This bulletin summarizes criminal procedure for North Carolina magistrates. Coverage includes criminal process and pleadings, initial appearance, pretrial release, fugitives, and search warrants. It replaces Administration of Justice Bulletin 2007/06 and serves as the new criminal procedure text for the School of Government's Basic School for Magistrates.

Criminal Process and Pleadings

Types of Criminal Process and Pleadings

You will issue and encounter five different types of criminal process and pleadings in your daily work: citation, criminal summons, warrant for arrest, order for arrest (OFA), and magistrate's order. Other types of pleadings, including statement of charges, information, and indictment, will not be a part of your daily work, and thus they are not discussed in this bulletin.

The purpose of criminal process is to require a person to come to court. Official Commentary to Article 17 of the North Carolina General Statutes (hereinafter G.S.), Chapter 15A. When a warrant for arrest or OFA is issued, this is accomplished by taking the person into custody. When a citation or criminal summons is used, it is accomplished by ordering the person to appear in court. Most forms of criminal process also can serve as the criminal pleading (the OFA, discussed later, is the only type of criminal process that cannot serve as a pleading). Criminal pleadings have three main functions: to give the court jurisdiction to enter judgment on the offense charged, to give the defendant notice of the charges, and to allow the defendant to raise a double jeopardy defense. 238 N.C. 325.

Issuing Criminal Process and Pleadings

Required Determinations

Before issuing criminal process and pleadings, you must determine

- that probable cause exists,
- which crime(s) to charge,
- what charging language to use, and
- which type of process or pleading to issue.

This bulletin focuses on all but the second of these inquiries. New magistrates will learn more about which crime(s) to charge in their Basic School sessions on the elements of the crimes. The School of Government publication JESSICA SMITH, NORTH CAROLINA CRIMES: A GUIDEBOOK ON THE ELEMENTS OF CRIME (School of Government, UNC Chapel Hill, 6th ed. 2007) (hereinafter NORTH CAROLINA CRIMES), describes the more commonly charged North Carolina crimes.

Independent Determination

You are an independent judicial official, not an agent of law enforcement. Thus, when you determine whether to issue criminal process and pleadings, your determinations must be neutral and independent.

Requirements of Criminal Pleadings

Because the requirements for a sufficient pleading are more stringent than those for simply taking a person into custody, criminal pleadings always should be drafted to satisfy the special pleading requirements discussed below.

Probable Cause

Generally

Criminal process and pleadings require a finding of probable cause. With a citation, a law enforcement officer determines whether probable cause exists. For all of the other forms of criminal process and pleadings discussed in this bulletin, a judicial official determines whether probable cause exists.

Meaning of Probable Cause

To issue any of the forms of criminal process or pleadings discussed in this section, you must determine that there is probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed and that the person who has been arrested or who will be arrested or summoned committed that crime. Probable cause means a fair probability; the standard is not proof beyond a reasonable doubt. ROBERT FARB, ARREST, SEARCH, AND INVESTIGATION IN NORTH CAROLINA 26 (3d ed. 2003) (hereinafter ARREST, SEARCH, AND INVESTIGATION). Thus the probable cause determination is whether there is a fair probability that: (1) a crime was committed, and (2) the person arrested or to be arrested or summoned committed the crime. In order to find probable cause that an offense was committed, you must find probable cause for each element of the offense.

The Probable Cause Determination

Forms of evidence. The information establishing probable cause must be shown by one or more of the following:

- Affidavit
- Oral testimony under oath or affirmation (e.g., by a law enforcement officer or a complaining witness) before you
- Oral testimony under oath or affirmation presented by a law enforcement officer to you by means of an audio and video transmission in which both parties can see and hear each other. The procedure and equipment must be approved by the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), based on a submission to the AOC by the senior resident superior court judge and the chief district court judge. G.S. 15A-303(c); -304(d); -511(c). A 2009 law, S.L. 2009-270, provides for a pilot program that would allow videoconferencing for these determinations under specified conditions for individuals in the custody of the Department of Correction (DOC) or a local confinement facility. However, due to a lack of funding, the pilot program has not yet been initiated. In any event, videoconferencing already is permitted for probable cause determinations pursuant to the statutory provisions cited above.

Rules of evidence not applicable. When making a probable cause determination, you are not bound by the rules of evidence. Thus hearsay that might be inadmissible at trial may be considered, N.C. R. EVID. 1101(b), provided it is reliable.

Factors that should not be considered. When making the probable cause determination, you should not be influenced by the fact that the defendant already is in custody. Nor should you consider, as a general rule, application of the exclusionary rule (such as the legality of an arrest or search). Finally, you should not consider defenses, such as self-defense, unless all of the evidence presented clearly establishes that the defense applies.

Relevant factors. When making the probable cause determination, factors that may indicate guilt include

- eyewitness observations and other reports, including scientific evidence;
- furtive movements or attempts to hide evidence;
- resistance to officers;
- evasive and untruthful answers to questions; and
- flight by the defendant.

Credibility. ASSESSING CREDIBILITY. As a general rule, when assessing credibility, a witness's story is more likely to be true if he or she has no motive to lie, provides a detailed statement, and is consistent.

CITIZEN WITNESSES. Citizen witnesses are regular people who witness crime. For example, a person who saw robbers flee from a crime scene is a citizen witness. Absent some reason to doubt the credibility of a citizen witness, such as a dispute between the witness and the alleged perpetrator, you may presume that he or she is truthful.

ANONYMOUS TIPSTERS. An anonymous tip is a lead from someone whose identity is unknown. Such a tip cannot, standing alone, constitute probable cause. However, it can contribute to probable cause, if there is adequate corroboration by officers.

Sometimes people make face-to-face reports to officers, but the officer fails to obtain the person's name. In these situations, case law suggests that because the person has put his or her identity at risk, he or she should be treated more like a citizen witness than an anonymous tipster. 362 N.C. 614.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMANTS. A confidential informant is one whose identity is known to officers but not revealed to you when the statement of probable cause is provided. So that information from a confidential informant will establish probable cause, an officer typically will provide you with facts indicating (1) the basis for the informant's information (e.g., that the informant personally observed the defendant doing the illegal act) and (2) the informant's credibility or the reliability of the information. ARREST, SEARCH, AND INVESTIGATION at 137–38. The second showing typically is made by facts indicating the officer's track record with the informant or that the officer corroborated the informant's information. ARREST, SEARCH, AND INVESTIGATION at 138.

Charging Language

Generally

Once you have identified the relevant criminal offense and that there is probable cause to charge, you must prepare the appropriate criminal process or pleading. Except for an OFA, all criminal process and pleadings issued by a magistrate—criminal summons, warrant for arrest, and magistrate's order—must include charging language.

Finding Charging Language

You can find the appropriate charging language in one of two places. When issuing criminal process through the AOC Magistrate System or NCAWARE, the charging language will appear automatically when the offense is entered on the criminal form in the computer. For magistrates who are not yet on either the AOC Magistrate System or NCAWARE and for times when the computer system is not operating, charging language can be found in the School of Government publication, ROBERT FARB, ARREST WARRANT AND INDICTMENT FORMS (5th ed. 2005) (hereinafter WARRANT AND INDICTMENT FORMS). That book indicates whether there is an AOC form for the crime; forms may be obtained through the clerk's office or on the AOC website, www.nccourts.org/Forms/FormSearch.asp. WARRANT AND INDICTMENT FORMS does not include all North Carolina offenses that might be charged. If the facts presented do not fit into the charging language for the included offenses, do not force the form language to fit. Instead, modify the form language to fit the facts or draft new language. For offenses that WARRANT AND INDICTMENT FORMS does not cover, you will need to draft charging language based on the relevant statute. See pages 13–14 for general guidelines on drafting charging language. For a quick listing of most of the criminal offenses in North Carolina, you can consult the contents at the beginning of Chapter 14 in NORTH CAROLINA CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE (LexisNexis 2009) (the “red book” provided annually to all magistrates by the AOC; the books are shipped to the clerk’s office; check there if you have not received your book) or the table of contents in NORTH CAROLINA CRIMES, which the AOC provides to all magistrates.

Citation

Statute and Forms

G.S. 15A-302; AOC-CR-500 (standard citation form used by Highway Patrol, included in Appendix A); AOC-CR-501 (standard citation form used by all other law enforcement agencies); AOC-CR-502 (alcohol beverage control offenses); AOC-CR-503 (wildlife and forestry offenses); and AOC-CR-504 (railroad offenses). For all citation forms, one copy goes to each of the following: the clerk, the defendant, the Department of Motor Vehicles in traffic cases, the officer’s agency, and the officer.

Defined

A citation is a directive that a person appear in court to answer a charge. G.S. 15A-302(a).

Who May Issue

A citation is issued by a law enforcement officer or other person authorized by statute who has probable cause to believe that a person has committed a misdemeanor or infraction. G.S. 15A-302(a), (b). Magistrates do not have the authority to issue citations.

Used Only for Misdemeanors and Infractions

A citation may be used for any misdemeanor or infraction, though it is used most often for traffic cases. G.S. 15A-302(b). Legally, the citation is not limited to on-the-scene situations, and it may be issued any time a citizen provides a law enforcement officer with probable cause to believe that a defendant committed a misdemeanor or infraction. For example, an officer could use a citation to charge a person with shoplifting instead of arresting the person.

Contents

The citation must

- identify the crime charged, including the date, and where material, the property and other persons involved;
- list the name and address of the person cited, or provide other identification if that cannot be determined;
- identify the officer issuing the citation; and
- direct the person to whom the citation is issued to appear in a designated court, at a designated time and date.

G.S. 15A-302(c).

If a defendant refuses to sign a citation, it is still effective. G.S. 15A-302(d). When this happens, the officer may write “defendant refused to sign” in the space for the defendant’s signature.

If there are two charges, the officer should use the lower portion of the citation to write out the second charge (the officer should not charge two offenses on the top half of the form). If there are more than two charges, the officer should use a separate citation for every two charges. This procedure is required because each charge against a defendant must be pleaded in a separate count, G.S. 15A-924(a)(2), and the AOC uniform citation form is drafted for only two counts per form.

Failure to Appear

Because a citation is not issued by a judicial official, it is not criminal contempt under Section 5A-11(a)(3) of the North Carolina General Statutes (hereinafter G.S.) if the defendant fails to appear in court. If the defendant fails to appear in court on a citation for a misdemeanor, an OFA may be issued. G.S. 15A-302(f); -305(b)(3). If the defendant fails to appear in court on a citation for an infraction, a criminal summons may be issued. G.S. 15A-1116(b). An arrest warrant cannot be used for a failure to appear (FTA) on an infraction. If the defendant fails to appear in court when charged with an infraction in a criminal summons, then an order to show cause for contempt may be issued [but not an OFA—unless it is issued with the order to show cause under G.S. 5A-16(b)].

Processing a Citation

If an officer brings a citation to you without having arrested the person charged, there is nothing for you to do other than forward it to the clerk’s office. If the person charged has been arrested, you may want to convert the citation into a magistrate’s order as a part of the initial appearance, as discussed on page 17.

Issuing a Summons or Warrant

The fact that a citation has been issued for a misdemeanor does not prevent the later issuance of a summons or warrant for that offense. G.S. 15A-302(f). For example, suppose an officer cites a defendant for a misdemeanor and later wants to arrest the defendant. The citation cannot be used to take the defendant into custody. If the defendant is not already in the officer’s custody, an arrest warrant is needed. If the officer appears before you for an arrest warrant, the officer must swear to the facts and you should proceed under the procedures set forth below for issuing an arrest warrant. If the officer has issued a citation and has the defendant in custody, the proper process is a magistrate’s order, discussed below.

Criminal Summons

Statute and Forms

G.S. 15A-303; AOC-CR-113 (standard misdemeanor criminal summons; included in Appendix A); AOC-CR-114 (abandonment and nonsupport of spouse and nonsupport of children); AOC-CR-115 (misdemeanor worthless check); AOC-CR-140 (communicating threats); AOC-CR-144 (failure to return rental property); AOC-CR-145 (misdemeanor assault); AOC-CR-147 (injury to personal or real property); AOC-CR-916M (employment security law violation). For all criminal summons forms, one copy goes to the officer to be filed with the clerk after execution, one copy is for the clerk, and one copy is for the defendant.

Defined

A criminal summons consists of a statement of the crime or infraction charged and an order directing that the accused appear and answer the charges; it does not order a law enforcement officer to take the defendant into custody. G.S. 15A-303(a). It is based on a showing of probable cause supported by oath or affirmation. G.S. 15A-303(a).

Who May Issue

A criminal summons is issued by any person authorized to issue a warrant for arrest. G.S. 15A-303(f). Those individuals include a justice, judge, clerk, or magistrate. G.S. 15A-304(f).

Used for Any Crime or Infraction

A criminal summons legally may be used for any felony, misdemeanor, or infraction. G.S. 15A-303(a). However, because of how it is drafted, the AOC criminal summons form may not be used to charge a felony.

Contents

A criminal summons must contain a statement of the crime or infraction charged. Using the appropriate charging language, see page 6, and following the guidelines for criminal pleadings, see pages 13–14, will ensure that the summons contains a proper statement. The summons must order the defendant to appear in a designated court at a designated time and date to answer to the charges. G.S. 15A-303(d). Except for cause noted in the criminal summons by the issuing official, an appearance date may not be set more than one month following the date the summons is issued. G.S. 15A-303(d). The summons must advise the defendant that he or she may be held in contempt of court for failure to appear as directed. G.S. 15A-303(d).

Warrant for Arrest May Issue

G.S. 15A-303(e)(1) provides that the issuance of a criminal summons does not bar the later issuance of a warrant for arrest.

Failure to Appear

A defendant who fails to appear as ordered in a criminal summons may be held in contempt of court. G.S. 15A-303(e)(3). Additionally, an OFA may be issued if the offense charged is a crime (misdemeanor or felony). G.S. 15A-303(e)(2).

Warrant for ArrestStatute and Forms

G.S. 15A-304; AOC-CR-100 (generic warrant form; included in Appendix A); AOC-CR-102 (misdemeanor assault); AOC-CR-103 (felony breaking or entering, larceny, or possession); AOC-CR-105 (communicating threats); AOC-CR-107 (misdemeanor worthless checks); AOC-CR-108 (misdemeanor motor vehicle offenses); AOC-CR-109 (forgery and uttering); AOC-CR-110 (shoplifting); AOC-CR-111 (drug offenses). For all warrant forms, one copy is for the officer to be filed with the clerk after execution, one copy is for the clerk, and one copy is for the defendant.

Defined

A warrant for arrest consists of a statement of the crime charged and an order directing that the accused be arrested and held to answer the charges. Thus, unlike the citation and criminal summons, which merely direct an individual to appear in court to answer charges, the warrant for arrest directs law enforcement officers to arrest the accused. The warrant must be based on a showing of probable cause on oath or affirmation. G.S. 15A-304(a).

Who May Issue

A warrant for arrest may be issued by a justice, judge, clerk, or magistrate. G.S. 15A-304(f).

Used for Any Crime

A warrant for arrest may be used for any crime, whether a misdemeanor or felony. It may not be used for an infraction.

Contents

A warrant for arrest must contain a statement of the crime charged. G.S. 15A-304(c). Using the appropriate charging language, see page 6, and following the guidelines for criminal pleadings, see pages 13–14, will ensure that the warrant contains a proper statement. The warrant must direct that a law enforcement officer take the defendant into custody and bring the defendant, without unnecessary delay, before a judicial official. G.S. 15A-304(e).

When Issued: Warrant versus Summons

G.S. 15A-304(b) provides that a warrant may be used instead of or after a summons has been issued when the person needs to be taken into custody. If the person already has been taken into custody under a warrantless arrest, the proper procedure is to complete a magistrate's order, not a warrant. See the discussion of magistrate's orders below.

G.S. 15A-304(b) directs that the circumstances to be considered in determining whether the person should be taken into custody may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Failure to appear when previously summoned
- Facts making it apparent that a person summoned will fail to appear
- Danger that the accused will escape
- Danger that there may be injury to a person or property
- Seriousness of the offense

Another factor sometimes considered is that under G.S. 15A-502, a person charged with a misdemeanor or felony may be fingerprinted upon arrest, if allowed by your local fingerprint plan adopted pursuant to G.S. 15A-1383. Issuance of a warrant will lead to an arrest; issuance of a summons will not.

Follow the local policy issued by your senior resident superior court judge or chief district court judge on whether a summons or warrant is appropriate. In the absence of a specific policy, many magistrates apply the following two guidelines:

1. A criminal summons should be used instead of an arrest warrant when the magistrate believes that the accused will appear in court without being jailed or placed under conditions of pretrial release.
2. A criminal summons should be used for most minor misdemeanors (unless the defendant might flee) and an arrest warrant should be used for all felonies.

Note that the arrest warrant provisions in G.S. 15A-304(b) state that the criminal summons is the process of first choice and that an arrest warrant only should be used when a criminal summons specifically has been ruled out. Also, note that officers often ask for a warrant when in fact they would settle for a criminal summons.

Cross Warrants

G.S. 15A-304(d) provides that a judicial official may not refuse to issue a warrant solely because a prior warrant has been issued for the arrest of another person involved in the same matter. A judicial official retains discretion to issue a criminal summons instead of an arrest warrant in these instances.

Magistrate's Order

Statute and Forms

G.S. 15A-511(c); AOC-CR-116 (generic magistrate's order form; included in Appendix A); AOC-CR-117 (shoplifting); AOC-CR-118 (felony or misdemeanor larceny or possession). For all magistrate's order forms, one copy of the form is for the clerk, and one copy is for the defendant.

When Used

A magistrate's order is used only when a defendant has been arrested without a warrant. G.S. 15A-511(c). As described in the section "Conducting the Initial Appearance and Setting Conditions of Pretrial Release," below, when a defendant is arrested without a warrant, he or she must be brought, without unnecessary delay, to a magistrate for an initial appearance. If the magistrate finds that there is probable cause to charge the defendant with a crime, the magistrate must issue a magistrate's order.

Used for Any Crime

The magistrate's order may be used for any crime, both felonies and misdemeanors. G.S. 15A-511(c).

Contents

A magistrate's order must contain a statement of the crime, as required for a warrant for arrest, and a finding that the defendant has been arrested without a warrant and that there is probable cause for his or her detention. G.S. 15A-511(c)(3).

Conversion of Citation

A citation may be converted into a magistrate's order. See page 17 for instruction.

Magistrate's Order for Fugitive

AOC-CR-909M (included in Appendix A) is the form for a magistrate's order for a fugitive. It has a different purpose than the magistrate's order discussed in this section. The magistrate's order for a fugitive form is discussed in the section "Fugitives," below.

Order for Arrest

Statute and Forms

G.S. 15A-305; AOC-CR-217 (included in Appendix A). One copy of the OFA form is filed with clerk, and one copy is for the defendant.

Defined

An OFA is an order that a law enforcement officer take a person into custody. G.S. 15A-305(a).

Who May Issue

An OFA may be issued by a justice, judge, clerk, or magistrate. G.S. 15A-305(a) and (d).

When Issued

G.S. 15A-305(b) lists all of the circumstances in which an OFA may be issued. For example, an OFA may be issued when a defendant fails to appear after being released on conditions of pre-trial release, or if he or she fails to appear as directed in a criminal summons. However, a magistrate is likely to issue an OFA only in one circumstance: when a defendant is released subject to conditions, violates those conditions, and needs to be brought back before the magistrate—but only if this happens before the first appearance in district court. G.S. 15A-305(b)(5); -534(e).

Contents

When a magistrate issues an OFA, the order must state why it is being issued and order an officer to take the defendant into custody. G.S. 15A-305(c).

Special Problems with Issuing Process and Pleadings*Statute of Limitations

Misdemeanors. There is a two-year statute of limitations for misdemeanors. G.S. 15-1. This means that valid process must be issued within two years of the completion of the misdemeanor.

Felonies. There is no statute of limitations for felonies. 275 N.C. 264. This means that there is no outer limit on the time when process may be issued for a felony.

Venue

Generally. When you issue a criminal summons, arrest warrant, or OFA, it is valid throughout the state. For good reasons, however, arrest warrants (and other process) usually are issued only for crimes committed in the magistrate's own county. The reason for this informal rule is that a person will be tried (venue) in the county where the charged offense occurred. G.S. 15A-131. Thus, if a magistrate from County X issues arrest warrants for crimes committed in County Y, then the defendant and all the paperwork will need to be transferred to County Y for the trial.

Concurrent venue. G.S. 15A-131(e) states that an offense "occurs" in a county if any act constituting part of the offense occurs within the territorial limits of the county. If acts constituting part of the offense occur in more than one county (for example, worthless check, when the check is written in one county and mailed to another county), then each county has venue to conduct the trial. G.S. 15A-132(a). Put another way, the two counties have concurrent venue. If counties have concurrent venue, then the first county in which a criminal process is issued has exclusive venue. G.S. 15A-132(c).

Venue for rape or sexual offenses. G.S. 15A-136 is a special venue statute that applies when a defendant transports a person for the purpose of committing a rape, sexual offense, or sexual battery and commits one of those offenses. Under G.S. 15A-136, venue is in any county where the transportation began, continued, or ended.

Venue for initial appearance and first appearance. Although venue for initial appearance before a magistrate may be anywhere, venue for first appearance before a district court judge must be in a judicial district embracing the county where the felony occurred. G.S. 15A-131(b) and (f).

Transmittal of Out-of-County Process

As noted in the section on venue above, if a crime has been committed in your county and the defendant lives in another county, you may issue criminal process. Original process is no longer required for service in the other county; see “Initial appearance for paperless arrests” on pages 18–19. However, there may be circumstances in which you want a paper copy of the process delivered to the other county, with recommendations for conditions of release, when the initial appearance will be held there. In this case, form AOC-CR-236 (included in Appendix A) should be used. The form has a space where you may recommend conditions for release. However, this is only a recommendation, and it does not have to be followed. Be sure to include the court date in your county because the magistrate in the arresting county may not know your county’s court dates.

Service of Criminal Process

As noted on page 18, law enforcement officers are authorized to make an arrest without having the actual warrant or OFA in hand (“paperless arrests”), provided that they have knowledge that it has been issued and not executed (such as a DCI-PIN message). G.S. 15A-401(a)(2). Although the warrant or OFA—like all criminal process—must be served on the defendant, the arrest itself is valid without service. See pages 18–19 for a discussion of service of process and paperless arrests.

Requirements for Criminal PleadingsGenerally

The citation, criminal summons, warrant for arrest, and magistrate’s order serve as the state’s pleading in certain criminal cases. The requirements for valid pleadings, set out in G.S. 15A-924, are specific and technical. It is important that you follow all of these requirements, which are discussed below, along with other helpful pleading rules.

Name of Defendant

A criminal pleading must contain the name or other identification of the defendant. G.S. 15A-924(a)(1). If the defendant’s name is unknown, you do not have to use “John Doe” as a substitute. Instead, give a detailed physical description of the defendant and his or her address, if known. If the defendant’s aliases are known, you may use them in the warrant, if done in good faith. 61 N.C. App. 589.

Witnesses

Complaining witnesses are witnesses who give testimony under oath. People who give statements that are not under oath should be listed as witnesses but not as complaining witnesses. A complaining witness can be a victim, an officer, a friend or relative of a victim, or any other person who has information about the alleged crime and gives testimony under oath.

Separate Counts

A pleading must contain a separate count for each charged offense, although allegations in one count may be incorporated by reference in another count. G.S. 15A-924(a)(2). The general rule is that a separate warrant should be used for each offense charged by a magistrate (except that some computer and preprinted AOC forms allow charging more than one offense). If all offenses occurred as part of a single, continuous transaction, they may be joined for trial in one pleading.

G.S. 15A-926(a). However, even in that situation, you should use a separate process for each offense. This procedure makes things much simpler if, for example, the defendant is convicted of two offenses in district court and appeals only one to superior court. On this issue, follow local practice.

County

Each count of the pleading must contain a statement or cross reference indicating the county in which the charged offense was committed. G.S. 15A-924(a)(3).

Offense Date

Each count of the pleading must contain a statement or cross reference indicating on or on or about what date the offense occurred. G.S. 15A-924(a)(4). The phrase “on or about” appears on all AOC forms. An error regarding a date in a pleading will not provide grounds for dismissal, as long as time is not of the essence to the offense charged and the error or omission did not mislead the defendant to his or her prejudice. G.S. 15A-924(a)(4).

Factual Statement

Each count must contain a plain and concise statement asserting facts supporting every element of the offense and the charge that the defendant committed the offense. G.S. 15A-924(a)(5). The offense must be charged with sufficient certainty so that the defendant may prepare a defense. G.S. 15A-924(a)(5). The standard charging language serves as this factual statement. See page 6 for a discussion on charging language.

Law Violated

Each count must cite the statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, or other provision of law alleged to have been violated. G.S. 15A-924(a)(6). The pleading will not be subject to dismissal simply because the cited statute is erroneous or even missing. G.S. 15A-924(a)(6). If a city or county ordinance violation is alleged, the pleading must cite the section number and caption (e.g., “Sec. 5-20, Letting chickens run loose prohibited”). If the ordinance is not codified, the caption must be pleaded. The last form in WARRANT AND INDICTMENT FORMS provides an example of charging language to use in this situation.

Miscellaneous Issues

Abbreviations (such as a/d/w with IK or ccw) should never be used in the charging language of the criminal pleading. The abbreviation might be clear to you, but it might not be clear to others.

If you must prepare process for an offense for which there is no standard charging language, avoid the use of the word “or.” Courts have ruled that use of this word in charging some offenses may not adequately inform a defendant of the charge.

The word “feloniously” must appear in a pleading that charges the defendant with a felony or the pleading will be defective. However, use of that word in a misdemeanor pleading will be considered harmless surplusage.

When naming businesses in criminal pleadings, refer to the formal name of the business, not its common name, that is, be sure to include inc., corp., ltd., and so forth (e.g., “Roses Stores, Inc.,” not “Roses Store”). If you have a question about the name of a North Carolina corporation, you can search for information regarding the proper name on the North Carolina Secretary of State’s website (www.secretary.state.nc.us/corporations/csearch.aspx).

For information on charging fugitives from other states, see “Fugitives,” below.

Recall of Process

Sometimes it becomes necessary to recall process, such as when you learn that the wrong person was identified as a perpetrator. Recall of process is governed by G.S. 15A-301(g). The relevant rules are summarized in Table 1, below. Unless specifically directed to do so, never recall process issued by a judge.

When you recall process, you must enter the recall into the AOC Magistrate System or NCAWARE, if the process was created in those systems, and promptly communicate the recall to each law enforcement agency that has an original or copy of the process. G.S. 15A-301(g). You do not need to communicate with those agencies if the process was created in the AOC Magistrate System or NCAWARE and the agencies have remote electronic access to those systems. G.S. 15A-301(g).

Conducting the Initial Appearance and Setting Conditions of Pretrial Release

Initial Appearance Procedure

The initial appearance is a defendant’s first contact with the judicial system. Every person who is arrested must appear before a judicial official for an initial appearance. This section describes the procedure for conducting an initial appearance. This procedure applies in all cases except those in which you are authorized to dispose of the matter under G.S. 7A-273 (magistrate can accept guilty pleas for certain infractions and misdemeanors). G.S. 15A-511(a)(2). In most cases the procedure for conducting the initial appearance is to hold it without delay, make a probable cause determination and, if you find probable cause, inform the defendant of his or her rights and set conditions of pretrial release. The next section, starting on page 21, discusses the exceptions to the procedure discussed here.

Timing of the Initial Appearance

A law enforcement officer must take a person arrested (with or without a warrant) before a judicial official without unnecessary delay. G.S. 15A-501(2); -511(a)(1).

Defendant’s Presence

The defendant must be present for his or her initial appearance.

Audio and Video Transmission and Videoconferencing

An initial appearance for noncapital offenses may be conducted by an audio and video transmission between the magistrate (or other judicial official) and the defendant, in which both people may see and hear each other. G.S. 15A-511(a1). If the defendant has counsel, the defendant must be allowed to communicate fully and confidentially with counsel during the proceeding. G.S. 15A-511(a1). The procedure and equipment must be approved by the AOC, based on a submission to the AOC by the senior regular resident superior court judge and the chief district court judge. G.S. 15A-511(a1).

A 2009 law (S.L. 2009-270) authorizes a pilot program for the use of videoconferencing or similar technology to conduct proceedings, including an initial appearance, for defendants in the custody of the DOC or local confinement facilities. At the time of publication, funding issues prevented the start of this pilot project. In any event, audio and video transmission already is authorized, as discussed above.

Federal Offenses

You may hold an initial appearance for a person arrested for a federal offense. 18 U.S.C. § 3041. Conditions of pretrial release are determined according to federal law.

Appointing Counsel

Effective July 1, 2009, magistrates who are licensed attorneys may be designated by their chief district court judge to appoint counsel pursuant to G.S. Ch. 7A, Art. 36. S.L. 2009-419. However, such magistrates may not appoint counsel for potentially capital offenses, as defined by rules adopted by the Office of Indigent Defense Services, or accept waivers of counsel. S.L. 2009-419. Any magistrate who has been so designated should get guidance from his or her chief district court judge on when the counsel appointment should be made, the procedure to be followed, and how to determine indigency.

Non-English-Speaking Defendants

When a non-English-speaking defendant is brought before you for an initial appearance, you should use the telephone interpreting services, installed by the AOC's Court Services Division, to ensure that the defendant understands the proceedings and his or her rights. At the time of publication, the Court Services Division had implemented telephone interpreting services in almost all magistrates' offices. If you need information about or training on this system, contact Brooke Bogue, Manager, Interpreting Services, AOC Court Programs and Management Services Division (tel: 919.890.1213; e-mail: brooke.a.bogue@nccourts.org).

Initial Appearance Procedure—Generally

Initial appearance for warrantless arrests. The procedure for conducting an initial appearance after a warrantless arrest is as follows:

1. Determine whether there is probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed and that the arrestee committed it. G.S. 15A-511(c)(1). The probable cause determination is discussed on pages 5–6.
2. If you find no probable cause, release the arrestee. G.S. 15A-511(c)(2). No paperwork is required for such a release, but it is a good idea to make a written record of your action.
3. If you find probable cause, issue a magistrate’s order. G.S. 15A-511(c)(3).
4. To prepare the magistrate’s order, use AOC-CR-116, one of the other AOC forms for specific offenses noted on page 11, or convert the citation into a magistrate’s order following the procedure below. Because the magistrate’s order also may be used as the criminal pleading, it must satisfy all of the requirements for a criminal pleading specified by G.S. 15A-924. See pages 13–14 for more detail regarding the contents of a magistrate’s order and the requirements of G.S. 15A-924.
5. If a law enforcement officer arrests a person for a misdemeanor, brings that person to you with a completed citation, swears to facts establishing probable cause, and you find probable cause to believe that the person committed the crime charged, you may convert the citation into a magistrate’s order by signing the citation in the appropriate location. This saves you from having to complete a separate magistrate’s order form. Once a citation is converted into a magistrate’s order, it becomes your form, and you are responsible for ensuring that the charge is made properly. You must make sure that the defendant gets a copy of the order.
6. Inform the defendant of
  - the charges,
  - the defendant’s right to communicate with counsel and friends, and
  - the circumstances under which the defendant may obtain pretrial release.

G.S. 15A-511(b).

7. If you find probable cause, the defendant must be released under G.S. Ch. 15A, Art. 26 (Bail) or committed under G.S. Ch. 15A, Art. 25 (Commitment). G.S. 15A-511(e). Pages 28–31 discuss the situations when the defendant is not entitled to release; pages 33–38 discuss how to set conditions of pretrial release.
8. Regardless of whether the defendant is released on bail, when you are conducting an initial appearance you need to set a court date on the release order (the relevant form is discussed in more detail in “Determining the Conditions of Pretrial Release,” below). When setting court dates, keep in mind the timing rules for first appearances discussed in the next step.
9. Every defendant charged with a felony (or one of the accompanying misdemeanors described in G.S. 7A-271) is entitled to a first appearance. G.S. 15A-601(a). A first appearance usually is held before a district court judge. G.S. 15A-601(a). If the defendant is not released, first appearance before a district court judge must be held within ninety-six hours after the defendant is taken into custody or at the first regular session of the district court in the county, whichever occurs first. G.S. 15A-601(c). If the defendant is not taken into custody or is released within ninety-six hours of being taken into custody, first appearance must be held at the next session of district court held in the county. G.S. 15A-601(c). However, these timing rules do not apply to a defendant whose first appearance before a district court judge has been set by criminal summons. G.S. 15A-601(c). It is important that you set an appropriate court date, in light of these requirements.

Initial appearance for arrests with warrants. You do not need to make a finding of probable cause during an initial appearance for an arrest with a warrant because probable cause already was found when the process was issued. Except for this difference, conduct an initial appearance for an arrest with a warrant just like an initial appearance for a warrantless arrest: notify the defendant of his or her rights, and release the defendant on conditions of pretrial release or, if the defendant is not entitled to conditions of pretrial release, order the defendant to be held in jail.

