1, eff. Oct. 1, 2018.
- (3) When Citizen-initiated.--If the finding of probable cause pursuant to subsection (d) of this section is based solely upon an affidavit or oral testimony under oath or affirmation of a person who is not a sworn law enforcement officer, the issuing official shall not issue a warrant for arrest and instead shall issue a criminal summons, unless one of the following circumstances exists:
  - a. There is corroborating testimony of the facts establishing probable cause from a sworn law enforcement officer or at least one disinterested witness.
  - b. The official finds that obtaining investigation of the alleged offense by a law enforcement agency would constitute a substantial burden for the complainant.
  - c. The official finds substantial evidence of one or more of the circumstances listed in subdivision (1) of this subsection.

G.S. 7A-38.5

Mediation of citizen-initiated charges

- (e) Except as provided in this subsection and subsection (f) of this section, each chief district court judge and district attorney shall refer any misdemeanor criminal action in district court that is generated by a citizen-initiated arrest warrant or criminal summons to the local mediation center for resolution, except for (i) any case involving domestic violence; (ii) any case in which the judge or the district attorney determine that mediation would be inappropriate; or (iii) any case being tried in a county in which mediation services are not available. The mediation center shall have 45 days to resolve each case and report back to the court with a resolution. The district attorney shall delay prosecution in order for the mediation to occur. If the case is not resolved through mediation within 45 days of referral, or if any party declines to enter into mediation, the court may proceed with the case as a criminal action. For purposes of this section, the term "citizen-initiated arrest warrant or criminal summons" means a warrant or summons issued pursuant to G.S.15A-303 or G.S.15A-304 by a magistrate or other judicial official based upon information supplied through the oath or affirmation of a private citizen.
- (f) Any prosecutorial district may opt out of the mandatory mediation under subsection (e) of this section if the district attorney files a statement with the chief district court judge declaring that subsection shall not apply within the prosecutorial district.

§ 15A-924. Contents of pleadings; duplicity; alleging and proving previous convictions; failure to charge crime; surplusage.

- (a) A criminal pleading must contain:
  - (1) The name or other identification of the defendant but the name of the defendant need not be repeated in each count unless required for clarity.
  - (2) A separate count addressed to each offense charged, but allegations in one count may be incorporated by reference in another count.
  - (3) A statement or cross reference in each count indicating that the offense charged therein was committed in a designated county.
  - (4) A statement or cross reference in each count indicating that the offense charged was committed on, or on or about, a designated date, or during a designated period of time. Error as to a date or its omission is not ground for dismissal of the charges or for reversal of a conviction if time was not of the essence with respect to the charge and the error or omission did not mislead the defendant to his prejudice.
  - (5) A plain and concise factual statement in each count which, without allegations of an evidentiary nature, asserts facts supporting every element of a criminal offense and the defendant's commission thereof with sufficient precision clearly to apprise the defendant or defendants of the conduct which is the subject of the accusation. When the pleading is a criminal summons, warrant for arrest, or magistrate's order, or statement of charges based thereon, both the statement of the crime and any information showing probable cause which was considered by the judicial official and which has been furnished to the defendant must be used in determining whether the pleading is sufficient to meet the foregoing requirement.
  - (6) For each count a citation of any applicable statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, or other provision of law alleged therein to have been violated. Error in the citation or its omission is not ground for dismissal of the charges or for reversal of a conviction.
  - (7) A statement that the State intends to use one or more aggravating factors under G.S. 15A-1340.16(d)(20), with a plain and concise factual statement indicating the factor or factors it intends to use under the authority of that subdivision.

(b) If any count of an indictment or information charges more than one offense, the defendant may by timely filing of a motion require the State to elect and state a single offense alleged in the count upon which the State will proceed to trial. A count may be dismissed for duplicity if the State fails to make timely election.

(c) In trials in superior court, allegations of previous convictions are subject to the provisions of G.S. 15A-928.

(d) In alleging and proving a prior conviction, it is sufficient to state that the defendant was at a certain time and place convicted of the previous offense, without otherwise fully alleging all the elements. A duly certified transcript of the record of a prior conviction is, upon proof of the identity of the person of the defendant, sufficient evidence of a prior conviction. If the surname of a defendant charged is identical to the surname of a defendant previously convicted and there is identity with respect to one given name, or two initials, or two initials corresponding with the first letters of given names, between the two defendants, and there is no evidence that would indicate the two defendants are not one and the same, the identity of name is prima facie evidence that the two defendants are the same person.

(e) Upon motion of a defendant under G.S. 15A-952(b) the court must dismiss the charges contained in a pleading which fails to charge the defendant with a crime in the manner required by subsection (a), unless the failure is with regard to a matter as to which an amendment is allowable.

(f) Upon motion of a defendant under G.S. 15A-952(b) the court may strike inflammatory or prejudicial surplusage from the pleading. (1973, c. 1286, s. 1; 1975, c. 642, s. 2; 1989, c. 290, s. 3; 2005-145, s. 3.)

(b) If at the time of the initial appearance the judicial official finds by clear and convincing evidence that the impairment of the defendant's physical or mental faculties presents a danger, if he is released, of physical injury to himself or others or damage to property, the judicial official must order that the defendant be held in custody and inform the defendant that he will be held in custody until one of the requirements of subsection (c) is met; provided, however, a judicial official must at this time determine the appropriate conditions of pretrial release in accordance with G.S. 15A-534.

A Short Introduction to Search Warrants

Jeff Welty

UNC School of Government

July 2018

Overview and history. The founders of the United States of America valued individual liberty. They abhorred the absolute power of the English king and believed in limiting the power of the government. The first ten amendments to the Constitution – commonly known as the Bill of Rights – reflect the founders’ shared commitment to freedom from government oppression.

Different amendments protect different rights. For example, the First Amendment protects free speech and the free exercise of religion, while the Second Amendment protects the right to bear arms. The Fourth Amendment to the Constitution is the amendment that is pertinent to search warrants. It protects citizens’ rights to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures. The Amendment provides:

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

In this context, the reference to “Warrants” means search warrants. A search warrant is simply “a court order . . . directing a law-enforcement officer to search designated premises, vehicles, or persons for the purpose of seizing designated items.”<sup>1</sup> The Fourth Amendment requires that a search warrant be supported by probable cause and that it be limited in scope to a particular place to be searched and particular things to be seized. These requirements were reactions to the English concept of a general warrant, which gave the king’s officers unlimited authority to enter and search people’s homes for evidence of wrongdoing. The founders believed that officers should be able to invade people’s homes only to the extent necessary to collect evidence of a specific offense, and only after a judicial official had determined that it was likely that evidence of wrongdoing would be found. The North Carolina Constitution contains similar provisions protecting citizens from unreasonable searches.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Art. I sec. 20 of the North Carolina Constitution provides: “General warrants, whereby any officer or other person may be commanded to search suspected places without evidence of the act committed, or to seize any person or persons not named, whose offense is not particularly described and supported by evidence, are dangerous to liberty and shall not be granted.” Court decisions have interpreted this language to be virtually coextensive with the protections of the Fourth Amendment.

The Fourth Amendment is the cornerstone of the law concerning search and seizure.<sup>3</sup> Courts have interpreted the Amendment as stating or implying the following precepts:

- Searches and seizures must be reasonable.
- Searches conducted pursuant to a valid warrant are reasonable.
- A valid warrant requires (1) probable cause, (2) a specific description of the place to be searched, and (3) a specific description of the property to be seized.
- Searches conducted without a valid warrant are unreasonable unless an exception to the warrant requirement applies. (There are quite a few exceptions, including consent and exigent circumstances, but the exceptions are beyond the scope of this paper.)

Because the Fourth Amendment often requires officers to obtain search warrants before conducting searches, and because applications for search warrants are often directed to magistrates, it is important for magistrates to understand the legal limits on search warrants, including the requirements of probable cause and particularity. Those topics are discussed in greater detail below.

Applying for a search warrant. Normally, the person seeking a search warrant will be a law enforcement officer. The officer may use form AOC-CR-119, which is available on the NCAOC website, or may use a form or format created by his or her agency. It is common, but not required, for officers to attach supplementary pages to the form rather than trying to cram all of the necessary information into the blanks on the form.

Whatever form is used, the application will contain a sworn statement, or affidavit, from the applicant. The statement must set forth factual information that establishes probable cause to believe that items subject to seizure – generally, evidence of a crime – will be found in a particular place.<sup>4</sup>

The application may be submitted to any magistrate or judge. If the issuing official is a superior court judge or an appellate judge, the search warrant is valid statewide, while a search warrant issued by a district court judge is valid throughout the judge's district, and one issued by a magistrate is valid in the magistrate's county.<sup>5</sup> Because judges are often busy with court during the day and are not formally "on duty" at night, most search warrant applications are presented to magistrates.

<sup>3</sup> Although the Fourth Amendment is the foundation of the law in this area, statutory and case law are also pertinent. For example, Article 11 of Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes establishes a number of important procedural requirements governing search warrants.

Determining probable cause. The magistrate must determine whether the application does, in fact, establish probable cause. Probable cause is meant to be a practical and common sense standard. It is a lower hurdle than proof beyond a reasonable doubt, or even proof by a preponderance of the evidence. On the other hand, it must be more than a hunch or a suspicion. There is a considerable body of case law regarding whether certain facts amount to probable cause. Many of those cases are collected and summarized in Robert L. Farb, Arrest, Search, and Investigation in North Carolina (5th ed. 2015).

Often, the application will provide information that the applicant received from another source, as opposed to his or her own observations. That is perfectly acceptable, but it is important to consider the reliability of the source when determining whether probable cause exists. The other source may be another officer; a crime victim; a witness; a confidential informant; or an anonymous tipster. Generally, information from other officers, victims, and ordinary witnesses may be treated as credible unless there is a reason to do otherwise. By contrast, information from confidential informants and anonymous tipsters should be viewed with a healthy skepticism. Such information normally isn't reliable enough to provide probable cause on its own – it must be corroborated, at least in part, unless it comes from an informant with a proven track record of reliability.

Sometimes the information in an application will provide probable cause that evidence of a crime was present at a particular location at one time, but that time is long past. For example, an officer may develop evidence that a suspect sold drugs from his house six months ago. Such information is said to be "stale" and will not provide probable cause to support a search warrant. Courts have suggested that information older than two months is at a greater risk of being stale, but staleness depends on many factors other than how old the information is, including what kind of evidence is at issue and whether the crime in question was a one-time incident or an ongoing business activity.

Determining particularity. In addition to determining probable cause, a judicial official must determine whether a search warrant application describes the place to be searched and the property to be seized with sufficient particularity. The purpose of the particularity requirement is to ensure that officers search for the right items in the right places and do not go on general rummaging expeditions.

As to the place to be searched, it is generally sufficient to describe real property, such as a home or an apartment, by its address. However, providing additional information, such as a description of the premises, its longitude and latitude, or driving directions to reach it, is a common practice and may be helpful if the address turns out to be inaccurate. Vehicles likewise may be identified by plate number or VIN number but also may be described by make, model, color, and the like.

As to the object of the search, the description should be sufficiently precise that an officer not involved in the investigation could read the description of the items to be seized and know what property to seize and what to leave in place. The more common an item is, and the more likely that it may be possessed legally, the more specific the description should be. For example, in a case involving a stolen bicycle, it might not be sufficient to describe the property to be seized simply as “a bicycle” – bicycles are very common and are legal to possess, and an officer executing the warrant could easily come across multiple bicycles on the premises and be unsure which one to seize. “A blue girls’ Trek bicycle with a white wicker basket on the handlebars” would be a much better description. By contrast, courts are more forgiving when the property in question is contraband that it would never be wrong to seize. So, “a quantity of cocaine” might be a perfectly adequate description.

