

Homework Assignment for Domestic Violence Seminar

Congratulations on being selected to attend the Domestic Violence Seminar coming up at the beginning of October! We ask that you complete three tasks in preparation for your attendance at the seminar. This preparatory work is an important part of your participation and is required for successful completion of the seminar. The tasks are straightforward and will take only a few minutes. Here's what we're asking you to do:

1. Search the internet, ask your colleagues, or call an expert to find out who is working on domestic violence in your judicial district. Make a list of resources and include relevant contact information.
2. Watch Leslie Morgan Steiner's Ted Talk (Why DV Victims Don't Leave) on YouTube <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VlyVW5lsnSjo>.
3. Write down answers to the following questions:
 - What surprised you about Leslie's story?
 - What sounded familiar about Leslie's story?
 - How did this video change your perspective on victims?
 - If you could ask Leslie one question after watching this video, what would it be?

Please email your answers to Elizabeth Watkins Price on, or before, Friday September 28th. Her email address is watkinsprice@sog.unc.edu.

If you are unable to send your answers to Elizabeth, please bring them with you to class on the 2nd.