Initial appearance for paperless arrests. Law enforcement officers may make arrests without having the actual warrant or OFA in hand, provided that they have knowledge that it has been issued and not executed (such as a DCI-PIN message). G.S. 15A-401(a)(2). This bulletin refers to such arrests as “paperless arrests.” When an officer brings a defendant before you on a paperless arrest, do not release the defendant simply because the officer cannot provide the paperwork. Paperless arrests are valid in North Carolina, even for out-of-county process. Also, do not delay the initial appearance until the officer can serve the paperwork on the defendant. You have no authority to delay the initial appearance for this purpose. Note that a faxed copy of criminal process constitutes an original. G.S. 15A-101.1(9)a. Thus an officer can convert a paperless arrest into an arrest with a warrant by obtaining a faxed copy of the original process and serving it on the defendant. Also, note that a printed copy of a document that was created in the AOC Magistrate System or in NCAWARE constitutes an original, and electronic signatures are valid. G.S. 15A-101.1(5) and (9)b; G.S. 15A-301.1(f). Thus, when the warrant was originally created in the AOC Magistrate System or in NCAWARE, a second way to convert a paperless arrest into an arrest with a warrant is to print a signed copy of the warrant from the computer and have it served on the defendant. The following procedure should be followed for an initial appearance following a paperless arrest:

1. Determine whether the warrant or OFA is still outstanding. To do this, you can
  - check with the relevant clerk’s office or law enforcement agency;
  - ask the law enforcement officer to contact DCI (available twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week); or
  - check the AOC Magistrate System, which includes warrants (but not OFAs) from ninety-seven counties, or NCAWARE.
2. If the warrant or OFA is no longer outstanding (e.g., because it has been recalled), let the person go without holding an initial appearance or setting release conditions. Also, notify, or have the law enforcement officer notify, authorities of the erroneous information so that the person will not be rearrested.
3. If the warrant or OFA is valid, investigate appropriate pretrial release conditions and obtain a copy of the original paperwork, if possible, to determine whether any pretrial release conditions were set. Although the initial appearance must be conducted without unnecessary delay, the law allows you time to make a reasonable investigation regarding pretrial release conditions. If the warrant or OFA is from another county, contact the other county to get any pertinent information about the defendant and to get the officer’s and county’s court schedule. Two other ways of getting the officer’s court schedule are to do an Automated Criminal/Infraction System (ACIS) witness search for pending cases or by using the AOC's Web search, "Officer Court Appearance Query," located in the Court Calendars section of the website, www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/OfficerQuery.html. Also, notify the officers in that county that processing is underway because they may want to arrange for service of process on the defendant or to pick up the defendant.

4. Do not delay holding the initial appearance because the officers from the other county say they will be coming at some time to get the defendant. Remember that the initial appearance must be held without unnecessary delay. Proceed with the initial appearance unless the officers are from a nearby county and can pick the defendant up quickly for an initial appearance in the originating county.
5. As noted above, you have no authority to hold a defendant for service of criminal process. Also as noted above, a law enforcement officer may validly serve a defendant with a faxed copy of the criminal process or with process created in and printed from the AOC Magistrate System or NCAWARE, provided the process contains an electronic signature. The only time you are authorized to hold a defendant in these circumstances is when a hold has been specifically authorized by a judge. A DCI-PIN message to hold the defendant is insufficient if there is no way to verify that a judge ordered the hold.
6. After completing a reasonable investigation, conduct an initial appearance and set conditions of pretrial release as for an arrest with a warrant. Conditions of pretrial release should be set based on available information. If you have no information about the amount of a bond in an OFA for a FTA, follow the requirements of G.S. 15A-534(d1), discussed on pages 36–37. If the case involves a warrant in the AOC Magistrate System or NCAWARE, generate a release order in that system. As discussed above on pages 17–18, when a defendant is charged with a felony, he or she has right to a first appearance, which sometimes must be held within ninety-six hours. Thus, when handling an out of county warrant, you must obtain accurate court date information from the county in which the charges are pending and assign an appropriate court date, based on the rules for scheduling a first appearance. As noted above, when an officer is the complainant, you can obtain a court date by doing an ACIS witness search for pending cases or by using the AOC's Web search, "Officer Court Appearance Query," located in the Court Calendars section of the website, www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/OfficerQuery.html.
7. After concluding the initial appearance for an arrest made pursuant to a warrant or OFA from another county, notify the appropriate authorities of the action, including sending the paperwork to the other county's clerk, and ask the law enforcement officer to provide the information to Division of Criminal Information (DCI). This is particularly important in paperless arrest situations to prevent the person from being rearrested.

Initial Appearance—Implied Consent Cases

G.S. 15A-511 sets out the basic procedure for initial appearances in criminal cases, and its provisions are discussed above. In 2006 the General Assembly enacted several additional statutes that apply to initial appearances for implied consent offenses. S.L. 2006-253, sec. 5. Implied consent offenses are listed in Table 2.

The first of the 2006 statutes, G.S. 20-38.3, provides, in part, that a law enforcement officer must take a person arrested for an implied consent offense to a judicial official for an initial appearance after completing all investigatory procedures, crash reports, chemical analyses, and related procedures specified in the new provision. G.S. 20-38.3. Before this provision was enacted, there was some question as to whether completing these tasks before the initial appearance violated the rule that the initial appearance must be held without unnecessary delay. This statute makes it clear that the officer must complete these tasks before the initial appearance.

The 2006 legislation also enacted G.S. 20-38.4, pertaining to initial appearances in implied consent cases. That statute has four primary provisions. First, it provides that a magistrate may hold an initial appearance anywhere in the county and that a magistrate “shall, to the extent practicable, be available at locations other than the courthouse when it will expedite the initial appearance.” G.S. 20-38.4(a)(1). This provision authorizes you to hold initial appearances at a location other than your office, such as on location when officers are conducting an impaired driving checkpoint operation with a mobile testing unit (sometimes referred to as a “Batmobile”). Of course, the statute only requires magistrates to conduct initial appearances outside of their offices “to the extent practicable.” Some practical issues that might arise include: lack of access to computer systems and records; the ability of the defendant’s witnesses to find and gain access to the remote location (the defendant’s rights in this regard are discussed below); and when the magistrate and law enforcement officers share a space, whether that close proximity unduly undermines the magistrate’s role as a neutral and independent judicial official.

Second, the statute provides that when determining whether there is probable cause to believe a person is impaired, a magistrate may review “all alcohol screening tests, chemical analyses, receive testimony from any law enforcement officer concerning impairment and the circumstances of the arrest, and observe the person arrested.” G.S. 20-38.4(a)(2). This provision appears to simply have codified existing practice. However, prior to 2006, the results of an alcohol screening test could be considered at the probable cause stage. The 2006 legislation changed that, amending G.S. 20-16.3(d) to provide that although a positive or negative result on an alcohol screening test can be considered when determining probable cause, the results of the alcohol screening test (e.g., 0.09) cannot be used for that purpose.

Third, the statute states that if you find probable cause, you must consider whether an impaired driving hold is required. G.S. 20-38.4(a)(3). Before enactment of this provision, some magistrates were not consistently considering impaired driving detentions, out of concern about Knoll motions, or for other reasons. This statute makes clear that you have no choice but to consider such a detention. The procedure for impaired driving detentions and the Knoll case are discussed on pages 25–28.

Fourth, the new statute requires you to (1) inform the defendant in writing of the established procedure to have people appear at the jail to observe the defendant’s condition or to administer an additional chemical analysis if the defendant is unable to make bond and (2) require a defendant unable to make bond to list everyone he or she wishes to contact, along with their telephone numbers, on a form setting forth the procedure for contacting the persons listed; a copy of the form must be filed with the case file. G.S. 20-38.2(a)(4). The 2006 legislation also required each chief district court judge, along with others, to adopt procedures, by December 1, 2006, indicating how family, friends, and specified others can gain access to a defendant who has been arrested for an implied consent offense and is unable to obtain pretrial release from jail. G.S. 20-38.5. New magistrates will need to obtain these written procedures so that they can provide the required notice to implied consent offense defendants as required by the statute. The AOC form on which you certify that the new procedures have been complied with and on which the defendant lists those people who the defendant wishes to contact or appear at jail is AOC-CR-271 (included in Appendix A).

Initial Appearance Procedure—Exceptions

Generally

As noted above, in most cases, you conduct the initial appearance without delay and make a probable cause determination. If probable cause is found, you then inform the defendant of his or her rights and set conditions of pretrial release. This section discusses the exceptions to that general procedure. Unless the case before you fits within one of the exceptions discussed below, you should follow the general procedure, outlined above, for conducting the initial appearance.

Delaying the Initial Appearance

In some situations it is necessary to delay the initial appearance. This section discusses when such a delay is permissible.

Reasonable delay to determine conditions. As noted, the initial appearance must be held without unnecessary delay. Of course, the time it takes you to do a timely and reasonable investigation into the facts relevant to your pretrial release decision is a necessary delay.

DEFENDANTS WHO REFUSE TO IDENTIFY THEMSELVES. Sometimes defendants brought before you for an initial appearance will refuse to identify themselves. Without knowing a defendant's identity, it is almost impossible to determine what conditions of pretrial release should be imposed. You will not be able to determine, among other things, whether the defendant has a record, has previously failed to appear, or what connections the defendant has with the community that are relevant to a risk of flight. When this happens, and there is no written local procedure that applies, you have a couple of options. (Note that if this issue consistently arises in your county and you do not have a written policy addressing it, you may want to ask your chief district court judge for a written policy or other formal advice so that all magistrates respond to this problem in a consistent manner.)

First, it seems reasonable to delay the initial appearance while a law enforcement officer completes an investigation into the defendant's identity. Such an investigation may not be feasible in all cases, particularly when the crime is not a serious one. Note, however, that if a person (1) is charged with an offense involving impaired driving, as defined in G.S. 20-4.01(24a), or driving while license revoked when the revocation is for an impaired driving revocation, as defined in G.S. 20-28.2, and (2) the person cannot be identified by a valid form of identification, then the arresting officer must have the person fingerprinted and photographed. G.S. 15A-502(a2). This requirement does not necessarily result in an identification of the person, but it does impose additional duties on law enforcement. If you delay the initial appearance to allow the officer to investigate and the officer's investigation is unsuccessful or cannot be done quickly, you should consider the other option set out below; you should not allow an indefinite delay of the initial appearance.

A second option for dealing with a defendant who refuses to identify himself or herself is to hold the initial appearance, set conditions in light of the potential flight risk associated with a person who will not identify himself or herself, and include as a condition of pretrial release that either the defendant adequately identify himself or herself or that there is an adequate identification of the defendant. In counties without a written policy or formal advice addressing this procedure, consider contacting a judge before using it.

Note that regardless of which procedure is used, it is probably not permissible and it is not advisable to require a defendant to produce a U.S. government-issued picture identification. Also, any reasonable form of identification may be satisfactory even if the defendant does not have any written form of identification—for example, when a responsible member of the community vouches for the defendant's identity.

Statutory authorization to delay because defendant is unruly, intoxicated, etc. Under G.S. 15A-511(a)(3), you may delay the initial appearance and order a defendant confined without bond for a "reasonable time" if the defendant, when brought before you,

- is so unruly that the defendant disrupts and impedes the proceedings,
- becomes unconscious,
- is grossly intoxicated, or
- is otherwise unable to understand his or her procedural rights (for example, the defendant needs a sign language interpreter).

The purpose of this delay is not to punish the defendant but simply to postpone the process until the defendant can understand his or her rights. The procedure for delaying the initial appearance in these circumstances is as follows:

1. Decide whether to delay before beginning the initial appearance and determining conditions. In some circumstances, however, you might not realize that one of the statutory reasons for delay is at issue until the initial appearance has begun. For example, the defendant may not get unruly until you start the initial appearance. In this situation, stop the proceeding and continue as outlined below in the steps that follow.
2. If the defendant simply is being disruptive and needs to cool off, you can order an officer to place the defendant in a holding cell for a short period of time, such as twenty minutes, or have the officer supervise the defendant on a bench in the magistrate's office, if there is no holding cell.
3. If you order the defendant confined to jail, you must use the Release Order, AOC-CR-200 (included in Appendix A), to do so. Never commit a defendant to jail without a written order.

4. When using the Release Order to commit the defendant to jail, only complete the “Order of Commitment” portion of form. Check only the second box (“hold him/her for the following purpose”). The purpose listed will vary according to the reason that the defendant is confined. If the defendant is simply disruptive, you may direct the jailer to “hold defendant until defendant is calm and agrees not to disrupt the proceedings.” Check regularly with the jailer about the defendant’s condition. If the defendant is grossly intoxicated, direct the jailer to “hold defendant until sober enough to understand rights.” Again, check regularly with the jailer about the defendant’s condition. Do not leave complete discretion with a jailer. Also, put an outer time limit on the confinement. It is your responsibility—not the jailer’s—to determine whether the defendant is ready for his or her initial appearance. Do not complete the upper portion of the Release Order concerning conditions of release. Because the initial appearance is being delayed, conditions should not be determined at this time. If the upper portion of the Release Order is completed, the defendant must be released if he or she satisfies the conditions. G.S. 15A-537. That is true regardless of what directions are given under the Order of Commitment (except for impaired driving detentions under G.S. 15A-534.2, discussed below).
5. A defendant may be brought back before a different magistrate for the initial appearance. The second magistrate is not modifying the first magistrate’s release order, but rather is changing the order of commitment, which is expressly allowed by G.S. 15A-521(b) (order of commitment may be modified “by the same or another judicial official”). Conditions should never have been set, and therefore they are being determined for the first time.
6. After the defendant is returned, conduct the initial appearance and set conditions as usual.

Finally, do not confuse the statutory authorization to delay discussed above—for example, when the defendant is too intoxicated to understand his or her rights—with an impaired driving hold. In the situations addressed in this section, you are delaying the initial appearance because of the defendant’s condition. The impaired driving hold, discussed below, only comes into play once the defendant is sober enough so that you can conduct the initial appearance.

Delaying the Setting of Conditions

As noted above, the general procedure for initial appearances is to conduct the initial appearance without delay, make a probable cause determination and if probable cause is found, inform the defendant of his or her rights and set conditions of pretrial release. This section discusses a second exception to the general procedure: when you hold the initial appearance but delay setting conditions of release. Currently, domestic violence cases are the only situations that fall into this exception. However, effective December 1, 2009, certain probationers also will fall within this exception. Both situations are discussed below.

Forty-eight-hour rule for domestic violence cases. G.S. 15A-534.1 provides that in all cases in which the defendant is charged with an assault on, stalking, communicating a threat to, or committing a felony as provided in G.S. Ch. 14, Art. 7A, 8, 10, or 15 upon a current or former spouse or a person with whom the defendant lives or has lived as if married, with domestic criminal trespass, or with a violation of a 50B order, only a judge can set conditions of pretrial release in the forty-eight-hour period after an arrest. Thus, when a defendant is brought before you for an offense covered by this provision, hold an initial appearance and order the defendant held for the next available session of district or superior court, to have conditions of release determined by a judge. To do this, use the release order form, AOC-CR-200 (included in Appendix A), and check the third box in the Order of Commitment portion of the form that states “Check in all domestic violence cases covered by G.S. 15A-534.1(b).” Then, enter an appropriate date and time as instructed on the form. If a judge does not act within forty-eight hours, the magistrate sets conditions. G.S. 15A-534.1(b). For a helpful chart that lists all offenses covered by the forty-eight-hour rule and clarifies the required relationship between the parties, go to the School of Government’s Web page for magistrates, www.sog.unc.edu/programs/ncmagistrates/index.html, and click on “Domestic Violence: 48-Hour Rule Offense Chart.”

Other domestic violence holds. G.S. 15A-534.1(a)(1) provides another domestic violence hold for defendants who are charged with an assault on, stalking, communicating a threat to, or committing a felony as provided in G.S. Ch. 14, Art. 7A, 8, 10, or 15 upon a current or former spouse or a person with whom the defendant lives or has lived as if married, with domestic criminal trespass, or with a violation of a 50B order. The statute provides that upon a determination that the defendant’s immediate release will pose a danger of injury to the alleged victim or another person or is likely to result in intimidation of the alleged victim and upon a determination that the execution of an appearance bond will not reasonably assure that such injury will not occur, a judicial official may retain the defendant in custody for a reasonable period of time while determining conditions of pretrial release. It is unlikely that you will have an opportunity to apply this provision. Only a judge can set conditions of pretrial release within the first forty-eight hours of the defendant’s arrest; once forty-eight hours has expired, it is unlikely that the circumstances would warrant application of this exception.

Probation cases. DEFENDANT CHARGED WITH A FELONY WHILE ON PROBATION FOR ANOTHER OFFENSE. Effective December 1, 2009, S.L. 2009-412, as amended by S.L. 2009-547, amended G.S. 15A-534 to add a new subsection (d2) providing that when conditions of pretrial release are being determined for a defendant who is charged with a felony while on probation for an earlier offense, you must determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public (and make a written record of that determination) before imposing conditions of pretrial release. If the defendant does not pose such a danger, he or she is entitled to release as in all cases. If the defendant poses such a danger, you must impose a secured bond or a secured bond with electronic house arrest. However, if there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger, then you must keep the defendant in custody until that determination can be made. If you detain the defendant for this reason, you must make a written record, at the time you detain the defendant, of the following: (1) the fact that the defendant is being held pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d2); (2) the basis for the decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public and the nature of the necessary information; and (3) a date, within ninety-six hours of the time of arrest, when the defendant will be brought before a judge for a first appearance. If the necessary information is provided to the court at any time prior to the first appearance, the first available judicial official must set the conditions of pretrial release. One consequence of this statute is that effective December 1, 2009, every time a defendant is brought before you on a felony charge, you must determine whether the defendant is on probation for an earlier offense. If so, the new statutory procedure must be followed. At the time of publication, the AOC Forms Committee was considering changes to the Release Order, AOC-CR-200, and a new form to accommodate these statutory changes.

PROBATION VIOLATOR WHO HAS A PENDING FELONY OR IS A SEX OFFENDER REQUIRED TO REGISTER. Effective December 1, 2009, G.S. 15A-1345(b1) provides that if a probationer is arrested for violating probation and either (1) has a pending felony charge or (2) has been convicted of an offense that requires registration under the sex offender registration statutes or that would have required registration but for the effective date of the registration program, you must determine whether the probationer poses a danger to the public (and make a written record of that determination) before imposing conditions of release. If the probationer does not pose such a danger, determine the conditions of release as in any other case. If the probationer poses such a danger, he or she must be denied release. If there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses such a danger, then you must detain the defendant in custody for no more than seven days from the date of the arrest to obtain sufficient information to make that determination. If the defendant has been held seven days from the date of arrest and the court has been unable to obtain sufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, then the defendant must be brought before any judicial official, who must record that fact in writing and must impose conditions of pretrial release. One consequence of this statute is that effective December 1, 2009, every time a person is brought before you for a probation violation, you will need to determine whether he or she has a pending felony charge and whether he or she is or could be subject to the sex offender registration program. If so, the new statutory procedure must be followed. For a list of offenses requiring reporting under the sex offender registration statute, see Table 3. At the time of publication, the AOC Forms Committee was considering changes to the Release Order, AOC-CR-200, and a new form to accommodate these statutory changes.

Delaying Release

As noted above, the general procedure for initial appearances is to conduct the initial appearance without delay, make a probable cause determination and if probable cause is found, inform the defendant of his or her rights, and set conditions of pretrial release. The sections above discussed several exceptions to this general rule. This section discusses another exception: when you hold the initial appearance, set conditions of pretrial release but delay the defendant's release. Only two situations fall within this exception; both are discussed below.

Communicable disease holds. Under G.S. 15A-534.3, if you find probable cause to believe that a person was exposed to the defendant in a manner that poses a significant risk, through a non-sexual contact, of transmission of the AIDS virus or Hepatitis B infection, you must order the defendant detained for a reasonable period, not to exceed twenty-four hours, for investigation by public health officials and testing, if required by those officials under G.S. 130A-144 and -148. To order a hold in these circumstances, use form AOC-CR-270, side two (included in Appendix A).

You can contact a public health official for advice on whether the person was in fact exposed to the defendant in a manner posing a significant risk of transmission when deciding whether probable cause exists to justify detaining the defendant.

Although G.S. 15A-534.3 does not address whether you should set pretrial release conditions that would be applicable after the defendant has been examined by public health officials, it would appear wise to do so. That way, once the public health officials have completed their investigation and testing, the defendant will not have to be brought back again before a magistrate for the setting of pretrial release conditions.

Impaired driving holds. Impaired driving detentions under G.S. 15A-534.2 cause more confusion among magistrates than almost any other area of criminal procedure.

"TRIGGERING" OFFENSES. G.S. 15A-534.2 contains a special detention provision that applies when a magistrate finds probable cause to charge the defendant with one or more of offenses listed in Table 4.

RELEVANT DETERMINATION. An impaired driving detention must be imposed when you find probable cause to charge the defendant with one of the offenses listed in Table 4 and you find, by clear and convincing evidence, that impairment of the defendant's physical or mental faculties

1. Impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1
  2. Impaired driving in a commercial vehicle under G.S. 20-138.2
  3. Habitual impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.5
  4. Any death by vehicle or serious injury by vehicle offense under G.S. 20-141.4, when based on impaired driving or a substantially similar offense under previous law
  5. First- or second-degree murder under G.S. 14-17 or involuntary manslaughter under G.S. 14-18, when based on impaired driving presents a danger, if the defendant is released, of physical injury to himself or herself or others or damage to property. If so, you must order the defendant detained until one of the following events occurs:

- The defendant’s impairment no longer presents a danger of physical injury to himself or herself or others or damage to property; or
- A sober, responsible adult (eighteen years old or older) is willing and able to assume responsibility for the defendant until the defendant’s physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired.

REQUIRED DETERMINATION. The determination under G.S. 15A-534.2 is not optional. G.S. 20-38.4, enacted in 2006, makes clear that once there is a finding of probable cause that the defendant committed a “triggering” offense, you must determine whether an impaired driving detention must be imposed. Before enactment of G.S. 20-38.4, some magistrates reported that impaired driving detentions were not done in their counties out of concern that the underlying criminal case would have to be dismissed on a “Knoll motion.” This concern stemmed from a belief that the North Carolina Supreme Court’s decision in State v. Knoll, 322 N.C. 535 (1988), invalidates a magistrate’s authority to order a detention of impaired drivers under G.S. 15A-534.2. This suggestion, however, is incorrect. Knoll involved situations in which magistrates failed to follow statutory procedures, including failing to advise defendants of their rights and declining to release them to appropriate adults. Cases since Knoll suggest that if you comply with G.S. 15A-534.2, no Knoll violation will be found. In any event G.S. 20-38.4 now makes it clear that you are required to make the impaired driving detention determination. For more information about Knoll and later cases on point, see Shea Riggsbee Denning, “Knoll Motions and Implied Consent Cases,” posted online at www.sog.unc.edu/programs/crimlaw/faculty.htm

NOTIFICATION OF RIGHTS AND LISTING OF PERSONS TO CONTACT. As discussed on pages 19–20, in implied consent cases (note that as indicated by the list of implied consent offenses in Table 2 on page 21, this category of cases includes offenses involving impaired driving subject to G.S. 15A-534.2, as well as other offenses), G.S. 20-38.4 requires you to (1) inform the person in writing of the established procedure to have others appear at the jail to observe the person’s condition or to administer an additional chemical analysis if the person is unable to make bond and (2) require anyone unable to make bond to list everyone he or she wishes to contact, along with their telephone numbers, on a form setting forth the procedure for contacting the persons listed; a copy of the form must be filed with the case file. G.S. 20-38.4(a)(4). Also as noted on page 20, 2006 legislation required each chief district court judge, along with others, to adopt procedures, by December 1, 2006, indicating how family, friends, and specified others can gain access to a defendant who has been arrested for an implied consent offense and is unable to obtain pretrial release from jail. New magistrates will need to obtain these written procedures so that they can provide the required notice to defendants as required by the statute. The AOC form on which you certify that the new procedures have been complied with and on which the defendant lists those people whom the defendant wishes to contact or appear at jail is AOC-CR-271 (included in Appendix A). Use this form any time a defendant charged with an implied consent offense is confined to jail, even if only for a short time.

EFFECT OF THE DETENTION. Once the defendant meets one of the two conditions above (impairment no longer a danger or release to sober, responsible adult), the defendant still must satisfy the conditions of pretrial release (for example, $500 secured bond) before the defendant can be released.

WRITTEN FINDINGS REQUIRED. Whenever you order a defendant detained under G.S. 15A-534.2, you must make written findings to support the detention. 188 N.C. App. 120. Use form AOC-CR-270, side one, (included in Appendix A) to make these findings.

TIMING OF THE DETENTION DECISION. Decide whether or not to detain the defendant under G.S. 15A-534.2 at the time of the initial appearance. If you detain a defendant under G.S. 15A-534.2, you still must determine the conditions of pretrial release.

MAXIMUM PERIOD OF THE DETENTION. A defendant may not be detained under G.S. 15A-534.2 for longer than twenty-four hours, even if he or she never meets one of the two conditions. However, at the end of the twenty-four-hour period, the defendant still must satisfy the conditions of pretrial release before being released. G.S. 15A-534.2(c).

ALCOHOL TESTING. When making the determination whether or not a detained defendant remains impaired, you may request that the defendant take periodic tests to determine his or her alcohol concentration. G.S. 15A-534.2(d). The testing instrument may be an Intoxilyzer or other alcohol testing instrument; it also may be an alcohol screening unit used for roadside checks. G.S. 15A-534.2(d). If the defendant takes a test and the results indicate that his or her alcohol concentration is less than 0.05, unless there is evidence that the defendant is still impaired from a combination of alcohol and drugs, you must determine that the defendant is no longer impaired. G.S. 15A-534.2(d).

RELEASE FROM DETENTION. You must release a defendant from the impaired driving detention if (1) the maximum twenty-four-hour period for the detention has expired (but remember that the defendant still must satisfy any conditions of pretrial release that have been ordered before he or she can be released); (2) the defendant's physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired to the extent that the defendant presents a danger of physical injury to the defendant or others or of damage to property; or (3) if a sober, responsible adult appears and is willing and able to take custody of the defendant until the defendant's physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired so as to present a danger of physical injury to the defendant or others or of damage to property. To release for one of these reasons, use form AOC-CR-270, checking the appropriate box under the section entitled "Release from Detention Order." Note that if the release is to a sober, responsible adult, that person's name should be listed on the form and he or she should sign where indicated. Also note that a release to a sober, responsible adult for this purpose is not the same as a custody release, discussed below.

Denying Release

As noted above, the general procedure for initial appearances is to conduct the initial appearance without delay, make a probable cause determination and if probable cause is found, inform the defendant of his or her rights and set conditions of pretrial release. The sections above discussed various exceptions to this general rule. This section discusses a final exception: when you must deny release and commit the defendant to jail.

Capital offenses. It is within the discretion of a judge (and only a judge) as to whether a defendant charged with a capital offense will be released before trial. G.S. 15A-533(c). Thus, if you find probable cause to charge a defendant with first-degree murder—the only capital offense in North Carolina—you should commit the person to jail for a judge to determine the conditions of release at the first appearance.

Certain fugitives. A fugitive defendant charged in another state with an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment has no right to pretrial release. G.S. 15A-736. Also, a fugitive arrested on a Governor’s Warrant has no right to pretrial release. These defendants should be committed to jail without conditions of release being set. For more information on handling fugitives, see “Fugitives,” below.

Involuntarily committed defendants charged with crimes. There is no right to pretrial release for a defendant who is alleged to have committed a crime while involuntarily committed or while an escapee from commitment. Such a defendant should be returned to the treatment facility in which he or she was residing at the time of the alleged crime or from which he or she escaped. G.S. 15A-533(a).

Certain drug trafficking offenses. G.S. 15A-533(d) provides that it is presumed (subject to rebuttal by the defendant) that there is no condition of release that will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community if a judicial official finds

- reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed a drug-trafficking offense;
- the drug-trafficking offense was committed while the defendant was on pretrial release for another offense; and
- the defendant has been convicted of a Class A through Class E felony or a drug-trafficking offense and not more than five years has passed since the date of conviction or the defendant’s release from prison, whichever is later.

If all of these criteria are found, only a district or superior court judge may set pretrial release conditions after finding that there is a reasonable assurance that the defendant will appear and that the release does not pose an unreasonable risk of harm to the community. G.S. 15A-532(d).

Certain gang offenses. G.S. 15A-533(e) provides that it is presumed (subject to rebuttal by the defendant) that no condition of release will reasonably assure the appearance of the person as required and the safety of the community, if a judicial official finds

- reasonable cause to believe that the person committed an offense for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with, any criminal street gang, as defined in G.S. 14-50.16;
- the offense was committed while the person was on pretrial release for another offense; and
- the defendant has a previous conviction for a gang offense under G.S. 14-50.16 through -50.20 and not more than five years have passed since the date of conviction or the defendant’s release for the offense, whichever is later.

If all of these criteria are found, only a district or superior court judge may set pretrial release conditions after finding that there is a reasonable assurance that the defendant will appear and that the release does not pose an unreasonable risk of harm to the community. G.S. 15A-532(e).

Violators of certain health control measures. G.S. 15A-534.5 provides that if a judicial official conducting an initial appearance finds by clear and convincing evidence that a person arrested for violating an order limiting freedom of movement or access issued pursuant to G.S. 130A-475 (incident involving nuclear, biological, or chemical agents) or G.S. 130A-145 (quarantine and isolation authority) poses a threat to the health and safety of others, the judicial official must deny pretrial release. The judicial official must order that the person be confined in a designated area or facility. This pretrial confinement ends when a judicial official determines that the confined person does not pose a threat to the health and safety of others. The statute requires that these determinations be made in conjunction with recommendation by the state health director or local health director.

Certain methamphetamine offenses. G.S. 15A-534.6 authorizes judicial officials to deny pretrial release for specified methamphetamine offenses under certain conditions. The statute provides that a rebuttable presumption arises that no conditions of release would assure the safety of the community if the State shows, by clear and convincing evidence, that

- the defendant was arrested for a violation of G.S. 90-95(b)(1a) (manufacture of methamphetamine) or G.S. 90-95(d1)(2)b (possession of precursor chemical knowing that it will be used to manufacture methamphetamine), and
- the defendant is dependent on or has a pattern of regular illegal use of methamphetamine and the violation was committed or attempted to maintain or facilitate the defendant's dependence or use.

Military deserters. A military deserter is not entitled to have conditions of pretrial release set by a magistrate. 149 Ga. 139, 99 S.E. 307. The deserter should be committed to the local detention facility without setting conditions of pretrial release. Military authorities should be contacted as soon as possible to take custody of the deserter.

Parole violators. A person taken into custody for a violation of parole or post-release supervision under structured sentencing is not subject to the provisions on pretrial release. G.S. 15A-1368.6 (post-release supervision); G.S. 15A-1376 (parole).

Certain probation violators. As a general rule, when a defendant has been convicted in North Carolina, put on probation, and later arrested for a probation violation that occurs in North Carolina, he or she is entitled to conditions of release. G.S. 15A-1345(b). There are two exceptions to this rule. New G.S. 15A-1345(b1) provides that if a probationer is arrested for violating probation and either (1) has a pending felony charge or (2) has been convicted of an offense that requires registration under the sex offender registration statutes or that would have required registration but for the effective date of the registration program, the judicial official must determine whether the probationer poses a danger to the public before imposing conditions of release and must record that determination in writing. If the judicial official determines that the probationer poses such a danger, the judicial official must deny the probationer release pending the revocation hearing. If the judicial official finds that the defendant does not pose such a danger, the judicial official determines conditions as usual. The procedure for handling the situation where there is insufficient information to make the required determination is discussed above on pages 24–25. The provision in G.S. 15A-1345(b) regarding no release for probation violators subject to sex offender registration who pose a danger is not new. However, it was amended by a 2009 law that enacted the provision regarding no release for probation violators who have a pending felony and pose a danger. S.L. 2009-412. The 2009 legislation is effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. One consequence of this new provision is that every time a person is brought before you on an arrest for a probation violation, you will need to know whether person has a pending felony charge and whether he or she is or could be subject to the sex offender registration program. To determine whether a probation violator has a pending felony charge, you will have to do a statewide record search. To determine whether a defendant is subject to the sex offender registration program or could be subject to that program but for its effective date, you should:

1. Search the on-line North Carolina Sex Offender Registry, <http://sexoffender.ncdoj.gov/> and click on "Search the Registry." If the probation violator's name appears, he or she is subject to G.S. 15A-1345(b1), as discussed above. If the person's name does not appear, go to step (2).
2. Determine the probation violator's prior convictions. If any one of those prior convictions is included in Table 3 on page 26, apply the provisions on G.S. 15A-1345(b1), as discussed above.

Out-of-state probation violators covered by the Interstate Compact. The general rule that probation violators are entitled to conditions of release does not apply to defendants who are arrested on out-of-state warrants for probation violations when the state that imposed the probation and is now seeking to violate the defendant has a supervision agreement in place with the State of North Carolina pursuant to the Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision. G.S. Chapter 148, Article 4B. Unlike other out-of-state offenders, out-of-state probation violators covered by Interstate Compact supervision agreements are not dealt with through extradition (discussed in "Fugitives," below); rather, the Interstate Compact statutes govern. One of those statutes, G.S. 148-65.8(a) provides that such a defendant may be detained for up to fifteen days and is not entitled to bail pending the required hearing.

Out-of-state warrants for probation violators covered by the Interstate Compact are supposed to go through the North Carolina Compact Administrator, which is part of the DOC Division of Community Corrections. If Interstate Compact offenders are processed in this way, the warrant will come to you with an "Authority to Detain and Hold" form, notifying you that the offender is not entitled to pretrial release. Sometimes, however, the other state fails to go through North Carolina's Compact Administrator. In these instances, it can be difficult for you to determine whether the person is covered by the Interstate Compact. When this happens, you can obtain the relevant information from a probation officer. Another alternative is to go to the DOC website, www.doc.state.nc.us. From there, click on "Offender Search," then click on "Offender Search—Public Information," and then "Search For An Offender." Enter the offender information and the search should indicate, below probation and parole status, whether the offender is subject to the Interstate Compact. If so, immediately contact a local probation officer or the Compact Administrator (Anne Precythe at 919.716.3139 or pal02@doc.state.nc.us).

Other Cases

Magistrates sometimes are asked to deviate from the general procedure for initial appearance—for example, delay the initial appearance or hold the defendant—for reasons other than those listed above. Unless your situation falls within one of the exceptions discussed above, you have no authority to deviate from the general procedure for initial appearances. Some common scenarios that arise are discussed below.

Out-of-county paperwork. As noted on page 18, there is no authority to delay an initial appearance "for out-of-county paperwork."

Arrest without paperwork. As discussed on page 18, paperless arrests are valid and are no impediment to holding the initial appearance and proceeding as usual.

Noncitizens. In recent years a number of issues have arisen about magistrates' authority to hold defendants for a variety of immigration related issues. You have no authority to hold an arrestee simply because he or she is not a United States citizen. Effective January 1, 2008, G.S. 162-62 provides that whenever a person charged with a felony or an impaired driving offense is confined to a jail or a local confinement facility, the person in charge of the facility must attempt to determine if the prisoner is a legal resident of the United States by questioning the person and/or examining documents. If the prisoner's status cannot be determined, the person in charge must, if possible, make an inquiry through the DCI system to the Law Enforcement Support Center of Immigration and Customs Enforcement of the United States Department of Homeland Security. However, the new law imposing these requirements expressly states that it cannot be construed to deny bond to a prisoner or prevent the prisoner from being released from confinement when the prisoner is otherwise eligible for release.