Issuance, execution, and return. If the application establishes probable cause, satisfies the particularity requirement, and is otherwise in order, a magistrate should issue the warrant. An officer must execute the warrant – that is, must conduct the search – within 48 hours.<sup>6</sup> Once the warrant has been executed, the officer must provide a list of items seized to the person from whom they were taken,<sup>7</sup> and must return the warrant to the clerk along with a copy of the list.<sup>8</sup>

Problem Pack for Search Warrants 101

Jeff Welty

School of Government

July 2018

1. Does the following information provide probable cause?

A narcotics officer states that yesterday, he purchased two ounces of cocaine for $1,650 in marked bills. The cocaine was delivered to the applicant by three men, who were arrested when they delivered the cocaine. The officer further states that during the purchase, he and the suspects were under surveillance by other officers. The applicant states that “from the movement of the suspects during and before the purchase . . . and information received from two confidential sources of information after the purchase . . . the applicant has reason to believe that the U.S. currency . . . and other controlled substances are at this time located in” a residence belonging to a fourth man.

2. Does the following information provide probable cause?

An officer applies for a search warrant, stating: “A reliable informant who has provided accurate and reliable information in the past and whose information in the past had led to arrest[s] and convictions under the N.C. Controlled Substance[s] Act has told the undersigned that approximately one week ago the informant saw Lilly Ann Beam with approximately one pound of marijuana at her home on Ridge Road. Another informant told the undersigned that Lilly Ann Beam sold marijuana to them [today]. Lilly Ann Beam is on probation for [a] violation of the Controlled Substance[s] Act.” The officer wants a warrant to search Beam’s home for marijuana.

3. Does the following information provide probable cause?

An officer states that he has been “informed by a reliable confidential informant that he has been inside the [residence that is the subject of the warrant] within the past 48 hours and has seen cocaine inside the residence and cocaine is being sold at this time by the . . . occupants. The informant is familiar with how cocaine is packaged and sold on the streets, and he has used cocaine in the past. We have known this informant for three weeks and information provided by this informant has resulted in the seizure of controlled substances included in the N.C. Controlled Substances Act and led to the arrest of at least six individuals for violations of the N.C. Controlled Substances Act.”

4. Does the following information provide probable cause?

A deputy states: "During the last year I have been involved in several investigations concerning drug offenses in [this] County. Within the past five days . . . [a person] contacted me. This person offered his assistance . . . in the investigation of drug sales . . . This person told me that he had been inside the residence [that is the subject of the warrant] where he observed a room filled with marijuana plants. He stated that the suspect Charles Wayne Newcomb was maintaining the plants. This applicant confirmed the identity of the suspect to be Charles Wayne Newcomb. This information was obtained through D.M.V. records through vehicle registration. This applicant further checked with Duke Power Company and found this residence to have Charles Wayne Newcomb listed as the current occupant."

5. Does the following information provide probable cause?

An officer states: "Sometime between [one and five days ago]," the Fairchild Christian School in the City of Livingston "was broken into and two microscopes [described by brand elsewhere in the application]" were stolen. The officer also states that "sometime prior to this application a reliable and confidential informant personally contacted the applicant with the information that the stolen microscopes are in the above described residence of Mark Timothy Roark." The officer is seeking a warrant to search Roark's residence.

6. Does the following information provide probable cause?

An officer states that she and other officers "have received information from a confidential and reliable informant that . . . Bo King is residing at 1509 Luther Street and is possessing cocaine for the purpose of sale at 1509 Luther Street. This informant has been to 1509 Luther Street within the past 48 hours and has observed Bo King possessing cocaine. This informant is familiar with cocaine and how it is packaged for street use. [The officers] have known this informant for approximately [one and a half years] and during this time this informant's information has led to the arrests and convictions of many people for violations of the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act." The officer is seeking a search warrant for 1509 Luther Street.

7. Does the following information provide probable cause?

An experienced narcotics officer states that he "has received information from a confidential and reliable informant that James Paul Brody is possessing and selling cocaine from his residence at 3124 Olde Creek Trail. . . . This informant has arranged, negotiated and purchased cocaine from Brody under the direct supervision of [the applicant] and has been to 3124 Olde Creek Trail . . . within the past 48 hours and has observed Brody possessing and selling cocaine. . . . Investigators have known this informant for approximately two weeks. This informant has provided information on other persons involved in drug trafficking . . . which we have investigated independently. Through interviews with the informant, detectives know this informant is familiar with drug pricing and how controlled substances are packaged and sold for distribution." The officer is seeking a search warrant for 3124 Olde Creek Trail.

8. Does the following information provide probable cause?

An informant told an officer that the defendant was growing marijuana in his house. According to the officer, "all previous information from the confidential informant had proven to be truthful and accurate." The officer conducted a knock and talk at the defendant's home. No one answered the door, but the officer saw "substantial mold and condensation [in a window] . . . consistent with the heat and humidity associated with marijuana growing operations," and he heard the sound of a generator running, which was consistent with the informant's report. Based on this information, the officer wants a search warrant for the house.

9. A search warrant issued on the basis of information supplied by a victim or witness named in an affidavit is usually valid if there is no reason to believe the named person's information is unreliable.

Special Procedures for Cases Involving Domestic Violence

DVPO Enforcement

Research has demonstrated repeatedly that DVPOs can be a powerful tool in reducing domestic violence when they are consistently enforced. In NC, violation of a DVPO is both a crime, punishable under criminal law statutes, and a violation of a court order, punishable by the contempt power of the court. In the majority of cases, violation of a DVPO is treated as a criminal offense, which may come before a magistrate either before or after an arrest is made.

Enforcement by Contempt [GS 50B-4(a)]

Party may file motion (AOC-CV-307) asserting violation of 50B DVPO with clerk or authorized magistrate. Motion must be filed in county in which order was issued.

If authorized magistrate determines that “facts show clearly that there is danger of acts of domestic violence against the aggrieved party or a minor child” at time when clerk is not available, magistrate must “schedule and issue notice of a show cause hearing” (AOC-CV-308) with district court at earliest possible date, and effect service of motion and notice of hearing.

Enforcement by Criminal Charges (GS 50B-4.1)

Violation of DVPO (Class A1 misdemeanor): Essential Elements

- (1) Knowingly
- (2) Violates
- (3) A valid protective order entered pursuant to
  - N.C. Gen. Stat. Ch. 50B, or
  - A court of another state, or
  - A court of an Indian tribe.

Other 50B criminal offenses (NC Crimes pp. 186-190)

- Repeat Violation of a DVPO
- Violation of a DVPO with a Deadly Weapon
- Entering DV Safe House

Legal issues related to elements of offense typically relate to whether violation was knowing and whether order was valid.

Validity Issues

- An ex parte order is valid for purposes of this statute.
- An expired order is no longer valid. In North Carolina, orders are for a fixed period not to exceed one year and may be renewed multiple times for up to two years. An order issued outside of North Carolina is valid for the length of time specified in the order, even if it exceeds the time limits applicable to NC orders.
- Statute permits, but does not require, registration of order.
- LEO may rely on copy of out-of-state order and on statement of protected person that order remains in effect.
- A DVPO is an order of the court; the person protected by the order has no authority to give the defendant permission to violate the order.

Special Rules for Law Enforcement

Immediate arrest (i.e., without a warrant) is mandatory if an officer has probable cause to believe that the defendant knowingly has violated a valid protective order

- a) excluding the defendant from the residence or household occupied by a victim of domestic violence or
- b) directing the defendant to refrain from threatening, abusing, or following the plaintiff, harassing the plaintiff, including by telephone, visiting the home or workplace, or other means, or otherwise interfering with plaintiff.

GS 50B – 4.1(b)

The warrantless arrests described above are authorized even though the offenses are committed outside of the officer's presence. If the officer has probable cause, the defendant may be arrested even though the defendant has left the premises by the time the officer arrives. GS 15A-401(b)(2)(e). However, the officer may not enter defendant's home without consent to arrest unless officer gets arrest warrant and may not enter the home of another person to arrest defendant without consent unless the officer gets an arrest warrant for the defendant and a search warrant for the premises.

Magistrate's duty when defendant is arrested for a violation of G.S. 50B-4.1.

- If defendant is arrested by an officer without a warrant, the magistrate must determine whether there is probable cause to believe person violated order:
If magistrate does not find probable cause, defendant is released.
If magistrate finds probable cause, issues a magistrate's order.
  - If defendant is arrested with or without a warrant, conduct initial appearance (i.e., notify defendant of rights and charges against him or her).
  - Do not set conditions of pretrial release for defendant. (See discussion below, under The 48-Hour Rule.)
  - If defendant has been arrested on other crimes in addition to G.S. 50B-4.1, determine whether the additional charges are subject to the special 48-hour pretrial release rules: If they are, do not set bond for any of the offenses. If they are not, the magistrate should set bond for those offenses not covered by the special pre-trial release provisions.

GS 15A-534.1: Setting Conditions of Pretrial Release & the 48-Hour Rule

The Rule: Conditions of pretrial release must be determined by a judge, rather than a magistrate, for the crimes listed below if the victim of the crime is

- The defendant's spouse or former spouse
- A person with whom the defendant lives or has lived as if married
- A person with whom the defendant has or has had a dating relationship as defined in GS 50B-1(a)(6)

- Assault
- Stalking
- Communicating threats
- Committing a felony identified in GS Ch. 14-
  - Art. 7B (Rape & Other Sex Offenses)
  - Art. 8 (Assaults)
  - Art. 10 (Kidnapping & Abduction)
  - Art. 15 (Arson & Other Burnings)

The 48-hour rule also applies to domestic criminal trespass (GS 14-134.3) and to violation of a DVPO under GS Ch. 50B.

See Domestic Violence Crimes & the 48-Hour Rule in your notebook under the Setting Conditions of Pretrial Release tab for a chart setting out this information in detail.

Special Note About Dating Relationships:

GS 50B-1(b)(6) allows issuance of a DVPO for

- persons of the opposite sex
- who are in, or have been in, a dating relationship.

A dating relationship is “one wherein the parties are romantically involved over time and on a continuous basis during the course of the relationship. A casual acquaintance or ordinary fraternization between persons in a business or social context is not a dating relationship.”

In Thomas v. Williams, filed 7/7/2015, NC App., the Court of Appeals found that whether a relationship falls within the category of “dating relationship” “is necessarily fact sensitive and thus warrants a factor approach rather than a definitional approach.”

NOTE that GS 15A-534.1 references the definition of a dating relationship contained in GS 50B-1 but does not incorporate that statute’s requirement that the couple be “of the opposite sex.” The result is that a same sex couple involved in a dating relationship fall within the relationships triggering the application of the 48-hour rule.

BUT SEE Jeff Welty’s post on the SOG Criminal Law Blog DVPOs for Same-Sex Dating Relationships? (8/15/2017), in which Jeff discusses recent case law raising questions about the constitutionality of the GS Ch 50B restriction to opposite sex dating relationships.

48 Hours Later. . .

“A defendant may be retained in custody not more than 48 hours from the time of arrest without a determination being made under this section by a judge. If a judge has not acted pursuant to this section within 48 hours of arrest, the magistrate shall act under the provisions of this section.” GS 15A-534.1(b).