Of course, citizenship status may be relevant in determining conditions of pretrial release, such as when the arrestee has no contacts in the community and was planning on returning to his or her home country shortly, thus creating a flight risk. How such factors play into your determination of the conditions of pretrial release is discussed in the section that follows.

Another immigration issue sometimes arises when the arresting officers tells you that there is an ICE detainer or that ICE is "interested" in the defendant. ICE refers to United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement, a component of the Department of Homeland Security. Although ICE has many functions, one of its responsibilities is detaining and removing non-citizens who are not legally in the country. An ICE detainer refers to a document issued by ICE, frequently to a local jail, asking the jailer to hold a person for up to forty-eight hours so that ICE can take custody of that person. For example, suppose a defendant is in jail on a $5,000 secured bond. Normally, when the defendant is able to make that bond, he or she must be released. However, if an ICE detainer is in place, the jailer will hold the defendant, for up to forty-eight hours after the defendant makes bond so that ICE can take custody.

When an officer brings a defendant to you and an ICE detainer is in place, follow your normal procedure for conducting the initial appearance and setting conditions of pretrial release. There is no special hold to implement, and you are not authorized to hold the defendant. The detainer is in place, and if the defendant meets his or her conditions of pretrial release, the jail will hold the defendant per the detainer. However, the fact that a detainer is in place may affect your decision about appropriate conditions, for example, if the defendant is facing deportation, there may be a flight risk.

Likewise, when an officer brings a defendant to you and informs you that ICE is "interested" or is "investigating whether a detainer should issue," follow your normal procedure for conducting an initial appearance and setting conditions of pretrial release. There is no special hold to implement, and you are not authorized to hold the defendant for this purpose. However, in this situation you may learn of facts that will be relevant to your determination regarding the appropriate conditions of pretrial release.

DCI "No Bond" Message. As discussed on page 19, the fact that a DCI-PIN message says "no bond" is not a basis for denying pretrial release conditions, unless you can verify that it was ordered by a judge.

Probation violation by in-state probationer or "absconder." As discussed on pages 30–31, when a defendant is sentenced to probation by a North Carolina court and is arrested for violating the conditions of probation, the defendant is entitled to condition of release, unless subject to new G.S. 15A-1345(b1), discussed above.

Determining the Conditions of Pretrial Release

Right to Conditions

Unless the defendant falls within one of the categories listed in the section above requiring that you deny conditions, the defendant is entitled to pretrial release.

Pretrial Release Options

G.S. 15A-534 provides that in determining conditions of pretrial release, a judicial official must impose at least one of the following five conditions:

1. Release on written promise to appear. This release involves no money. The defendant simply is released on his or her written promise to appear in court.
2. Custody release. A custody release is a release to a designated person or organization that agrees to supervise the defendant. Like a release on a written promise to appear, no money is involved. Note that G.S. 15A-534(a) provides that if this condition is imposed, the defendant may elect to execute a secured appearance bond instead.
3. Release on unsecured appearance bond. An unsecured bond is one that is backed only by the integrity of the defendant; it is not backed by assets or collateral.
4. Release on secured appearance bond. A secured appearance bond is one that is backed by a cash deposit in the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage, or by at least one solvent surety.
5. House arrest with electronic monitoring. This condition may be imposed effective December 1, 2009, for offenses committed on or after that date. S.L. 2009-547. If this condition is imposed, you also must impose a secured appearance bond. S.L. 2009-547. It is not yet clear how this condition will be implemented or which jurisdictions are equipped to implement it. Because imposing this condition in the absence of available equipment will result in a hold, if your county lacks the available equipment or does not have a device immediately available for the defendant involved, you should check with your chief district court judge before imposing this condition.

Deciding Which Pretrial Release Options to Impose

Local procedure. When setting conditions of pretrial release, you need to know and follow the written pretrial release policy issued by your senior resident superior court judge. Note that G.S. 15A-535 provides that the senior resident superior court judge must create and issue recommended pretrial release policies. If you have not seen your local policy, ask for it.

Purpose of conditions of pretrial release. The purpose of conditions of pretrial release is to make sure that the defendant appears in court when required and does no harm while on release. Keep these purposes in mind when deciding which conditions to impose.

Special considerations regarding secured bonds and house arrest with electronic monitoring. IMPOSE A SECURED BOND ONLY AFTER REJECTING OTHER OPTIONS. G.S. 15A-534(b) provides that you must impose a release on written promise to appear, a release on an unsecured appearance bond, or a custody release unless you determine that

- those forms of release will not reasonably assure the defendant's appearance;
- release under those conditions will pose danger of injury to any person; or
- release under those conditions is likely to result in the destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, or subornation of perjury.

MAKE WRITTEN FINDINGS IF REQUIRED BY LOCAL POLICY. G.S. 15A-534(b) provides that when imposing a secured bond or house arrest with electronic monitoring, you must record, in writing, the reasons for doing so if required by your local policy on pretrial release issued by your senior resident superior court judge.

SPECIFYING "CASH" OR "GREEN MONEY ONLY" SECURED BOND. G.S. 15A-534 suggests that when you designate a secured bond as the condition of release, you may not also dictate which type of secured bond a defendant may post. Therefore, even if you see that a judge has set a cash bond or a "green money only" bond on one or more occasions, do not assume that you have authority to specify a cash bond. On this issue you should consult the written bond policy issued by your senior resident superior court judge. If no written policy is available or if the policy does not address this issue, seek advice from your senior resident superior court judge or chief district court judge before setting a cash bond. Cash bonds are discussed on pages 39–40. As discussed there, even if a cash bond is set, G.S. 15A-531(4) provides that a cash bond may be satisfied by the posting of a secured bond by a "bail agent" (also known as a surety bondsman) in all cases except child support contempt proceedings.

Factors to consider. G.S. 15A-534(c) provides that in determining which conditions of release to impose, you must take into account

- the nature and circumstances of the offense charged;
- the weight of the evidence against the defendant;
- the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition;
- whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he or she would be endangered by being released without supervision;
- the length of the defendant's residence in the community;
- the defendant's record of convictions;
- the defendant's history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and
- any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

Evidence to consider. G.S. 15A-534(g) provides that when imposing conditions of pretrial release, you must take into account all available evidence that you consider reliable. You are not bound by the rules of evidence when making this determination. G.S. 15A-534(g).

Restrictions

G.S. 15A-534(a) authorizes magistrates to impose restrictions on travel, association, conduct, or place of abode. You are allowed to impose these restrictions no matter what type of pretrial release condition you set. Any restrictions imposed should be reasonable and related to the purpose of pretrial release. Restrictions should not be used as punishment. The restrictions should relate to reasons listed under G.S. 15A-534(b):

- Assurance of defendant's appearance (travel)
- Danger of injury (conduct/association)
- Destruction of evidence (conduct/travel/association)
- Intimidation of witnesses (conduct/association)

Special Cases

As a general rule, and subject to your local bond policy, the law gives magistrates a great deal of discretion to determine the appropriate conditions of pretrial release. In some situations, however, the law or a judge requires you to impose certain conditions, forbids you from imposing certain conditions, or allows you to consider special conditions. This section discusses those special cases.

Infractions. As a general rule, any person who is not a North Carolina resident and who is charged with an infraction may be required to post a bond to secure his or her appearance in court. G.S. 15A-1113. The charging officer may require the person to accompany the officer to the magistrate's office to determine if a bond is necessary to secure the person's court appearance, and if so, what kind of bond is to be used. G.S. 15A-1113(c). However, if you find that the person is unable to post a secured bond, you must allow the person to be released by executing an unsecured bond. G.S. 15A-1113(c).

There are several exceptions to this rule. First, as suggested by the rule itself, a North Carolina resident who is charged with an infraction cannot be required to post bond. Second, a person charged with an infraction cannot be required to post an appearance bond if the person is licensed to drive by a state that is a member of the motor vehicle nonresident violator compact, the charged infraction is subject to the compact, and the person executes a personal recognizance required by the compact. G.S. 15A-1113. Third, certain individuals charged with infractions that are subject to the Wildlife Violator Compact cannot be required to post a bond. G.S. 113-300.6.

Probationer charged with a felony. Effective December 1, 2009, S.L. 2009-412 amended G.S. 15A-534 to add a new subsection (d2) providing that when you are determining conditions of pretrial release for a defendant who is charged with a felony while he or she was on probation for an earlier offense, you must determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public before imposing conditions of pretrial release and must record that determination in writing. If you determine that the defendant poses a danger to the public, the new law requires you to impose a secured bond. As noted above, if you find that the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, impose conditions as usual. The procedure for handling these defendants when the information is insufficient to make the required determination is discussed above in the section on delaying setting conditions.

Domestic violence cases. G.S. 15A-534.1(a)(2) sets out special restrictions that may be imposed on a defendant who is charged with specified crimes of domestic violence or with a violation of a civil domestic protective order. They include that the defendant

- stay away from the home, school, business, or place of employment of the alleged victim;
- refrain from assaulting, beating, molesting, or wounding the alleged victim;
- refrain from removing, damaging, or injuring specifically identified property;
- may visit his or her child or children at times and places provided by the terms of any existing order entered by a judge.

Use form AOC-CR-630 (included in Appendix A) to impose these restrictions.

G.S. 15A-401(b)(2)f provides that a law enforcement officer may arrest a person without an arrest warrant if the person has violated pretrial release conditions imposed under G.S. 15A-534.1(a)(2). Upon making such an arrest, the law enforcement officer must take the person without unnecessary delay to a magistrate and the magistrate has the responsibility of setting new

1. Felonious or misdemeanor child abuse
  2. Taking indecent liberties with a minor in violation of G.S. 14-202.1
  3. Rape or any other sex offense in violation of G.S. Ch. 14, Art. 7A against a minor victim
  4. Incest with a minor in violation of G.S. 14-178
  5. Kidnapping, abduction, or felonious restraint involving a minor
  6. Transporting a child outside the state with intent to violate a custody order, as prohibited by G.S. 14-320.1

  8. Communicating a threat against a minor pretrial release conditions. If the defendant also is charged with a new domestic violence offense subject to G.S. 15A-534.1, the forty-eight-hour rule applies to the new offense.

Certain cases involving child victims. G.S. 15A-534.4 sets out specific conditions that must be imposed on a defendant who is charged with certain sex offenses or crimes of violence against child victims listed in Table 5. If the defendant is charged with one of those crimes, you must impose conditions that the defendant (1) stay away from the victim's home, temporary residence, school, business, or place of employment; (2) refrain from communicating or attempting to communicate with the victim, except as specified in an order entered by a judge with knowledge of the pending charges; and (3) refrain from assaulting, beating, intimidating, stalking, threatening, or harming the alleged victim. However, upon request of the defendant, you may waive one or both of conditions (1) and (2), if you make written findings of fact that it is not in the best interest of the alleged victim that the condition be imposed. Use form AOC-CR-631 (included in Appendix A) for these cases.

Prior failures to appear and bond doubling. Special provisions apply when a defendant has been surrendered by a surety after a FTA or arrested on an OFA after a FTA.

ARREST ON AN OFA AFTER A FTA. When a defendant is arrested on an OFA after a FTA, follow these steps:

1. Check for prior surrender. Determine whether the defendant already has been surrendered by a surety for the same FTA. If so, and a new release order has been entered and a new bond set, re-release the defendant on the bond already posted and attempt to have the OFA recalled. If the defendant has not already been surrendered by a surety for the same FTA, set conditions of release as described directly below.
2. Setting conditions of release. Begin by examining the OFA. If the OFA recommends any conditions, impose them. G.S. 15A-534(d1). If the OFA says nothing about the conditions of release, find out what conditions were set in the prior release order. If a secured or unsecured bond was set in the prior release order, require a secured bond in at least twice that amount. G.S. 15A-534(d1). If a written promise to appear or custody release was set in the prior release order, require a secured bond of at least $500.00. G.S. 15A-534(d1). You also must impose restrictions on the defendant's travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode to assure that the defendant will not fail to appear again. G.S. 15A-534(d1). Be sure to check the box on the release order indicating that the defendant was arrested after failing to appear as required by a prior release order. If it is the defendant's second or subsequent FTA in the case, you must check the box indicating that on the release order. S.L. 2009-437, sec. 2.

SURRENDER AFTER A FTA. When a defendant is surrendered by a surety after a FTA, follow these steps:

1. Check for prior arrest. Determine whether the defendant already has been arrested by a law enforcement officer for the same FTA. If so, and a new release order has been entered and new bond posted, simply re-release the defendant on the bond already posted. If the defendant has not already been arrested, try to recall any outstanding OFA so that the defendant will not be rearrested for the same FTA. Then, set conditions of release as described in step 2.
2. Setting conditions of release. Obtain the certified copy of the bond that was provided to the jailer by the surety when the defendant was surrendered. Require a secured bond in at least twice that amount. G.S. 15A-534(d1). Be sure to check the box on the release order indicating that the defendant surrendered after failing to appear as required by a prior release order. If it is the defendant's second or subsequent FTA in the case, you must check the box indicating that on the release order. S.L. 2009-437, sec. 2.

Order of a judge. If the judge has ordered that certain conditions of pretrial release be imposed—for example in an OFA—impose those conditions as ordered.

Modification of Conditions

G.S. 15A-534(e) permits a magistrate to modify his or her pretrial release order at any time before the first appearance before a district court judge. If you believe that there are compelling reasons to modify another magistrate's pretrial release order, consult with the other magistrate before making the modification, if possible.

Term of the Bond

A defendant is covered by a bond until judgment is entered in district court from which no appeal is taken, or until judgment is entered in superior court. G.S. 15A-534(h). However, the bond ends earlier if: (1) a judge releases the obligor from the bond; (2) the defendant is properly surrendered by a surety; (3) the proceeding is terminated by voluntary dismissal by the state before forfeiture is ordered; or (4) an indefinite prayer for judgment continued has been entered in district court. G.S. 15A-534(h).

AOC Forms

Form AOC-CR-200 (included in Appendix A) must be completed every time you determine whether conditions of release are warranted and what conditions will be imposed. This section discusses how to use that form.

Upper portion of form. In the upper portion of the form, fill in basic information such as the file number, county, and name and address of the defendant. If a bond is imposed, list the amount of the bond there as well.

Defendant not entitled to release. If the defendant's release is not authorized (for example, in a capital case), check the box that says "Your release is not authorized," order the person's commitment on the appropriate portion of the form, and sign and date the form.

Custody release or written promise to appear. When ordering a custody release or a release on a written promise to appear, check the box for “Custody Release” or “Written Promise,” ensure that the relevant information in the section of the form entitled “Written Promise to Appear or Custody Release,” is completed, and sign and date the form. Note that a release of a defendant held on an impaired driving detention to a sober, responsible adult, see pages 25–28, is not a custody release.

Unsecured or secured bond. When ordering an unsecured or secured bond, check the appropriate box for “Secured Bond” or “Unsecured Bond” and sign and date the form. To take a bond, form AOC-CR-201 (included in Appendix A) also must be completed. To take an unsecured bond, check the box on AOC-CR-201 for “Unsecured Appearance Bond,” sign and date the form, and make sure the defendant signs the form. Instructions for taking a secured bond are provided below.

FTA boxes. When a defendant has been arrested by a law enforcement officer or surrendered by a surety after a FTA, check the box on form AOC-CR-200 that states, “The defendant was arrested after failing to appear as required under a prior release order.” G.S. 15A-534(d1). If the defendant has had any other FTAs in the case, check the box noting that this was the defendant’s second or subsequent FTA. G.S. 15A-534(d1). Be sure to follow the bond doubling procedures described above on pages 36–37.

Impaired driving or communicable disease detention. Impaired driving and communicable disease detentions are discussed above on pages 25–28. If such a detention has been imposed, check the box that says that the defendant’s release is not authorized until the detention is complete. Checking this box will help to ensure that a defendant is not mistakenly released when he or she satisfies a condition of release (for example, by putting down cash on a bond) and a detention is not yet complete.

Restrictions. Any restrictions that are imposed should be listed in the space designated on the form.

Additional information. The form contains a box for additional information. Most commonly, this box is used to specify that a secured bond must be satisfied by cash only. Your authority to set a cash bond is discussed on page 34. If you have been authorized to impose a cash bond and deem a cash bond appropriate, check the box for “Secured Bond” and write “Cash Bond” in the additional information box.

Taking Bonds

Generally

When you have set a written promise to appear or a custody release as the condition of pretrial release, the only paperwork needed to effect the release is the Conditions of Release and Release Order (AOC-CR-200, included in Appendix A). However, when a bond is set—whether secured or unsecured—an appearance bond is required. This section discusses how to take bonds and ensure that an appearance bond is properly executed. For more information on all of the topics discussed below, see the paper, “Taking Bail Bonds,” at www.sog.unc.edu/programs/ncmagistrates/2009AdvCrimProcedure\_001.html, by Troy Page of the AOC.

Local Procedure

Many of the legal issues discussed in this section have not been decided by the North Carolina appellate courts. You should follow local procedures adopted by your senior resident superior court judge and the advice of your chief district court judge or senior resident superior court judge when those procedures and advice differ from statements in this section.

AOC Form

The form for taking bonds is AOC-CR-201. Form AOC-CR-201A is used when more space is needed to list multiple sureties. Both forms are included in Appendix A.

Unsecured Bonds—Described

An unsecured bond essentially is a promise by the defendant to forfeit the amount of the bond if the defendant fails to appear as required. In an unsecured bond, the defendant's promise is not backed by money or property. Although a defendant does not appear to have to satisfy any requirements regarding solvency for an unsecured appearance bond, the defendant does have to sign the appearance bond form to make it a valid contract.

Secured Bonds—Described

A secured bond essentially is a promise by the defendant or a surety to forfeit the amount of the bond if the defendant fails to appear as required. Unlike an unsecured bond, a secured bond is backed by money or other property. Because taking a secured bond is more complicated than taking an unsecured bond, the rest of this section focuses on taking secured bonds.

Types of Secured Bonds

G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) provides that there are three ways to secure a bond:

- A cash deposit in the full amount of the bond
- A mortgage pursuant to G.S. 58-74-5
- At least one solvent surety

Each of these ways of securing a bond is discussed below.

When Cash Secures the Bond

Full amount of the bond. G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) provides that a bond may be secured by a cash deposit in the “full amount of the bond.” Thus, when cash is provided, it must be for the total amount of the bond.

When “cash” means cash. G.S. 15A-531(4) provides that a cash bond may be satisfied by the posting of a secured bond by a “bail agent” (also known as a surety bondsman) in all cases except child support contempt proceedings. A bail agent is a surety bondsman acting as an agent for an insurance company. A “professional bondsman” is not a bail agent (surety bondsman), and therefore a professional bondsman may not post a secured bond when a cash bond is required.

Taking a cash bond. The procedure for taking a cash bond varies, depending on who is providing the cash. To take a cash bond when the defendant tenders the cash, form AOC-CR-201 should be completed as follows:

- Fill in the top portion of the form.
- Check the box for “Cash Appearance Bond.”
- Swear the defendant, have the defendant sign the bond, and complete the section entitled “Sworn and Subscribed Before Me.”
- Complete the section entitled “Complete if Cash Deposited.”
- Issue a receipt to the defendant.

When another person tenders cash to satisfy the bond, clarify that person's intentions about the use of the cash upon disposition of the charges. Specifically, determine whether the person intends the cash to be available to satisfy the defendant's obligations (for example, fine and costs) if the defendant is convicted or found in contempt. If the person intends the cash to be available to satisfy the defendant's obligations (or to be given to the defendant if there are no obligations to be satisfied), it is as if the person has given the cash to the defendant. Thus AOC-CR-201 should be completed as if the defendant personally tendered the cash. If the person expects to get the cash back even if the defendant is convicted or found in contempt (that is, the person is offering his or her cash for the limited purpose of securing the bond), AOC-CR-201 should be completed as follows:

- Fill in the top portion of the form.
- Have the defendant sign the bond.
- Check the box for "Surety Appearance Bond" and check the box below that option for "Cash Deposited by Surety."
- Under "Accommodation Bondsman" enter the information about the person tendering the cash and have that person sign as an accommodation bondsman.
- Swear that person and complete the section entitled "Sworn and Subscribed Before Me."
- Complete the section entitled "Complete if Cash Deposited."
- Issue a receipt to the person depositing the cash.

Cash bonds greater than $10,000. Special reporting requirements apply when you receive cash in excess of $10,000 to satisfy an appearance bond. Willful failure to file the required reporting form for a qualifying transaction is a felony. 26 U.S.C. § 7203. For more information on these reporting requirements, see the AOC paper, "Taking Bail Bonds," at www.sog.unc.edu/programs/ncmagistrates/2009AdvCrimProcedure\_001.html.

Accepting cash. Although many sheriffs and chief jailers may have a policy against it, G.S. 15A-537 permits jailers to release a defendant if a judicial official is not available. This statute can be interpreted to mean that jailers may accept cash. However, the "Notes on Cash Bonds" on form AOC-CR-201, side two, indicates that jailers may not take cash bonds. Any cash collected by sheriffs and jailers should be deposited with the clerk's office.

When a Mortgage Secures the Bond

Generally. As noted above, a bond may be secured with a mortgage pursuant to G.S. 58-74-5. Specifically, a person can secure a bond by executing a mortgage on real or personal property that has a value that can cover the bond, payable to the state of N.C., conditioned with power of sale to be executed by the clerk upon a breach. G.S. 58-74-5. For more detailed information about taking mortgage bonds, see the AOC paper, "Taking Bail Bonds," noted above.

When a Surety Secures a Bond

Types of sureties. There are four types of sureties:

- An accommodation bondsman
- A professional bondsman or his or her runner
- An insurance company, acting through a bail agent (surety bondsman)
- A motor club

Each surety is discussed in more detail in the sections that follow.

Persons prohibited from serving as surety. G.S. 15A-541(a) prohibits the following types of people (or their spouses) from serving as a surety for anyone other than an immediate family member: sheriff, deputy sheriff, law enforcement officer, judicial official, attorney, parole officer, probation officer, jailer, assistant jailer, employee of the General Court of Justice, or other public employee assigned to duties relating to the administration of criminal justice. These people also are prohibited from having an interest in the financial affairs of any firm or corporation whose principal business is acting as bondsman. G.S. 15A-541(a). Violation of these provisions is a Class 2 misdemeanor. G.S. 15A-541(b).

Accommodation or “property” bonds. LOCAL POLICIES. Some counties have specific accommodation bond policies that magistrates must follow (for example, no accommodation bonds in the amount of $5,000 or more may be accepted without a deed of trust). Make sure that you know your local policy.

ACCOMMODATION BONDSMAN DEFINED. An accommodation bondsman must

- be a natural person;
- be eighteen-years-old or older;
- be a resident of North Carolina;
- receive no consideration (for example, money or other valuables) for acting as a surety;
- endorse the bond; and
- provide satisfactory evidence of ownership, value, and marketability of real or personal property that is sufficient to fully satisfy the bond in the event of breach.

G.S. 15A-531; G.S. 58-71-1(1).

TAKING AN ACCOMMODATION BOND. To take an accommodation bond, complete form AOC-CR-201 as follows:

- Fill in the top portion of the form.
- Check the box for “Surety Appearance Bond.”
- Have the defendant sign the bond.
- Complete the sections under “Accommodation Bondsman.”
- Swear the person and complete the section entitled “Sworn and Subscribed Before Me.”

If there are more than two accommodation bondsmen, use form AOC-CR-201A to list the additional names. When using this form, remember to check the box on AOC-CR-201, indicating that there are additional accommodation bondsmen. If the property pledged is owned by spouses as tenants in the entirety, both spouses must sign the bond.

The person wanting to be a surety must be placed under oath and you must determine that the person satisfies the requirements for an accommodation bondsman, including that the person has sufficient assets (real or personal) to cover the bond above liabilities and exemptions. The amount of assets must be over and above the homestead exemption in land of $1,000 in real property and the personal property exemption of $500. N.C. CONST. Art. X, sec. 1–2.

Sources that may be consulted in determining whether to accept real property for the bond include the following:

- Tax office (ownership of real property and appraised value of real property)
- Register of deeds office (deeds of trust and mortgages on real property)
- Clerk’s office (outstanding judgments docketed against the person who wants to be a surety)
- Surety (ask the person who wants to be a surety about outstanding debts)
- Third person (third party you trust vouches that the surety has sufficient assets)

The misdemeanor of false qualification occurs if the surety signs and knows or reasonably should know that there is insufficient property over and above his or her exemption. G.S. 15A-542.

SPECIAL ISSUES REGARDING ACCOMMODATION BONDS. Some special rules apply to accommodation bonds. First, a defendant may not sign his or her own accommodation bond. The surety must be someone who is liable in addition to a defendant (although a defendant can post his or her own cash for a cash bond or execute a mortgage on his or her property under G.S. 58-74-5 for a mortgage bond). The definition of “surety” in G.S. 58-71-1(10) states that a surety is one, who with the defendant, is liable for the amount of the bail bond when it is forfeited.

Second, a defendant’s spouse may be a surety only if the property is in the spouse’s own name (and not jointly owned). The reason is that G.S. 58-71-1(1) requires that the surety be personally solvent for the amount of the bond. The bond should be separate from and in addition to the defendant’s obligation. It is intended as an additional security.

Professional bondsman. DEFINED. A professional bondsman is a person who

- is approved and licensed by the Commissioner of Insurance;
- pledges cash or approved securities with the Commissioner as security for bail bonds; and
- receives or is promised money or other things of value for writing the bond.

G.S. 15A-531(7); G.S. 58-71-1(8).

RUNNERS. A professional bondsman may employ “runners” who are agents of the bondsman for purposes of executing bail bonds and other functions. G.S. 58-71-1(9).

TAKING A PROFESSIONAL BONDSMAN BOND. When taking a bond that is secured by a professional bondsman, begin by checking the Surety Report (available online at www.nccourts.org/Courts/OCO/Magistrates/Bondsman/) to confirm that the surety is authorized to execute bonds in the charging county. If so, complete form AOC-CR-201 as follows:

- Fill in the top portion of the form.
- Check the box for “Surety Appearance Bond.”
- Check the next box, which indicates that the affidavit is complete and true.
- Have the defendant sign the bond.
- Make sure the name and license of the professional bondsman or runner is provided under the section entitled “Professional Bondsman” on the front of the form.
- Make sure that the professional bondsman or the runner completes the affidavit on the back of the bond.
- Verify that the professional bondsman or his or her runner attach a stamp to the back of bond.
- Swear the bondsman or his or her runner regarding the truth of the statements in the bond, have the person sign the bond, then complete the portion designated “Sworn and Subscribed Before Me.”

Insurance company acting through a bail agent (surety bondsman). DEFINED. A bail agent (surety bondsman) is a person who

- is licensed by the Commissioner of Insurance as a surety bondsman;
- is appointed by an insurer by power of attorney to execute or countersign bail bonds for the insurer; and
- receives or is promised money or other things of value for writing the bond.

G.S. 15A-531(3); G.S. 58-71-1(11).

INSURANCE COMPANY IS SURETY. The bail agent (surety bondsman) is an agent for the insurance company, which is the surety.

RUNNERS CANNOT SIGN. Although a runner may sign a bond for a professional bondsman, only a bail agent (surety bondsman) may sign for the insurance company. The bail agent (surety bondsman) cannot have a runner sign the bond.

Example: A professional bondsman has a runner. The bondsman is also a bail agent (surety bondsman). The bondsman wants to post a $10,000 appearance bond. If the bond is executed on behalf of the insurance company, the runner cannot sign the bond. If the bond is executed on behalf of the professional bondsman, the runner can sign the bond.

TAKING A BAIL AGENT (SURETY BONDSMAN) BOND. To take a bond secured by a bail agent (surety bondsman) begin by checking the Surety Report (available online at www.nccourts.org/Courts/OCO/Magistrates/Bondsman/) to confirm that the surety is authorized to execute bonds in the charging county. If so, complete form AOC-CR-201 as follows:

- Fill in the top portion of the form.
- Check the box for “Surety Appearance Bond.”
- Check the next box, which indicates that the affidavit is complete and true.
- Have the defendant sign the bond.
- Make sure the portion of the form designated “Insurance Company” on the front of the form is completed.
- Make sure that the bail agent (surety bondsman) completes the affidavit on the back of the bond.
- Verify that the bail agent (surety bondsman) has affixed to the bond one of the individual powers of attorney given to him or her by the insurer.
- Swear the bail agent (surety bondsman) regarding the truth of the statements in the bond, have the bail agent (surety bondsman) sign the bond, and then complete the portion designated “Sworn and Subscribed to Before Me.”

NOTE ON POWERS OF ATTORNEY. The insurance company gives the bail agent (surety bondsman) two different kinds of powers of attorney. One power is the authorization for the bail agent (surety bondsman) to act as surety for the company and gives the total amount of money for which the agent (surety bondsman) is entitled to bind the insurance company. This power of attorney is registered with the license. The insurance company also gives the bail agent (surety bondsman) several individual powers of attorney, usually sequentially numbered. One of the individual powers of attorney must be attached to a bond signed by the bail agent (surety bondsman) on behalf of the insurance company. These powers are usually for less than the total amount of bonds that can be written and constitute the maximum amount for which one bond can be written.

Many powers of attorney provide that a bail agent (surety bondsman) may not stack powers of attorney.

Example: An insurance company gives a bail agent (surety bondsman) a power of attorney to write bonds for a total amount of $100,000 and gives the bail agent (surety bondsman) separately numbered powers of attorney to attach to each bond written with a face amount of $20,000, each providing that the power of attorney is “void if used with other powers.” The defendant is placed under a $60,000 bond. The bail agent (surety bondsman) may not attach three powers of attorney and write a $60,000 bond (called “stacking”) for one defendant because the insurance company has limited the authority of the agent in one bond to the amount in the individual, numbered power of attorney. A bail agent (surety bondsman) who is the agent for three different insurance companies may not put up $20,000 from each company.

Motor club bail bond. DEFINED. Some motor clubs provide bonds guaranteed by a surety for motor vehicle offenses. G.S. 58-69-2(3).

MUST BE ACCEPTED. Subject to exceptions, you must accept a guaranteed arrest bond certificate in place of cash bail or other bond in an amount not exceeding $1,500 for any motor vehicle offense. G.S. 58-69-55. The two exceptions are that the arrest bond certificate cannot be accepted for an impaired driving offense or a felony offense. G.S. 58-69-55.

VARIATIONS IN COVERAGE. When taking a motor club bail bond, read the motor club card carefully and check the expiration date. Some cards require that the court appearance rather than the date of taking the bond must occur before the expiration. The card must indicate that a surety company guarantees the defendant's appearance. Also, the card sometimes specifies offenses to which it will or will not apply and will indicate the maximum amount of a bond that will be guaranteed, which may be less than $1,500.

Example: A card may specify: "The General Insurance Co. of America (GICA) guarantees the appearance of the AAA member named on this card in any court up to the card's expiration date. The card can be accepted against an arrest bond up to $1,000 or to secure a bail bond up to $5,000 from GICA for any motor vehicle law violation except violations involving driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquors, drugs or narcotics, failure to appear for violations, driving on a suspended/revoked driver's license, hit and run, failure to present evidence of insurance, illegal use or falsification of license or registration, engaging in a felony, attempting to elude/eluding police, or while driving a vehicle used for commercial purposes."

TAKING A MOTOR CLUB BAIL BOND. For instructions on taking a motor club bail bond, see the AOC paper, "Taking Bail Bonds," at www.sog.unc.edu/programs/ncmagistrates/2009AdvCrimProcedure\_001.html.

Wrapping

Some counties allow wrapping of bonds—that is, the bundling of multiple offenses into one bond. Consult the written bond policies in your county to determine whether wrapping is allowed in your jurisdiction.

Splitting

The general rule is that when multiple sureties sign a bond, they are jointly and severally liable on the bond. G.S. 15A-544.3(a); -544.7(a). That means that the full amount of the bond can be collected from each surety. Splitting of the bond refers to a practice where multiple sureties divide up the bond, agreeing to be liable for only a portion of it; for example, for a $1,000 bond, sureties A and B agree to be liable for $500 each. It is not clear whether splitting of a bond is permissible. Therefore, you should allow splitting only if permitted by the written bond policy issued by your senior resident superior court judge.

Surrender of Defendant by Surety

Surety's Authority to Arrest

A surety (and a runner for a bail bondsman) may arrest a defendant for purpose of surrender. G.S. 15A-540; G.S. 58-71-30.

Although G.S. 58-71-30 permits you to issue an OFA for a defendant when a surety makes a written request on a certified copy of the bond, do not do so without consulting with your chief district court judge or senior resident superior court judge. It ordinarily would not be a good practice to issue an OFA under such circumstances; this is additionally true as G.S. 58-

71-30 may conflict with G.S. 15A-305, which only authorizes the issuance of an OEA on certain grounds. Note that G.S. 58-71-195 provides that if there is a conflict between the provisions of G.S. Ch. 58 and G.S. Ch. 15A, the provisions of G.S. Ch. 15A govern.

Surrender

Surrender after breach. After a breach of conditions of a bail bond, a surety (and a runner for a bail bondsman) may surrender the defendant to the sheriff of the county where the defendant is bonded to appear for trial or to the sheriff of the county where the defendant was bonded. G.S. 15A-540(b). Alternatively, a surety may surrender a defendant who is already in the custody of any sheriff in the state by appearing in person and informing the sheriff that the surety wishes to surrender the defendant. G.S. 15A-540(b). Before surrendering a defendant to a sheriff, the surety must provide the sheriff with a certified copy of the bail bond. G.S. 15A-540(b). Upon surrender of the defendant, the sheriff must provide the surety with a receipt. G.S. 15A-540(b).

When a defendant is surrendered after a breach, the sheriff must take the defendant, without unnecessary delay, before a judicial official for new conditions of pretrial release. G.S. 15A-540(c).

Surrender before breach. Before a breach of conditions of a bail bond, a surety may surrender a defendant to the sheriff of the county where the defendant is bonded to appear or to the sheriff where the defendant was bonded. G.S. 15A-540(a); G.S. 58-71-20. When the surrender is made before a breach, new conditions of pretrial release should not be set. In this case, the defendant remains in custody until the conditions of the original release order are satisfied.

AOC Form

The form to be used when the surety surrenders the defendant is AOC-CR-214 (included in Appendix A).

Fugitives

Extradition is the procedure by which a person who has committed a crime in one state, escaped from prison in one state, or violated probation or parole imposed by one state and has fled to another state is returned to the first state. For more information about extradition, see STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA EXTRADITION MANUAL (2d ed. 1987), from which most of the text in this section is drawn directly. Note that separate procedures apply to defendants who violate probation imposed by another state and are in North Carolina pursuant to a supervision agreement under the Interstate Compact for Adult Supervision (Interstate Compact). In those cases, the Interstate Compact rules, discussed on page 31, apply. When a defendant has violated probation imposed by another state and is found in North Carolina with no Interstate Compact supervision agreement in place, extradition rules govern the process for returning the defendant to the other state.

Most commonly, magistrates will deal with fugitives from other states who are found in North Carolina. Consider the case of a person who committed a crime—say, armed robbery—in Ohio and fled to North Carolina. Probably the person already has been charged formally in Ohio, either by indictment or by an arrest warrant. When he or she is discovered in North Carolina, the person may be arrested by a North Carolina officer, either with or without an arrest warrant from a North Carolina magistrate. The sections below discuss the procedures that apply in these circumstances. See page 49 for a discussion of your involvement when a fugitive from North Carolina is found in another state.

Fugitive from Another State Before Magistrate after Warrantless Arrest

When a fugitive from another state is found in North Carolina, an officer may arrest the fugitive without a warrant only if the person has been charged with a crime in the other state that is punishable there by death or more than one year's imprisonment. After arresting without a warrant, the officer must take the fugitive before a North Carolina magistrate as soon as possible. When an officer brings a fugitive to you after making a warrantless arrest, you should:

1. Determine whether the officer had adequate grounds for the arrest. Place the officer under oath and ask the officer the reasons for the arrest. An officer may arrest without a warrant only when the person has been charged with a crime in another state and that crime is punishable by death or by imprisonment for more than one year. The person might have been charged in the other state by the issuance of an arrest warrant, indictment, or information. You determine only whether the person has been charged in the other state, not whether there was probable cause for the charge. The officer's information that the person has been charged must be reliable. Usually it will be a DCI-PIN message, but it could be a letter, facsimile, or telephone call from an officer in the other state. Sometimes the officer will have a copy of the warrant or indictment from the other state. If the information is a DCI-PIN message, ask the officer whether he or she has telephoned the other state to verify that the charge is still outstanding and that the other state wishes to extradite. This verification is not essential—the DCI-PIN message is sufficient justification for arresting the fugitive—but it is a highly recommended practice. Of course, you also must determine that the person arrested is the person charged in the other state.
2. Complete a magistrate's order for fugitive. Make sure the Fugitive Affidavit (AOC-CR-911M) is completed and complete the Magistrate's Order for Fugitive (AOC-CR-909M), following the usual procedure on the number of copies to be completed. Both forms are included in Appendix A. Send the original to the clerk's office and attach to the original the DCI-PIN message or other written document used to establish that the person is a fugitive. Next, remind the officer to obtain a copy of the other state's warrant or indictment as soon as possible and attach it to the original copy of the magistrate's order in the clerk's office.
3. Inform the fugitive of the charge. Inform the fugitive of the charge, the right to communicate with counsel and friends, and whether he or she is entitled to pretrial release.
4. Determine appropriate conditions. G.S. 15A-736 allows a fugitive to be given bail unless the offense with which the defendant is charged in the other state is punishable by death or life imprisonment. See page 29. Apparently the only form of pretrial release that may be used is a bail bond with sureties. Your local bail bond schedule may include instructions on what bond to set for fugitives. Sometimes the same amount is required as for a similar North Carolina crime; sometimes that amount is doubled or otherwise multiplied. If bail is not allowed, or if the fugitive cannot meet the bail, he or she should be committed to the county jail.
5. Order the fugitive to appear in district court. Whether the fugitive is released on bond, cannot make bond, or is ineligible for bail, the release or commitment order should direct the fugitive to appear before a district court judge at the earliest possible time. Although the statute does not require an immediate district court appearance for a fugitive who is released on bond, such an appearance will give the district judge an early opportunity to review the fugitive's bond, explain the extradition process, and appoint counsel if necessary. Fugitives often waive formal extradition once they are told about the process and have talked to a lawyer. If your chief district judge prefers not to deal with the fugitive at this point, release is on condition that the person either (a) return for a district court appearance at a specific time within thirty days or (b) surrender when a Governor's Warrant, discussed below, is issued.

Fugitive Warrant

More commonly, the officer will come to you to obtain a North Carolina arrest warrant, called a fugitive warrant, AOC-CR-910M (included in Appendix A), before arresting a fugitive from another state. When this happens, you should:

1. Determine whether there are grounds for an arrest. Place the officer under oath and ask about the reasons for making an arrest. The three grounds that justify an arrest are that the person (1) is charged with a crime in another state and fled, (2) was convicted of a crime in another state and has escaped from imprisonment there, or (3) was convicted of a crime in another state and violated the conditions of probation or parole by fleeing. The officer's information must be reliable. Usually it will consist of a DCI-PIN message, but it could be a letter, facsimile, telephone call from an officer in the other state, or even a copy of the warrant or indictment from the other state. You do not determine whether there is probable cause to believe the person committed the crime. You only determine that one of the three grounds for arrest exist and that this is the person who is wanted by the other state.
2. Complete the affidavit and arrest warrant. Both the Fugitive Affidavit (AOC-CR-911M) and the Warrant for Arrest for Fugitive (AOC-CR-910M) must be completed and attached to each other. Follow the usual procedure on the number of copies to be completed and send the original to the clerk's office. Also, attach to the original the DCI-PIN message or any other document used to establish that the person is a fugitive. It is good practice to remind the officer to obtain a copy of the arrest warrant or indictment in the other state as soon as possible and attach it to the original copy of the warrant in the clerk's office.

Fugitive from Another State Before Magistrate after Arrest on a Warrant

Once the fugitive warrant is issued, the officer makes the arrest and takes the defendant before a magistrate as soon as possible for the setting of pretrial conditions, just as would be done for a North Carolina crime. When an officer arrests a fugitive on the basis of a warrant and brings the fugitive before you, inform the fugitive of the charges, determine whether to allow bail, and order the fugitive to appear in district court, as described in "Fugitive from Another State Before Magistrate after Warrantless Arrest," above.

Fugitive from Another State Who Has Not Been Charged

Another possibility, though unusual, is that the person has not yet been formally charged in the other state. For example, a person may have robbed a convenience store in Virginia late at night and fled to North Carolina but no warrant was issued because no judicial official was on duty in Virginia.

The extradition statutes allow a fugitive to be arrested in North Carolina even though the fugitive has not yet been formally charged in the other state. However, the officer only may do so with an arrest warrant. The procedure for issuing such a warrant is the same as that for charging someone with a North Carolina crime; that is, the officer must be placed under oath and must state facts from which you can independently determine that there is probable cause to believe that the person committed the crime in another state. You cannot simply accept the word of the officers from the other state that the person committed the crime; you must be told the reasons for reaching that conclusion. (This is different from other situations involving a fugitive in which you need only establish that the person has been charged in the other state.)

If you determine that there is probable cause, complete an arrest warrant. The standard arrest warrant form will need to be modified to indicate that the crime is one committed against the law of another state. You need not spell out the elements of the offense but simply can state the name of the other state's crime. The name of the crime given by the officers from that state should be used, even if it is different from the name used in North Carolina (for example, "second degree robbery"). After the warrant is issued, the case proceeds like any other one involving a fugitive.

Governor's Warrant

Once arrested, a fugitive is held until formal extradition procedures can take place. If he or she wishes to do so, the fugitive may waive extradition before a clerk of court or a judge and be immediately released to the state from which the fugitive fled. Many fugitives choose to do this, knowing that they will be extradited and not wishing to spend the time required for formal extradition.

If the fugitive does not waive extradition, the state from which the fugitive fled then must formally request the governor of North Carolina to extradite. If the governor decides to extradite, a Governor's Warrant will be issued. A Governor's Warrant authorizes the taking of the fugitive into custody—in fact, the fugitive already may be in custody if he or she was not allowed bail or could not make bail—to be turned over to an agent of the other state.

When a fugitive is brought before you on a Governor's Warrant, you should:

1. Inform the fugitive of the charges. Tell the fugitive what crime he or she is charged with in the other state and that the governor of North Carolina has issued a warrant to take him or her into custody and be returned to the state from which he or she fled. The fugitive also should be informed of the right to communicate with counsel and friends. The Governor's Warrant requires that the fugitive be held without bond.
2. Commit the fugitive to jail. Commit the fugitive to jail to await his or her appearance before a district court judge.
3. Order the fugitive returned to district court at the earliest possible date. The order of commitment should specify the time and date that the fugitive is to appear before a district court judge, which should be as soon as possible.

Fugitives from North Carolina

If a person who committed a crime in North Carolina flees to another state and is found there, a similar procedure takes place. Once the fugitive is arrested in the other state, the North Carolina district attorney of the county where the fugitive is charged is notified and must put together the documents that the North Carolina governor's office will need in requesting extradition (assuming that the fugitive does not waive extradition).

Magistrates only are involved in the process of extraditing a fugitive from North Carolina who has fled to another state if an arrest warrant is used as the charging document. In that case, the warrant must be accompanied by an affidavit (usually by the investigating officer or the victim) that states the grounds for charging the defendant. This affidavit must be sworn to before a magistrate or judge and should have the same date as the warrant (or earlier). Some states will not extradite if the date of the affidavit (for example, January 25, 2009) is later than the date of the arrest warrant (for example, January 20, 2009). Therefore, when a warrant is issued without an accompanying affidavit (oral sworn testimony is sufficient to support an arrest warrant in North Carolina), a new arrest warrant must be issued when the affidavit is prepared so that the dates of the arrest warrant and the affidavit will be the same. Also, if a warrant and affidavit are submitted, they must be accompanied by a certification of the magistrate or judge who issued the warrant or took the affidavit. A clerk of court may certify copies of documents when he or she is the keeper of the original. Each copy must be certified. When a judge or magistrate certifies a document, the clerk of court must certify that person's official character. Then a district court or superior court judge must certify the official character of the clerk. And, in turn, the clerk must certify the official character of the judge who certified the clerk.

Search Warrants

Generally

A search warrant directs a law enforcement officer to search premises, vehicles, persons, or other places in order to seize specified items or persons. G.S. 15A-241. Any item is subject to seizure under a search warrant if there is probable cause to believe it is stolen or embezzled, is contraband or otherwise unlawfully possessed, has been used or is possessed for the purpose of being used to commit or conceal the commission of a crime, or is evidence of an offense or the identity of a person participating in an offense. G.S. 15A-242. Typically, officers will need a search warrant to seize items. Sometimes, however, they will need a search warrant to seize a person—for example, when the officers have a warrant for arrest of a person but that person is inside a friend's house and the friend will not allow the officers to enter.

This section focuses on a magistrate's role in issuing search warrants. For an extensive discussion of search warrants, including among other issues, the advantages of using them and the consequences of unlawful searches, see ARREST, SEARCH, AND INVESTIGATION.

Forms

Two basic documents are used for search warrants: the application for the warrant and the warrant itself. Form AOC-CR-119 (included in Appendix A) contains a generic application (on one side) and a generic warrant (on the other side). A special form, AOC-CR-155 (included in Appendix A), is used for search warrants to seize blood or urine in impaired driving cases.

Authority to Issue

Only judicial officials may issue search warrants. G.S. 15A-243. Appellate justices and judges and superior court judges may issue search warrants to search throughout North Carolina. G.S. 15A-243(a). District court judges are limited to searches within their respective judicial districts. G.S. 15A-243(b)(1). Clerks and magistrates are limited to searches within their counties. G.S. 15A-243(b)(2)-(3). One magistrate can issue a search warrant even if another magistrate has refused to do so under the same factual circumstances. However, the second magistrate should view the first magistrate's refusal as a cautionary signal.

Modification

Once a search warrant has been issued and changes need to be made to it, it is a better practice to issue a new warrant and have the first warrant returned unexecuted.

The Application

Generally

An application for a search warrant must be in writing, on oath or affirmation. G.S. 15A-244. It is best to use the standard AOC forms noted above. All applications must contain: (1) the name and title of the applicant; (2) a statement that there is probable cause to believe that the items subject to seizure may be found in or upon a designated or described place, vehicle, or person; (3) allegations of fact supporting the statement, and the statement must be supported by one or more affidavits setting forth the facts and circumstances establishing probable cause to believe that the items are in the places or in the possession of the individuals to be searched; and (4) a request that the court issue a search warrant directing a search for and seizure of the items in question. G.S. 15A-244.

It does not matter who fills out the application for the search warrant, as long as it accurately represents what the applying officer knows. Thus an officer may fill out most of the application before bringing it to you, provided that you swear the officer, see G.S. 11-11 regarding oaths, and carefully examine the officer about the information contained in the application.

AOC Form

This section walks you through the contents of the application for a search warrant. You might find it helpful to have a copy of form AOC-CR-119 in front of you as you review this material.

Name of applicant. The first item on the application form is the name and address of the person applying for the warrant, or if an officer, the officer's name, rank, and agency. Most commonly, an officer will apply for the search warrant.

Description of property to be seized/person to be arrested. The next part of the application form provides space for a listing of the property to be seized or the person to be arrested. The officer who executes a search warrant need not be the officer who applies for the warrant. Therefore, the description of the property to be seized must be sufficiently detailed so that an officer executing the search warrant does not seize the wrong property. The subsections below provide more detail on how the property or person to be seized should be described.

PROPERTY. The more common the property, the more detailed the description must be to avoid seizure of the wrong thing. Thus "stolen gun" and "refrigerator" are not sufficient. When dealing with common items, including the serial number, brand, model, and visual description of an item to be seized would be helpful identifying information. A detailed description is less important for obvious contraband, such as a machine gun or nontaxpaid liquor. Moreover, an officer may seize obvious contraband not described in the affidavit, if seen in plain view or seized incident to arrest. Not much detail is needed if the property is drugs, which ordinarily may not be possessed lawfully. Although it is best to state the name of the drug, the generic name is adequate. Thus “marijuana” is sufficient. It is not necessary to state the amount of illegal drugs being sought.

PERSON. As noted above, there are situations when an officer will be required to obtain a search warrant to enter premises to make an arrest with an arrest warrant or an OFA. In such a case, the officer must describe the person to be seized by giving that person’s name and description. If the person’s name is known, only the name is required; a physical description can be helpful or can be a substitute for the name if the name is unknown (e.g., “white male, 6’5”, long blond hair and mustache”).

Crime that was committed. The next item on the application is the crime at issue. It is useful to give a short phrase describing the crime, such as “possession of marijuana,” “armed robbery,” or “felonious breaking or entering.” It is also better practice to refer to the date and location of the crime and the crime’s statutory citation. Avoid abbreviations such as “A/R” or “FB/E.”

The description of the crime need not be as detailed as in criminal process, because a person is not being charged with a crime by this document. After all, it is possible that a person whose home is being searched may have nothing to do with the crime under investigation.

What is to be searched. The next section on the application form requires that the applicant specify and describe where the person or item sought is located. The options on the form include “premises,” “person(s),” “vehicle(s),” and “other places or items.” The application may specify any combination of these locations, if justified by the facts. As noted above, the officer who executes a search warrant need not be the officer who applies for the warrant. Therefore, the descriptions of the premises, persons, vehicles, or other places or items to be searched must be sufficiently detailed so that an officer executing the search warrant does not search the wrong person or property.

PREMISES. If the premises is a house, the street number is sufficient, however, it is best to include a physical description in case the street number is wrong. If the street number is wrong but the officer searches the correct house based on the physical description, the search warrant still would be valid. If the house and street numbers are incorrect and the application contains no description, the warrant will be invalid. If the premises is an apartment, give the apartment number or description of its location in the apartment complex. Remember that an officer unfamiliar with the investigation must be able to find the premises based on the description in the application.

A search warrant to search premises does not give authority to search persons on the premises at the time of the search, except as provided in G.S. 15A-256. Thus, if particular suspects are involved and evidence may be hidden on them, the search warrant should authorize a search of them under the “person(s)” block. If a search of such persons is not authorized, then officers only can detain them (and frisk them for weapons, if appropriate) while the officers search the premises. If the search of the premises fails to uncover items being searched for, then the officers can conduct a full search of such persons.

If a search warrant only authorizes a search of premises, courts have ruled in certain circumstances that officers may search a vehicle on the premises (if the vehicles might contain evidence described in the application) when the officer knows the vehicle belongs to the suspect whose premises is being searched. However, to avoid any question of lawfulness, and also to authorize search of the vehicle if it is found away from the premises, a search warrant should authorize search of vehicles under “vehicle(s)” block, if there is probable cause that the items sought might be in the vehicle.

Although usually not legally required, it is best to describe outbuildings on the premises that the officer wants to search or simply state “outbuildings on the premises.”

If there are more than one premises to be searched, separate warrants should be issued for each to help officers comply with the forty-eight-hour rule, discussed below, and to avoid infecting the search of one premises with a problem in the affidavit regarding the search of the other premises.

PERSONS. When listing persons, the application should include person’s name, age, height, weight, race, distinguishing marks, and so forth.

VEHICLES. When listing vehicles, the application should include model, make, year, color, license tag, and anything else that distinguishes it from other similar vehicles, such as its vehicle identification number, if known.

OTHER PLACES OR ITEMS TO BE SEARCHED. This category may be used when the place or item to be searched is not in premises or vehicles or on a person. For example, an officer may need a search warrant to search luggage that the officer has seized in a situation when a warrantless search cannot be made.

Statement of facts establishing probable cause. The next part of the application provides space to list the facts that establish probable cause for the issuance of the search warrant. This portion of the form is where the applicant provides the required supporting affidavit.

WHEN ADDITIONAL SPACE IS NEEDED. If all of the facts establishing probable cause do not fit on the form, additional sheets may be attached. At the very bottom of the application form, there is a note that says: “If more space is needed for any section, continue the statement on an attached sheet of paper with a notation saying ‘see attachment.’ Date the continuation and include on it the signatures of applicant and issuing official.” It is important to follow this procedure so that there is no question later as to whether the attachments were part of the original application. It is also a good idea to include a name on the attachment, such as “In the Matter of Murder of Steve Jones,” and to staple the additional sheets to the form.

ADDITIONAL AFFIDAVITS. In some cases, affidavits by people other than the officer applying for the warrant may be submitted to support the warrant. For example, the officer may provide affidavits by other officers or by an informant. When this happens, check the box on the form that says “In addition to the affidavit included above, this application is supported by additional affidavits, attached, made by _____” and should fill in the person’s name and address or if a law enforcement officer, name, rank, and agency. The additional affidavits should be dated and clearly marked as attachments to the application.

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY ESTABLISHING PROBABLE CAUSE. In some cases, in addition to the affidavit, a person will provide sworn testimony setting out the facts establishing probable cause. When this happens, check the box on the form that says “In addition to the affidavit included above, this application is supported by sworn testimony, given by _____” and fill in the person’s name and address. When testimony is given in this way, it either should be reduced to writing or tape-recorded and filed with the clerk. Check the appropriate box on the form to indicate whether the testimony has been reduced to writing or tape-recorded.

If the officer believes that it is important to exclude some supporting information from the suspect’s copy of the application (e.g., to keep information from a suspect that might reveal an informant’s identity), the officer may wish to have the informant’s testimony tape-recorded and filed with the clerk.

GENERAL RULES FOR THE AFFIDAVIT. The most common problem with search warrants is that the application fails to contain enough of what the officer knows. When preparing the statement of facts establishing probable cause, usually it is best to write a statement telling a story with a clear plot in chronological order. The officer should tell what led to the conclusion that the evidence sought is related to a crime and why the officer believes it is where he or she wants to search.

There are no set rules about what needs to be in the statement. A good statement need not have an informant's report. On the other hand, a good statement could consist solely of an informant's report, although it is better if the officer corroborates some of the informant's information. What is important is whether all the facts stated together establish a fair probability that the evidence is where the officer wants to search. Reliable hearsay is permitted, such as information obtained from another officer or an informant.

If a confidential informant is used, it is helpful if the confidential informant's report shows how the informant got his or her information (e.g., the informant was there or someone told the informant) and why the informant should be believed (has given good information before, for example; the report should provide details regarding the information previously provided such as when the information was provided, how often, and whether it resulted in arrests or convictions). An officer's corroboration (through personal knowledge or reliable hearsay) of a confidential informant's report adds weight to the informant's report. It is not necessary to establish that an identified, reliable citizen informant has previously given good information to the police.

Personal observations should be stated in a way that makes it clear that the officer was the person making the observation. Including truthful phrases such as "I saw . . ." or "Affiant saw . . ." are helpful ways to do this.

Signatures. The officer applying for a search warrant must sign the application under oath or affirmation. G.S. 15A-245(a). There is a place on the application form for the officer's signature and for you to sign and date the form indicating that the officer's statement was sworn.

Issuance of a Search Warrant

Examination of the Applicant

When an officer applies for a search warrant, you may examine the officer and/or other witnesses under oath or affirmation to determine that probable cause exists to issue the warrant. G.S. 15A-245. Information supporting the issuance of a search warrant may be offered by oral testimony under oath or affirmation presented by a sworn law enforcement officer to the issuing judicial official by means of an audio and video transmission in which both parties can see and hear each other. Before using this method, the procedures and type of equipment for audio and video transmission must be submitted to the AOC by the senior resident superior court judge and the chief district court judge for a judicial district and approved by the AOC. G.S. 15A-245(a)(3). The statute does not say how such testimony is to be memorialized or served.

Probable Cause Determination

Independent determination. You must make an independent judgment as to the existence of probable cause. You must be told the facts that support the officer's conclusion that probable cause exists; for example, simply stating the officer's or informant's conclusion that drugs are in the apartment is not sufficient. You must determine that there is probable cause—a fair probability—that the items or persons sought are in the places to be searched.

Materials considered. As described above, sometimes the applicant will offer additional affidavits or additional sworn testimony. These additional materials may be considered if they have been properly attached to the affidavit, reduced to writing, or tape-recorded. At a hearing to suppress evidence seized pursuant to a search warrant, only affidavits attached to the application or sworn testimony reduced to writing or tape-recorded and filed with the clerk may be considered. Other information told or given to the magistrate is inadmissible at the hearing.

Completing the Form

The search warrant side of form AOC-CR-119 is largely self-explanatory.

In the matter of. There are no hard and fast rules for completing the “In the Matter of” portion of the form, and practices vary. One option is to list the crime, for example, “Murder of Mary Smith.”

Signature and date. It is a good practice to put original signatures on all copies of the warrant. Additionally, you should list the time and date of issuance of the warrant. This is important because of the forty-eight-hour rule, described below.

Copies. Three copies must be completed: the original, one copy to be filed in the clerk’s office, and one copy to be served on the suspect by the executing officer.

Execution of a Warrant

Forty-Eight-Hour Rule

An officer must execute a search warrant within forty-eight hours of its issuance. G.S. 15A-248. Any warrant not executed within forty-eight hours is void, must be marked “not executed,” and returned without unnecessary delay to the clerk. G.S. 15A-248.

Jurisdiction

Officers may execute a search warrant only within their territorial jurisdiction and if their investigative authority encompasses the crime or crimes involved. G.S. 15A-247. Thus city officers usually cannot go more than one mile outside city limits.

Stating Identity and Purpose

When executing a search warrant and before entering premises, officers must identify themselves and their purpose. G.S. 15A-249.

Breaking and Entering

An officer may break and enter any premises or vehicle to execute a search warrant if: (1) after identifying himself or herself and purpose, the officer reasonably believes that the officer’s admittance is being denied or unreasonably delayed or that the premises or vehicle is unoccupied; or (2) the officer has probable cause to believe that giving notice would endanger the officer’s life or the safety of any person. G.S. 15A-251.

Notice

The officer must read the search warrant (but not the application) and give a copy of the application and affidavit to the person to be searched or in apparent control of the premises or vehicle to be searched. G.S. 15A-252. If no one in apparent and responsible control is there, the officer must leave a copy of the warrant attached to the premises or vehicle. G.S. 15A-252.

Scope of Search

The search may include any area within the premises large enough to contain the evidence being sought. G.S. 15A-253. During the search, evidence related to any crime seen in plain view also may be seized. G.S. 15A-253. No particular time limit is set on the length of the search.

Paperwork

If items are seized, the officer must leave an inventory receipt with a person or attached to the premises if no one is home. G.S. 15A-254.

An officer who has executed a search warrant must, without unnecessary delay, return the warrant and inventory of items seized to the clerk. G.S. 15A-257. The inventory, if any, and return must be signed and sworn to by the officer who executes the warrant. G.S. 15A-257.

Name Of Law Enforcement Officer (Applicant) _____ Rank _____
 _____ N.C. Patrol _____ Police/Sheriff _____

Name Of Individual To Be Searched _____ Race _____
 _____ Male _____ Female _____

Location Of Individual To Be Searched _____
 _____ Fluid to be seized
 Blood  Urine

Crime(s) Charged

 DWI, G.S. 20-138.1.
 Habitual DWI, G.S. 20-138.5.
 Felony Death By Vehicle, G.S. 20-141.4.
 Other (specify) _____

I, the law enforcement officer named above, being duly sworn, request that the Court issue a warrant to search the person of the individual named above, who may be found at the location described above, and to seize sample(s) of the above specified bodily fluid(s) of that individual.

I swear to the following facts to establish probable cause for the issuance of a search warrant.

I am a sworn law enforcement officer of the above named agency. As such I am empowered to search for and seize evidence described in N. C. General Statutes Chapter 14, Criminal Law, Chapter 20, Motor Vehicle Law, and Chapter 90, Controlled Substances. I have received training in the detection and apprehension of impaired drivers and the investigation of motor vehicle collisions. I have been a sworn law enforcement officer for over _____ years and during that time I have investigated over _____ incidents of offenses related to impaired driving.

1. I rely on the facts stated in the following report(s), of which a copy or copies is/are attached and incorporated by reference: (Attach a copy of the report(s) checked below if available and if either contains relevant facts.)
 Affidavit and Revocation Report (AOC-CVR-1A/DHHS 3907).
 Driving While Impaired Report Form/Alcohol Influence Report Form.

2. The following facts establish on or about the _____ day of _____, at _____ AM  PM, the individual named above was operating a (  commercial motor ) vehicle to wit: (type, make and year) _____ on _____ a _____ County highway/street  public vehicular area in _____ in violation of at or near the city/town of _____ the statute(s) specified above:
 Check all that apply.
 a. At the time and place stated above:
 I observed the above named individual operating the above-described vehicle.
 I observed the above-described vehicle being operated in the following manner: _____

b. On or about the date stated above, at _____ AM  PM, I responded to a report of a vehicle crash and, after arriving at the scene, I ascertained that the above named individual was operating the described vehicle at the time and place stated from the following facts:

c. The above named individual admitted to me operating the described vehicle at the time and place indicated.

d. On or about the date stated above, at _____ AM  PM
 I detected a  strong  moderate  faint odor of alcohol coming from the breath of the above named person:
 at the scene.
 at the following hospital _____
 at other location _____

I observed the following behaviors of the individual named above, which evidence impairment of the person's mental and/or physical faculties as follows:

e. The above named individual stated to me that before or while operating the described vehicle he/she:
 had consumed alcohol.
 was consuming alcohol.
 had consumed controlled substance, to wit: _____ had consumed other impairing substance, to wit: _____.

f. The above named individual refused to submit to a chemical analysis.
 g. I observed the following facts:

h. Other reliable persons stated to me the following facts: (Note: Name officer or witness(es) and list facts related to impairment, vehicle operation, etc.)

3. The above named individual has previously been convicted of one or more offenses involving impaired driving.

Based on all the foregoing, and on my training in detecting impaired driving violations and my experience as a law enforcement officer, I have formed an opinion satisfactory to myself that the above named person had consumed a sufficient quantity of some impairing substance(s) to appreciably impair that person's physical or mental faculties or both, and that the person drove the above described vehicle on the above described highway or public vehicular area while under the influence of impairing substance(s). It is my further opinion that evidence of impairing substance(s) is at this time present in the body or bodily fluids of the above named person, and that unless a warrant is issued and executed without delay, the evidence may dissipate and be lost.

CONDITIONS
The conditions of this Bond are that the above named defendant shall appear in the above entitled action(s) whenever required and will at all times remain amenable to the orders and processes of the Court. It is agreed and understood that this Bond is effective and binding upon the defendant and each surety throughout all stages of the proceedings in the trial divisions of the General Court of Justice until the entry of judgment in the district court from which no appeal is taken or until the entry of judgment in the superior court. If the defendant appears as ordered and otherwise performs the foregoing conditions of the bond, then the bond is to be void, but if the defendant fails to obey any of these conditions, the Court will forfeit the bond pursuant to Part 2 of Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes. Each accommodation bondsman, by signing on the reverse or on Page Two, states: "I have reached the age of 18 years and am a bona fide resident of North Carolina. Aside from love and affection and release of the above named defendant, I have received no consideration for acting as surety. I own sufficient property over and above all liabilities, homestead and other exemptions allowed me by law to enable me to pay this Bond should it be ordered forfeited. I understand that if I sign this Bond without sufficient property, I am guilty of a crime."

NOTES ON CASH BONDS:

(1) To Official Taking The Bond. Use this form for all cash bonds. Only magistrate or clerk may take cash bond. Jailer may not take cash bond. Complete this form as follows:

When Cash Deposited By Defendant Or By Another Person Who Intends For The Cash To Be Used To Satisfy The Defendant's Obligations. Enter defendant's name, address and SS# at the top of Side One. Check "Cash Appearance Bond." Have defendant sign. Do no more. No other person's name should appear on this form. Enter your name, sign and enter receipt number under "Complete If Cash Deposited." Make receipt out to DEFENDANT, not to any other person.

When Cash Deposited By Another Person Who Does NOT Intend For The Cash To Be Used To Satisfy The Defendant's Obligations. Enter defendant's name, address and SS# at the top of Side One. Check "Surety Appearance Bond." Also check "Cash Deposited By Surety." Have defendant sign. Enter name, address and SS# of person depositing cash under "Accommodation Bondsman." Have that person sign under "Signature of Surety." Complete notarization for that person. Enter your name, sign and enter receipt number under "Complete If Cash Deposited." Make receipt out to person depositing the cash.

(2) To Bookkeeper. When case disposed, disburse cash as follows: (1) If "Cash Appearance Bond" checked on Side One, disburse to Defendant or apply to defendant's obligations if court so orders. (2) If "Surety Appearance Bond" and "Cash Deposited by Surety" are checked on Side One, disburse only to person named under "Accommodation Bondsman."

(3) Bond With Insurance Company As Surety Same As Cash Except In Child Support. G.S. 15A-531(4) provides that an appearance bond executed by a bail agent acting on behalf of an insurance company is the same as a cash bond, except in child support contempt proceedings where only cash may satisfy a cash bond requirement.

I, the undersigned surety for the named defendant, request that the Court release me from the defendant's Appearance Bond which I signed as indicated above. A certified copy of the bail bond is attached.

(You must complete both I. and II. below.)

I. Form Of Surrender (check only one)

- (a) I arrested the defendant and now surrender the defendant to the jail in this county where the defendant  is to appear on these charges.     was bonded on these charges.
- (b) I surrender the defendant who is currently in the jail in this county where the defendant  is to appear on these charges.     was bonded on these charges.     Other: _____

II. Status Of Order Of Forfeiture (check only one)

- (a) The surrender of the defendant has occurred after an Order of Forfeiture was entered for the appearance bond for the offense(s) listed above, and after an order for arrest was issued.
- (b) The surrender of the defendant has occurred before an Order of Forfeiture was entered for the appearance bond for the offense(s) listed above.

I understand that this Surrender does not relieve me from my responsibility if an Order of Forfeiture has been entered before this Surrender. I also understand that I must apply to the Court for relief in that matter.

NOTES TO CUSTODIAN:

- (1) Only an actual surety may surrender the defendant. If the person offering the defendant for surrender presents an appearance bond form (AOC-CR-201) with the box checked for a "Cash Appearance Bond," then the person is not the surety for the defendant's appearance. Do not accept the surrender of the defendant. If the boxes for "Surety Appearance Bond" and "Cash Deposited By Surety" are checked, and the person attempting to surrender the defendant is the same person who signed the bond as surety, then that person is the surety and you may accept the surrender.
- (2) G.S. 15A-540(b) requires that a defendant surrendered by a surety must have an immediate hearing on whether the defendant is again entitled to release and, if so, upon what conditions. Take the defendant, with this form, to a judicial official for this hearing. When the above Receipt is completed, provide surety with a copy of this form.

- (1) If the defendant was surrendered before a breach of the conditions of release, the original conditions of release should be reentered. The defendant remains in custody until conditions of original release order are again satisfied. The court date remains the same.
- (2) If the defendant was surrendered after a breach of the conditions of release, G.S. 15A-540(c) requires that a judicial official determine whether the defendant is again entitled to pretrial release and, if so, upon what conditions. If the breach was a failure to appear for any charge(s) covered by the appearance bond provided at the time of surrender, G.S. 15A-534(d1) provides that the official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of release recommended in an order for arrest issued for that failure to appear. If no conditions were recommended, the judicial official shall require a secured bond at least double the amount of the most recent secured or unsecured bond, or at least $500 if there was no monetary bond previously required. On the new release order, check the appropriate box(es) indicating the failure to appear.
- (3) If an order for arrest was issued for the defendant's failure to appear, the court date in the new release order should be the same as the court date, if any, in the order for arrest. The order for arrest should be served on the defendant, if possible, without detaining the defendant beyond the time when he or she should be released under the new release order. If the order for arrest cannot be served in that time, use the court's records to learn the court date in the order for arrest, and arrange to have order for arrest recalled.
- (4) If the defendant was surrendered in a county other than the county where the defendant is to appear, return original order for arrest, if any, with return of service completed, along with this form and a copy of the new release order, to the county where the defendant is to appear. When conditions of pretrial release are satisfied, return original of the new release order with any custodian's entries completed, together with the original appearance bond, if any, to the county where the defendant is to appear.