If judge hasn’t set bond with 48 hours, defendant must be brought back before magistrate on duty. Cannot wait until next morning or day.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> State v. Thompson, 349 N.C. 483, 508 S.E.2d 277 (1998) (upheld constitutionality of statute but said unconstitutional as applied to defendant who was not taken before a judge at 9:30 in the morning when court opened but was held until 2:30 that afternoon).

In determining conditions of pretrial release, magistrate is required to consider the defendant's criminal history, unless obtaining such history will unreasonably delay setting conditions. GS 15A-534.1.

In addition to general law related to determining conditions set out in GS 15A-534, court is expressly authorized to impose specific additional conditions set out in GS 15A-534.1(a)(2) [also set out in AOC-CR-630: CONDITIONS OF RELEASE FOR PERSON CHARGED WITH A CRIME OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE].

In extraordinary circumstances, a magistrate might briefly further delay release pursuant to GS 15A-534.1(a)(1) if the magistrate determines

- “that the immediate release of the defendant will pose a danger of injury to the alleged victim or to any other person or is likely to result in intimidation of the alleged victim,” and that
- “execution of an appearance bond will not reasonably insure that such injury or intimidation will not occur”

What If Defendant Violates Conditions of Pretrial Release?

A law enforcement officer is authorized to make an immediate arrest without a warrant if the officer has probable cause to believe that the defendant has violated a pretrial release order. G.S. 15A-401(b)(2).

If a defendant violates a condition of pretrial release for a domestic violence crime, but is not arrested by an officer, the magistrate can issue an order for arrest to bring the defendant in and modify the release order, provided that the first appearance before a district court judge has not been held. If a first appearance has been held, the magistrate should consult the chief district court judge about what practice the magistrate should follow.

NOTE: Violation of a condition of pretrial release is not a crime and does not trigger the 48-hour rule requiring delay in setting new conditions of release.

Domestic Violence Crimes and the 48-Hour Rule

Jeff Welty
UNC School of Government
December 2019

Overview

G.S. 15A-534.1 provides that, for certain domestic violence crimes, only a judge may set conditions of release in the first 48 hours after the defendant's arrest. A magistrate is empowered to set conditions only if 48 hours pass without a judge setting conditions. For example, if a defendant is arrested on Friday night and no judge is available during the weekend, a magistrate could set conditions on Sunday night. This provision is known across the state as "the 48-hour rule." Note that the rule does not require or permit the defendant to be held for 48 hours if a judge is available to set conditions of release sooner. If a judge is available and the defendant is not presented to him or her, the case may be dismissed. See State v. Thompson, 349 N.C. 483 (1998) (finding a due process violation where a defendant was held despite several judges being available). Thus, the rule is not a "48-hour hold."

The rule applies "[i]n all cases in which the defendant is charged with assault on, stalking, communicating a threat to, or committing a felony provided in Articles 7B, 8, 10, or 15 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes upon a spouse or former spouse, a person with whom the defendant lives or has lived as if married, or a person with whom the defendant is or has been in a dating relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1(b)(6), with domestic criminal trespass, or with violation of an order entered pursuant to Chapter 50B, Domestic Violence, of the General Statutes." G.S. 15A-534.1.

This document is intended to assist magistrates and others in applying the 48-hour rule. It is current as of December 1, 2019. It does not address the similar rule contained in G.S. 15A-534.7 regarding defendants charged with communicating certain threats of mass violence.<sup>1</sup>

48-Hour Rule Flow Chart

The 48-hour rule applies if:

<sup>1</sup> Previous versions of this document also addressed whether certain offenses were covered by the Crime Victims' Rights Act, Article 46 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes. However, the victims' rights statutes were substantially revised by the General Assembly during the 2019 legislative session. Whether an offense is covered by the victims' rights statutes now depends exclusively on the offense charged, regardless of the relationship between the defendant and the victim, and thus is an entirely separate question from whether the 48-hour rule applies. A complete list of offenses covered by the new victims' rights statutes may be found at Jamie Markham, Crimes Covered under the New Victims' Rights Law, N.C. CRIM. L. BLOG (Sept. 27, 2019), <https://nccriminallaw.sog.unc.edu/crimes-covered-under-the-new-victims-rights-law/>.

Option A: When the offense charged is domestic criminal trespass or violation of a 50B order

The 48-hour rule always applies when the defendant is charged with

- G.S. 14-134.3: Domestic criminal trespass
- G.S. 50B-4.1: Violation of valid protective order (note that although G.S. 50B-4.1 addresses violations of both North Carolina protective orders and out-of-state orders, G.S. 15A-534.1 applies only to defendants charged with “violation of an order entered pursuant to Chapter 50B,” i.e., to defendants charged with violating North Carolina protective orders)

When one of these crimes is charged, no further inquiry into the relationship between the defendant and the victim is required.

Option B: When there is a covered offense and a qualifying victim

The 48-hour rule also applies when the defendant is charged with committing what this paper will call a covered offense against what this paper will call a qualifying victim. Both a covered offense and a qualifying victim are required for the rule to apply. This paper will address the existence of a covered offense as step 1 of the analysis, then will proceed to address the existence of a qualifying victim as step 2.

Step 1: Covered offenses

Covered offenses include charges of “assault on, stalking, communicating a threat to, or committing a felony provided in Articles 7B, 8, 10, or 15 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes upon” a victim. G.S. 15A-534.1. A list of each offense that is covered by the statute is below, organized by the word or clause within G.S. 15A-534.1 that covers the offense.

Assaults

The 48-hour rule applies to “assault[s].”<sup>2</sup> Many assault crimes are contained in Article 8 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, and the 48-hour rule also applies to all “felon[ies] provided in Article . . . 8,” so the list of assault crimes set forth below is partly redundant with the list of felonies contained in Article 8 that is set forth later in this document.

The list below includes many assault crimes that are unlikely to arise in a domestic violence context and normally will not involve a qualifying victim. For example, G.S. 14-16.6 makes it unlawful to assault certain executive, legislative, and court officials “because of the exercise of that officer’s duties.” Such an assault normally will be committed by a disgruntled citizen with no personal relationship to the official in question. But the offense is an assault crime and therefore is a covered offense under the terms of the 48-hour rule, so it is included below.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Is sexual battery, G.S. 14-27.33, an “assault”? Probably not under State v. Corbett, 196 N.C. App. 508 (2009) (ruling in part that “assault is not a lesser included offense of sexual battery”). But see In re K.C., 226 N.C. App. 452 (2013) (stating, in the course of finding insufficient evidence of sexual battery but sufficient evidence of simple assault, that “[a] battery always includes an assault”).

<sup>3</sup> It is possible to imagine unusual circumstances under which the offense would involve a qualifying victim. For example, suppose that a district court judge finds a DWI defendant guilty and imposes an active sentence. The

- G.S. 14-16.6: Assault on executive, legislative, or court officer (including with a firearm and inflicting serious bodily injury)
- G.S. 14-23.5: Assault inflicting serious bodily injury on an unborn child (note that it appears to be impossible for an unborn child to be a qualifying victim, but the statute requires “a battery on the mother of the unborn child,” and the mother could be a qualifying victim)
- G.S. 14-23.6: Battery on an unborn child (same note as for G.S. 14-23.5)
- G.S. 14-28: Malicious castration (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does appear to require unconsented contact; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-29: Castration or other maiming without malice aforethought (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does appear to require unconsented contact; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-30: Malicious maiming (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does appear to require unconsented contact; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-30.1: Malicious throwing of corrosive acid or alkali (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does appear to require unconsented contact; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-31: Maliciously assaulting in a secret manner
- G.S. 14-32: Felonious assault with deadly weapon with intent to kill or inflicting serious injury
- G.S. 14-32.1: Assaults on individuals with a disability
- G.S. 14-32.2: Patient abuse and neglect (includes several gradations depending on the defendant’s intent and the severity of the injury inflicted; it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does require physical abuse; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-32.3: Domestic abuse, neglect, and exploitation of disabled or elder adults (note that “assault” is one way of establishing the element of abuse but not the only way, so the assault provisions of the 48-hour rule might apply to some offenses under this statute but not others; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-32.4: Assault inflicting serious bodily injury; strangulation
- G.S. 14-33: Misdemeanor assaults, batteries, and affrays, simple and aggravated (this statute includes simple assault, assault inflicting serious injury, assault on a female, and assault on a child under 12, as well as several other assault offenses less likely to arise in a domestic violence context)
- G.S. 14-33.2: Habitual misdemeanor assault
- G.S. 14-34: Assaulting by pointing gun
- G.S. 14-34.1: Discharging certain barreled weapons or a firearm into occupied property (includes several gradations; it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does require discharging a firearm into occupied property, which arguably inherently amounts to an assault; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)

- G.S. 14-34.2: Assault with a firearm or other deadly weapon upon governmental officers or employees, company police officers, or campus police officers
- G.S. 14-34.5: Assault with a firearm on a law enforcement, probation, or parole officer, or on a member of the North Carolina National Guard, or on a person employed at a State or local detention facility
- G.S. 14-34.6: Assault or affray on a firefighter, an emergency medical technician, medical responder, and hospital personnel
- G.S. 14-34.7: Certain assaults on a law enforcement, probation, or parole officer, or on a member of the North Carolina National Guard, or on a person employed at a State or local detention facility
- G.S. 14-34.9: Discharging a firearm from within an enclosure (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does require discharging a firearm toward a person; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-34.10: Discharge firearm within enclosure to incite fear (it is not entirely clear whether this is an assault crime; the statute does not require an “assault” but it does require discharging a firearm with the intent to incite fear in another person; in any event, this is a covered offense because it is a felony in Article 8 of Chapter 14)
- G.S. 14-288.9: Assault on emergency personnel

Stalking

The only offense that is clearly covered under this provision is

- G.S. 14-277.3A: Stalking

A frequent question is whether cyberstalking, as defined in G.S. 14-196.3, is a covered offense. At least under most circumstances, it probably is not for the reasons given in Jeff Welty, Cyberstalking and the 48-Hour Rule, N.C. CRIM. L. BLOG (Nov. 28, 2012), <https://nccriminallaw.sog.unc.edu/cyberstalking-and-the-48-hour-rule/>.

Communicating threats

As with the list of assault crimes, above, the list below includes several offenses that are unlikely to arise in a domestic violence context and normally will not involve a qualifying victim.

- G.S. 14-16.7: Threats against executive, legislative, or court officers
- G.S. 14-277.1: Communicating threats
- G.S. 14-277.6: Communicating a threat of mass violence on educational property<sup>4</sup>
- G.S. 14-277.7: Communicating a threat of mass violence at a place of religious worship<sup>5</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Note that when charging this offense, the 48-hour rule set forth in G.S. 15A-534.7 will apply regardless of whether there is a qualifying victim.

- G.S. 14-394: Anonymous or threatening letters, mailing or transmitting

A frequent question is whether harassing phone calls, as defined in G.S. 14-196, is a covered offense. At least under most circumstances, it probably is not as discussed in Jeff Welty, Cyberstalking and the 48-Hour Rule, N.C. CRIM. L. BLOG (Nov. 28, 2012), <https://nccriminallaw.sog.unc.edu/cyberstalking-and-the-48-hour-rule/>.

Felonies in Article 7B (“Rape and Other Sex Offenses”)

The following felonies are contained in Article 7B. As with several other categories of offenses addressed in this paper, some crimes on this list may be unlikely to involve a qualifying victim and so may rarely require the application of the 48-hour rule.