DETENTION OF IMPAIRED DRIVER

G.S. 15A-534.2

FINDINGS

The undersigned judicial official conducting an initial appearance for the defendant named above finds the following by clear and convincing evidence:

- 1. The defendant has been charged with an offense involving impaired driving as defined in G.S. 20-4.01(24a).
2. At the time of the defendant's initial appearance, the impairment of the defendant's physical or mental faculties presents a danger, if the defendant is released, of physical injury to the defendant or others or damage to property in that (specify reasons):

DETENTION ORDER

Based upon the foregoing findings, the undersigned judicial official ORDERS that the defendant be detained in the custody of the Sheriff until an appropriate judicial official determines that

- 1. the defendant's physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired to the extent that the defendant presents a danger of physical injury to the defendant or others or of damage to property if the defendant is released or
2. a sober, responsible adult is willing and able to assume responsibility for the defendant until the defendant's physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired.

The period of detention under this Order shall not exceed twenty-four (24) hours.

2013 Legislation Affecting Criminal Law and Procedure

Robert L. Farb, © UNC School of Government

Revised November 2013

Each ratified act discussed here is identified by its chapter number in the session laws and the number of the original bill. When an act creates new sections in the North Carolina General Statutes (hereinafter G.S.), the section number is given; however, the codifier of statutes may change that number later. Copies of bills may be viewed on the General Assembly's website at <http://www.ncleg.net/>.

1. S.L. 2013-3 (H 66): Captivity licenses and permits. Effective March 6, 2013, the act: (1) amends G.S. 113-274(c)(1b) to authorize the Wildlife Resources Commission to issue a temporary permit to possess wild animals and birds for scientific, exhibition, or other purposes; (2) exempts from Article 1 (Civil Remedy for Protection of Animals) of G.S. Chapter 19A the taking and holding in captivity of a wild animal by a licensed sportsman for use or display in an annual, seasonal, or cultural event, as long as the animal is captured from the wild and returned to the wild at or near the area where it was captured; and (3) amends G.S. 19A-2 to provide that the venue for any action shall be only in the superior court in the county where a violation is alleged to have occurred.
2. S.L. 2013-6 (H 19): Disorderly conduct at a funeral. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, the act amends G.S. 14-288.4(a)(8), the disorderly conduct offense at a funeral or memorial service. The impermissible conduct will apply within two hours (now, one hour) preceding, during, or after the funeral or memorial service, and will be prohibited within 500 feet (now, 300 feet) of the ceremonial site, location of the funeral or memorial service, or the family's processional route. A violation of this subdivision is increased from a Class 2 misdemeanor to a Class 1 misdemeanor for a first offense, from a Class 1 misdemeanor to a Class I felony for a second offense, and from a Class I felony to a Class H felony for a third or subsequent offense.
3. S.L. 2013-18 (S 45): Capacity to proceed amendments. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, the act makes the following changes concerning a defendant's capacity to proceed: (1) amends G.S. 15A-1002(b)(1), which will be re-codified as G.S. 15A-1002(b)(1a) (and the introductory paragraph in current G.S. 15A-1002(b) will be re-codified as G.S. 15A-1002(b)(1)), to make clear that the court at a hearing after a local examination may call the appointed examining expert with or without the request of the State or the defendant; (2) amends G.S. 15A-1002(b)(2) to limit an examination at a State facility to a defendant charged with a felony (previously also allowed for a misdemeanor after a local examination); (3) adds new G.S. 15A-1002(b)(4) to provide that a judge who orders a state or local examination must release specified confidential information to the examiner after providing the defendant with reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard and then determining that the information is relevant and necessary for the hearing and unavailable from any other source; records must be withheld from public inspection; (4) amends G.S. 15A-1002(b1) to require findings of fact in a court order on capacity to proceed and to provide that the State and the defendant may stipulate that the defendant is capable of proceeding—but they cannot stipulate that the defendant lacks the capacity to proceed; (5) adds new G.S. 15A-1002(b2) to specify when examiner reports must be completed and provided to the court, with provisions for extensions of time for good cause; (6) amends G.S. 15A-1004(c) (defendant found incapable of proceeding and placed in facility after involuntary civil commitment) to require the court to order the defendant to be examined to determine whether he or she has the capacity to proceed before released from custody; (7) amends G.S. 15A-1006 (return of defendant for trial when determined by institution or individual having custody of defendant that he or she has gained capacity to proceed) to include written notice of that fact to clerk, district attorney, defendant's attorney, and sheriff; (8) amends G.S. 15A-1007 (supplemental hearings) to set time limit for district attorney to calendar hearing and, if court determines that the defendant has gained the capacity to proceed, specifies standards for calendaring case for trial and continuances; (9) substantially revises G.S. 15A-1008 (dismissal of charges) and repeals G.S. 15A-1009 (dismissal with leave) to specify the circumstances when dismissed charges can or cannot be refiled; (10) amends G.S. 122C-54(b) (mental examination of criminal defendant as ordered under G.S. 15A-1002) to require that the report must contain a treatment recommendation, if any, and an opinion whether there is a likelihood that the defendant will gain the capacity to proceed; and (11) adds new G.S. 122C-278 to provide that whenever a respondent had been committed to either inpatient or outpatient treatment after being found to be incapable of proceeding and referred by a court for civil commitment proceedings, he or she shall not be discharged from a hospital or institution or an outpatient commitment case terminated until the respondent had been examined for capacity to proceed and a report filed with the clerk of court under G.S. 15A-1002.

Effective April 3, 2013, requires Commission for Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities, and Substance Abuse Services by December 1, 2013, to adopt (1) rules to require forensic evaluators appointed under G.S. 15A-1002(b) to meet specified requirements (training to be credentialed as certified forensic evaluator and attend continuing education seminars); and (2) guidelines for treatment of those who are involuntarily committed after a determination of incapacity to proceed.

4. S.L. 2013-23 (S 20): Limited immunity for certain drug-related and alcohol-related offenses.

Effective April 9, 2013, the act provides limited immunity as follows:

Drug-related overdose treatment. Adds new G.S. 90-96.2 to provide that a person acting in good faith who seeks medical assistance for an individual experiencing a "drug-related overdose" (defined in the act) shall not be prosecuted for: (1) misdemeanor possession of a controlled substance under G.S. 90-95(a)(3), (2) a felony violation of G.S. 90-95(a)(3) for possessing less than one gram of cocaine or heroin, or (3) misdemeanor possession of drug paraphernalia under G.S. 90-113.22, if the evidence for prosecution of these offenses was obtained as a result of the person seeking medical assistance for the drug-related overdose. Also provides that a person who experiences a drug-related overdose and is in need of medical assistance shall not be prosecuted for the same offenses set out above if the evidence for prosecution of these offenses was obtained as a result of the drug-related overdose and the need for medical assistance. Provides that the immunity set out above does not bar the admissibility of any evidence obtained in connection with the investigation and prosecution of other crimes committed by the person who otherwise qualifies for the immunity.

Treating overdose with opioid antagonist. Adds new G.S. 90-106.2 to provide that a "practitioner" (defined in G.S. 90-87(22) to include doctor, dentist, etc.) acting in good faith and exercising reasonable care may directly or by standing order prescribe an "opioid antagonist" (defined as naloxone hydrochloride) to (1) a person at risk of experiencing an opiate-related overdose, or (2) a family member, friend, or other person in a position to assist such a person. Provides that as an indicator of the practitioner's good faith, the practitioner before prescribing the opioid may require a written communication with specified information from the recipient of the prescription. Sets out the standard for administering the opioid by the person who receives it. Provides immunity from civil and criminal liability for actions authorized by this new law for (1) a practitioner who prescribes the opioid, and (2) the person who administers the opioid.

Person under 21 possessing or consuming alcoholic beverages. Adds new G.S. 18B-302.2 to provide that a person under the age of 21 shall not be prosecuted for a violation of G.S. 18B-302 for the possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages if law enforcement, including campus police, became aware of a person's possession or consumption of alcohol solely because he or she was seeking medical assistance for another individual, and the person (1) acted in good faith, on a reasonable belief that he or she was the first to call for assistance, (2) used his or her own name when contacting authorities, and (3) remained with the individual needing medical assistance until help arrived.

5. S.L. 2013-24 (S 33): Occupational licensing board's denial of applicant with criminal record. Effective for applications for licenses issued by occupational licensing boards submitted on or after July 1, 2013, the act adds new G.S. 93B-8.1 to provide, unless the law governing a board is otherwise, it shall not automatically deny a license based on an applicant's criminal history. If the board may deny a license based on the applicant's conviction of a crime or commission of a crime involving fraud or moral turpitude, and the applicant's verified record shows one or more convictions, the board may deny the license if it finds the denial is warranted after considering the following factors: (1) level and seriousness of the crime; (2) date of the crime; (3) applicant's age at the time of the crime; (4) circumstances of the crime, if known; (5) nexus between the criminal conduct and applicant's prospective duties; (6) applicant's prison, jail, probation, rehabilitation, and employment records since the crime was committed; (7) applicant's later commission of a crime; and (8) affidavits or other written documents, including character references. Provides that board may deny a license if the applicant refuses to consent to a criminal history record check or the use of fingerprints or other identifying information required by North Carolina or national repositories of criminal histories. The act does not apply to the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission and the North Carolina Sheriffs' Education and Training Standards Commission.
6. S.L. 2013-28 (S 123): Sex offender residency restrictions. Effective April 16, 2013, the act clarifies the applicability of G.S. 14-208.16, which prohibits a registered sex offender from knowingly residing within 1,000 feet of a school or child care center. The act amends G.S. 14-208.16(a) to provide that the residency prohibition applies to any registrant who did not establish his or her residence before August 16, 2006, by purchasing or leasing it before that date or by residing with an immediately family member who did so. The introductory language to the bill states that the new language was added to correct law enforcement officials' mistaken belief that the residency restriction did not apply to a registrant if he or she resided with an immediate family member who had established residence before August 16, 2006—even if the registrant himself or herself did not move in with the family member until after that date. The act also amends S.L. 2006-247, replacing references in that legislation to the date that the residency restriction would become law with "August 16, 2006," the specific date on which that portion of the legislation in fact became law.
7. S.L. 2013-33 (S 122): Add human trafficking conviction to list that requires sex offender registration. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, the act amends G.S. 14-208.6(5) (definition of "sexually violent offense") to include a conviction of human trafficking under G.S. 14-43.11 if the offense was committed against (1) a minor less than 18 years old, or (2) any person with the intent that the person be held in sexual servitude. The convicted defendant would be required to register as a sex offender.

to a Class D felony for an act of prostitution under subsection (a1); (3) from a Class E to a Class D felony for a sexual act under subsection (a2); (4) from a Class C to a Class B2 felony for serious bodily injury or impairment of mental or emotion function under subsection (a3); and (5) from a Class H to a Class G felony for a willful act or grossly negligent omission showing reckless disregard for human life under subsection (a5). Effective for judgments entered on or after December 1, 2013, the act amends G.S. 15A-1382.1 to provide that when a defendant is found guilty of (1) an offense involving child abuse, or (2) an offense involving assault or any of the acts defined in G.S. 50B-1(a) (acts of domestic violence) and the offense was committed against a minor, the judge must indicate on the judgment form that the case involved child abuse. The clerk of court must ensure that the official record of the defendant's conviction includes the court's determination, so that any inquiry will reveal that the offense involved child abuse.

9. S.L. 2013-41 (H 388): Docketing judgments for attorneys' fees for partially indigent defendants. G.S. 7A-455 provides that if an indigent person is financially able to pay a portion of the value of legal services rendered by assigned counsel, the public defender, or the appellate defender, and other necessary expenses, the court must order the partially indigent person to pay that portion to the clerk of superior court for transmission to the State treasury. The act, effective May 2, 2013, (1) amends G.S. 7A-455(c), which provides that a judgment must be docketed on the later of (i) the date the conviction becomes final if the indigent person is not ordered as a probation condition to pay for the costs of counsel, or (ii) the date on which the indigent's person probation is terminated, revoked, "or expires" (act adds quoted language); and (2) amends G.S. 7A-455(d) to require specified attorneys and guardian ad litem to make "reasonable efforts" (act adds quoted language) to obtain the social security number of the person against whom a judgment is entered, and adds to the required certification in the application for services rendered by them that the social security number cannot be obtained with reasonable efforts.
10. S.L. 2013-42: Name change requirements. Amends G.S. 101-2(d) to allow an application for changing the name of a minor child to be filed without the consent of both living parents for three reasons, including that a parent may file an application on behalf of the minor without the consent of the other parent who has been convicted of a: (a) felony or misdemeanor child abuse; (b) indecent liberties with a minor under G.S. 14-202.1; (c) rape or any other sexual offense under Article 7A of G.S. Chapter 14; (d) incest under G.S. 14-78; or (e) assault, communicating a threat, or any other crime of violence. Amends G.S. 101-5(a)(2) to require that a state or national criminal history record check for an application of a person who wants to change his or her name be conducted within 90 days of the date of the application by the SBI, FBI, or a Channeler approved by the FBI, but this requirement does not apply to a name change application for a minor less than 16 years old. Amends G.S. 101-5(e)(1) to provide that if the name change is not a public record under G.S. 101-2(c) (applicant is a participant in address confidentiality under G.S. Chapter 15C or is a victim of domestic violence, sexual offense, or stalking), the clerk must notify the State Registrar, but the State Registrar must not notify the register of deeds in the applicant's county of birth or the registration office of the state of birth. Effective for applications for name changes filed on or after October 1, 2013.
11. S.L. 2013-47 (S 117): Murder under G.S. 14-17 includes when child who is born alive but dies from injuries inflicted before child's birth. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, the act amends G.S. 14-17 to provide that it shall constitute murder when a child is born alive but dies as a result of injuries inflicted before the child was born alive (the act essentially codifies existing common law). Provides that prosecutions for offenses committed before the effective date of this act are not abated or affected by this act, and statutes and the common law that would be applicable but for this act shall remain applicable to offenses not described in the act, whether the offense is charged due to a child being born alive and who dies or who is born alive with injuries resulting from injuries inflicted before being born alive. Also provides that the act shall not be construed to apply to an unintentional act or omission committed by the child's birth mother during the pregnancy that culminated in the child's birth.

12. S.L. 2013-52 (H 149): Criminalizing failure to report missing child or child victim and other acts.

Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, the act creates various offenses that criminalize the failure to report a missing child or child victim and other acts.

Failing to report disappearance of child to law enforcement. Adds new G.S. 14-318.5 to provide that a parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child who knowingly or wantonly fails to report the disappearance of a child under 16 years old to law enforcement commits a Class I felony. A person who reasonably suspects the disappearance of a child under 16 years old and reasonably suspects the child may be in danger must report those suspicions to law enforcement within a reasonable time; a violation of this duty to report is a Class 1 misdemeanor. The term "disappearance of a child" means that the parent or other person providing supervision of a child does not know the location of the child and has not had contact with the child for a 24-hour period. Provides that if a child is absent from school, a teacher is not required to report the child's absence to law enforcement under this statute if the teacher complies with the reporting provisions under Article 26 of G.S. Chapter 115C.

"Grossly negligent omission" in felony child abuse offenses. Amends G.S. 14-318.4 (felony child abuse offenses) to provide that "grossly negligent omission," a term used in some of the offenses, includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement under G.S. 14-318.5.

Child care facility report of missing child. Amends G.S. 110-102.1(a), which requires child care facility operators and staff to immediately report a missing child to law enforcement, (1) to change the age of the child from under 18 years old to under 16 years old, and (2) to make clear that the duty to report in this statute exists notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 14-318.5.

Failing to notify law enforcement of death of child or secretly burying child. Adds new subsection (a1) to G.S. 14-401.22 to provide that a person who, with the intent to conceal the death of a child under 16 years old, fails to notify a law enforcement authority of the death or secretly buries or otherwise secretly disposes of a dead child's body commits a Class H felony. Also provides that a person who violates subsection (a1), knowing or having reason to know the body or human remains are of a person who did not die of natural causes, commits a Class D felony.

Amendments to offense of false reports to law enforcement agencies or officers. Amends G.S. 14-225 (false reports to law enforcement agencies or officers) to make the Class 2 misdemeanor offense apply to any false, deliberately misleading or unfounded report (underlined word added). Provides that a violation of the statute is a Class H felony if the false, deliberately misleading, or unfounded report relates to a law enforcement investigation involving the disappearance of a child under 16 years old as provided in G.S. 14-318.5 (see summary of this new statute above) or a child victim of a Class A, B1, B2, or C felony offense.

Criminal offenses created for failing to report abuse, neglect, etc. Amends G.S. 7B-301 (duty to report abuse, neglect, dependency, or death due to maltreatment) to provide that a person or institution who knowingly or wantonly fails to report the case of a juvenile as required by the statute, or who knowingly or wantonly prevents another person from making a required report, commits a Class 1 misdemeanor. Also provides that a director of social services who receives a report of sexual abuse of a juvenile in a child care facility and who knowingly fails to notify the State Bureau of Investigation of the report commits a Class 1 misdemeanor.

13. S.L. 2013-53 \(S 91\): Expunctions and applications for employment and admission to educational institutions. Effective May 17, 2013, this act amends G.S. 15A-145.4 (expunction of records for first offenders under 18 years old at time of commission of nonviolent felony) and G.S. 15A-145.5 (expunction of certain misdemeanors and felonies; no age limitation) to provide that a person whose administrative action has been vacated by an occupational licensing board pursuant to an expunction under these statutes may then reapply for licensure and must satisfy the board's then current education and preliminary licensing requirements to obtain licensure.

Effective December 1, 2013, this act adds new G.S. 15A-153 with the following provisions. Subsection (b) protects against prosecutions for perjury or false statements for failing to acknowledge specified expunged information except as provided in subsection (e). Subsection (c) prohibits an employer or educational institution from requiring in an application for employment or admission, interview, or otherwise, that an applicant provide information about an arrest, criminal charge, or criminal conviction that has been expunged. This provision does not apply to any state or local law enforcement agency authorized under G.S. 15A-151 to obtain confidential information for employment purposes. Subsection (d) requires a state or local government that requests disclosure of information from an applicant for employment about an arrest, criminal charge, or criminal conviction to first advise the applicant that state law allows the applicant to not refer to an arrest, charge, or conviction that has been expunged. An application shall not be denied solely because of the applicant's refusal or failure to disclose expunged information. Subsection (e) provides that the provisions of subsection (d) do not apply to an applicant or licensee seeking or holding any certification issued by the Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission or the Sheriffs Education and Training Standards Commission; it specifically requires a person pursuing certification to disclose felony convictions expunged under G.S. 15A-145.4 and all convictions expunged under G.S. 15A-145.5. Subsection (f) provides for civil penalties for employer violations of subsection (c), effective for violations that occur on or after December 1, 2013. Provides that G.S. 15A-153 shall not be construed to create a private cause of action against any employer or its agents or employees, educational institutions or their agents or employees, or state or local government agencies, officials, or employees.

14. S.L. 2013-70 \(H 456\) and S.L. 2013-270 \(S 288\): Domestic violence review teams authorized in three additional counties. The legislature in 2009 enacted S.L. 2009-52, applicable to Mecklenburg County only, that authorized the establishment of a multidisciplinary Domestic Violence Fatality Prevention and Protection Review Team to identify and review domestic violence-related deaths, including homicides and suicides, and facilitate communication among the various agencies and organizations involved in domestic violence cases. S.L. 2013-70, effective June 11, 2013, amends S.L. 2009-52 to authorize the establishment of review teams in Alamance and Pitt counties, and makes other changes. S.L. 2013-270, effective July 18, 2013, amends S.L. 2013-70 to add Wake County to its provisions.

15. S.L. 2013-76 \(H 829\): Authorize certain ABC permittees to sell malt beverages in specified containers for consumption off the permitted premises. This act amends G.S. 18B-1001, effective June 12, 2013, to authorize the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission to allow the retail sale of malt beverages in a cleaned, sanitized, resealable container (known as a growler) that is filled or refilled and sealed for consumption off the premises, by on-premises malt beverage permittees, off-premises malt beverage permittees, and wine shop permittees. The commission must adopt rules concerning the sanitation of growlers by January 1, 2014.

16. S.L. 2013-83 \(H 610\): Expand number of stadiums and ballparks where malt beverages may be sold during professional sporting events by a retail permittee. This act amends G.S. 18B-1009, effective June 12, 2013, to specify that Chapter 18B of the General Statutes does not prohibit the sale for consumption during professional sporting events of malt beverages by a retail permittee under specified circumstances in the seating areas of stadiums, ballparks, and other similar public places with a seating capacity of 3,000 or more (the prior version of this statute required a seating capacity of 60,000 or more and in a municipality with a population greater than 450,000). It requires the ABC Commission to adopt rules for the suspension of alcohol sales in the latter portion of professional sporting events to protect public safety.
17. S.L. 2013-88 \(S 634\): Increase penalties for interfering with gas, water, or electric meters or lines. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, amends G.S. 14-151 (interfering with gas, electric, and water meters or lines) to increase the punishment from a Class 2 misdemeanor to a Class 1 misdemeanor. It makes a second or subsequent violation a Class H felony. A violation that results in “significant property damage” or “public endangerment” (these terms are not defined) is a Class F felony. A violation that results in the death of another is a Class D felony unless the conduct is covered under some other provision providing greater punishment. Makes clear that water meters and connections are covered by the statute. Incorporates in substantial part the provisions of G.S. 14-151.1 into G.S. 14-151 and repeals G.S. 14-151.1.
18. S.L. 2013-89 \(S 210\): Chief district court judge may appoint chief magistrate. This act amends G.S. 7A-146, effective June 12, 2013, to authorize a chief district court judge to appoint a full-time magistrate in a county to serve as chief magistrate for that county for an indefinite term and at the judge’s pleasure.
19. S.L. 2013-90 \(S 252\): Punishment increased for employee of registrant or practitioner who embezzles controlled substances. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, amends G.S. 90-108(b) to increase the punishment from a Class I to a Class G felony for an intentional violation of G.S. 90-108(a)(14), which involves the embezzlement of controlled substances by an employee of a registrant or practitioner (doctor, dentist, pharmacy, etc.).
20. S.L. 2013-95 \(H 25\): Felony to break or enter building with intent to terrorize or injure occupant. This act amends G.S. 14-54, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, to add new subsection (a1) to provide that it is a Class H felony when a person breaks or enters a building with the intent to terrorize or injure an occupant.
21. S.L. 2013-97 \(H 142\): Public access to certain information maintained by campus police agencies of private, nonprofit institutions of higher education. This act, effective June 12, 2013, adds new G.S. 74G-5.1 to provide that books, papers, documents, records of criminal investigations or of criminal intelligence information, or other records maintained by a campus police agency affiliated with a private, nonprofit institution of higher education are not public records under G.S. 132-1. However, it also provides that certain information must be allowed to be inspected, subject to federal legal provisions. This information is similar to that listed under G.S. 132-1.4(c) for public law enforcement agencies, with the addition of the daily log of crimes reported to the agency that is maintained pursuant to specified federal law and regulations.
22. S.L. 2013-101 \(H 361\): Technical and clarifying changes to Justice Reinvestment Act of 2011. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013, corrects three errors in the listing of maximum sentences in the chart of Class B1 through E felonies that appears in G.S. 15A-1340.17(e). Effective June 12, 2013, it makes technical and clarifying changes to the Justice Reinvestment Act of 2011, including the provisions in G.S. 15A-1344(d2) that confinement in response to probation violations must be 90 consecutive days (underlined word added by the act). For a more detailed discussion of this session law, see Jamie Markham, More Justice Reinvestment Clarifications Become Law, North Carolina Criminal Law (UNC School of Government, June 26, 2013), <http://nccriminallaw.sog.unc.edu/?p=4330>.

23. S.L. 2013-105 (H 532): Operating ambulance, other EMS vehicle, firefighting vehicle, or law enforcement vehicle after consuming alcohol. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, amends G.S. 20-138.2B to prohibit operating an ambulance, other emergency medical services vehicle, firefighting vehicle, or law enforcement vehicle on a highway or public vehicular area after consuming alcohol or while alcohol remains in the person's body. Provides that the statute does not apply to law enforcement officers acting in the course of, and within the scope of, their official duties.
24. S.L. 2013-109 (H 813): Definition of banned synthetic cannabinoids expanded. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after July 1, 2013, amends G.S. 90-94(3) to expand the definition of synthetic cannabinoids that are illegal to manufacture, possess, sell, deliver, etc. See the specific wording of the revised definition in the act, which includes tetramethylcyclopropanoylindoles. Contains a savings clause for prosecutions of offenses committed before the act's effective date.
25. S.L. 2013-114 (H 533): Authorize company police officers in three counties who are employed by a facility to use reasonable force to keep respondent in facility where doctor or psychologist will conduct examination under involuntary commitment process. Effective June 18, 2013, this local act amends G.S. 122C-251, applicable only to Ashe, Cumberland, and Wilkes counties, to authorize company police officers employed by a facility to use, after the transporting law enforcement officer has left the facility, appropriate and reasonable force to keep a respondent at the facility and, if pursuant to a continuous and immediate pursuit, to return the respondent to the facility, where a doctor or psychologist will conduct pursuant to a court order an examination under the involuntary commitment process under G.S. 122C-261(d), 122C-263(a), or 122C-263(d)(2).
26. S.L. 2013-123 (H 24): Amendments to regular probation condition that defendant attend and complete domestic violence abuser treatment program. Effective for defendants placed on supervised or unsupervised probation on or after December 1, 2013, this act amends G.S. 15A-1343(b)(12) (regular condition of probation that defendant attend and complete domestic violence abuser treatment program). For supervised probation, the probation officer must forward a copy of the judgment to the treatment program, the program must notify the probation officer if the defendant fails to participate or is discharged for violating the program or its rules, and the probation officer must file a violation report and notify the district attorney. For unsupervised probation, the defendant must notify the district attorney and treatment program of his or her choice of program if the program has not previously been selected, the district attorney must forward a copy of the judgment to the treatment program, and if the defendant fails to participate or is discharged for violating the program or its rules, the program must notify the district attorney. The act, effective June 19, 2013, changes the effective date of Section 2 (which amended G.S. 15A-1382.1), S.L. 2012-39, to make the section apply to judgments entered on or after December 1, 2012 (which effectively means that active sentence judgments since December 1, 2012, must indicate whether the offense involved domestic violence).

27. S.L. 2013-124 (H 29): Enhanced punishments for certain pseudoephedrine and methamphetamine offenses. This act is effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013. Amended G.S. 90-95(d1) provides that unauthorized possession of a pseudoephedrine product is a Class H felony if the person has a prior conviction for possession or manufacture of methamphetamine. Amended G.S. 15A-1340.16D provides that if a person is convicted of manufacture of methamphetamine under G.S. 90-95(b)(1a) and a minor under 18 years old or a disabled adult resided on the property used for manufacturing methamphetamine, or was present at the location where methamphetamine was being manufactured, the minimum term to which the defendant is sentenced for that felony is increased by 24 months; if both a minor and a disabled or elder adult resided there or was present at the location, the minimum sentence is increased by 48 months. It sets out the calculation of the maximum sentence and that the punishments are cumulative as specified in the act. The act specifies how an indictment must allege the enhanced sentencing factors.
28. S.L. 2013-133 (H 611): Expunge suspensions and revocations on driving record of limited permittee or provisional licensee under certain circumstances. Effective for reinstatements occurring on or after December 1, 2013, this act amends G.S. 20-13.2(c1) to provide that if the Division of Motor Vehicles restores a permit or license that was revoked due to ineligibility for a driving eligibility certificate under G.S. 20-11(n)(1), the DMV must expunge any record of revocation or suspension from the person's driving record. However, an expungement is not allowed if the person has had a prior expungement.
29. S.L. 2013-139 (H 762): Amend procedural requirements concerning bail bonds. This act, effective December 1, 2013, amends the definition of "bail bond" in G.S. 15A-531(4) to provide that a bail bond signed by a surety as defined in G.S. 15A-531(8)a. (an insurance company, when a bail bond is executed by a bail agent on its behalf) and G.S. 15A-531(8)b. (a professional bondsman, when a bail bond is executed by the bondsman or a runner on his or her behalf) is considered the same as a cash deposit for all purposes. Under prior law, only a bail bond signed by a bail agent for an insurance company was considered the same as a cash deposit. The act makes other procedural changes, which involve service of paperwork.
30. S.L. 2013-144 (S 124): Class F felony to discharge firearm within building or other enclosure with intent to incite fear. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, adds new G.S. 14-34.10 to provide, unless covered under some other law providing greater punishment, that a person commits a Class F felony when the person willfully and wantonly discharges or attempts to discharge a firearm within any occupied building, structure, motor vehicle, or other conveyance, etc., with the intent to incite fear in another.
31. S.L. 2013-147 (H 850): No charge if person informs officer of presence of hypodermic needle before search. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, amends G.S. 90-113.22 (possession of drug paraphernalia) to provide that an officer, before searching a person or the person's premises or vehicle, may ask if the person possesses a hypodermic needle or other sharp object that may cut or puncture the officer or whether such an object is on the premises or in the vehicle. If the person informs the officer of the presence of such an object before the search, the person may not be charged with or prosecuted for possession of drug paraphernalia. The exemption from charge and prosecution does not apply to any other drug paraphernalia found during the search.

32. S.L. 2013-148 \(H 879\): Person who serves full term as grand juror is not required to serve again as grand juror or juror for six years. This act, effective January 1, 2014, amends G.S. 15A-622 and makes conforming changes to G.S. 9-3 and 9-7 to provide that a person who serves a full term as a grand juror is not required to serve again as a grand juror or juror for six years.

33. S.L. 2013-152 \(S 222\): Revisions to North Carolina Controlled Substances Reporting System Act. This act revises various provisions of Article 5E of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes, the North Carolina Controlled Substances Reporting System Act. Effective June 19, 2013, the act revises G.S. 90-113.74(c)(5) to require the Department of Health and Human Resources to release data in the reporting system to a sheriff, police chief, or their designated deputy or police investigator who is assigned to investigate the diversion and illegal use of prescription medication or pharmaceutical products identified as Schedule II through V controlled substances and who is engaged in a bona fide specific investigation concerning the enforcement of laws governing licit drugs pursuant to a lawful court order specifically issued for that purpose.

34. S.L. 2013-154 \(S 306\): Repeal of North Carolina Racial Justice Act and other changes concerning capital punishment. This act, effective June 19, 2013, repeals the North Carolina Racial Justice Act (Article 101 of G.S. Chapter 15A) and makes other changes relating to capital punishment.

North Carolina Racial Justice Act. The Racial Justice Act, enacted in 2009, provided a procedure for a defendant to prove that race was a significant factor in decisions to seek or to impose a death sentence. If a court made such a finding, it was required to order that a death sentence not be sought or imposed or that a death sentence already imposed be vacated and the defendant be resentenced to life imprisonment without the possibility of parole.

This act provides that the repeal is retroactive (other than for a defendant already resentenced, see below) and applies to any motion for appropriate relief filed before the act's effective date, noted above. The act states that all such motions are void. The repeal does not apply to a court order that resentenced a defendant to life imprisonment without parole before the effective date, if the order is affirmed on appellate review and becomes a final order. However, the repeal is applicable if the order is vacated on appellate review.

Health care professional's assistance with execution. The act adds new G.S. 15-188.1 to provide that any assistance with an execution by any licensed health care professional, including, but not limited to, physicians, nurses, and pharmacists, shall not be a cause for any disciplinary or corrective measures by any board, commission, etc., that regulates the practice of health care professionals. The statute states that the infliction of the punishment of death by administration of required lethal substances shall not be construed to be the practice of medicine. Conforming changes are made to statutes regulating particular health professionals.

Time for execution. The act amends G.S. 15-194 to provide that the Attorney General of North Carolina must provide written notification to the Secretary of the Department of Public Safety of the occurrence of events (termination of certain court proceedings, failure to file motions, etc.) set out in the statute not more than 90 days from that occurrence. The Secretary must immediately schedule a date for execution not less than 15 days or more than 120 days from the date of receiving notification from the Attorney General. The Attorney General must submit a written report to the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Justice and Public Safety by April 1, 2014, and thereafter annually on October 1 on the status of all pending postconviction capital cases. The chairs of this committee may modify these dates.

Manner of execution and people designated to execute death sentence. The act amends G.S. 15-188 to provide that the mode of execution is the administration of an intravenous injection of a substance or substances in a lethal quantity sufficient to cause death and until the person is dead, and that procedure shall be determined by Secretary of the Department of Public Safety, who must ensure compliance with federal and state constitutions (the prior version of the statute described the substance as a lethal quantity of an ultrashort acting barbiturate in combination with a chemical paralytic agent until the person was dead).

The act amends G.S. 15-190 to require the warden to report to the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Justice and Public Safety by April 1, 2014, and thereafter annually on October 1 on the status of the people required to be named and designated by the warden to execute death sentences. The report must confirm that the required people are properly trained and ready to serve as an execution team. The chairs of this committee may modify the reporting dates set out above.