- G.S. 14-27.21: First-degree forcible rape
- G.S. 14-27.22: Second-degree forcible rape
- G.S. 14-27.23: Statutory rape of a child by an adult
- G.S. 14-27.24: First-degree statutory rape
- G.S. 14-27.25: Statutory rape of person who is 15 years of age or younger
- G.S. 14-27.26: First-degree forcible sexual offense
- G.S. 14-27.27: Second-degree forcible sexual offense
- G.S. 14-27.28: Statutory sexual offense with a child by an adult
- G.S. 14-27.29: First-degree statutory sexual offense
- G.S. 14-27.30: Statutory sexual offense with a person who is 15 years of age or younger
- G.S. 14-27.31: Sexual activity by a substitute parent or custodian
- G.S. 14-27.32: Sexual activity with a student

Felonies in Article 8 (“Assaults”)

The following felonies are contained in Article 8. As noted above, many of these crimes are also assault offenses, making this list partly duplicative of the above list of assault crimes. As with several other categories of offenses addressed in this paper, some crimes on this list may be unlikely to involve a qualifying victim and so may rarely require the application of the 48-hour rule.

- G.S. 14-28: Malicious castration
- G.S. 14-29: Castration or other maiming without malice aforethought
- G.S. 14-30: Malicious maiming
- G.S. 14-30.1: Malicious throwing of corrosive acid or alkali
- G.S. 14-31: Maliciously assaulting in a secret manner
- G.S. 14-32: Felonious assault with deadly weapon with intent to kill or inflicting serious injury
- G.S. 14-32.1: Assaults on individuals with a disability (note, not all offenses defined in this statute are felonies)
- G.S. 14-32.2: Patient abuse and neglect
- G.S. 14-32.3: Domestic abuse, neglect, and exploitation of disabled or elder adults
- G.S. 14-32.4: Assault inflicting serious bodily injury; strangulation
- G.S. 14-33.2: Habitual misdemeanor assault
- G.S. 14-34.1: Discharging certain barreled weapons or a firearm into occupied property

- G.S. 14-34.2: Assault with a firearm or other deadly weapon upon governmental officers or employees, company police officers, or campus police officers
- G.S. 14-34.4: Adulterated or misbranded food, drugs, or cosmetics; intent to cause serious injury or death; intent to extort
- G.S. 14-34.5: Assault with a firearm on a law enforcement, probation, or parole officer, or on a member of the North Carolina National Guard, or on a person employed at a State or local detention facility
- G.S. 14-34.6: Assault or affray on a firefighter, an emergency medical technician, medical responder, and hospital personnel
- G.S. 14-34.7: Certain assaults on a law enforcement, probation, or parole officer, or on a member of the North Carolina National Guard, or on a person employed at a State or local detention facility
- G.S. 14-34.9: Discharging a firearm from within an enclosure
- G.S. 14-34.10: Discharge firearm within enclosure to incite fear

Felonies in Article 10 (“Kidnapping and Abduction”)

The following felonies are contained in Article 10. As with several other categories of offenses addressed in this paper, some crimes on this list may be unlikely to involve a qualifying victim and so may rarely require the application of the 48-hour rule.

- G.S. 14-39: Kidnapping
- G.S. 14-41: Abduction of children
- G.S. 14-43.3: Felonious restraint

Felonies in Article 15 (“Arson and Other Burnings”)

The following felonies are contained in Article 15. As with several other categories of offenses addressed in this paper, some crimes on this list may be unlikely to involve a qualifying victim and so may rarely require the application of the 48-hour rule. Additionally, for several of the offenses in this Article, it may be difficult to determine whether the offense was committed “upon” a qualifying victim because the principal target of the offense is property, not a person. For example, if A burns B’s residence, has A committed an offense “upon” B? What if A burns a residence that does not belong to B but B is injured in the fire? There is no case law explaining when an arson offense is committed “upon” a person for purposes of G.S. 15A-534.1.

- G.S. 14-58: Punishment for arson (note that this statute defines the punishment class for first- and second-degree arson; perhaps an argument could be made that because arson is a common law offense, arson is not a “felony provided in” Article 15 notwithstanding this statute; no case law addresses this issue)
- G.S. 14-58.2: Burning of mobile home, manufactured-type house or recreational trailer home
- G.S. 14-59: Burning of certain public buildings
- G.S. 14-60: Burning of schoolhouses or buildings of educational institutions
- G.S. 14-61: Burning of certain bridges and buildings
- G.S. 14-62: Burning of certain buildings
- G.S. 14-62.1: Burning of building or structure in process of construction
- G.S. 14-62.2: Burning of churches and certain other religious buildings

- G.S. 14-63: Burning of boats and barges
- G.S. 14-64: Burning of ginhouses and tobacco houses
- G.S. 14-65: Fraudulently setting fire to dwelling houses
- G.S. 14-66: Burning of personal property
- G.S. 14-67.1: Burning other buildings
- G.S. 14-67.2: Burning caused during commission of another felony
- G.S. 14-69.1: Making a false report concerning destructive device
- G.S. 14-69.2: Perpetrating hoax by use of false bomb or other device
- G.S. 14-69.3: Arson or other unlawful burning that results in serious bodily injury to a firefighter, law enforcement officer, fire investigator, or emergency medical technician

Step 2: Qualifying victims

If a defendant is charged with a covered offense, the applicability of the 48-hour rule depends on the existence of a qualifying victim. The statute provides that such a victim is “a spouse or former spouse [of the defendant], a person with whom the defendant lives or has lived as if married, or a person with whom the defendant is or has been in a dating relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1(b)(6).” Thus, a qualifying victim must have one of the following relationships to the defendant:

- Spouse. Presumably this applies when the victim and the defendant are legally married, even if separated or in the process of divorce.
- Former spouse. There is no time limit in the statute, so this provision appears to apply even if the defendant and the victim divorced years or decades ago.
- Person with whom the defendant lives as if married. Although this term is not defined in the statute, presumably this provision applies when the victim and the defendant live together and have a romantic or sexual relationship.
- Person with whom the defendant has lived as if married. As with the category “former spouse,” there is no time limit in the statute regarding when the defendant and the victim must have lived together.
- Person with whom the defendant is in a dating relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1(b)(6). Under G.S. 50B-1(b)(6), a “a dating relationship is one wherein the parties are romantically involved over time and on a continuous basis during the course of the relationship. A casual acquaintance or ordinary fraternization between persons in a business or social context is not a dating relationship.”
- Person with whom the defendant has been in a dating relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1(b)(6). Again, there is no time limit in the statute regarding when the dating relationship must have existed.

It is not relevant whether the defendant and the victim are the same sex or different sexes. Persons of the same sex or of different sexes may be “spouses,” may “live together as if married,” and may have a “dating relationship.” Confusion sometimes arises on this point because of the reference to G.S. 50B-1(b)(6). If one looks at G.S. 50B-1(b) generally, rather than at (b)(6) specifically, one might focus on the definition of the term “personal relationship.” G.S. 50B-1(b)(6) states that a “personal relationship” includes:

persons of the opposite sex who are in a dating relationship or have been in a dating relationship. A dating relationship is one wherein the parties are romantically involved over time and on a continuous basis during the course of the relationship. A casual acquaintance or ordinary fraternization between persons in a business or social context is not a dating relationship.

Note that nothing in the definition of “dating relationship” requires the parties to be of different sexes. Under the statute, a “dating relationship” is a “personal relationship” only if the parties are of different sexes, but the applicability of the 48-hour rule turns on the existence of a “dating relationship,” not the existence of a “personal relationship.”<sup>6</sup>

Conclusion

To sum up, the 48-hour rule always applies when the offense charged is domestic criminal trespass or violation of a 50B order. It also applies when a defendant is charged with committing a covered offense against a qualifying victim.

<sup>6</sup> Whether it would be constitutional to apply the 48-hour rule only to different-sex couples might be questioned under Obergefell v. Hodges, 576 U.S. ___, 135 S. Ct. 2584 (2015) (holding that laws limiting marriage to same-sex couples are unconstitutional, in part on equal protection grounds).

In getting ready for the North Carolina magistrates' fall conference and a session that I'm teaching on issuing process in domestic violence cases, I began thinking about the ways that North Carolina criminal law addresses domestic violence. The North Carolina General Assembly has made numerous changes and additions in this area of criminal law, collected below. If I omitted some part of North Carolina criminal law involving domestic violence cases, please let me know.

Crimes Involving Domestic Violence

Several laws address crimes involving domestic relationships, although the relationship requirement varies. Some offenses require a romantic relationship of some kind. For example, domestic criminal trespass requires that the defendant trespass on premises occupied by the defendant's present or former spouse or a person with whom the defendant lives or has lived as if married. Others incorporate the broader definition of "personal relationship" for obtaining a domestic violence protective order (DVPO) in G.S. 50B-1, as for the offense of assault in the presence of a minor. Some offenses do not require a specific relationship but were evidently enacted with relationship violence in mind, such as assault by strangulation under G.S. 14-32.4(b) and stalking under G.S. 14-277A. Although the latter statute does not require a specific relationship, it opens with the statement that the General Assembly "recognizes . . . the strong connections between stalking and domestic violence . . . ."

The offenses requiring a specific relationship include:

- Domestic criminal trespass, G.S. 14-134.3
  - Simple, Class 1 misdemeanor
  - Entry of safe house with deadly weapon, Class G felony
- Assault with a deadly weapon or inflicting serious injury, a Class A1 misdemeanor, in the presence of a minor, G.S. 14-33(d)
  - First offense, supervised probation if active sentence not imposed
  - Subsequent offense, minimum 30 day active sentence
- Disclosure of private images (sometimes referred to as revenge porn), G.S. 14-190.5A
  - If the defendant is 18 or older at the time of the offense, Class H felony
  - If the defendant is under 18 at the time of the offense, Class 1 misdemeanor for the first offense and Class H felony for a subsequent offense
  - This offense has required a personal relationship between the defendant and victim, but the requirement does not apply to offenses committed on or after December 1, 2017
- Domestic violence homicide, G.S. 14-17(a1) (effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2017)
  - First-degree premeditated and deliberate murder, Class A felony
  - This crime is based on a rebuttable presumption that the defendant acted with premeditation and deliberation if he kills with malice as defined in G.S. 14-17(b)(1) and was in a certain type of relationship with the victim and had previously been convicted of a certain type of crime against the victim. As written, this presumption may not be enforceable because it bases premeditation and deliberation on the version of malice in G.S. 14-17(b)(1), which involves recklessness, not an intentional act. See generally County Court of Ulster v. Allen, 442 U.S. 140 (1979) (even if a presumption is considered permissive, there must be a “rational connection” between the facts proved and the fact to presumed); see also State v. Coble, 351 N.C. 448 (2000) (crime of attempted second-degree murder, which requires specific intent to commit underlying offense, does not exist because second-degree murder does not include specific intent to kill as element).

Several other offenses involve violations of domestic violence protective orders:

- DVPO violation, G.S. 50B-4.1
  - Simple, Class A1 misdemeanor
  - Third offense, Class H felony
  - Felony while DVPO prohibits act, one class higher than felony committed
  - Violation of stay-away condition with deadly weapon, Class H felony
  - Entry of safe house where protected person resides, Class H felony
- Possession of firearm while DVPO in effect, Class H felony, G.S. 14-269.8, G.S. 50B-3.1(j)
- Cyberstalking by electronic tracking device while subject to DVPO, Class 2 misdemeanor, G.S. 14-196.3(b)(5)

Arrest Procedures

Several provisions permit or require law enforcement officers to take action in cases involving domestic violence.