- 35. S.L. 2013-155 \(S 387\): Changes involving Commissioner of Agriculture and department’s law enforcement functions. This act, effective July 1, 2013, makes several changes. Amended G.S. 143-166.8 (motor vehicle laws applicable to state parks and forests road system) to authorize the Commissioner of Agriculture to establish a lower speed limit than 25 miles per hour in the state forests road system as specified in the statute. The Commissioner may by rule establish parking areas and provide for the removal of illegally parked motor vehicles in the state forests road system. The statute previously vested the preceding powers with the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources. Amended G.S. 106-65 provides that the Commissioner of Agriculture has the right of entry on the premises of any place where entry is necessary to enforce the provisions of Article 4H (bedding) of G.S. Chapter 106 or the rules adopted by the Board of Agriculture. If consent for entry is not obtained, an administrative inspection warrant must be obtained under G.S. 15-27.2.
- 36. S.L. 2013-158 \(S 443\): Disposition of firearms amendments. This act amends several statutes involving the disposition of firearms, effective September 1, 2013, and applicable to any firearm found or received by a local law enforcement agency on or after that date and to any judicial order for the disposition of any firearm on or after that date. Amended G.S. 15-11.1(b1)(3), 15-11.2(e), and 14-269.1(4) make clear that a firearm is to be destroyed under these provisions if the firearm does not have a legible, unique identification number or is unsafe for use because of wear, damage, age, or modification. Amended G.S. 15-11.2 deletes the authority of a person who found a firearm and turned it over to a law enforcement agency to claim the firearm if it remains unclaimed by a person who may be entitled to it. Amended G.S. 15-11.2(d) transfers the authority to dispose of an unclaimed firearm from a judge to the head of the law enforcement agency and makes several changes concerning how the firearm may be disposed of, including the sale at a public auction to people licensed as firearms collectors, dealers, importers, or manufacturers.
- 37. S.L. 2013-164 \(S 528\): Clarify oath of petit jurors. This act, applicable to oaths taken on or after October 1, 2013, amends G.S. 9-14 to require jurors to take (1) the oath required by Section 7 of Article VI of the Constitution of North Carolina, by swearing or affirming to support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution and laws of North Carolina, and (2) the oath required by G.S. 11-11.
- 38. S.L. 2013-165 \(S 530\): Prohibit distribution to minor of tobacco-derived products and vapor products. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after August 1, 2013, amends G.S. 14-313 to prohibit the distribution of tobacco-derived products and vapor products to minors. It amends the definition of “tobacco product” to include tobacco-derived product, vapor product, or components of a vapor product, and it adds definitions of “tobacco-derived product” (noncombustible product derived from tobacco that contains nicotine and is intended for human consumption) and “vapor product” (noncombustible product that includes an electronic cigarette, cigar, cigarillo, and pipe). The act requires a person who engages in distributing tobacco products through the Internet or other remote sales methods to perform an age verification through an independent, third-party age verification service as specified in the act. The act also makes clear that the sale of cigarette wrapping papers is included in the offense requiring proof of age.

39. S.L. 2013-166 \(S 539\): County jury commission may obtain date of birth information from election board; no public access to dates of birth of prospective jurors. This act, effective June 19, 2013, amends G.S. 163-82.10B to allow a county jury commission to obtain the dates of birth of registered voters from the board of elections to prepare the master jury list in its county. Amended G.S. 9-4(b) provides that public access to juror information is limited to the alphabetized list of the names, and dates of birth of prospective jurors (as well as addresses) are confidential and not subject to disclosure without a court order.
40. S.L. 2013-167 \(S 542\): Long-term care facilities must require applicants for employment and certain employees to submit to testing for controlled substances. This act, effective October 1, 2013, adds new G.S. 131D-45 (adult care homes) and G.S. 131E-114.4 (nursing homes) to provide that an offer for employment to an applicant is conditioned on the applicant’s consent to an examination and screening for controlled substances. It also authorizes these employers to require random examination and screening for controlled substances as a condition of continued employment, as well as requiring examination and screening when the employer has reasonable grounds to believe an employee is an abuser of controlled substances.
41. S.L. 2013-169 \(S 583\): New and revised definitions for statutes regulating secondary metals recyclers. This act, effective June 19, 2013, amends definitions in G.S. 66-420 involving the regulation of sales and purchases of metal as follows: (1) revises the definition of “card cash system” to mean a system of payment that provides payment in cash or in a form other than cash and when providing payment in the form of cash (i) captures a photograph of the seller when the payment is received, and (ii) uses an automated cash dispenser, including but not limited to an automated teller machine; and (2) adds a definition of “copper” to include nonferrous metals, including but not limited to copper wire, copper clad steel wire, copper pipe, bars, sheeting, tubing, and pipe fittings, and insulated copper wire; but it does not include brass and bronze alloys, lead nickel, zinc, or items not containing a significant quantity of copper.
42. S.L. 2013-170 \(S 584\): Amendment to filing false lien statute. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, amends G.S. 14-118.6 (filing false lien or encumbrance against real or personal property of public officer or employer on account of performance of official duties) to include an immediate family member of the public officer or employee, defined as a spouse or child.
43. S.L. 2013-171 \(S 630\): Amendments to laws concerning disposition of blood and urine samples, admissibility of reports after notice and demand, and expunction of DNA samples taken after arrest. This act adds new subsection (h) (disposition of blood and urine evidence involving implied consent offenses) to G.S. 20-139.1, effective June 19, 2013, to provide that any blood or urine sample subject to chemical analysis for the presence of alcohol, a controlled substance, etc., may be destroyed by the analyzing agency 12 months after the case is filed or is concluded in the trial court and not appealed, whichever is later, without notice to the parties. However, if a motion to preserve the evidence has been filed by either party, the evidence must remain in the custody of the analyzing agency or the agency that collected the sample until the entry of a court order concerning its disposition.

Effective for proceedings held on or after December 1, 2013, the act amends various statutes allowing the admissibility of a laboratory report, affidavit, or statement to clarify that they “shall” (prior law used “may”) be admissible without the necessity of testimony if the defendant or attorney fails to file a written objection. These statutes are: G.S. 8-58.20(f) (forensic evidence); G.S. 8-58.20(g) (chain of custody); G.S. 20-139.1(c1) (chemical analysis of blood or urine); G.S. 20-139.1(c3) (chain of custody); G.S. 20-139.1(e1) (chemical analyst’s affidavit in district court); G.S. 90-95(g) (chemical analysis for controlled substance); and G.S. 90-95(g1) (chain of custody).

Effective for verification forms received by the SBI on or after December 1, 2013, the act amends G.S. 15A-266.3A(k) (DNA sample after arrest for certain offenses) to provide that the SBI must, within 90 days (prior law, 30 days) of receipt of a verification form, comply with the duties set out in the statute concerning the possible expunction of the defendant’s DNA record and samples.

44. S.L. 2013-190 (S 8): Fine increased for unauthorized parking in private parking lots in certain counties and cities. This act amends G.S. 20-219.2 (which applies only to specified counties and cities; see G.S. 20-219.2(c)) to increase the fine for unauthorized parking in private parking lots and other violations of the statute from not more than $100.00 to not less than $150.00. The act is effective for violations committed on or after December 1, 2013.
45. S.L. 2013-191 (S 25): Military members on active duty outside North Carolina considered residents for hunting, fishing, etc., licenses. This act, effective July 1, 2013, amends G.S. 113-130(4) to provide that military members on active duty outside North Carolina are considered North Carolina residents for the purpose of obtaining hunting, fishing, trapping, and special activity licenses.
46. S.L. 2013-194 (S 285): Requirements changed for laboratories providing chemical analyses for blood or urine under G.S. 20-139.1. Effective June 26, 2013, this act amends G.S. 20-139.1 (chemical analyses for implied consent offenses, such as DWI) to repeal the requirement in subsection (c2) that a laboratory providing chemical analyses of blood or urine under G.S. 20-139.1 be accredited by an accrediting body that requires conformance to forensic specific requirements and that is a signatory to a specified international laboratory agreement. The act also provides that a laboratory approved for chemical analysis by the Department of Health and Human Services includes any hospital laboratory approved by the department pursuant to a program resulting from a specified federal law. Amended G.S. 8-58.20 makes clear that its provisions do not apply to chemical analyses under G.S. 20-139.1. [Note: Although a later session law, Session Law 2013-338 (S 200), purported to delay the accrediting requirement for a laboratory providing chemical analyses of blood or urine under G.S. 20-139.1, this later session law had no legal effect because Session Law 2013-194 (S 285) had already repealed the accrediting requirement and had amended G.S. 8-58.20 to make clear that its provisions do not apply to chemical analyses under G.S. 20-139.1.]
47. S.L. 2013-195 (S 461): Allow third-party commercial driver’s license skills testing. This act amends G.S. 20-137.13, effective July 1, 2013, to require the Division of Motor Vehicles to allow a third party to administer a skills test for driving a commercial motor vehicle any day of the week. The act also amends G.S. 20-7(f)(5) to allow the DMV to issue an applicant a temporary driving certificate valid for 60 days (current law is 20 days) for a commercial driver’s license.
48. S.L. 2013-196 (S 494): Authorize community service as a discretionary condition of post-release supervision and amend voting procedures of Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission.

This act amends G.S. 15A-1368.4(c) (conditions of post-release supervision), effective June 26, 2013, to authorize the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission to impose a condition of community service on a supervisee who was a Class F through Class I felon and has failed to fully satisfy an order for restitution, reparation, or costs imposed as part of the sentence. However, the commission may not impose this condition if it determines that the supervisee has the financial resources to satisfy the order. Effective for actions taken by the commission on or after June 26, 2013, the act amends G.S. 143B-721(d) to provide that a three-member panel of the commission may set the terms and conditions for post-release supervision under G.S. 15A-1368.4 and may decide questions of violations, including issuance of warrants. If there is a tie vote by the full commission, the chair shall break the tie with an additional vote.

49. S.L. 2013-198 \(H 219\): Substitute “child born out of wedlock” for “illegitimate” child and “bastardy” in criminal and civil statutes. This act, effective June 26, 2013, amends criminal and civil statutes to remove references to “illegitimate” child and “bastardy” and replace them with “child born out of wedlock.”

50. S.L. 2013-201 \(H 322\): Division of Motor Vehicles may waive skills test for commercial driver’s license for retired or discharged military members under certain circumstances. This act, effective June 26, 2013, amends G.S. 20-37.13(c1) to allow the Division of Motor Vehicles to waive the skills test for a commercial driver’s license for a retired or discharged member of an active or reserve component of the military if the member meets the conditions set out in new G.S. 20-37.13(c1)(3)c.

51. S.L. 2013-203 \(H 891\): District attorney authorized to petition court to freeze assets of defendant charged with exploitation of elder or disabled adult. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013, amends G.S. 14-112.2 to provide if a defendant is charged with exploitation of an elder or disabled adult that involves funds, assets, or property valued more than $5,000, the district attorney may file a petition in the pending criminal case to freeze the assets in the amount of 150 percent of their alleged value for use as restitution to the victim. The standard of proof to support the petition is by clear and convincing evidence. New G.S. 14-112.3 sets out the procedure for filing the petition. It also provides that in any proceeding to release the assets filed by a motion of the defendant or other person claiming an interest in the assets, the State must prove that the defendant is about to, intends to, and did divest himself or herself of the assets in a manner that would make the defendant insolvent for restitution. A court must vacate the order to freeze assets if the criminal charge is voluntarily dismissed or the defendant is found not guilty.

52. S.L. 2013-205 \(H 333\): Amendments to sex offender statutes involving registration and residency. This act, effective June 26, 2013, amends G.S. 14-208.11(a)(1) (sex offender’s failure to register) to include within the offense of willfully failing to register, the failure to register with the sheriff in the county designated by the defendant under G.S. 14-208.8 as his or her expected county of residence. Amended G.S. 14-208.11 effectively provides that a defendant arrested for violating the statute must be prosecuted in the prosecutorial district that includes the sheriff’s office in the county where the defendant failed to register. If the arrest is made outside the prosecutorial district, the defendant must be transferred to the custody of the sheriff of the county where the defendant failed to register.

53. S.L. 2013-209 \(H 597\): Official shield for bail bondsmen and runners. This act, effective June 26, 2013, amends G.S. 58-71-40 to authorize a licensee (bail bondsmen and runners) while engaged in official duties to possess and display a shield designed as specified in the act. A shield deviating from the design requirements is unauthorized and its possession is a violation of the statute (which would be a Class 1 misdemeanor under G.S. 58-71-185).

54. S.L. 2013-210 (H 641): Judge given discretion under certain circumstances whether to impose deferment and probation for first drug offense under G.S. 90-96(a). G.S. 90-96(a) provides that a court for a first offense of certain drug offenses must, without entering a judgment of guilty and with the defendant's consent, defer proceedings and place the defendant on probation with a later discharge of the defendant and dismissal of the charge if the defendant complies with its terms and conditions. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, removes the requirement of deferment and probation if the court determines with a written finding and the district attorney's agreement that a conditional discharge for the defendant is inappropriate for factors related to the offense.
55. S.L. 2013-225 (H 343): Change in default priority order in which monetary obligations imposed in criminal and infraction judgments must be satisfied. Section 6 of this act, effective June 30, 2013 (which effectively means Monday, July 1, 2013), changes the default priority order under G.S. 7A-304(d) in which monetary obligations imposed in criminal and infraction judgments must be satisfied. The Administrative Office of the Courts has issued a memorandum on this complex provision, which is available at http://nccourts.org/Courts/Trial/Documents/court\_costs\_memo-interim\_criminal-2013.pdf, and readers interested in this subject should consult the memorandum.
56. S.L. 2013-229 (S 264): Nuisance law amendments. Article 1 of G.S. Chapter 19 authorizes the Attorney General, district attorney, local government, or private citizen to bring a civil action to abate nuisances involving buildings and places used for illegal sales of drugs, obscenity, or alcohol, prostitution, etc. This act, effective for nuisance actions filed on or after July 3, 2013, amends G.S. 19-1 to: (1) state that the activity sought to be abated need not be the sole purpose of the building for it to constitute a nuisance; and (2) provide that a nuisance action may not be brought against a place or business that is subject to regulation under G.S. Chapter 18B (regulation of alcoholic beverages) when the basis for the action is a violation of the laws and regulations of the chapter concerning the possession or sale of alcoholic beverages.
57. S.L. 2013-230 (S 377): Allow governor to temporarily suspend routine weight inspections of trucks during emergency. This act, effective July 3, 2013, amends G.S. 166A-19.70 to authorize the governor to direct the Department of Public Safety to temporarily suspend under G.S. 20-118.1 the weighing of vehicles to transport livestock, poultry, or crops from designated counties in an emergency area or if there exists an imminent threat of severe economic loss of livestock, poultry, or widespread or severe damage to crops ready to be harvested. The act states that it does not permit the operation of a vehicle when a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe the vehicle is creating an imminent hazard to public safety.
58. S.L. 2013-231 (S 568): Allow restricted driver's license for person using bioptic telescopic lenses. The act, effective July 3, 2013, amends G.S. 20-7 to authorize a person using bioptic telescopic lenses to obtain a regular Class C driver's license if the person satisfies specified conditions. The person is permitted to operate a motor vehicle only during the period beginning one-half hour after sunrise and ending one-half hour before sunset. However, the act allows operation between one-half hour before sunset and ending one-half hour after sunrise under certain circumstances.

59. S.L. 2013-233 (S 712): Allow homebound to apply for special photo identification card without personal appearance. This act, effective July 1, 2014, provides if a person has a doctor's letter certifying that a severe disability causes the person to be homebound, the Division of Motor Vehicles must adopt rules allowing an application for or a renewal of a special photo identification card under G.S. 20-37.7 without a personal appearance. Amended G.S. 20-37.7(c) requires that the card must include a color photo of the card holder.
60. S.L. 2013-237 (H 209): Consent domestic violence protective order may be entered without factual findings and legal conclusions if parties agree. This act, effective for orders entered on or after October 1, 2013, amends G.S. 50B-3 to provide that a consent domestic violence protective order may be entered without findings of fact and conclusions of law if the parties agree in writing to do so. The order will be valid and enforceable the same as an order entered with factual findings and legal conclusions.
61. S.L. 2013-241 (H 626): Notice to law enforcement agency of certain information about vehicles that have been towed. This act, applicable to violations committed on or after December 1, 2013, adds new G.S. 20-219.20 to provide that when a vehicle is towed at the request of a person other than the vehicle owner or operator, the tower must provide—before moving the vehicle—specified information (vehicle description, place from which towed and where it will be stored, contact information for owner to retrieve vehicle) to the local law enforcement agency by telephoning the agency. Notification may be provided within 30 minutes of moving the vehicle if the vehicle is impeding the flow of traffic or otherwise jeopardizing the public welfare so immediate towing is necessary. This statute does not apply when a vehicle is towed at a law enforcement officer's direction or from a private lot where signs are posted under G.S. 20-219.2(a). A violation of this statute is an infraction with a penalty of not more than $100.00.
62. S.L. 2013-243 (H 656): Revision of laws involving seizure, forfeiture, and sale of motor vehicles used in commission of felony eluding arrest. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, repeals the current provisions in G.S. 20-141.5(g) through (j) concerning the seizure, forfeiture, and sale of a motor vehicle driven by the defendant while committing felony eluding arrest under G.S. 20-141.5(b) or (b1). It amends G.S. 20-28.2 (definitions and forfeiture order), 20-28.3 (seizure, impoundment, and forfeiture), 20-28.4(a) (release of seized motor vehicle at trial's conclusion), 20-28.8 (reports to be sent to DMV), and 20-54.1 (forfeiture of right of registration of all motor vehicles registered in convicted defendant's name) currently applicable to the seizure, forfeiture, and sale of motor vehicles involved with impaired driving offenses, to include felony eluding arrest, and the procedures are made substantially similar to those for impaired driving, except for pretrial release of the motor vehicle to the defendant owner under G.S. 20-28.3(e2). Amended G.S. 20-28.3(l) provides that if the underlying offense is felony eluding arrest and the defendant's conviction is for misdemeanor eluding arrest, whether or not the reduced charge is by plea agreement, the defendant must be ordered to pay as restitution to the county school board, motor vehicle owner, or the lienholder the cost paid or owed for the towing and storage of the motor vehicle.
63. S.L. 2013-244 (H 784): Worthless check amendments. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, amends G.S. 14-107(a) and (b) (worthless check offenses) to make these offenses applicable when the defendant had previously presented the check or draft for the payment of money or its equivalent. Amended G.S. 14-107.1 (prima facie evidence in worthless check cases) provides that the reason for dishonor may be indicated with terms that include, but are not limited to: “insufficient funds,” “no account,” “account closed,” “NSF,” “uncollected,” “unable to locate,” “stale dated,” “postdated,” “endorsement irregular,” “signature irregular,” “nonnegotiable,” “altered,” “unable to process,” “refer to maker,” “duplicate presentment,” “forgery,” “noncompliant,” or “UCD noncompliant.” The act makes similar changes to G.S. 6-21.3 (civil remedies for returned check).

- 64. S.L. 2013-274 \(H 982\): Medicaid subrogation crime amended. This act, among other changes to G.S. 108A-57 (Medicaid subrogation statute), amends the Class 1 misdemeanor in subsection (b) for a person seeking or having obtained assistance under Medicaid for himself, herself, or another to willfully fail to disclose to the county social services department or its attorney and to the Department (underlined words added; “Department” means the Department of Health and Human Services) the identity of any person or organization against whom the recipient of assistance has a right to recovery. The act is effective July 18, 2013, and applies to (1) Medicaid claims that arise on or after that date, and (2) Medicaid claims arising before that date for which the Department has not been paid in full.
- 65. S.L. 2013-275 \(H 783\): Pyrotechnic exhibition law amendments. The act, effective July 18, 2013, makes various amendments to statutes (G.S. 14-410, 14-413, 58-82A-3, and 58-82A-25) governing the exhibition of pyrotechnics. Among them are amendments to G.S. 14-410 to allow pyrotechnics to be exhibited, manufactured, etc.: (1) as a special effect by a production company for a motion picture production if the motion picture set is closed to the public or is separated from the public by a minimum of 500 feet; or (2) for pyrotechnic or proximate audience display instruction consisting of classroom and practical skills training approved by the Office of State Fire Marshal.
- 66. S.L. 2013-276 \(H 137\): Reward money increased that Governor may offer to apprehend fugitive or provide information leading to arrest and conviction. This act, effective July 18, 2013, amends G.S. 15-53 and G.S. 15-53.1 to increase from $10,000 to $100,000 the amount of a reward the Governor may offer and pay to a person who apprehends a fugitive or provides information leading to the arrest and conviction of a person.
- 67. S.L. 2013-277 \(H 161\): Mandatory retirement age for magistrates. This act, effective January 1, 2015, and applicable to people whose terms of office as magistrates begin on or after that date, amends G.S. 7A-170 to provide that a magistrate may not continue in office beyond the last day of the month in which the magistrate reaches the mandatory retirement age for justices and judges as specified in G.S. 7A-4.20 (last day of month in which justice or judge attains his or her seventy-second birthday).
- 68. S.L. 2013-283 \(H 296\): Hunting, trapping, and fishing license fees increased. This act makes several changes to the wildlife laws, including increasing fees for many hunting, trapping, and fishing licenses, effective August 1, 2014. Effective January 1, 2015, these statutory fees will remain at the levels existing on that date until the rules required to be adopted become effective. The act requires the Wildlife Resources Commission to adopt rules to establish fees for hunting, trapping, fishing, and activity licenses issued and administered by the commission. It provides that a rule to increase fees above January 1, 2015, levels may not increase a fee in excess of the average increase in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers over the preceding five years. The statutory fees for these licenses will expire when the commission’s rules are adopted.

69. S.L. 2013-284 (H 327): New aggravating factor in non-capital sentencing involving defendant who is firefighter or rescue squad worker. This act makes many changes to the Firefighters' and Rescue Squad Workers' Pension Fund. It also adds new G.S. 15A-1340.16(d)(9a), effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, to make it a statutory aggravating factor in non-capital sentencing that the defendant is a firefighter or rescue squad worker, and the offense is directly related to service as a firefighter or rescue squad worker.
70. S.L. 2013-286 (H 345): Increase punishment for misuse of 911 system. This act makes the punishment for all violations of G.S. 14-111.4 (misuse of 911 system) a Class 1 misdemeanor, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013. The current statute provides that a violation is a Class 3 misdemeanor, but certain aggravated acts constitute a Class 1 misdemeanor.
71. S.L. 2013-288 (H 358): Offenses involving state retirement systems. This act creates and amends offenses involving the various state retirement systems in G.S. Chapters 135, 128, and 120. It creates new G.S. 135-111.1 to make the fraudulent receipt of a decedent's Disability Income Plan allowance a Class 1 misdemeanor and deletes references in G.S. 135-18.11 to the plan or a disability benefit. It amends statutes in each retirement system that involve the fraudulent receipt of a decedent's retirement allowance to make the Class 1 misdemeanor violation apply to fraudulently receiving money as a result of a beneficiary's death as well as a retiree's death. The act is effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013.
72. S.L. 2013-293 (H 428): Stopped school bus law changes. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, makes several changes involving the stopped school bus violations under G.S. 20-217. It retains the punishment as a Class 1 misdemeanor but requires the payment of a minimum $500 fine. It also requires a minimum $1,250 fine for the Class I felony offense when the defendant also strikes a person, and a minimum $2,500 fine for the Class H felony offense when striking a person results in that person's death. It establishes various driver's license revocations for committing the misdemeanor and felony violations in G.S. 20-217. It provides that a person whose driver's license is revoked for a violation is also disqualified under G.S. 20-17.4 from driving a commercial motor vehicle for the time period in which the license remains revoked. The defendant's failure to pay fine or costs imposed for a violation will result in the Division of Motor Vehicles withholding the registration renewal of a motor vehicle registered in the defendant's name. The act states that the General Assembly encourages local school boards to use the proceeds of any fines collected for violations of G.S. 20-217 to purchase automated camera and video recording systems to install on school buses to help detect and prosecute violators.
73. S.L. 2013-298 (S 316): Pretrial release amendments. This act, effective for proceedings to determine pretrial release conditions occurring on or after December 1, 2013, makes several changes to pretrial release provisions. It adds new G.S. 15A-533(f) to provide that there is a rebuttable presumption that no condition of release will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the community's safety if a judicial official finds there is reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed a felony or Class A1 misdemeanor involving the illegal use, possession, or discharge of a firearm, and the official also finds (1) the offense was committed while the defendant was on pretrial release for another felony or Class A1 misdemeanor involving the illegal use, possession, or discharge of a firearm, or (2) the defendant has previously been convicted of a felony or Class A1 misdemeanor involving the illegal use, possession, or discharge of a firearm and not more than five years have elapsed since the date of conviction or the defendant's release for the offense, whichever is later. A defendant considered for bond under this provision may only be released by a district or superior court judge, and the judge must find there is a reasonable assurance that the person will appear for trial and release does not pose an unreasonable risk of harm to the community. The act amends G.S. 15A-534(d1) to raise from $500 to $1,000 the minimum amount of the secured bond under the subsection if no bond had yet been required for the charges. The act adds new G.S. 15A-534(d3) to provide that when pretrial release conditions are being determined for a defendant who is charged with an offense and the defendant is currently on pretrial release for a prior offense, the judicial official must require a secured appearance bond in an amount at least double the amount of the most recent prior secured or unsecured bond for the charges or, if no bond has yet been required for the charges, in the amount of $1,000.

74. S.L. 2013-300 (S 399): Proposed constitutional amendment to allow waiver of jury trial in non-capital trial with consent of judge. The act proposes a constitutional amendment to be submitted to the voters at the statewide general election to be held on November 4, 2014. If the majority of the votes cast are in favor of the amendment, it would become effective December 1, 2014, and apply to criminal offenses arraigned in superior court on or after that date. The amendment would revise Section 24 (right of jury trial in criminal cases), Article I of the North Carolina Constitution to allow a defendant in a non-capital trial in superior court to waive jury trial in writing or on the record and with the consent of the trial judge, subject to procedures prescribed by the General Assembly. The act amends G.S. 15A-1201 (if amendment is approved), effective on the same date and in the same manner as the constitutional amendment, to conform it to the language of the constitutional amendment with the additional provision that the waiver of jury trial must be made knowingly and voluntarily.
75. S.L. 2013-301 (S 465): Felony offense to sell, purchase, install, possess, etc., an automated sales suppression device. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, adds a new G.S. 14-118.7 to prohibit the sale, purchase, installation, possession, etc., of an automated sale suppression device, zapper, or phantom-ware. A violation is a Class H felony with a minimum $10,000 fine. An “automated sales suppression device or zapper” is defined as a software program that falsifies the electronic records of electronic cash registers and other point-of-sale systems, including transaction data and reports. “Phantom-ware” is defined as a hidden programming option embedded in the operating system of an electronic cash register or hardwired into the electronic cash register that can be used to create a second set of records or may eliminate or manipulate transaction records, which may or may not be preserved in digital formats, to represent the true or manipulated record of transactions in the electronic cash register. Any person who violates this statute is liable for all taxes, fees, penalties, and interest due to the State as the result of the use of these devices and must forfeit to the State as an additional penalty all profits associated with the sale or use of the devices.
76. S.L. 2013-303 (H 450): Bail procedure established when confinement is imposed as punishment for criminal contempt and notice of appeal has been given. This act, applicable to confinement imposed for criminal contempt on or after December 1, 2013, amends G.S. 5A-17 to provide that a person found in criminal contempt who has given notice of appeal may be retained in custody for not more than 24 hours from the time of imposition of confinement without a bail determination being made by a judicial official (district court judge if confinement imposed by clerk or magistrate, superior court judge if confinement imposed by district court judge; superior court judge other than the superior court judge that imposed confinement). If the designated judicial official has not acted within 24 hours, any judicial official must act to hold the bail hearing.

- 77. S.L. 2013-308 \(H 635\): Allow court clerk or magistrate to issue by fax or email transmission an involuntary commitment custody order to 24-hour facility when respondent is located there. This act, effective October 1, 2013, amends G.S. 122C-261(d) to provide if the affiant is a physician or psychologist at a 24-hour facility who recommends inpatient commitment, the respondent is physically present there, and the clerk or magistrate finds probable cause to believe that the respondent meets the criteria for inpatient commitment, then the clerk of magistrate may issue an order by fax or a scanned order by email to the physician, psychologist, or “designee” (defined as on-site police security personnel at the 24-hour facility) to take the respondent into custody and proceed according to G.S. 122C-266 (inpatient commitment). The revised statute specifies notice to the respondent, signing the custody order, returning the order, and the required training that must be completed by physicians, psychologists, and designees before the fax or email procedure may be used with a particular physician, psychologist, or designee.
- 78. S.L. 2013-312 \(H 828\) Criminal history checks of applicants for licensure as physical therapists and assistants. This act, effective October 1, 2013, amends various aspects of the physical therapy practice act, including adding the requirement that applicants for licensure as physical therapists and physical therapy assistants must consent to a criminal history check. Refusal to consent is a ground to deny licensure. The act also adds new G.S. 114-19.33 to allow the Department of Justice to provide the Board of Physical Therapy Examiners with a criminal history record of applicants for licensure from state and national repositories.
- 79. S.L. 2013-323 \(H 26\), amended by S.L. 2013-410 \(H 92\): Chop shop activity law amendments. This act, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, amends G.S. 14-72.7 (chop shop activity) (1) to increase the punishment from a Class H felony to a Class G felony, and (2) to add “reasonable grounds to believe” as an alternative to “knows” or “knowing” in proving the offenses set out in subsection (a) of the statute. The act amends G.S. 20-62.1 (purchase of vehicles for purposes of scrap or parts only), effective for reports and transactions occurring on or after December 1, 2013, and for offenses committed on or after that date, to increase the punishment set out in subsection (c) from a Class 1 misdemeanor to a Class I felony with a mandatory minimum $1,000 fine (current law provides for a Class 1 misdemeanor for a first offense and a Class I felony for a second or subsequent offense). Amended G.S. 20-62.1(a)(1) requires that the record of a purchase must be maintained on a form, or in a format, as approved by the Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) (underlined words added) and makes other changes. New G.S. 20-62.1(a)(1a) requires a purchaser to verify with the DMV whether or not the motor vehicle has been reported stolen. New G.S. 20-62.1(a1) requires, within 72 hours of each day’s close of business, a secondary metals recycler or salvage yard purchasing a motor vehicle under subsection (a) to submit specified information to the National Motor Vehicle Title Information System (NMVTIS) or report the required information to a third-party consolidator as long as the consolidator reports the information to NMVTIS. New G.S. 20-62.1(b1) provides that the information obtained by the DMV under the statute shall be made available only to law enforcement agencies and is not a public record under G.S. 132-1.
- 80. S.L. 2013-337 \(S 140\): Exploitation of disabled or older adult amendments. This act amends G.S. 14-112.2, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013. It replaces the definition of “elder adult” (person 60 years older or older unable to provide for specified services) with “older adult” (person 65 years old or older) and substitutes “older adult” for “elder adult” throughout the statute. It amends G.S. 14-112.2(c) to insert the introductory language as “unlawful for a person to knowingly, by deception or intimidation . . .” in place of “unlawful for a person, who knows or reasonably should know that an elder adult or disabled adult lacks the capacity to consent . . . .”

The act makes the following changes, effective December 1, 2013: (1) amended G.S. 53B-4 (access to financial records) includes within its provisions a subpoena delivered to a financial institution by a county social services director or law enforcement agency investigating a credible report of financial exploitation of a disabled or older adult; (2) amended G.S. 108A-14 requires a county social services director to receive and evaluate reports of financial exploitation of disabled adults and to investigate credible reports of financial exploitation; (3) new Article 6A of G.S. Chapter 108A imposes a duty on a financial institution under certain circumstances to report information that a disabled or older adult is the victim or target of financial exploitation and authorizes a law enforcement agency or county social services department to obtain a subpoena directing a financial institution to provide financial records of a customer who is a disabled or older adult.

81. S.L. 2013-338 (S 200): Extend time for local forensic science labs to obtain accreditation. This act, effective July 23, 2013, amends the effective date of sections 7 and 8 of S.L. 2011-19 to effectively delay for local forensic science laboratories until July 1, 2016, the requirement that a forensic analysis under G.S. 8-58.20 must be performed by a laboratory accredited by a specified accrediting body. [Note: Although this act also purports to delay the accrediting requirement for a chemical analysis of blood or urine under G.S. 20-139.1(c2), Session Law 2013-194 (S 285) had already repealed the accrediting requirement for that chemical analysis and additionally had made clear that G.S. 8-58.20 did not apply to an analysis under G.S. 20-139.1(c2). Thus, Session Law 2013-338 only applies to a forensic analysis under G.S. 8-58.20 and does not apply to an analysis under G.S. 20-139.1(c2).]
82. S.L. 2013-341 (S 407): DMV to implement statewide electronic lien system. This act, effective July 23, 2013, adds new G.S. 20-58.4A to require the Division of Motor Vehicles no later than July 1, 2014, to implement a statewide electronic lien system to process the notification, release, and maintenance of security interests and certificate of title data where a lien is notated, through electronic means instead of paper documents otherwise required by G.S. Chapter 20.
83. S.L. 2013-345 (S 455): Increase penalties for violation of seed law. This act, effective for violations committed on or after December 1, 2013, amends G.S. 106-277.24 to change the punishment for the Class 3 misdemeanor of violating a provision of Article 31 (agricultural and vegetable seeds) of G.S. Chapter 106 by increasing the fine from not more than $500 to a fine of not more than $10,000. Provides that the fine shall not apply to a retailer concerning a transaction when the seed sold by a retailer was acquired by the retailer in a sealed container or package, or the retailer did not have reasonable knowledge that the seed sold was in violation of the Article. In determining the amount of the fine, the court must consider the retail value of the seed sold in violation of the law, and in cases involving the unlawful sale of seed protected under federal law, the court must order the payment of restitution to any injured party for any losses incurred as a result of the unlawful sale.
84. S.L. 2013-346 (S 488): Criminal record check authorized for applicant for license renewal as nursing home administrator. This act, effective July 23, 2013, amends various provisions of the Nursing Home Administrator Act. It amends G.S. 90-288.01(b) to authorize the State Board of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators to require in its discretion a criminal history record check of an applicant for license renewal as a nursing home administrator.

85. S.L. 2013-348 (S 659): Amendments of impaired driving and open container laws to conform with federal funding requirements. This act is effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013.

Background of this session law. Federal law requires that a portion of federal highway funds that would otherwise be apportioned to a state be reserved from a state that has not enacted both a repeat intoxicated driver law and an open container law. 23 U.S.C. Sections 154(c)(2), 164(b)(2). Such laws must require, among other consequences, that an individual convicted of a second or subsequent offense for driving while impaired install an ignition interlock system on each motor vehicle he or she owns or operates. They also must require that a person convicted of a second impaired driving offense be required to perform at least 30 days of community service or be imprisoned for at least five days. A person convicted of a third or subsequent impaired driving offense must be required to perform at least sixty days of community service or serve at least ten days of imprisonment. Open container laws must prohibit the possession of any open alcoholic beverage container or the consumption of any alcoholic beverage in the passenger area of any motor vehicle (as that term is defined by federal law). S.L. 2013-348 amends several provisions of Chapter 20 to satisfy these minimum requirements.