Warrantless arrests. G.S. 15A-401(b)(2) regulates an officer’s authority to make a warrantless arrest for offenses committed outside the officer’s presence. An officer has this authority when the officer has probable cause for any felony but only for certain misdemeanors. The statute gives officers this authority for the following misdemeanors involving domestic violence (as well as in cases in which the person will cause physical injury or property damage or will not be apprehended unless immediately arrested):

- Domestic criminal trespass
- Simple assault, assault with deadly weapon or inflicting serious injury, and assault by pointing a gun if a personal relationship exists as defined in G.S. 50B-1
- DVPO violation

An officer also may make a warrantless arrest for a violation of a pretrial release condition, whether committed in or outside the officer’s presence. G.S. 15A-401(b)(1), (2). Originally, this statute concerned domestic violence cases only, allowing warrantless arrests for violations of pretrial release conditions under G.S. 15A-534.1(a)(2), which lists pretrial release conditions in domestic violence cases. The statute was later broadened to other pretrial release violations.

Mandatory arrests. An officer must arrest when the officer has probable cause that a person has violated a DVPO excluding the person from the residence or household of a domestic violence victim or directing the person to refrain from doing any act in G.S. 50B-3(a)(9), such as threatening the victim. G.S. 50B-4.1(b).

Fingerprinting and other information. The arresting law enforcement agency must take the fingerprints of a defendant for all felonies and certain misdemeanors, including the following domestic violence offenses: domestic criminal trespass; an offense involving domestic violence as described in G.S. 15A-1382.1 (discussed further below under Sentencing); a DVPO violation; and misdemeanor assault, stalking, or communicating a threat if the person is held under G.S. 15A-534.1 (discussed further below under Pretrial Release Procedures). G.S. 15A-502(a2), (a4). The arresting agency must provide the magistrate with available information about the defendant’s relationship with the alleged victim and whether it is a personal relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1, and the magistrate must enter the information into the court information system. G.S. 15A-502(a3), (a5).

Pretrial Release Procedures

G.S. 15A-534.1 contains several provisions on pretrial release in cases involving domestic violence:

- The most well-known provision is what has become known as the 48-hour law, which requires that a judge set pretrial release conditions in the first 48 hours after arrest. Over the years, the provision has been expanded to cover additional offenses and relationships, such as dating relationships. See Jeff Welty, Recent Changes to the Pretrial Release Statutes, N.C. Crim. L. Blog (Nov. 19, 2015).
- The judicial official, whether a judge or magistrate, must consider the defendant's criminal history when setting pretrial release conditions. G.S. 15A-534.1(a); Conditions of Release for Person Charged with a Crime of Domestic Violence, AOC-CR-630 (Dec. 2015) (form release order with these conditions).
- The judicial official may impose the pretrial release conditions listed in G.S. 15A-534.1(a)(2), such as stay-away conditions.
- The judicial official may detain a defendant for a reasonable time if the judicial official determines that immediate release will pose a danger to the victim or other person or result in intimidation to the victim and an appearance bond will not reasonably avert this risk. G.S. 15A-534.1(a)(1). This provision predated the 48-hour procedure and allowed for a cooling-off period for the defendant and an opportunity for the alleged victim to take safety precautions.

Sentencing

The following provisions concern sentencing in cases involving domestic violence:

- If the conviction involves assault, communicating a threat, or any act in G.S. 50B-1(a), and the defendant and victim had a personal relationship, the judge must indicate in the judgment and the clerk of court must indicate in the official record that the offense involved domestic violence. G.S. 15A-1382.1(a).
- If the court finds the defendant responsible for acts of domestic violence and sentences the defendant to probation, a regular condition of probation is to attend and complete an abuser treatment program. G.S. 15A-1343(b)(12).
- The Department of Public Safety must establish a domestic violence treatment program for inmates whose official record includes a finding that they committed acts of domestic violence. G.S. 143B-704(e).

See also G.S. 15A-1340.16(d)(15) (aggravating factor at felony sentencing for the defendant to have taken advantage of a position of trust and confidence, including a domestic relationship, in committing the offense).

Victims' Rights

The North Carolina Crime Victims' Rights Act gives victims of certain offenses various rights, including the right to notice throughout the proceedings and the right to restitution and a civil judgment for damages greater than $250. G.S. 15A-830 through G.S. 15A-841, G.S. 15A-1340.34(b), G.S. 15A-1340.38. Many felonies are covered. The following misdemeanors, which involve domestic violence, are also covered:

- Simple assault, assault on female, assault with a deadly weapon or inflicting serious injury, assault by pointing a gun, domestic criminal trespass, and stalking if the defendant and victim had a personal relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1
- Violation of a DVPO

Firearm Consequences

Federal law imposes a firearms ban for felonies and misdemeanor crimes of domestic violence. State law follows suit, providing that a person may not obtain a permit to purchase or carry a concealed handgun if prohibited by state or federal law. G.S. 14-404(a)(1), G.S. 14-415.12(b)(1), (8b); see also Firearm Prohibition Notice, AOC-CR-617 (Dec. 2007) (form notice to convicted defendants that firearm possession may be unlawful under federal or state law). But see Jeff Welty, Vinson, Voisine, and Misdemeanor Crimes of Domestic Violence , N.C. Crim. L. Blog (July 18, 2016) (questioning whether North Carolina misdemeanor assaults constitute misdemeanor crimes of domestic violence under federal law as applied by Fourth Circuit, but suggesting that North Carolina courts should continue to consider using AOC form to notify convicted defendants that possession of firearms “may” be unlawful).

During the term of a DVPO, it is unlawful for the defendant to possess firearms (discussed above under Crimes Involving Domestic Violence). After the DVPO expires, a defendant may move for return of firearms surrendered during the term of the DVPO, but the court must deny the motion if the defendant is disqualified from possessing firearms under state or federal law or has pending charges for an offense against the person protected by the DVPO. G.S. 50B-3.1(f).

Same Sex Marriage and Domestic Violence

Date : October 29, 2014

Same sex marriage has been permitted in North Carolina for a couple of weeks. Shea blogged here about one potential criminal law implication: the possibility, discussed in a memorandum from the Administrative Office of the Courts, that magistrates could be charged criminally for refusing to marry same-sex couples. As noted in this recent news article, a number of magistrates have resigned as a result. But the issue I've been asked most about is how same-sex marriage relates to our domestic violence laws.

Specifically, I have been asked how same-sex marriage relates to the 48-hour rule and to domestic violence protective orders issued under Chapter 50B.

The 48-hour rule. Under G.S. 15A-534.1, only a judge may set bond in a domestic violence case within the first 48 hours after arrest. The statute applies mainly to certain crimes committed against a "spouse or former spouse or a person with whom the defendant lives or has lived as if married." I noted in this prior post the uncertainty about whether same-sex couples were covered by that language. I don't see any more uncertainty. A same-sex couple married in North Carolina or elsewhere are "spouse[s]," or if subsequently divorced, "former spouse[s]." Same-sex couples who are cohabiting are living together as if married.

Chapter 50B orders. More complicated interpretive and legal issues arise in the context of Chapter 50B orders. G.S. 50B-1(b) lists the types of relationships that are eligible for DVPOs. The list includes "current or former spouses," and the new meaning of that term is clear. However, the expanded definition of that term probably doesn't cover many more people, as "current or former household members" was already a covered category and presumably reached most same-sex spouses.

I can imagine some changes to the category "related as parents and children," if the law regarding adoption changes in the aftermath of the same-sex marriage ruling. I imagine that it might but the issue is far beyond my expertise. (My colleagues Sara DePasquale and Meredith Smith address one aspect of the question in this blog post.) Again, I tend to think that any change will be of limited practical import given the existing coverage of household members.

Perhaps the most interesting issue here, and the one of greatest practical import, concerns subdivision (b)(6), which encompasses "persons of the opposite sex who are in a dating relationship or have been in a dating relationship." I can imagine a constitutional challenge to that provision on the grounds that there is no basis for limiting it to opposite-sex couples. If such a challenge were successful, I don't know whether the remedy would be a judicial expansion of the rule or an excision of the rule from the statute.

As always, questions and comments are invited.

Does a No Contact Order Apply While the Defendant Is in Jail?

When setting conditions of pretrial release in domestic violence cases, magistrates and judges often order a defendant not to contact the victim. Those directives clearly apply to a defendant once he is released from jail subject to those conditions. But what about a defendant who remains in jail? Is he also subject to a no contact condition included on a release order? The court of appeals addressed that issue yesterday in State v. Mitchell.

The court in Mitchell concluded that the no contact directive set forth on Mitchell's release orders (he was charged with more than one crime for allegedly assaulting his girlfriend) applied to Mitchell while he was confined in jail. Thus, Mitchell's mailing of letters to his girlfriend from jail violated a court order. And because the letters amounted to stalking, Mitchell's conduct was felonious since there was a court order in effect (the pretrial release orders) prohibiting his conduct.

Facts. Mitchell was arrested for assault on a female on December 26, 2014 after he allegedly punched his girlfriend, "Nancy," in the face. At his initial appearance, the magistrate wrote on the AOC-CR-200, Conditions of Release and Release Order form, that he was "NOT TO HAVE ANY CONTACT WITH [NANCY]." Mitchell's release was not authorized that evening because he was charged with a domestic violence offense for which only a judge could set pretrial release conditions during the first 48 hours following his arrest. Two days later, a judge authorized Mitchell's release upon the posting of a secured bond. The judge, like the magistrate, ordered that Mitchell have no contact with the victim.

A week later, while Mitchell remained in jail, he was charged in an arrest warrant with habitual misdemeanor assault for the alleged December 26 assault of Nancy. The Conditions of Release and Release Order issued in connection with this charge imposed a secured bond and ordered Mitchell "NOT TO HAVE ANY CONTACT WITH [NANCY]." Mitchell did not post bond and remained jailed on both charges.

Mitchell wrote six letters to Nancy from jail while he was subject to conditions of release orders for one or both of these charges. The first letters were "cordial," but the later letters "escalated to threats when she did not respond or reply." Slip op. at 5. Nancy also received a letter marked "return to sender" that listed her return address. The letter was addressed to the Federal Building on Fayetteville Street in Raleigh and contained a bomb threat and demand for $1 million, purportedly written by Nancy. The defendant later admitted to writing the letter.

In March 2015, the Wake County District Attorney's Office received a letter through "jail mail" from the Wake County Detention Center that purported to be written by Nancy. The letter stated that Nancy had falsely accused Mitchell and threatened to place explosives in the Wake County Courthouse. Nancy denied sending the letter.

Mitchell was charged with felony stalking while a court order was in effect for the letters to Nancy and with two counts of felony obstruction of justice based on the letters to the Federal Building and the District Attorney's office.

Felony stalking. G.S. 14-277.3A defines the offense of stalking, which generally is a Class A1 misdemeanor. If, however, stalking is committed "when there is a court order in effect prohibiting the conduct described under [G.S.

14-277.3A] by the defendant against the victim,” the offense is elevated to a Class H felony.

Defendant’s argument. Mitchell moved to dismiss the felony stalking charges on the basis that he was not subject to the conditions of pretrial release that prohibited him from having contact with Nancy because he never posted his bond. Instead, he remained in jail during the entire time the letters were sent. Since he was not released, he said that the order did not apply to him.

Court’s analysis. Calling Mitchell’s argument “deceptively simple,” the court rejected it. Slip op. at 9. The court noted that the orders, titled “Conditions of Release and Release Order,” contained more than their title suggested. In addition to establishing conditions of release, the orders committed Mitchell to a detention facility (as required by G.S. 15A-521\(a\)), noted that he was subject to a domestic violence hold, directed when the defendant was to again be produced before a judicial official (as required by G.S. 15A-521(b) and G.S. 15A-534.1), and, for one of the orders, required that Mitchell provide fingerprints.

Such orders, the court of appeals said, “memorialize[] the trial court’s determinations governing the defendant, whether the defendant is held in a detention facility or released.” Slip op. at 12. Some of the terms of such an order, the court explained, apply whether a defendant is committed or released, while others apply only in one circumstance or another.

The court stated that the directive in the Mitchell orders that Mitchell have no contact with Nancy contained no language indicating that the provision applied only upon Mitchell’s release. Thus, the court concluded, contact with Nancy was barred as long as the orders were in effect. And the orders were in effect until the charges were disposed of, whether Mitchell remained confined in jail or was released.

The stalking enhancement. The court further held that Mitchell’s stalking was felonious because the pre-trial release orders barring Mitchell from contacting Nancy “prohibit[ed] the conduct described under [G.S. 14-277.3A] by the defendant against the victim.”

The court reasoned: Conduct described in G.S. 14-277.3A includes harassment, which requires “[k]nowing contact” that may consist of “written or printed communication.” Mitchell was ordered not to contact Nancy. Because harassment under G.S. 14-277.3A requires contact, the orders prohibited conduct under G.S. 14-277.3A, even though they did not specifically mention stalking.

The court said its view that the no contact order prohibited conduct described in the stalking statute was “in keeping with the intent” of the stalking statute, which provides in part: “[T]he General Assembly enacts this law to encourage effective intervention by the criminal justice system before stalking escalates into behavior that has serious or lethal consequences. The General Assembly intends to enact a stalking statute that permits the criminal justice system to hold stalkers accountable for a wide range of acts, communications, and conduct.” Slip op. at 15 (citing G.S. 14-277.3A(a)).

Practical effect. The Mitchell court did not identify the source of a judicial official’s authority to impose conditions upon a person that apply while the person is detained, but its analysis assumes such authority exists. Cf. Baker v. United States, 891 A.2d 208 (D.C. Cir. 2006) (declining to decide whether trial court that ordered defendant preventatively detained had the authority to issue a no-contact order under the bail statute or pursuant to the court’s inherent authority). That issue has been the subject of considerable debate in the trenches (see Jeff’s post here), so its resolution is significant, particularly given the frequency with which no contact conditions are imposed.

The court also did not address what limitations exist on a judicial official’s authority to impose such conditions. While Mitchell’s post-arrest conduct leaves little doubt about the need for such a restriction in his case, it is not clear what standard judicial officials are to use in crafting general conditions regulating the conduct of a defendant both in and out of jail. Cf. G.S. 15A-534(a) (permitting a judicial official to “place restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as conditions of pretrial release (emphasis added); G.S. 15A-534.1(a)(2)(permitting a judge to impose, among other “pretrial release” conditions, a condition that the defendant “stay away from the home, school, business or place of employment of the alleged victim”).

Most violations of no contact orders do not, of course, result in statutorily enhanced charges like those in Mitchell. Instead, they are more often addressed through contempt proceedings under Chapter 5A. Cf. Baker, 891 A.2d at 212 (stating that “even assuming for the sake of argument that the trial court’s no-contact order was invalid, Baker’s conviction for contempt must be upheld for his failure to comply with that order” which he did not challenge or appeal). After Mitchell, I expect that magistrates and judges will continue to impose such conditions (though they may wish to specify whether they apply in jail as well as upon release) and that contempt proceedings will continue to be initiated for defendants who do not follow them.

Thanks to my colleague John Rubin for helping me think through the issues in State v. Mitchell and for teaching me everything I know about pretrial release.

DVPOs for Same-Sex Dating Relationships?

Domestic violence protective orders (DVPOs) are available to “persons of the opposite sex who are . . . or have been in a dating relationship,” and who are able to establish that the person that they are or were dating committed an act of domestic violence against them. Persons of the same sex who are or were in a dating relationship don’t have the same opportunity. Is that constitutional? The Supreme Court of South Carolina just addressed a related question, and its opinion suggests that the answer is no.

Background. G.S. 50B-1 defines a “personal relationship” as a relationship where the parties involved:

- (1) Are current or former spouses;
- (2) Are persons of opposite sex who live together or have lived together;
- (3) Are related as parents and children, including others acting in loco parentis to a minor child, or as grandparents and grandchildren. For purposes of this subdivision, an aggrieved party may not obtain an order of protection against a child or grandchild under the age of 16;
- (4) Have a child in common;
- (5) Are current or former household members;
- (6) Are persons of the opposite sex who are in a dating relationship or have been in a dating relationship. For purposes of this subdivision, a dating relationship is one wherein the parties are romantically involved over time and on a continuous basis during the course of the relationship. A casual acquaintance or ordinary fraternization between persons in a business or social context is not a dating relationship.

The statute defines “domestic violence” as the commission of certain acts by a party to a “personal relationship,” so only individuals in a “personal relationship” are eligible for a DVPO. Same-sex couples who are dating but not living together aren’t in a “personal relationship” as defined by the statute.

It has been clear at least since Obergefell v. Hodges, 576 U.S. ___ (2015) (ruling that the Due Process Clause and the Equal Protection Clause of the Constitution require all states to permit and to recognize same-sex marriages), that distinctions between same-sex and opposite-sex relationships require legal scrutiny. In this prior post, I noted that Chapter 50B contained several questionable provisions.

South Carolina case. The recent South Carolina case that bears on this issue is Doe v. State, ___ S.E.2d ___, 2017 WL 3165132 (S.C. July 26, 2017). South Carolina’s domestic violence statutes apply only to “household members,” defined in part as a “male and female who are cohabiting or formerly have cohabited.” A woman who suffered domestic violence at the hands of her female partner -- the two were engaged, but not married -- sought a DVPO but was denied based on the above definition. She challenged the law in court, arguing that the exclusion of same-sex couples violated equal protection principles.

The state supreme court agreed. It stated that it “cannot find a reasonable basis for providing protection to one set of domestic violence victims—unmarried, cohabiting or formerly cohabiting, opposite-sex couples—while denying it to others. Accordingly, we find no constitutionally valid rational basis for the statutory classifications created by the definitional subsections at issue.”

Turning to the question of how to remedy the defect, the court decided to “sever the discriminatory provision,” removing the reference to cohabiting couples from the statute. In other words, the court made opposite-sex cohabiting couples ineligible for DVPOs so that both same-sex and opposite-sex couples are treated in the same way. (The chief justice dissented as to the remedy. He would have held the statute unconstitutional as applied to the plaintiff and would have held “that the family court may not utilize these statutory provisions to prevent [the plaintiff] or those in similar same-sex relationships from seeking [a DVPO].”)

Back to North Carolina. Obviously, South Carolina cases aren’t binding on North Carolina courts. But that court was unanimous on the fundamental equal protection issue. Using the same lens to look at North Carolina’s statute, there are two provisions that are worth considering:

- The phrase “[a]re persons of opposite sex who live together or have lived together.” This is virtually indistinguishable from the language at issue in the South Carolina case. However, it may be difficult for a plaintiff to establish standing to contest this portion of the North Carolina statute because the statute also covers individuals who “[a]re current or former household members.” Persons of the same sex who “live together or have lived together” appear to be covered by the latter provision -- though I have heard arguments that the “household members” provision should not be interpreted to include romantic partners -- and so arguably suffer no legally cognizable injury by their exclusion from the “live together” prong of the statute.
- The phrase “[a]re persons of the opposite sex who are in a dating relationship or have been in a dating relationship.” This provision is the focus of today’s post, and I must say, the argument that this provision violates equal protection strikes me as quite strong. Violence in same-sex relationships seems to be as common, or maybe even more common, than in opposite-sex ones, suggesting an equivalent need for DVPOs. Of course, legislative actions are presumptively constitutional; Obergefell was decided partly based on the fundamental right to marry, which is not implicated in the “dating relationship” provision; and it is not clear what degree of scrutiny would apply to a challenge to this provision, so perhaps the issue is not a complete slam dunk.

What’s the practice? I suspect that judges are receiving DVPO requests arising out of same-sex dating relationships, and I have heard that at least some judges will issue DVPOs in such circumstances. But as always, I welcome comments regarding how this issue is playing out in the real world.

State v. Elder: DVPO Cannot Authorize Search for Guns

Author : Shea Denning

Categories : Search and Seizure

Date : June 25, 2015

A judge who issues an emergency or ex parte domestic violence protective order must order the defendant to surrender all firearms in his care, custody or control if the judge makes certain findings about the defendant's prior conduct. Among the findings that trigger the weapons-surrender requirement is a finding that the defendant used or threatened to use a deadly weapon or has a pattern of prior conduct involving the use or threatened use of violence with a firearm. A defendant served with such an order must immediately surrender his firearms to the sheriff. If the weapons cannot be immediately surrendered, he must surrender them within 24 hours. But what if the defendant does not turn over any firearms? May the protective order authorize the sheriff to search the defendant, his home, and/or his vehicle for such weapons?

No. The North Carolina Supreme Court in State v. Elder, __ N.C. __, __ S.E.2d __ (June 11, 2015), held that G.S. 50B-3 did not authorize the district court to include in a domestic violence protective order (DVPO) a directive that law enforcement officers search the defendant, his vehicle and his residence for weapons.

Facts. Gregory Elder's wife sought an ex parte DVPO in September 2010. The court entered the DVPO, finding that Elder had threatened to get gasoline and torch their son's preschool, his wife's house and her sister's house. The court also found that Elder had said "I'm going to get you all," and "you won't [expletive deleted] stop me, and the police won't [expletive deleted] stop me." (Slip op. at 2.) Finally, the court found that Elder had a history of substance abuse and mental illness and that he had made threats to anyone who attempted to go into the marital residence.

The court concluded that Elder had committed acts of domestic violence in the past and that he continued to present a danger of future violence. The court ordered him to surrender his firearms, ammunition and gun permits, as provided in G.S. 50B-3.1.

Relying on G.S. 50B-3(a)(13), which authorizes the court to include as relief in a DVPO "any additional prohibitions or requirements the court deems necessary to protect any party or minor child," the court ordered that "[a]ny Law Enforcement officer serving this Order shall search the Defendant's person, vehicle and residence and seize any and all weapons found." (Slip op. at 2.)

The DVPO contained no findings that Elder owned or possessed a weapon.

Service of the DVPO. After several attempts, officers successfully served the DVPO on Elder three days after it was issued. They knocked on his door for fifteen minutes. Elder came outside and locked the door behind him? a reasonable precaution since there was marijuana growing operation inside.

The officers took the keys from Elder's pockets, unlocked the door and went inside to search for weapons as ordered in the DVPO.

Motion to suppress. Elder was charged with several drug crimes. He moved to suppress the evidence the officers found on the basis that the search violated his Fourth Amendment rights. The trial court denied the motion. A divided panel of the court of appeals reversed, holding that the DVPO statutes did not authorize the district court to order the search, that the DVPO was not a de facto search warrant because it contained no findings of probable cause to believe that evidence of a crime would be found in the places ordered searched, and that the search was not authorized by exigent circumstances. The dissenting opinion concluded that the district court was statutorily authorized to order the search. The State appealed, and the state supreme court affirmed.