Ignition interlock. The act amends G.S. 20-17.8 (restoration of a license after certain driving while impaired convictions; ignition interlock) in subsection (c1) to provide that the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles must not issue a license to a person subject to the statute until presented with proof of the installation of an ignition interlock system in all registered vehicles owned by the person. Formerly, a person was not required to install ignition interlock on a vehicle he or she owned if DMV determined that another member of the person's family relied on the vehicle and the vehicle was not in the possession of the person subject to the ignition interlock requirement. This exception applied, for example, when the college-age child of a parent convicted of impaired driving and subject to ignition interlock drove a vehicle owned by the parent while residing in a different location from the parent. Amendments to G.S. 20-17.8(c1) require that DMV determine a waiver of the ignition interlock requirement under the family-member exception on a case-by-case basis following an assessment of financial hardship to the person subject to the restriction.

Amendments also require the Commissioner to cancel the driver's license of a person subject to the statute if he or she registers a motor vehicle he or she owns without an installed ignition interlock system or removes a system from a motor vehicle he or she owns, other than when changing ignition interlock providers or selling the vehicle. The act deletes the last sentence of G.S. 20-17.8(f), which required a court, on finding that the aforementioned family-member exception to ignition interlock applied, to find the person not guilty of driving while license revoked for violating the conditions under G.S. 20-17.8(c1). It also amends G.S. 20-17.8(l) to provide that the medical exception to ignition interlock applies only to people required to have ignition interlock based on an alcohol concentration of 0.15 or more and not to people required to have ignition interlock because of a prior conviction or an Aggravated Level One impaired driving sentence.

Punishment. The act amends G.S. 20-179(h) (level two punishment for various DWI convictions) to provide that if the defendant is subject to level two punishment based on grossly aggravating factors in G.S. 20-179(c)(1) (prior conviction) or (c)(2) (driving while license revoked), the prior DWI conviction occurred within five years before the date of the offense for which the defendant is being sentenced, and the judge suspends all active terms of imprisonment and imposes abstention from alcohol as verified by a continuous alcohol monitoring system, then the judge must also impose as a special probation condition that the defendant must complete 240 hours of community service.

Community service parole. The act amends G.S. 15A-1371(h) to provide that prisoners serving sentences for impaired driving are eligible for community service parole after serving the minimum sentence required by G.S. 20-179 (italicized words added). Requirement (4) in setting out community service parole eligibility is amended so it reads that the prisoner has served one-half of his minimum sentence, at least 10 days if sentenced to Level One punishment or at least seven days if sentenced to Level Two punishment (italicized words added).

Definition of “motor vehicle” in transporting open container of alcoholic beverages. The act revises the definition of “motor vehicle” for the offense of transporting an open container of alcoholic beverages (G.S. 20-138.7) so it means any vehicle driven or drawn by mechanical power and manufactured primarily for use on public highways and includes mopeds. The current definition includes only those motor vehicles that North Carolina law requires to be registered, whether the motor vehicle is registered in North Carolina or another jurisdiction.

Unmanned government aircraft prohibited until July 1, 2015, unless approved by state official. Section 7.16 provides that no state or local governmental entity or officer may procure or operate an unmanned aircraft system or disclose personal information about any person acquired through operating such a system unless the State Chief Information Officer (SCIO) approves an exception specifically granting disclosure, use, or purchase. If the SCIO determines there is a requirement for an unmanned aircraft system for use by state or local agencies, planning may begin for its possible development, implementation, and operation. If the SCIO decides to plan for a system program, a proposal covering issues set out in the section must be provided by March 1, 2014, to specified legislative committees and the Fiscal Research Division.

Volunteer school safety resource officer program. Section 8.45, effective December 1, 2013, authorizes sheriffs (new G.S. 162-26) and chiefs of police (new G.S. 160A-288.4) to establish a volunteer school safety resource officer program to provide nonsalaried special deputies or law enforcement officers to serve in public schools. A volunteer must have prior experience as either (i) a sworn law enforcement officer, or (ii) a military police officer with a minimum of two years' service. The statutes specify training requirements. The volunteer has the power of arrest while performing official duties. Amended G.S. 14-269.2(g) exempts the volunteer from the prohibition in the section against possessing specified weapons on a campus or other educational property.

DSS study on reporting child abuse. Section 12C.7 requires the Division of Social Services (DSS) of the Department of Health and Human Services to study the policies and procedures for reporting child abuse. DSS must review specified topics, including reports of child abuse in child care facilities, how reports of child abuse are received, the number of inaccurate reports DSS annually receives, the number of children DSS has placed in child protective services pursuant to a report, etc. DSS must report the results of its study and any recommendations to the Joint Legislative Committee on Health and Human Services and the Fiscal Division by April 1, 2014.

Inmate and probationer matters. Section 16.11 provides that the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission, with the assistance of the North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission, must analyze the amount of time each inmate who is eligible for parole on or after July 1, 2014, has served compared to the time served by offenders under the Structured Sentencing Act for comparable crimes and must determine whether the inmate has served more time in custody than the inmate would have served had he or she received the maximum sentence under structured sentencing. The commission must reinstate the parole review process for each inmate who has served more time than the inmate would have under structured sentencing. The post-release commission must report to specified legislative committees by April 1, 2014, which must include the number of parole-eligible inmates reconsidered under this section and the number who were actually paroled.

HIV testing of inmates (section 16C.15). New G.S. 148-19.2, effective July 1, 2013, provides that any person sentenced to imprisonment and committed to the Division of Adult Correction must be tested to determine whether the person is HIV positive. Each inmate who has not previously tested positive must also be tested not less than once every four years from the date of the inmate's initial testing, and also before the inmate's release from custody except if the inmate has been tested within the prior year. All inmates in custody on July 1, 2013, who have not been previously tested must be tested by October 1, 2013.

Electronic monitoring fees (section 16C.16). Amended G.S. 15A-1343(c2), applicable to people placed on house arrest with electronic monitoring as a probation condition on or after September 1, 2013, adds a daily fee for electronic monitoring that reflects the actual cost of providing the monitoring. The daily fees must be remitted to the Department of Public Safety to cover its costs to provide the monitoring. A $90 one-time fee for the monitoring device and the daily fee are made applicable to subsection (a1) (community and intermediate probation conditions), and the daily fee is added to subsection (b1) (special probation conditions), which already required the $90 one-time fee for the device. Amended G.S. 15A-1368.4(e)(13), effective July 1, 2013, provides that a post-release supervisee must pay a $90 one-time fee for electronic monitoring and a daily fee that reflects the actual cost of providing the monitoring. For more detailed information about these provisions, see the AOC memoranda at the website address provided at the beginning of this session law's summary. Note: This summary reflects additional changes made by Section 6.7, Session Law 2013-363 (H 112).

North Carolina State Crime Laboratory. Section 17.3 provides that the laboratory, in conjunction with the School of Government and the Conference of District Attorneys, must develop a training curriculum for district attorneys to include instruction on fundamentals of laboratory forensic science disciplines, the lab's electronic information system, and its case management guidelines. Section 17.6 transfers the laboratory and the DNA Database and Databank from the State Bureau of Investigation for relocation elsewhere within the Department of Justice, as determined by the Attorney General. Section 17.6 amends G.S. 132-1.4(b)(1), which defines "records of criminal investigations" in the public records law, to include within the definition any records, worksheets, reports, or analyses prepared or conducted by the state crime laboratory at the request of any public law enforcement agency in connection with a criminal investigation.

Office of Indigent Defense Services. Section 18A.2 provides that the office may use up to $2.15 million in appropriated funds during the 2013-2015 biennium to expand existing offices, create new public defender offices, to establish regional public defender programs, or to create positions within existing public defender programs to handle cases in adjacent counties or districts. Section 18A.4 requires the office to issue a request for proposals from private law firms or not-for-profit legal representation organizations for the provision of all classes of legal cases for indigent clients in all judicial districts. Section 18A.5, effective August 1, 2013, amends G.S. 7A-498.7(b) to change the authority to appoint public defenders from the Commission on Indigent Defense Services to the senior resident superior court judge in a particular district. Section 18A.6 amends G.S. 7A-498.7 to provide that when a public defender determines in a case that a conflict of interest exists in the office, the public defender whenever practical may request the appointment of an assistant public defender from another public defender office in the region, rather than obtaining private assigned counsel.

Conference of District Attorneys funds for local toxicology analyses in DWI cases. Section 18B.4 provides that of the funds appropriated to the Judicial Department, $500,000 is allocated to the conference to allow district attorneys to obtain toxicology analyses from local hospitals for defendants charged with DWI whose conduct did not result in serious injury or death.

Minutes maintained by clerk of superior court to record convening and adjournment of district court as well as superior court. Section 18B.8, effective January 1, 2014, amends G.S. 7A-109(a1) to require the clerk of superior court to record the date and time of each convening, recess, and adjournment of court in both district and superior court. This provision effectively adds district court to the duties the clerk has already been performing in superior court.

General punishment changes for Class 3 misdemeanors. Section 18B.13 amends G.S. 15A-1340.23, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, to revise the misdemeanor sentencing Prior Conviction Levels for Level II from “1-15 days C/I” to “1-15 days C if one to three prior convictions” and “1-15 days C/I if four prior convictions.” It also provides that unless otherwise provided for a specific offense, the judgment for a person convicted of a Class 3 misdemeanor who has no more than three prior convictions shall consist only of a fine. Although it is not clear whether the provision in G.S. 15A-1340.21(d) (multiple prior convictions obtained in one court week count as only one prior conviction to determine the prior conviction level), applies to the new provision mentioned in the prior sentence (fine only for Class 3 misdemeanor when no more than three prior convictions), it would appear the better interpretation is that it does. The new provision is located in the same statute as the table of prior convictions levels, to which G.S. 15A-1340.21(d) clearly applies, and the likely legislative intent is to apply it to the new fine-only provision, particularly because the legislature intended to significantly reduce the number of indigent defendants who qualify for appointed counsel. (Note: The effective date of these changes is noted above as offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013. The actual language is “becomes effective December 1, 2013,” which could mean the changes apply to pending cases on December 1, 2013, as well as offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013. However, the immediate sentence after this language provides a savings clause for prosecutions “for offenses committed before the effective date,” which clearly shows that the legislature intended for the decreased punishment provisions to apply only to offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013.)

Offenses reclassified to Class 3 misdemeanors or infractions. Sections 18B.14 and 18B.15, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, reclassified certain Class 1 or Class 2 misdemeanors to Class 3 misdemeanors or misdemeanors to infractions. The reclassified Class 3 misdemeanors and infractions are listed below.

Class 3 misdemeanors

- G.S. 14-106 (obtaining property for worthless check)
- G.S. 14-107(d)(1) (simple worthless check)
- G.S. 14-167 (failure to return hired property)
- G.S. 14-168.1 (conversion by bailee, lessee, etc.)
- G.S. 14-168.4(a) (failure to return rental property)
- G.S. 20-28(a) (driving while license revoked) except it remains a Class 1 misdemeanor if the driver's license was originally revoked for an impaired driving revocation
- G.S. 20-35(a1) (failure to obtain driver's license before driving motor vehicle, 20-7(a))
- G.S. 20-35(a1) (failure to comply with driver's license restrictions, 20-7(e))
- G.S. 20-35(a1) (permitting person's motor vehicle to be operated by unlicensed person, 20-34)
- G.S. 20-111(1) (driving vehicle on highway, or knowingly permit person's vehicle to be driven on highway, when vehicle is not registered with DMV or does not display current registration plate)
- G.S. 20-111(2) (display, possess, etc., registration card, title certificate, or registration plate knowing it to be fictitious or to have been canceled, revoked, etc., or willfully display expired license or registration plate on vehicle knowing it to be expired)
- G.S. 20-127(d)(1) (applying tinting to vehicle's window that does not meet window tinting restrictions)
- G.S. 20-127(d)(2) (driving a vehicle on a highway or public vehicular area that has window not meeting window tinting restrictions)
- G.S. 20-141(j1) (speeding either more than 15 m.p.h. or more than speed limit or over 80 m.p.h.)
- G.S. 20-313(a) (registered motor vehicle owner operating or permitting vehicle to be operated without insurance)

Infractions

- G.S. 20-35(a2) (failing to possess valid license while driving motor vehicle, 20-7(a))
- G.S. 20-35(a2) (operating motor vehicle with expired license, 20-7(f))
- G.S. 20-35(a2) (failing to notify DMV of address change for driver's license, 20-7.1)
- G.S. 75A-6.1(c) (violation of rule governing navigational lighting adopted by Wildlife Resources Commission)
- G.S. 75A-13.1 (violations concerning skin and scuba divers)
- G.S. 75A-13.3(c3) (vessel livery that fails to provide basic safety instruction)
- G.S. 75A-17(f) (no-wake speed violation)
- G.S. 75A-18(a) (violation of Article 1, G.S. Ch. 75A, except as otherwise provided)
- G.S. 20-176(a1) (failing to carry registration card in vehicle, 20-57(c))
- G.S. 20-176(a1) (failing to sign vehicle registration card, 20-57(c))
- G.S. 20-176(a1) (failing to notify DMV of address change for vehicle registration card, 20-67)
- G.S. 113-135(a) (fishing without a license under G.S. 113-174.1(a) and G.S. 113-270.1B(a))

Expunction fees. Section 18B.16, applicable to petitions for expunctions filed on or after September 1, 2013, amends G.S. 15A-145 (expunctions of records for first offenders under 18 for misdemeanor conviction), G.S. 15A-145.1 (expunction of records for first offenders under 18 for gang offenses), G.S. 15A-145.2 (expunction of records for first offenders under 21 for drug offenses), G.S. 15A-145.3 (expunction of records for first offenders under 21 for toxic vapors offenses), and G.S. 15A-145.4 (expunctions of records for first offenders under 18 for nonviolent felony), to set or to increase the fee for filing a petition to $175. The expunction petition fee of $175 also applies to G.S. 15A-146 (expunction of records for not guilty or dismissed charge), but only for an expunction petition for a charge that was dismissed due to compliance with a deferred prosecution agreement. The clerk of superior court must remit $122.50 of each fee to the Department of Justice (DOJ) for its costs and $52.50 of each fee to the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) for its costs. The DOJ and AOC must jointly report to a specified legislative committee by September 1 of each year concerning expunctions, the report to include the number and types of expunctions granted during the reporting fiscal year and other specified matters. For more detailed information about these provisions, see the AOC memoranda at the website address provided at the beginning of this session law's summary.

New court costs for expert witnesses providing testimony about chemical or forensic analysis at trial. Section 18B.19, effective for fees assessed or collected on or after August 1, 2013, adds new G.S. 7A-304(a)(11) (expert witness employed by State Crime Laboratory) and 7A-304(a)(12) (expert witness employed by crime laboratory operated by local government or governments) to require a district or superior court judge, upon conviction of a defendant, to require the defendant to pay $600 to be remitted to the Department of Justice or local government unit, respectively, in a case in which the expert witness testified about a completed chemical analysis under G.S. 20-139.1 or a forensic analysis under G.S. 8-58.20. This fee is in addition to any costs assessed under G.S. 7A-304(a)(7) or (8). For more detailed information about these provisions, see the AOC memoranda at the website address provided at the beginning of this session law's summary.

Superior and district court districts reorganized. Section 18B.22 amends G.S. 7A-41(a) (superior court districts) to add Anson and Richmond counties and one additional judgeship to district 16A (which will now consist of Anson, Richmond, Scotland, and Hoke counties), removes Anson and Richmond counties and one judgeship from district 20A (which will now consist of Stanly County only), and switches district 19D (Moore County) from the fifth to the fourth judicial division. The section specifies how judgeships are filled and elections in the 2016 general election.

Amended G.S. 7A-133(a) (district court districts) combines districts 6A and 6B into a single district 6 and the combined number of judgeships for the new district is reduced from six to four. Anson and Richmond counties are added to district 16A (which also includes Scotland and Hoke counties) and the number of judgeships are increased from three to six for the revised district. Anson and Richmond counties are removed from district 20A and the number of judgeships for the revised district (which will now consist of Stanly County only) is reduced from four to two. One judgeship is added to district 21 (Forsyth County). The section specifies how judgeships are filled and at which general election.

District attorneys and prosecutorial districts reorganized. Section 18.22 amends G.S. 7A-60 (district attorneys and prosecutorial districts) to combine prosecutorial districts 6A and 6B into district 6 with a district attorney and ten assistant district attorneys. It creates a new prosecutorial district 16C, composed of Anson and Richmond counties and with a district attorney and six assistant district attorneys. Anson and Richmond counties are removed from prosecutorial district 20A, which will now consist of Stanly County only, with a district attorney and the number of assistant district attorneys for this district is reduced from eleven to five. The section specifies how the district attorney positions are filled at the 2014 general election.

89. S.L. 2013-366 \(S 353\): Abortion law amendment and motor vehicle law amendment. This act includes several provisions concerning abortions and an unrelated provision involving motor vehicle law. Amended G.S. 14-45.1 (when abortion not unlawful), effective August 28, 2013, includes a nurse and other health care provider to a provision that allows a doctor on moral, ethical, or religious grounds to refuse to perform or participate in medical procedures that result in an abortion. Amended G.S. 20-154 (unsafe movement), effective for violations committed on or after October 1, 2013, provides that a person violating subsection (a) that results in a crash causing property damage in excess of $5,000 or serious bodily injury to a motorcycle operator or passenger commits an infraction and must be assessed a fine not less than $750. The violation is treated as a failure to yield the right-of-way to a motorcycle for assessing points under G.S. 20-16(c). A judge may also order a driver's license suspension for not more than 30 days, with the option of granting a limited driving privilege.

Parole eligibility for Fair Sentencing Act sentences. This act amends G.S. 15A-1371(a) (parole eligibility) , effective July 29, 2013, to provide that a prisoner sentenced under the Fair Sentencing Act for a Class D through Class J felony, who meets the criteria established under the statute, is eligible for parole consideration after completing service of at least 20 years imprisonment less any credit allowed under applicable state law.

Effective date for provisions discussed below. The provisions discussed below are effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013, and provide a savings clause for prosecutions of offenses committed before that date.

Human trafficking and related offenses. The act amends G.S. 14-43.11 (human trafficking), G.S. 14-43.12 (involuntary servitude), and G.S. 14-43.13 (sexual servitude) to (i) provide an alternative mental element to “knowingly” in proving these offenses by showing the defendant acted “in reckless disregard of the consequences,” and (ii) provide that mistake of age or consent of the minor is not a defense. It increases the punishment for a violation of G.S. 14-43.13 from a Class F felony to a Class D felony.

Repealed statutes. The act repeals G.S. 14-190.18 (promoting prostitution of minor), 14-190.19 (participating in prostitution of minor), 14-204.1 (loitering for purpose of engaging in prostitution), 14-205 (venue for prostitution prosecution), 14-207 (degrees of guilt of prostitution), and 14-208 (punishment for prostitution offenses).

Prostitution offenses. Amended G.S. 14-203 adds several new and revised definitions, including the definition of “prostitution” as the performance of, offer of, or agreement to perform vaginal intercourse, any sexual act or sexual contact as defined in G.S. 14-27.1, for the purpose of sexual arousal or gratification for any money or other consideration. Amended G.S. 14-204 provides that prostitution is a Class 1 misdemeanor, authorizes conditional discharge for a first offender, and provides immunity for a minor (a person under 18), who instead must be treated as an undisciplined juvenile as set out in the statute. New G.S. 14-205.1 (solicitation of prostitution) is a Class 1 misdemeanor for a first offense, a Class H felony for a second or subsequent offense, a Class G felony for a person 18 or older who willfully solicits a minor, and a Class E felony for a person who willfully solicits a person who is severely or profoundly mentally disabled. The act also adds new G.S. 14-205.2 (patronizing a prostitute) and new G.S. 14-205.3 (promoting prostitution). New G.S. 14-205.4 (probation conditions) authorizes a court to order a convicted defendant to be examined for sexually transmitted diseases, and it also provides that a female convicted of any of these prostitution offenses and placed on probation must be under the care or charge of a female probation officer.

Electronic surveillance amendments. Amended G.S. 15A-290(c) (offenses for which electronic surveillance is authorized) adds the offenses of G.S. 14-43.11 (human trafficking), 14-43.12 (involuntary servitude), 14-43.13 (sexual servitude), 14-205.2(c) and (d) (patronizing prostitute who is minor or mentally disabled person), and 14-205.3(b) (promoting prostitution of minor or mentally disabled person).

Deferred prosecution; motion for appropriate relief. Amended G.S. 15A-1341 (deferred prosecution) provides that a defendant whose prosecution is deferred under G.S. 14-204(c) (minor charged with prostitution) may be placed on probation (but note that G.S. 14-204(c) provides immunity from prosecution). Amended G.S. 15A-1415(b) (motion for appropriate relief may be made more than ten days after entry of judgment) adds a defendant who seeks to have a conviction vacated who was convicted of a first offense under G.S. 14-204 that was not dismissed under G.S. 14-204(b) and the defendant's participation in the offense was as a victim of human trafficking, sexual servitude, or the federal trafficking victims protection law. See also new G.S. 15A-1416.1, which provides the substantive grounds for the motion for appropriate relief.

Expunction of conviction. New G.S. 15A-145.6 provides an expunction for a defendant convicted of a prostitution offense who was a victim of human trafficking, sexual servitude, or a severe form of trafficking under the federal trafficking victims protection law, and satisfies other specified conditions.

Crime victim compensation, restitution, and related matters. Amended G.S. 15B-2 includes a person as a claimant under the Crime Victims Compensation Act who was convicted of a first offense under G.S. 14-204 and whose participation in the offense was the result of having been a victim of human trafficking, sexual servitude, or a severe form of trafficking under the federal trafficking victims protection law. New G.S. 14-43.20: (i) mandates specified restitution to a victim of human trafficking, involuntary servitude, or sexual servitude, (ii) authorizes the Department of Health and Human Services to provide or fund emergency services and assistance to a victim, (iii) requires the Attorney General, a district attorney, or a law enforcement officer, to certify to federal authorities that a victim is willing to cooperate with an investigation so the victim, if eligible, may qualify for an immigrant visa and access to federal benefits, but cooperation is not required of a victim who is under 18 years old, and (iv) provides that a defendant who commits a violation of G.S. 14-43.11 (human trafficking), G.S. 14-43.12 (involuntary servitude), and G.S. 14-43.13 (sexual servitude) is subject to the property forfeiture provisions under G.S. 14-2.3.

Definition of "abused juveniles." Amended G.S. 7B-101(1) adds the following offenses to the definition of "abused juveniles": G.S. 14-205.3(b) (promoting prostitution of minor or mentally disabled person), G.S. 14-43.11 (human trafficking), G.S. 14-43.12 (involuntary servitude), and G.S. 14-43.13 (sexual servitude).

Sex offender registration law amendment. Amended G.S. 14-208.6(5) adds the following offenses to the definition of "sexually violent offense" in the sex offender registration law: G.S. 14-205.2(c) and (d) (patronizing prostitute who is minor or mentally disabled person), and G.S. 205.3(b) (promoting prostitution of minor or mentally disabled person).

Investigative grand jury. Amended G.S. 15A-622 authorizes an investigative grand jury for the offenses of G.S. 14-43.11 (human trafficking), G.S. 14-43.12 (involuntary servitude), G.S. 14-43.13 (sexual servitude).

N.C. Human Trafficking Commission. Amended G.S. 143A-55.10 (North Carolina Human Trafficking Commission) modifies the membership and terms of the commission, deletes the December 31, 2014, termination date of the commission, and provides that from the funds available to the Department of Justice, the Attorney General must allocate monies to fund the commission's work.

New Structured Sentencing Act aggravating factors. The act adds the following Structured Sentencing Act aggravating factors to G.S. 15A-1340.16(d): (1) the offense is a violation of G.S. 14-43.11 (human trafficking), G.S. 14-43.12 (involuntary servitude), or G.S. 14-43.13 (sexual servitude) and involved multiple victims, and (2) the offense is a violation of the same statutes and the victim suffered serious injury as a result of the offense.

Armed habitual felon. Effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013, new Article 3D (G.S. 14-7.35 through 14-7.41), G.S. Chapter 14, creates the status of armed habitual felon that occurs if a defendant has been convicted (including guilty and no contest pleas) of a firearm-related felony offense in any court in the United States. A “firearm-related felony” is defined as a felony committed in which the person used or displayed a firearm while committing a felony. If a defendant is convicted of a second firearm-related felony that was committed after the conviction of the first firearm-related felony, and is found to be an armed habitual felon, then the defendant is punished for the second firearm-related felony as a Class C felon with a minimum sentence of not less than 120 months imprisonment. The procedures for charging and trying the principal (second) felony and the status of armed habitual felon are similar to the current law concerning habitual felon. (Note: Some statutes in Article 3D contain terms that are inconsistent with the definition of “firearm-related felony” and thus they should be treated as surplusage and disregarded. The term “threatened” use or display of a firearm appears in G.S. 14-7.36, the term “threatening” the use or display of a firearm appears in G.S. 14-7.40(b), and the term “deadly weapon” appears in G.S. 14-7.40(b). All of these terms are inconsistent with the definition of “firearm-related felony” and the legislative intent to focus on a felony in which the person used or displayed a firearm while committing a felony.)

Enhanced sentence for using firearm or deadly weapon. Effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013, amended G.S. 15A-1340.16A (enhanced sentence when defendant used, displayed, etc., firearm or deadly weapon) is broadened to include all felonies instead of just Class A through E felonies. If the felony conviction is for a Class A through E felony, the minimum term of imprisonment must be increased by 72 months (current law, 60 months), if a Class F or G felony, increased by 36 months, if a Class H or I felony, increased by 12 months.

Judgment to indicate if felony conviction involved use or display of firearm. Effective for judgments for felony convictions entered on or after October 1, 2013, new G.S. 15A-1382.2 requires that if a sentencing judge determines that the defendant used or displayed a firearm while committing a felony, the judge must include that fact when entering the judgment.

Expanded places where concealed handgun permit holders may possess handguns. The following changes are effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013. New G.S. 14-269(a2) (carrying concealed weapon) allows a person with a concealed handgun permit, reciprocity for out-of-state permit, or a law enforcement federal exemption recognized under G.S. 14-415.25, to possess a handgun if it is in a closed compartment or container in the person’s locked vehicle that is in a parking lot owned or leased by state government. New G.S. 14-269.2(i) (weapon on educational property) allows a person with a concealed handgun permit or exempt from needing a permit, if he or she is an employee of a UNC institution or community college, or private college that has not prohibited possession of a handgun under this provision, to possess a handgun in the employee’s detached single-family residence on the campus or in a closed compartment or container in the person’s locked vehicle that is in a parking lot of the institution where the employee is employed and resides (also allows a person without a permit to possess a handgun in the employee’s residence or vehicle under limited circumstances). New G.S. 14-269.2(j) allows possession of a handgun by an employee of a public or nonpublic school under similar circumstances as in G.S. 14-269.2(i). New G.S. 14-269.2(k) allows a person with a permit or exempt from needing a permit to have a handgun in a closed compartment or container within the person’s locked vehicle or in a locked container securely affixed to the person's vehicle. Amended G.S. 14-269.3 (carrying weapon into assemblies and establishments where alcoholic beverages are sold and consumed) to exempt from its prohibitions a person with a concealed handgun permit, reciprocity for out-of-state permit, or a law enforcement federal exemption recognized under G.S. 14-415.25, but not if the possessor or controller of the premises posts a conspicuous notice prohibiting a concealed handgun. Amended G.S. 14-269.4 (6) (exemption from prohibition of weapons in courthouse and certain state property) adds a person with a law enforcement federal exemption recognized under G.S. 14-415.25 who has a firearm in a closed compartment or container in the person's locked vehicle or in a locked container securely affixed to the person's vehicle. Amended G.S. 14-277.2 (weapons at parades prohibited) exempts a person with a concealed handgun permit, reciprocity for out-of-state permit, or a law enforcement federal exemption recognized under G.S. 14-415.25, unless a person possessing or controlling the premises prohibits carrying a concealed handgun.

Prohibiting child under 12 from possessing dangerous firearm. Amended G.S. 14-316 (unlawful for child under 12 to possess dangerous firearm except with parent or guardian's permission), effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013, applies the statute's prohibition to any person (not just a parent, guardian, etc.), prohibits "access to" as well as possession of a firearm, and permits access to or possession with the permission of the child's parent or guardian.

Limitation on local ordinances prohibiting carrying concealed weapon. Amended G.S. 14-415.23, effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013, deletes a local government's authority to prohibit the legal carrying of concealed handguns on playgrounds, greenways, and biking or walking paths, and clarifies the extent of its authority to prohibit them at certain recreational facilities such as athletic fields and swimming pools.

Mental commitment and other weapon bars. The following changes are effective October 1, 2013. Amended G.S. 122C-54(d1) requires the clerk of superior court to cause a record of various determinations or findings to be transmitted to the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) within 48 hours (excluding weekends or holidays) after receiving notice of them: specified involuntary commitments, not guilty of by reason of insanity, incompetent to proceed to trial, etc. Amended G.S. 122C-54.1 (restoration process to remove mental commitment bar) makes various changes, including the standard that the petitioner must prove: he or she will not be likely to act in a manner dangerous to public safety and the granting of relief would not be contrary to the public interest.

Permits issued by sheriff and other related matters. Amended G.S. 14-415.17, effective October 1, 2013, makes confidential and not a public record under G.S. 132-1 the list of concealed handgun permit holders and the information collected by the sheriff to process an application. This information is available to local enforcement agencies on request, and the State Bureau of Investigation must make the information available to officers and clerks of court on a statewide system. Amended G.S. 14-415.18, effective October 1, 2013, requires the sheriff to revoke a concealed handgun permit of a permittee who is adjudicated guilty of or receives a PJC for a crime that would have disqualified the permittee from initially receiving a permit. Amended G.S. 14-406, effective October 1, 2013, makes dealer records confidential and not a public record, but they must be made available on request of law enforcement agencies. Amended G.S. 14-404 (issuance or refusal of pistol permit), effective October 1, 2013, requires a sheriff to keep a list of all permit denials with the specific reasons for the denials. The list may not include information that would identify the denied applicant; the list is a public record. The sheriff must notify the applicant of the approval or denial of a permit within 14 days (current law, 30 days) of the date of the permit application. Effective October 1, 2013, the sheriff must revoke a pistol permit on the occurrence of an event or condition or the applicant's inability to meet a requirement after the issuance of a permit that would have originally resulted in the denial of a permit. Effective July 1, 2014, new G.S.

14-404(c1) provides that judicial findings, court orders, or other factual matters relevant to any disqualifying conditions for a pistol permit in G.S. 14-404(c) must be reported to the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) by the clerk of superior court within 48 hours (excluding weekends or holidays) after receipt of a copy of a judicial determination or finding. Amended G.S. 14-405, effective October 1, 2013, provides that pistol permit records maintained by the sheriff are confidential and not public records under G.S. 132-1, but must be made available on request of law enforcement agencies.

Court official provisions. Amended G.S. 14-269(b), effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013, exempts from the offense of carrying a concealed weapon judges, magistrates, court clerks, and registers of deeds who have a concealed handgun permit as long as they don't have alcohol or unlawful controlled substances in their bodies; the weapon must be secured in a locked compartment when it is not on the official's person. Amended G.S. 14-415.27, effective October 1, 2013, adds judges, magistrates, and elected court clerks and registers of deeds to the provision allowing prosecutors and their investigators with concealed handgun permits to carry concealed handguns in the areas listed in G.S. 14-415.11(c).

Punishment increased for certain concealed handgun permit offenses. Amended G.S. 14-415.21, effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013, increases from a Class 2 misdemeanor to a Class 1 misdemeanor a violation of the concealed handgun permit prohibitions in G.S. 14-415.22(c)(8) (on private premises where notice that carrying handgun is prohibited) and (c2) (while consuming alcohol or unlawful controlled substances).

Taking wildlife with firearm with silencer. Amended G.S. 113-291.1(c), effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 2013, deletes the Class 1 misdemeanor for taking wildlife with a firearm equipped with a silencer.

92. S.L. 2013-370 \(S 18\): Locksmith license offense. This act amends several provisions involving the licensing of locksmiths. Effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, amended G.S. 74F-3 (prohibiting performance of locksmith services without a license) increases the punishment for a violation from a Class 3 to a Class 1 misdemeanor and provides that a second or subsequent offense is a Class I felony.
93. S.L. 2013-377 \(S 626\): Authority to enter motor vehicle to save animal. This act amends several provisions concerning animal shelters. Effective July 29, 2013, new G.S. 14-363.3 provides that an animal control officer, animal cruelty investigator, law enforcement officer, firefighter, or rescue squad worker who has probable cause to believe that an animal is confined in a motor vehicle under conditions that are likely to cause suffering, injury, or death to the animal due to endangering conditions such as heat, cold, etc., may enter the motor vehicle by any reasonable means after making a reasonable effort to locate the owner or other person responsible for the animal. This statute does not apply to the transportation of horses, cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, or other livestock.
94. S.L. 2013-379 \(H 675\): Maximum time period to dispense Schedule II controlled substance with written prescription. This act amends G.S. 90-106(d), effective for acts occurring on or after October 1, 2013, to provide that a Schedule II controlled substance may not be dispensed pursuant to a written prescription more than six months after the date it was prescribed.
95. S.L. 2013-380 \(H 936\): Wildlife law amendments. This act adds new G.S. 113-294.1, effective July 1, 2013, to create the Wildlife Poacher Reward Fund in the Office of the State Treasurer to pay rewards to people who provide information to the Wildlife Resources Commission (hereinafter, commission) or to law enforcement authorities that results in the arrest and conviction of people who have committed criminal offenses involving the taking, injury, destruction, etc., of wildlife resources. The commission must adopt rules to administer the fund.