Supreme Court's Analysis. G.S. 50B-3(a)(1)-(13) lists thirteen types of relief that a court may order in a DVPO. The first twelve subsections authorize the court to impose specific prohibitions or requirements on a party to the DVPO. The court may order a party to refrain from acting in a certain way (not to harass the other party, for example) or to act in a certain way (to pay child support, for example). The last subsection, G.S. 50B-3(a)(13), is a catch-all provision that authorizes the court to order "any additional prohibitions or requirements the court deems necessary to protect any party or any minor child."

The Elder court held that this catch-all provision limits the court to ordering a party to act or refrain from acting, as do the preceding subsections. The provision does not authorize the court to order in a DVPO that law enforcement officers search the defendant, his vehicle, or his residence.

Fourth Amendment. The Elder court explained that its interpretation was consistent with the Fourth Amendment and Article 1, Section 20 of the North Carolina Constitution. Were it to conclude otherwise, the court reasoned, "district courts would have seemingly unfettered discretion to order a broad range of remedies in a DVPO so long as the judge believes they are necessary for the protection of any party or child." (Slip op. at 6.)

Because Elder was, of course, a criminal case and the defendant's motion to suppress was based on the violation of his state and constitutional rights, the court then considered whether the search indeed violated those rights. The court concluded that nothing in the case excused the requirement that a search of person's home be conducted pursuant to a warrant issued by a judicial official following a determination of probable cause. While acknowledging that domestic violence is a significant problem and the state has a vital interest in protecting victims, the court concluded that the facts of the case did not justify a special needs search of the type authorized when interests beyond the normal need for law enforcement make the warrant and probable cause requirement impracticable. Thus, the court determined that the warrantless search of the defendant's home violated his state and federal constitutional rights.

What if the DVPO had included findings that the defendant had a gun? I don't think the outcome would be any different. Elder held that the trial court had no authority under G.S. 50B-3 to order in a DVPO that law enforcement officers search the defendant, his home, or vehicle. The court's interpretation of the statute does not appear to hinge on the possible presence of a weapon. I'm likewise doubtful that a finding that the defendant had a firearm would alter the constitutional analysis governing an ensuing search of the defendant's home. At the time a DVPO is served, the defendant must surrender his firearms. If a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that a firearm is located within a defendant's residence and has not been surrendered as required, she may seek issuance of a search warrant to recover the weapon.

Can the Person Protected by a DVPO Be Charged with Violating the Order?

Author : John Rubin

Categories : Crimes and Elements, Procedure, Uncategorized

Tagged as : aiding and abetting, domestic violence, DVPO

Here's a question I get occasionally: What language should I use to charge aiding and abetting a violation of a domestic violence protective order (DVPO)? Here's a similar one: If someone is arrested for aiding and abetting a violation of a DVPO, is the person subject to the 48-hour pretrial release law for domestic violence offenses? I know the scenario immediately. A person protected by a DVPO (Mary) has invited the person subject to the DVPO (her ex-boyfriend, John) over to her house although the DVPO prohibits him from being there. Things deteriorate, and Mary calls the police for assistance. I also know my answers to these questions. There isn't language for charging Mary with aiding and abetting a violation of a protective order that was entered for her protection because such a charge isn't valid. For the same reason, Mary isn't subject to arrest so the 48-hour law doesn't apply. If such a charge is brought, the remedy is for the court to dismiss it for failure to state a crime.

The North Carolina appellate courts haven't addressed whether these charges are proper, but decisions from other states explain why they should not stand. In State v. Lucas, 795 N.E.2d 642 (Ohio 2003), the facts were similar to the above scenario. In Patterson v. State, 979 N.E.2d 1066 (Ind. App. 2012), the police came to the residence for other reasons (to serve a subpoena) and found the two together. In dismissing the aiding and abetting charge, the court in both cases focused on the legislature's intent in authorizing domestic violence protective orders—namely, to protect victims of domestic violence. As stated by the Ohio Supreme Court in Lucas, the legislature did not intend to undo those protections by “allowing abused women to be charged with complicity” in violating orders for their protection. 795 N.E.2d at 648. The courts' reading of legislative intent rests on a combination of common law principles, statutory language, and policy considerations. In light of our state's commitment to protecting victims of domestic violence, I believe our appellate courts would find the reasoning persuasive.

First, a basic tenet of criminal law is that the victim of a crime cannot be charged with aiding and abetting commission of the crime. “Where the statute in question was enacted for the protection of certain defined persons thought to be in need of special protection, it would clearly be contrary to the legislative purpose to impose accomplice liability upon such a person.” See Wayne R. LaFave, Substantive Criminal Law § 13.3(e), at 370 (2d ed. 2003). For example, a victim of statutory rape cannot, by consenting, be charged with aiding and abetting the crime.

Second, the language of the statutes indicates that the legislature did not intend for a person protected by a protective order to be held criminally liable for a violation of the order. Thus, the Ohio statute prohibits “mutual” protective orders. That means that a court may not issue a protective order against the person who petitions for a protective order unless the respondent also files for and meets the requirements for issuance of a protective order against the petitioner. The North Carolina DVPO procedures did not originally include such a provision, but the North Carolina General Assembly amended G.S. 50B-3(b) to add it specifically. See S.L. 1995-591 (H 686). The Ohio and Indiana statutes contain an additional provision, not present in North Carolina's statutes, that an invitation to return to the residence does not nullify or waive a protective order. The difference is not critical; jurisdictions without such a provision have interpreted their protective order statutes as establishing the same rule. See, e.g., State v. Dejarlais, 969 P.2d 90 (Wash. 1998) (so interpreting statute before legislature enacted such a provision); accord State v. Branson, 167 P.3d 370 (Kan. Ct. App. 2007). North Carolina's courts likely would follow the same approach. See Domestic Violence Order of Protection, AOC Form AOC-CV-306 (Oct. 2013) (“Only the Court can change this order. The plaintiff cannot give you permission to violate this order.”).

Third, the policies behind protective order statutes indicate that the legislature did not intend for the victims of domestic violence to be charged with violations of orders for their protection. Such charges could “chill” enforcement of protective orders, contrary to the legislature’s intent to strengthen protections. Lucas, 795 N.E.2d at 647. Even though protected by a protective order, a person may be reluctant to call for help if fearful of being prosecuted for having invited the other person to her home. See generally Branson, 167 P.3d at 372 (noting petitioner’s testimony that she did not call police immediately because she thought she “would be in as much trouble as he was”). People in need of protective orders might even be deterred from seeking protective orders. In our Mary and John example, if Mary invites John to her house, wants him to leave, and does not have a protective order, she can call the police without being arrested herself; yet, if the law allowed charges of aiding abetting, Mary would be in worse shape for having a protective order.

A somewhat older case from Iowa held that a person could be held liable for, in essence, aiding and abetting a violation of a protective order. See Henley v. Iowa District Court, 533 N.W.2d 199 (Iowa 1995). The proceeding in that case was for contempt, but the basic question is the same: whether a person protected by a protective order may be prosecuted for consenting to a violation of the order. The court’s holding rests on far older, “turn-of-the-century” decisions in which the Iowa courts held that nonparties to orders could be held in contempt for violations if they acted in concert or were in privity with the person against whom the order was directed. See Henley, 533 N.W. 2d at 202, citing Hutcheson v. Iowa District Court, 480 N.W.2d 260, 263–64 (Iowa 1992) (reviewing history). Those decisions are unpersuasive because they recite general contempt principles only and do not consider the complex dynamics of relationships involving domestic violence or the legislature’s intent in enacting procedures for the protection of domestic violence victims.

Dealing with repeated problems with the same couples can undoubtedly be frustrating for court officials and law enforcement officers as well as counselors, family members, and friends. The solution of splitting up and staying split up seems obvious, but research shows that it’s not so simple. For many reasons, it may take a person many tries and many months, if not years, to get out of an abusive relationship. The law’s answer to this difficult problem is not to charge the person protected by a protective order with violating the order.

I've Been Arrested . . . But Committed No Crime

[Author's Note: This post has been substantively edited to make corrections in response to helpful comments from readers.]

A person generally may not lawfully be arrested unless there is probable cause to believe he has committed a crime. But there are several exceptions to this rule. Most involve arrests made pursuant to an order for arrest issued by a judicial official. A judicial official may, for example, issue an order for the arrest of a defendant who fails to appear in court or who violates conditions of probation. See G.S. 15A-305(b). And there is one circumstance in which a law enforcement officer may, without a judicial order or warrant for the defendant's arrest and without probable cause to believe a crime has been committed, arrest a defendant. That's when the officer has probable cause to believe the defendant has violated a condition of pretrial release. G.S. 15A-401(b)(1),(b)(2)(f.).

Arrests for violations of pretrial release conditions. The General Assembly amended G.S. 15A-401(b) in 2011 to authorize officers to make warrantless arrests of a defendant based on probable cause that the person had violated a condition of pretrial release, regardless of whether the violation occurred in or out of the officer's presence. Those amendments were effective for violations of pretrial release conditions that occurred on or after December 1, 2011. Before that time, officers were authorized to make warrantless arrests for defendants who were charged with crimes of domestic violence and who violated a condition of release for that crime, but were not permitted to arrest defendants who were charged with other types of crimes for a violation of their pretrial release conditions. See S.L. 2004-186, Sections 13.1 -.2. Under current law, officers may arrest for any pretrial release violation, regardless of the nature of the underlying offense. See G.S. 15A-401\(b\)\(1\), \(b\)\(2\)\(f.\) (authorizing arrest based on probable cause that defendant has violated pretrial release order under G.S. 15A-534 (which governs the determination of conditions of pretrial release for crimes generally) or G.S. 15A-534.1 (which governs the setting of pretrial release conditions for crimes of domestic violence)).

What happens when a person is arrested? Upon arresting a defendant for a violation of a pretrial release order, an officer must take the defendant before a magistrate for an initial appearance. G.S. 15A-501\(2\); 15A-511\(a\). The magistrate must first determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the defendant violated the conditions of release. Then, if the magistrate finds probable cause, he or she must set new conditions of initial release. The magistrate does not modify his or her earlier release order; instead he or she imposes new conditions of release, which supersede the prior release order.

No authority to hold. There is no statutory authority authorizing a magistrate to hold a defendant charged with violating a condition of pretrial release without setting new conditions of release. Confusion about this issue abounds when a defendant who was initially charged with a crime of domestic violence is arrested for violation of the pretrial release order. This might occur if, for example, the defendant was ordered to have no contact with the victim and he is later discovered in the victim's home with the victim's consent. An officer who learns of the defendant's presence may arrest the defendant based on probable cause that the defendant has violated the pretrial release order. The defendant in this circumstance has not, however, committed a new crime, much less a crime of domestic violence. Thus, a magistrate must set conditions of release at the defendant's initial appearance following his arrest.

Is this constitutional? Some defendants have complained that being arrested for a violation of an order based on conduct that is not itself a crime is unconstitutional. None of those complaints appear to have reached our appellate courts. If and when they do, I'm skeptical about their prospects for success. Other courts have recognized that when a defendant "breach[es] a condition of the bond originally set by the court, [he] forfeits the right to continued release under the terms of that bond." State v. Paul, 783 So.2d 1042 (Fla. 2001). That same sort of reasoning appears to underlie the legislature's authorizing of officers to arrest for violations of pretrial release orders.

Cyberstalking and the 48 Hour Rule

G.S. 14-196.3 prohibits “cyberstalking,” which the statute generally defines to mean using electronic communications to threaten, extort, make an abusive or embarrassing false statement about, or repeatedly harass another person. As Jessie noted in this prior post, cyberstalking has become a frequently charged offense. It can be committed by text message, email, Facebook, and other means.

I’ve been asked several times recently whether the so-called 48 hour rule, set forth in G.S. 15A-534.1, applies to cyberstalking. That statute provides that for certain domestic violence crimes, bond must normally be set by a judge rather than a magistrate. The statute allows a defendant to be held for up to 48 hours if a judge is not immediately available. I’ve previously written about the 48 hour rule here.

The 48 hour rule applies to “all cases in which the defendant is charged with assault on, stalking, communicating a threat to, or committing [certain felonies] upon a spouse or former spouse or a person with whom the defendant lives or has lived as if married, with domestic criminal trespass, or with violation of [a DVPO].”

Does the statute’s reference to “stalking” include cyberstalking? I don’t think so, for two reasons.

- First, although the 48 hour rule has been around since 1995, S.L. 1995-527, “stalking” was only added to the statute in 2007, S.L. 2007-14. Both the original stalking statute, G.S. 14-277 (enacted by S.L. 2001-518), and the cyberstalking statute (enacted by S.L. 2000-125) existed at that time. The General Assembly’s decision to add the term “stalking” but not the term “cyberstalking” to G.S. 15A-534.1 may have been a deliberate choice. To the extent that the statutory language is ambiguous, the rule of lenity suggests that the term “stalking” should be strictly construed not to include cyberstalking.
- Second, the cyberstalking statute is clearly patterned on the harassing phone calls statute, G.S. 14-196, not on the “regular” stalking statute, and the General Assembly chose not to include harassing phone calls in the 48 hour law.

Based on the foregoing, I don’t think that the 48 hour rule generally applies to cyberstalking charges. However, there’s one possible limited exception. The cyberstalking statute encompasses certain threatening communications. One could argue that the 48 hour rule should apply to cases of cyberstalking that involve threats based on the provision in G.S. 15A-534.1 regarding “communicating a threat.” (The same argument could be made for harassing phone calls that involve threats.)

I’ve always thought of the reference in G.S. 15A-534.1 to communicating threats to mean simply that the 48 hour rule applies to charges under G.S. 14-277.1, the communicating threats statute. And I’ve always thought of the 48 hour rule as binary – either it applies to all the charges under a certain statute or it doesn’t apply to that statute at all. But I can see a contrary argument, and I don’t think that there’s a case that squarely addresses the issue.

I’d be interested in feedback about whether, in practice, the 48 hour rule is ever being applied to harassing phone calls or to cyberstalking. But the issue may not arise very often, because in most cases, a phone call or an electronic communication that includes a threat would likely be charged under G.S. 14-277.1, a Class 1 misdemeanor to which the 48 hour rule clearly does apply, instead of or in addition to being charged as a harassing phone call or cyberstalking (both Class 2 misdemeanors).

It is also worth noting that some conduct that violates the cyberstalking statute will also violate the current “normal” stalking statute, G.S. 14-277.3A, to which the 48 hour rule also clearly applies.

Magistrates' Basic School

February 2021

Instructions. Break into groups of 4-6. Read each problem and answer each question. One of the questions for each problem asks what criminal charges are possible under the circumstances described in the problem. Answer that question as completely as possible. It is not intended to be easy. You are not limited to offenses we have discussed this week, or to offenses in any particular chapter of North Carolina Crimes. After the groups have finished their work, we will discuss each problem as a class.

Problem 1

An officer was investigating reports of vandalism at the local high school. He asked one of the students at the school, who is 18, for permission to look at the pictures on the student's cell phone. The student gave his phone to the officer. The officer did not find any photos related to the vandalism incident, but did see sexually explicit photos of the student and his 16-year-old girlfriend on the phone. The 16-year-old is nude in the photos, several of which depict the teenagers engaging in oral sex. He also discovers a text message from the male student to the 16-year-old girl containing a nude photo of the girl stepping out of the shower.

The officer is seeking issuance of a warrant for arrest charging the male student with second-degree sexual exploitation of a minor, though he is somewhat uncomfortable about charging the student with such a serious offense.

Problem 2

You are a magistrate in a college town. A 19-year-old female appears before you seeking charges against a 19-year-old male university student. The female alleges in an affidavit that she attended a party at the male student's apartment six months ago. She drank approximately 10 mixed drinks. At some point, she fell asleep on the defendant's couch. She awoke to the defendant on top of her, having sexual intercourse with her. She said she was frozen with fear and was confused. The defendant had pulled up her skirt and pulled off her underwear. She said she remained as still as possible until the defendant removed his penis from her vagina. She then ran out of the apartment. She was treated at the hospital, which prepared a rape kit. She said she was in extreme pain for several days following the incident. She was bruised and scraped during the incident. She said she reported the incident to university police, who, after consulting with the district attorney, declined to seek charges. The woman tells you that she believes this decision was based on part on the defendant's status as a star football player for the college. She says that she is not going to let the defendant get away with this just because he is an athlete.

Problem 3

A Highway Patrol Trooper is seeking charges in connection with a driver attempting to unlawfully pass a group of bicyclists, and seriously injuring one of them in the process. The trooper explains that the motorist attempted to pass the group of cyclists on a two-lane road in a rural part of the county. There was a double yellow line on the road prohibiting passing. The driver attempted to pass the group anyway. When she saw another car approaching, she swerved back into her lane, hitting the bicycle at the front of the group. The cyclist was thrown from his bicycle. He sustained several broken bones, which will require surgery to repair. The trooper does not believe that the driver was impaired by alcohol or any other substance.

A local police officer has arrested the defendant, who was discovered concealing merchandise (three containers of baby formula that retail for $35 each) under her loose-fitting clothes at the neighborhood grocery store. She was past the register and out the door when the manager stopped her. After a previous shoplifting incident at the same store, the manager had told the defendant not to return to the store.

The conditions of this Bond are that the above named defendant shall appear in the above entitled action(s) whenever required. It is agreed and understood that this Bond is effective and binding upon the defendant and each surety throughout all stages of the proceedings in the trial divisions of the General Court of Justice until the entry of judgment in the district court from which no appeal is taken or until the entry of judgment in the superior court, unless terminated earlier by operation of law or order of the court. If the defendant appears as ordered until termination of the Bond, then the bond is to be void, but if the defendant fails to appear as required, the Court will forfeit the bond pursuant to Part 2 of Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes.

Each accommodation bondsman, by signing on the reverse or on the attached AOC-CR-201A, states: "I have reached the age of 18 years and am a bona fide resident of North Carolina. Aside from love and affection and release of the above named defendant, I have received no consideration for acting as surety. I own sufficient property over and above all liabilities, homestead and other exemptions allowed me by law to enable me to pay this Bond should it be ordered forfeited. I understand that if I sign this Bond without sufficient property, I am guilty of a crime."

NOTES TO CUSTODIAN:

- (1) Surrender by a surety is governed by G.S. 15A-540 and G.S. 58-71-20. You can determine whether or not the person offering the surrender is the surety on the bond or an agent of that surety by reviewing the Appearance Bond form (AOC-CR-201) or a Bond Forfeiture Notice (AOC-CR-213) issued for a forfeiture of that bond. Both forms identify the surety. If you have any questions about whether or not a person offering a defendant for surrender is authorized to do so, you should consult with your supervising authority or agency counsel; judicial officials may not give sheriffs' personnel advice or approval for the surrender process.
- (2) If the surety completed the section for the Pre-Breach Surrender, above, the previous Conditions Of Release And Release Order (AOC-CR-200) for which the appearance bond was executed remains in effect. You must obtain a copy of that release order from the court in order to determine the defendant's current conditions of release.
- (3) If the surety completed the section for Post-Breach Surrender, above, provide the surrendering surety or agent with a copy of this form with the Receipt By Custodian completed. Then without unnecessary delay, take the defendant before a judicial official along with the completed original of this form and all documentation attached by the surety for entry of a new commitment order and conditions of release.

NOTES TO MAGISTRATE:

- (1) A judicial official may not accept or approve a surrender. Surrender is to the Sheriff, only, not to a judicial official. G.S. 15A-540. Sureties who wish to surrender a defendant should be directed to the Sheriff. Custodial personnel with questions about the validity of a proposed surrender should be directed to consult with their supervising authority or agency counsel. You should conduct an appearance for the defendant only if the surety has indicated a Post-Breach Surrender on the reverse and only after the custodian has brought you the original of this form with a completed Receipt By Custodian.
- (2) If the defendant was surrendered pursuant to a Pre-Breach Surrender, the previous Conditions Of Release And Release Order (AOC-CR-200) for which the appearance bond was posted remains in effect. You may not enter a new release order for a pre-breach surrender, unless (i) the defendant has had no appearance before the court on any case covered by the bond for which he/she was surrendered, and (ii) you entered the original release order for which the bond was posted. G.S. 15A-534(e). Any court date already scheduled for the defendant remains the same.
- (3) If the defendant was surrendered pursuant to a Post-Breach Surrender, G.S. 15A-540(c) requires that a judicial official determine whether the defendant is again entitled to pretrial release and, if so, upon what conditions. If the breach was a failure to appear for any charge(s) covered by the appearance bond for which the defendant was surrendered. G.S. 15A-534(d1) provides that the official shall impose conditions of release as follows:
  - a. If an order for arrest (OFA) was issued for the failure to appear and any conditions of release were recommended in that OFA, you must at a minimum impose the conditions of release recommended in the OFA (even if the OFA is recalled pursuant to Note (4), below).
  - b. If there were no conditions recommended in an OFA issued for the failure to appear, you must require a secured bond at least double the amount of the most recent secured or unsecured bond.
  - c. If there were no conditions recommended in an OFA issued for the failure to appear, and there was no prior monetary condition of release, you must require a secured bond of at least $1,000.
- (4) If an OFA was issued for the defendant's failure to appear, the court date in the new release order should be the same as the court date set in the order for arrest, if any. Arrange to have the OFA served on the defendant as quickly as possible, but do not detain the defendant beyond the time when he or she satisfies the conditions of release imposed in the new release order. If the OFA cannot be served before the defendant satisfies the new conditions of release, arrange to have the OFA recalled as quickly as possible to avoid a duplicate arrest of the defendant.
- (5) If the defendant was surrendered in a county other than the county where the defendant is to appear, return the original OFA, if any, with return of service completed, along with all original documentation for the defendant's surrender, conditions of release, and any new bond posted, to the county where the defendant is to appear.

FINDINGS

The undersigned judicial official conducting an initial appearance or first appearance for the defendant named above finds probable cause that an individual had a nonsexual exposure to the defendant in a manner that poses a significant risk of transmission of the AIDS virus or Hepatitis B by the defendant to the individual in that (specify reasons):

[NOTE: Do not include any information indicating that the defendant has or may have a communicable disease. Describe only the nature of the exposure that would pose a significant risk of transmission of the AIDS or Hepatitis B virus if the defendant were infected.

Note that mere contact of the defendant's bodily fluids with a subject's clothing or unbroken skin does not pose a significant risk of transmission of either virus. A significant risk of transmission occurs when the defendant's bodily fluids come into contact with the subject's broken skin or mucous membranes. For example, a bite by the defendant that does not break the subject's skin does not pose a significant risk of transmission. Contact that may pose a significant risk includes things like a needlestick or a bite that actually breaks the subject's skin.]