The following provisions are effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013. (Note: Some amendments to wildlife offenses in this act are discussed in the summary of S.L. 2013-360 (S 402), above, and are not repeated here.) Amended G.S. 15A-1343(b1) (special probation condition requiring defendant to provide compensation for taking wildlife resources) authorizes the court to order the defendant to compensate an agency for any reward paid for information leading to the defendant's arrest and conviction. Amended G.S. 75A-10 provides that the punishment for the Class 2 misdemeanor of impaired boating under subsection (b1) includes a fine of not less than $250. Amended G.S. 75A-16.2 (required boating safety education) provides that the fine for an infraction is $50. Amended G.S. 75A-18 (penalties) provides that (1) except as otherwise provided in Chapter 75A, a person who violates a rule adopted by the commission is responsible for an infraction and must pay a $50 fine, and (2) a person responsible for an infraction under Chapter 75A may not be assessed court costs. Amended G.S. 113-294 increases the minimum fine to $250 in subsections (a), (d), (m), (r), and (s), and to $500 in subsections (b) and (e). New G.S. 113-294(c3) provides that a person who unlawfully takes, possesses, etc., an elk is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less $2,500. New G.S. 113-294(d1) provides that a person who unlawfully takes, possesses, etc., a deer from land posted under G.S. 14-159.7 without written permission of the landowner, lessee, etc. is guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less $500.

- 96. S.L. 2013-385 \(H 182\): Changes to various rights to appeal and post-conviction matters. This act's ratification clause in section 7 is not clear how it applies to each section of the session law, so this summary makes a judgment how a court would interpret the meaning of the clause. Effective for violations committed on or after December 1, 2013, amended G.S. 15A-1115 deletes subsection (a) that provided a defendant with the right to appeal from district court to superior court for a trial de novo when the defendant denied responsibility for an infraction in district court and was found responsible. Effective for probation violations occurring on or after December 1, 2013, amended G.S. 15A-1347 provides that if a defendant waives a probation hearing in district court, a finding of a probation violation, activation of a sentence, or imposition of special probation may not be appealed to superior court. Effective for resentencing hearings held on or after December 1, 2013, amended G.S. 15A-1335 (resentencing after appellate review) provides that the statute does not apply when a defendant on direct review or collateral attack succeeds in having a guilty plea vacated. Effective for motions for appropriate relief filed on or after December 1, 2013, the act deletes G.S. 15A-1420(b2), which sets timelines for the processing in district and superior court of a motion for appropriate relief involving noncapital cases. (Note: This act's criminal punishment amendments in sections 4 through 6 to the 2013 Appropriations Act are included in the summary of the appropriations act, S.L. 2013-360 (S 402), above.)
- 97. S.L. 2013-387 \(S 321\): Governor may fill district court judge vacancy without being required to appoint from local bar's nominations; payment of medical care of prisoners. This act amends G.S. 7A-142, effective August 23, 2013, to provide that a vacancy in the office of district court judge shall be filled for the unexpired term by the appointment of the Governor. The judicial district bar must nominate five people for consideration by the Governor. (The prior version of this statute required the Governor to make the appointment from the nominations submitted by the judicial district bar.) There are other changes in the procedure for nominating candidates.

New G.S. 153A-225.2 (payment of medical care of prisoners), effective September 1, 2013, provides that counties must reimburse those providers and facilities providing “requested or emergency care” outside of the local confinement facility the lesser amount of either a rate of 70 percent of the provider’s then-current prevailing charge or two times the then-current Medicaid rate for any given service. It provides that a county is not prohibited from contracting with a provider at different rates. The term “requested or emergency care” is defined to include all medically necessary and appropriate care provided to a person from the time the person presents to the provider or facility in the custody of county law enforcement officers until the time the person is safely transferred back to the care of county law enforcement officers or medically discharged to another community setting, as appropriate. Amended G.S. 153A-225(a), effective August 23, 2013, provides that a local confinement facility’s plan for the provision of medical care of prisoners in the facility may utilize Medicaid coverage for inpatient hospitalization or for other Medicaid services allowable for eligible prisoners, provided the plan includes a reimbursement process that pays to the State the State portion of the costs, including the costs of the services provided and any administrative costs directly related to the services to be reimbursed, to the State’s Medicaid program.

98. S.L. 2013-389 (S 368): Local jail felony escape offense is expanded; pistol permit fee is changed. This act amends G.S. 14-256 (escape from a local confinement facility), effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, to expand the Class H felony offense of escape from a local confinement facility to include a person charged with a felony who has been committed to the facility pending trial. Amended G.S. 14-404(e), effective for fees collected on or after August 1, 2013, provides that the sheriff must charge on receipt of an application for a pistol permit a fee of $5 for each permit requested (underlined words added). The fee under the prior statute applied on issuing the permit and did not specify that the fee was for each permit.
99. S.L. 2013-392 (S 470): Consumption of beer and unfortified wine prohibited on premises when permit is suspended or revoked. This act adds subsection (a1) to G.S. 18B-300, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, to prohibit (with a limited exception) the consumption of beer or unfortified wine on the premises of a business during the period of time that an on-premises permit issued to the business authorizing the sale and consumption of beer or unfortified wine has been suspended or revoked by the ABC commission.
100. S.L. 2013-403 (H 565): Criminal history record check for real estate appraiser applicants. This act amends G.S. 93E-1-6, effective January 1, 2014, to provide that the refusal of applicants for various licenses as real estate appraisers to consent to a criminal history record check may constitute grounds for denial of an application. The North Carolina Appraisal Board must ensure that the state and national criminal history of an applicant is checked and must provide specified information to the North Carolina Department of Justice.
101. S.L. 2013-404 (H 652): Judicial discipline amendments. This act, effective August 23, 2013, makes several changes to judicial discipline. It amends G.S. 7A-374.2 and 7A-376 to transfer from the Judicial Standards Commission to the North Carolina Supreme Court the authority to issue a public reprimand of a judge. The commission’s role is changed to recommending a public reprimand to the supreme court. Amended G.S. 7A-377 provides that if after an investigation the commission concludes that disciplinary proceedings should be instituted, the notice, statement of charges, answer, and all other pleadings remain confidential (prior law provided that they were not confidential). Disciplinary hearings, commission recommendations to the supreme court, along with the record that is filed, are confidential (prior law provided that they were not confidential). After the issuance of a public reprimand, censure, suspension, or removal by the supreme court, the notice and statement of charges filed by the commission, along with the answer and all other pleadings, and the commission recommendations along with the filed record, are no longer confidential. The act repeals G.S. 7A-378, which had provided that a commission recommendation for censure, suspension, or removal of a supreme court justice must be made to and then decided by a panel of seven judges of the North Carolina Court of Appeals (the effect of the repeal is have the decision be made by the supreme court).

102. S.L. 2013-406 (H 417): Obstruction of state agency internal auditor is a misdemeanor. This act makes several changes to internal auditing statutes applicable to large state departments and the state university system. New G.S. 143-749, effective for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2013, provides that it is a Class 2 misdemeanor when an officer, employee, or agent of a state agency willfully makes to a state agency internal auditor or designated representative any false, misleading, or unfounded report for the purpose of interfering with the performance of an audit, special review, or investigation or hinders or obstructs the state agency internal auditor or designated representative in performing their duties.
103. S.L. 2013-407 (H 476): Underground utility safety act misdemeanor. This act creates new Article 8A (Underground Utility Safety and Damage Prevention Act) of G.S. Chapter 87, and repeals Article 8. New G.S. 87-125, effective for activities occurring on or after October 1, 2014, provides that a person who falsely claims that an emergency exists requiring an excavation or demolition is guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor.
104. S.L. 2013-410 (H 92): Revised definitions of “all-terrain vehicle” and “utility vehicle.” This act, effective August 23, 2013, revises two definitions in G.S. 20-4.01. “All-terrain vehicle or ATV” is a motorized vehicle 50 inches or less in width that is designed to travel on three or more low-pressure tires and manufactured for off-highway use, but it does not include a golf cart, utility vehicle, or a riding lawn mower. “Utility vehicle” is a motor vehicle that is (i) designed for off-road use, and (ii) used for general maintenance, security, agricultural, or horticultural purposes, but it does not include an all-terrain vehicle, golf cart, or riding lawn mower.
105. S.L. 2013-413 (H 74): Child care providers’ criminal history checks; amendment to reptile investigation statute. This act, effective August 23, 2013, adds new G.S. 110-90.2 (child care providers’ criminal history checks), to provide that the check of state and national repositories that is directed to the State Bureau of Investigation must be completed with 15 business days of the request from the Department of Health and Human Services. If the check shows the provider has no criminal history as defined by subdivision (a)(3), the department must determine the provider’s fitness within 15 calendar days of receipt of the results. If the check reveals a criminal history as defined by this subdivision, the department must make a determination within 30 business days.

Amended G.S. 14-419 (investigation of suspected violations; seizure and examination of reptiles; dispositions of reptiles) requires that the investigation must include consulting with the North Carolina Museum of Natural Sciences or the North Carolina Zoological Park to identify appropriate and safe methods to seize a reptile. Consultation is not required if there is an immediate risk to public safety. It also provides that euthanasia is authorized for a seized reptile that is a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian for which antivenin is not readily available.

106. S.L. 2013-415 (H 15): Law enforcement agencies added to statutes in Chapter 20 involving use of red or blue lights, inapplicable speed limits, etc. This act, effective October 1, 2013, amends G.S. 20-125(b) (law enforcement vehicles must have special lights, sirens, or horn) to (i) make the subsection apply to vehicles owned or operated (previously, owned and operated) by the specified agencies, (ii) add vehicles of two agencies, the Division of Parks and Recreation and the North Carolina Forest Service, and (iii) add firefighting and other emergency response by the vehicle to the law enforcement purpose set out in the subsection. Amended G.S. 20-130.1 (use of red or blue lights) adds vehicles of the following agencies or entities that are allowed to use red or blue lights under specified circumstances: Division of Marine Fisheries, Division of Parks and Recreation, North Carolina Forest Service, and official members or Teams of REACT International, Inc. Amended G.S. 20-145 (when speed limit not applicable) adds the vehicles of the following agencies under specified circumstances: Division of Parks and Recreation and North Carolina Forest Service. Amended G.S. 20-156(b) (driver to yield right-of-way to law enforcement, fire department, and other vehicles using warning signal by light and siren) and amended G.S. 20-157(a) (driver of vehicle must move to right on approach of law enforcement, fire department, and other vehicles using warning signal by light and siren) add vehicles of the following agencies under specified circumstances: Division of Marine Fisheries, Division of Parks and Recreation, and North Carolina Forest Service.
107. S.L. 2013-417 (H 392): Criminal record checks and sharing arrest warrant status of applicants and recipients of public assistance programs; drug screening and testing for Work First Program assistance. This act adds new G.S. 108A-26.1 and 108A-26.2, effective October 1, 2013, to require a county social services department (1) to the extent allowed by federal and state law, to check criminal histories of applicants or recipients at the time of benefits renewal, to verify whether applicants or recipients under Part 2 (Work First Program) or Part 5 (Food and Nutrition Services) are fleeing to avoid prosecution, confinement after conviction, etc., or violation of a probation or parole condition, and (2) to not grant public assistance under Part 2 or Part 5 if the department receives information that the applicant or recipient of program assistance is subject to arrest under an outstanding arrest warrant based on violating probation or parole conditions or from a felony charge. New G.S. 114-19.34, effective October 1, 2013, requires the North Carolina Department of Justice, to the extent allowed by federal law, to provide the county social services department, on its request under G.S. 108A-26.1, with the criminal history of an applicant or recipient from state or national criminal history repositories. Amended G.S. 108A-29.1, effective August 1, 2014, requires the Department of Health and Human Services to require a drug test to screen each applicant for or recipient of Work First Program assistance whom the department reasonably suspects is engaged in the illegal use of controlled substances.
108. S.L. 2013-418 (H 786): Require Department of Public Safety to study problem of illegal immigration. This act, effective September 4, 2013, includes within its provisions a requirement that the North Carolina Department of Public Safety conduct a study, in conjunction with specified agencies, industries, and others, of the potential impact on public safety, the state economy, and illegal immigration of adopting any or all of the following: (1) increase penalties for crimes concerning the possession, manufacture, or sale of false driver's licenses and other identification documents; (2) create a rebuttable presumption against the pretrial release of undocumented aliens who commit serious crimes; (3) require a secured appearance bond as a condition of pretrial release for undocumented aliens who have committed serious crimes; (4) require undocumented alien prisoners to reimburse the state for the cost of their incarceration after conviction of a crime; (5) establish reasonable suspicion to guide law enforcement officers in conducting immigration status checks when conducting a lawful stop, detention, or arrest; (6) prohibit the use of consular documents as a valid means of establishing a person's identity by a judicial official, law enforcement officer, or other state official; (7) implement a process for undocumented aliens to obtain a temporary driving privilege; and (8) adopt measures that have been adopted in other states to combat illegal immigration. The department must report its findings and recommendations to the chairs of the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Justice and Public Safety no later than March 1, 2014.

PROBLEMS IN SELECTING THE PROPER CHARGE AND ISSUING PROCESS

Instructions: For each of the following sets of facts, assume that what is written is reliable information, then decide whether a criminal offense has been committed. If there is a crime, decide what kind of process should be issued. Each magistrate should select the proper AOC form and complete the form for one of the problems. In some of the situations you may be required simply to give advice to another person rather than issue process. If that is the case, be prepared to state in class exactly what you would say to that other person. For this set of problems, do not set conditions of pretrial release.

1. Mrs. Lorean Warren comes in with her 11 year-old son, Tommy. Tommy went to the Running Brook Golf Club yesterday morning to make some money caddying. When he approached Raymond G. Mallory and asked if Mallory wanted a caddy, Mallory said, "Get out of here, you damn little beggar" and pushed Warren to the ground with his arm. Warren fell on gravel and scraped his right arm. Mallory is a 45 year-old real estate broker who lives at 1011 Whitworth Street.
2. Patrolman Robert Lucas of the Franklin Police Department comes in and says that when he stopped Francis Smith about half an hour ago to give him a ticket for speeding 55 mph in a 45 mph zone, Smith called Lucas "a stupid flat-footed pig bastard." Smith's license indicated he was 24 years old and lives at 300 Oakwood Street.
3. Officer Thomas Burgess comes in and says that while Abraham Waverly was driving his 1991 Ford Taurus on Highway 73 near Andrews, N.C., yesterday, Charles T. Lloyd, 34, Apt. 3B, 2100 Brookside Drive, Franklin, drove alongside Waverly and fired a shotgun towards him. The shot shattered the back window and caused Waverly to drive off the side of the road, but no other damage or injury was sustained.
4. Lawrence T. Russell, a local merchant, appears saying that at 11:00 o'clock this morning he saw a 1990 red Chevrolet, N.C. license TRT442, driven by Thomas Sudland, run a red light at the corner of 8th Street and Mud Avenue.
5. Detective Roland Garland comes in with Lewis Wells who says that last night at 11:30 p.m. Bobby Hanners jumped on him, Wells, in Joe's Roadside Bar on Hopewell Boulevard. Hanners pulled a hunting knife with an 8" blade and cut Wells several times. Only one of the cuts required stitches, 5 stitches on the left hand. Wells doesn't know Hanners but got his name from the bartender, who thinks Hanners, a 6'3", 200 lb., white male, 25 years old, lives at Good-View Trailer Park.
6. Merchant Sally Kessler comes and tells you that Peter Kirkman wrote a worthless check in the amount of $79.95 when he bought some tools last week. Kirkman, white male, 27 years old, lives in an adjoining county at 22 Westover Drive, Smithville.

7. About 20 minutes ago officer Robert Lucas of the Franklin Police Department stopped Alice Lodge to give her a ticket for running a stop sign. Lodge's boyfriend, Fred Chambers, jumped out of the passenger's seat, ran around the car, called Lucas a "fat ignorant jerk" and shoved him to the ground while Lucas was trying to complete the citation. Lucas has placed Chambers under arrest for obstructing an officer and has now brought him before you. Chambers is white, 27 years old, and lives at 1414 Lockwood Circle.
8. Louise Day Hill, a sales clerk at Ivey's in Downtown Mall, Franklin, caught Ira Davis with a Wilson's Originals blouse, size 9, in her shopping bag while she was in the store. The blouse still had the Ivey's tag on it, indicating a price of $17.99. Davis is 19, white, lives at Apt. 13C, Old Towne Apartments, Kensington Drive. She is a local college student. Hill wants you to issue an arrest warrant.
9. Douglas Feldon, a security guard at Downtown Mall, Franklin, appears and explains that earlier today he caught Rita Davis in the parking lot of the mall with a pair of Brobeggio women's shoes, size 8 narrow. Feldon chased Davis after being told by Louise Day Hill, a sales clerk at Ivey's, that Davis had taken the shoes without paying. The shoes were in a box held in Davis's hand and the price tag had been torn off. Hill said the shoes sell for $28.95. Feldon checked Davis' driver's license which said that she lives at Apt. 13C, Old Towne Apartments, Kensington Drive, and is 26 years old. She is white. Feldon took the shoes back and let Davis go; he wants a warrant against her for shoplifting.
10. Detective Albert Simmons appears and says that John "The Breadman" Harding broke the kitchen window and entered Diana Stallings' house at 451 Mason Court at 1 a.m. last night. A house guest, Levine Kelley, caught Harding while he was in the living room and before anything had been disturbed by Harding. Harding has no known local address presently. He is about 30, black, about 6', 180 pounds.
11. Detective Ross Davidson appears and says that Eddie Fern entered Ross and Casey's Fine Appliances, 5660 Stanley Drive, through the unlocked back door at some time between 9 p.m., last Friday and 8 a.m., Saturday. Fern took a 13" Sony color television, serial #ART890034, and a Mr. Coffee coffee maker, DiMaggio special, model 53B. The television set is valued at $359.95 and the coffee maker at $27.50. Fern is 29, white, lives at 452 Jefferson Court.
12. Patrolman Robert Evans arrests Gilbert Sullivan and takes him to the magistrate's office. At 10:00 p.m. tonight Sullivan walked into Ken's Quickie Mart, Highway 430, about two miles out of town, pulled a pistol, pointed it at the manager, Kenneth Evans, and said, "Give me all your cash or I'll blow your damn head off." Evans complied, handing Sullivan about $450 in cash. The only customer in the store at the time was Rayline Corley, a 50-year-old housewife buying some bread and eggs.
13. Tom Martin and Mumford Ford have been feuding about a girl for about three months. Ford comes in and tells you that this morning Martin broke into Ford's apartment, #45B Old Towne Apartments, and painted "pig," "queer," and "toad" on the living room and bedroom walls in letters about two feet high. Martin is white, 24, and lives at #237 Village East, Westwood.

14. Detective Mason Gruder appears and says that last Saturday morning Haywood Goodman went into Larry Oldman's unlocked 1994 Pontiac while it was parked in the parking lot of Lynwood's Funeral Home, 1220 Patton Avenue, and took a tan sports coat worth about $45. He also tore out and took Aldham's Motorola KZR12 cassette tape recorder worth about $180. Goodman is 32, black, and works at Franklin Auto Repair, 1200 Fuquay Road; Gruder does not know his home address.

15. Manning Brandon and Susan Stewart come in and say that about 11 p.m. tonight that John Black was in the Frog's Kiss bar and had been drinking several beers. He walked up to a table at which Stewart and Brandon were sitting and said to Stewart, "Hey, you're quite some honey. Why don't you drop this queer turkey and come with me. I'd really like to give it to you in bed." Stewart was quite embarrassed and Brandon became angry. Brandon told Black to leave, to which Black replied, "Buzz off, you stringy pimp fairy." At that, Brandon leaped to his feet ready to strike Black, but several people intervened and no blows were actually inflicted by either party. Lloyd Crane, the bartender at the time, has come in also and says the story is true. Crane knows that Black, about 25, 6', 175 pounds, lives at the Hot Springs Trailer Park on Old Canton Road. Brandon and Stewart ask for a warrant for verbal assault.

16. Janice Monroe appears and says Charlie Davis was dating her until they had a violent argument last week. Monroe told Davis she never wanted to see him again. Saturday morning Davis went to Monroe's house at 213 Corbin Lane. Monroe ordered him to leave, but he refused and then picked up a lawn chair from the front yard and threw it through her front window. It will cost about $25 to have the window replaced; the lawn chair, worth about $6, was broken. Davis is 37, white, and lives at 340 Greenwich Road.

17. Tom Martin and Mumford Ford have been feuding over a girl for several months. Ford comes in and says that yesterday, Martin came up to him on the street, shook his fist at him, and said, "I've lost my patience with you. You keep away from Tricia from now on or I'll beat the hell out of you." Ford is afraid of Martin because Martin is about six inches taller and weighs 50 pounds more than him. Martin's age, address, etc. is given in #13 above.

EXCEPTIONS TO PRETRIAL RELEASE PROCEDURES: A GUIDE FOR MAGISTRATES

THE GENERAL RULE: On arrest, the defendant must be taken without unnecessary delay before a magistrate, who MUST hold an initial appearance and set pretrial release (PTR) conditions. G.S. 15A-511. There are LIMITED exceptions to this rule.*

Category	Specific Situation	Response	Statutory Basis	Form to Use
Delay initial appearance altogether	Person is unable to understand rights (ex., person is unconscious, grossly intoxicated, does not understand English)	Delay initial appearance for reasonable time without setting PTR conditions. If you commit person to jail until able to understand rights, set reasonable outer time limit and check regularly with jail. To avoid delay of initial appearance if person does not speak English, use telephone interpreting service when possible.	15A-511(a)(3)	AOC-CR-200 Fill out commitment portion of form only. Check the box to hold person "for the following purpose" and write purpose. Do not set PTR conditions in upper portion of form.
Conduct initial appearance, BUT delay setting pretrial release conditions	Person is charged with domestic violence offense under "48-hour" law	Conduct initial appearance, but do not set PTR conditions. Order that person be returned to magistrate if judge does not set PTR conditions within 48 hours. After 48 hours, magistrate has authority to delay setting of PTR conditions for reasonable time if person continues to pose danger, but authority should rarely be used.	15A-534.1	AOC-CR-200 Fill out commitment portion of form only. Check the domestic violence box and indicate when defendant should be returned to magistrate if judge has not acted.
	Felony by person on probation if insufficient information about danger to public	Conduct initial appearance, but do not set PTR conditions. Order that person be brought for first appearance before judge no later than 96 hours. If sufficient information before then, set PTR conditions.	15A-534(d2)	AOC-CR-200, AOC-CR-272 (side one) Check the appropriate box in AOC-CR-200 and fill out AOC-CR-272 (side one)
	Violation of probation by person who has pending felony charge or who is subject to sex offender registration if insufficient information about danger to public	Conduct initial appearance, but do not set PTR conditions. If defendant has been held for 7 days without PTR conditions, defendant must be brought before any judicial official to set PTR conditions. If sufficient information before then that not a danger, set PTR conditions.	15A-1345(b1)	AOC-CR-200, AOC-CR-272 (side two) Check the appropriate box in AOC-CR-200 and fill out AOC-CR-272 (side two)

PROBLEMS IN DETERMINING THE CONDITIONS OF PRETRIAL RELEASE

[Choose best answer(s) for each problem]

1. Frank Furrillo is arrested and brought before you for communicating threats to Joyce Davenport. Furrillo has been living as if married with Davenport for the past 18 months. Furrillo appears to be very upset at being arrested, but he cooperates with you and makes no threats. What action should you take?
  - a. Set release conditions as usual.
  - b. Set release conditions and commit him to jail for a reasonable time.
  - c. Do not set release conditions and commit him to jail for a reasonable time.
  - d. Place him in a holding cell for about 30 minutes.
  - e. Commit him to jail because only a judge may set release conditions for the period of 48 hours from Furrillo's arrest.

2. Rex "High Ball" Lincoln has been arrested and charged with driving while impaired. Lincoln is able to understand his procedural rights, but there is clear and convincing evidence that he presents a danger, if he is released, of physical injury to himself or others. What action should you take?
  - a. Order him detained until he is no longer impaired, up to 24 hours.
  - b. Set a high secured bond that he won't be able to meet for a while.
  - c. Set conditions of pretrial release, and order him detained for a while.
  - d. Set conditions of pretrial release, and order him detained until his mental and physical faculties are no longer impaired, up to 24 hours or a specified time less than 24 hours, or until a sober, responsible adult is willing and able to assume responsibility for the defendant until the defendant is no longer impaired.

3. Charles Manson was arrested and was charged with being drunk and disruptive. After you have found probable cause he starts screaming obscenities in a loud voice. You ask him to be quiet and he yells louder. This continues for several minutes and then he quiets down. Every few minutes he continues to mumble obscenities. What action should you take?
  - a. Place him in a holding cell for about 30 minutes.
  - b. Set release conditions as usual.
  - c. Set release conditions and commit him to jail for a reasonable time.
  - d. Do not set release conditions and commit him to jail for a reasonable time.

4. Amy Ames, a local prostitute, is arrested and charged with assault on a government officer. She walked up to his patrol car, leaned in the open window, yelled "buzz off," and slapped him in the face. You have placed her under a $500 secured bond. May you specify that the bond is to be satisfied with "cash only"?
  - a. Yes
  - b. No, unless authorized by a judge in local pretrial release policy

5. It is near the end of your shift and you have just conducted an initial appearance for Wilson Snipes. You have placed him under a $2,000 secured bond. Snipes is resting uncomfortably in the jail because he cannot make bond. On the next shift (you are asleep at home) another magistrate, without consulting you, modifies Mr. Snipes' bond and places him under an unsecured bond. Snipes is released. Was the second magistrate's modification legally authorized based on these facts?

Now, defendant's mother only has $500 but she brings in three other relatives who have $500 each. They do not intend to make the cash available to satisfy the defendant's obligations and want to split the bond. What do you do? If your county allows splitting, how do you fill out the forms?

15. Defendant was arrested by law enforcement officers on a DCI hit on a warrant from another county. The officers do not have the warrant when they bring the defendant to you. What should you do?

PROBLEMS IN SETTING PRETRIAL RELEASE CONDITIONS

Instructions: For the following problems set the conditions of pretrial release as you would do so in your county.

To assist in doing these problems, the following is a list of each class of felonies and the minimum and maximum punishment for each, with the minimum based on a mitigated sentence in Prior Record Level 1 and the maximum based on an aggravated sentence in Prior Record Level VI:

Class A.....	life without parole or death	Class E.....	15 to 85 months
Class B1.....	144 months to life without parole	Class F.....	10 to 50 months
Class B2.....	94 to 481 months	Class G.....	8 to 38 months
Class C.....	44 to 228 months	Class H.....	4 to 30 months
Class D.....	38 to 201 months	Class I.....	3 to 15 months

1. Detective Steve Roman arrests without a warrant and brings in Allen Watts Ewing, age 26, of 1150 Brookside Drive. Earlier this evening—in the course of a search of Ewing’s home with a search warrant—ten pounds of marijuana were found in his bedroom. He also had a .38 caliber pistol under his jacket in his belt. Ewing has two previous arrests and convictions for misdemeanor assault and has been employed as a cook at the same place for the past two years.

The charges are maintaining a dwelling and possession with intent to sell or deliver (Class I felony)

2. Officer Kerry Davis arrests without a warrant Jerry Dennis Lawrence, age 17, of 1407 Roosevelt Drive, and brings him to you. Early this afternoon, Lawrence saw the keys in the ignition of Marsha Williams’ 1982 Volkswagen, license TRG 887, when the car was parked on Kennedy Street. Lawrence got in the car, drove it to Frame Street on the other side of town, and abandoned it, just before being apprehended by Davis. Lawrence lives with his parents and is a high school student. He has a previous conviction for reckless driving.

The charge is unauthorized use of conveyance (Class 1 misdemeanor)

3. SBI agent Felix Katz brings in Troy K. Cake, age 24, arrested under an arrest warrant for selling heroin and possessing heroin with intent to sell and deliver. The arrest warrant was issued in a county located 200 miles from your county. Cake has no prior arrests. Cake has $1,500 cash and says he would be willing to post a cash bond.

The charges are sale of heroin (Class G felony) and possession with intent (Class H felony)

4. A Highway Patrol Officer arrest K.T. Rowse, age 19, of 65 Roosevelt Drive, for DWI. Rowse's alcohol concentration is 0.27. Rowse is cooperative but appears to be extremely intoxicated. There is no sober adult willing and able to take care of him.

The charge is DWI

5. A new .45 caliber Smith & Wesson revolver, serial #RR456J77, fair market value of $345, was stolen from Smithville Gun and Hobby Shop during a nighttime break-in two days ago. An undercover officer bought it this morning for $30 from Fred Lloyd, age 30, and then arrested him without a warrant and brings him to you. Lloyd is a resident of the county and has one prior conviction for felonious breaking and entering.

The charges are felony breaking and entering and felony larceny (Class H felonies) and possession of firearm by a felon (Class G felony)

6. Detective Nancy Stone arrests Wayne Buchanan without a warrant and brings him to you and explains: Last night Wayne Buchanan poured gasoline inside and set fire to Donald Bell's 1991 Ford Mustang. The entire back seat was burned before the fire was extinguished. Buchanan is 16 years old and lives with his parents in town. He refuses to be released to the custody of his parents and he has previously failed to appear in court for a reckless driving charge.

The charges are burning personal property (Class H felony) and malicious use of an incendiary device (Class G felony)

7. Deputy Sheriff Samuel Burden arrests Steve Wiles, age 18, with an order for arrest for Wiles for failing to appear in court for the charge of accessory after the fact of armed robbery. The order for arrest was issued by a district court judge in your county and bears the notation "$25,000 secured bond."

No new charge

8. A city police officer arrests Susan T. Jones, age 35, of 66 E. Main Street, for DWI. Jones's alcohol concentration is 0.20. Jones is uncooperative and extremely intoxicated. Her husband, age 37, was a passenger in the car that Jones was driving. He is sober, has a valid driver's license, and states that he will take care of her until she becomes sober.

The charge is DWI

9. Officer Jesse Wilson appears at your office with Ron Z. Bloat, age 31. The officer has arrested Bloat based on an outstanding arrest warrant for a $55 worthless check. It is Saturday night. Bloat has a long history of mental trouble. Shortly after his appearance a worker from the Franklin Mental Health Clinic appears and says the Clinic would be happy to see to it that Bloat appears in court.

No new charge

APPLYING THE LAW OF SEARCH WARRANTS

PREFACE

These materials are intended to help you learn how to apply the law of search warrants in making decisions that a magistrate might be required to make when dealing with search warrants. Although they are directed toward teaching a magistrate how to determine probable cause and how to fill-out a search warrant, they also are applicable to teaching these duties to a law enforcement officer. These materials are intended to guide you toward learning skills in applying the law of search and seizure. When you have successfully learned a skill, you should be able to make a correct decision in a situation that calls for the skill. Following is a list of the skills that you should learn from these materials.

- A. To determine whether a given set of facts justifies the issuance of a search warrant.
- B. To draw out from a law enforcement officer the information that is necessary to establish probable cause.
- C. To write an adequate description of the property to be searched for.
- D. To write an adequate description of the place to be searched.
- E. To follow the proper procedure in issuing a search warrant.

The materials are divided into an introduction and five sections. Each section is directed toward one of the skills listed above. The material in these sections is largely presented in the form of "programmed" instruction. This means that you will be asked to fill in blanks and supply the answers to questions using information that has appeared in the material. When you come to one of these blanks or questions, you may certainly read back over the material to find the answer. The answer itself appears below the question, in single-spaced type enclosed between two lines. You should keep that answer covered, however, until you have answered the question yourself. Proceeding in this way helps you to master the material more easily. Read each answer all the way through. Take your time and reread any preceding material if you do not understand an answer. If you still have questions you will be provided an opportunity to ask them later. Remember, you are teaching yourself a subject basic to the proper performance of your duties.

INTRODUCTION

Americans traditionally have resented the invasion of individual privacy by government officials for the purpose of search. Yet they have recognized the necessity of invading individual privacy in order to detect and to prevent crime. The law of search and seizure has grown in response to the need to balance these two interests.

The Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States responds to this conflict by prohibiting "unreasonable" searches and seizures. This command is directed to both federal and state governments. In addition, the Constitution of North Carolina, which prohibits the general warrant (authorizing arbitrary searches) as "dangerous to liberty," has been expanded by judicial interpretation to encompass a general prohibition against unreasonable searches and seizures.

Origin of the Law of Search and Seizure

The Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States provides: "The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the persons or things to be seized."

The laws of search and seizure has developed largely in response to the _____ Amendment to the United States _____. This amendment requires that searches be _____ and sets out requirements for search warrants.

The law of search and seizure has developed largely in response to the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and requires that searches be reasonable.

---

Article I, Section 20 of the Constitution of North Carolina provides: "General warrants, whereby any officer or messenger may be commanded to search suspected places without evidence of the act committed, or to seize any person or persons not named, whose offense is not particularly described and supported by evidence, are dangerous to liberty and shall not be granted."

The North Carolina Constitution prohibits _____ warrants.

The North Carolina Constitution prohibits general warrants and encompasses a general prohibition against unreasonable searches and seizures.

---

In recent years, court cases and a fairly small number of statutes have put additional flesh on the bones of these _____ requirements to protect people's privacy.

---

The constitutional requirements have been clarified in recent years.

---

The law of search and seizure are aimed at protecting for everyone a basic American right--the right to be left alone. The law helps to p_____ this r_____ by restricting government officials' power to interfere with people's _____.

---

The law of search and seizure helps to protect this right to be left alone by restricting official action in interfering with people's privacy.

If an officer wants to search an individual's person or property, the officer may do so as long as the officer does not illegally _____ with the individual's privacy.

---

An officer may not illegally interfere with a person's privacy.

The law of search and seizure attempt to balance the need to enforce laws against the need to _____ people's _____ to be _____ alone.

---

To protect people's right to be left alone is a major purpose of the laws of search and seizure.

One of the traditional means of protecting the right to privacy has been to require law enforcement officers to obtain a search warrant from a neutral judicial officer. Decisions of both the United States Supreme Court and the North Carolina Supreme Court make clear the importance of the role of the magistrate as a check on the power of the state to interfere with a person's privacy. These decisions have required that the judicial officer be neutral, that the person applying for the warrant demonstrate probable cause to make a search, and that the warrant and its supporting affidavit specify the justification for the search.

Your principal function as a magistrate then is to exercise your independent judgment in evaluating facts presented to you by a law enforcement officer to see if they establish p_____ c_____ and therefore _____ the issuance of a search warrant.

In issuing search warrants, the magistrate's primary function is to use neutral and independent judgment to determine if the facts described by the officer establish probable cause to justify the issuance of the warrant.

Failure to comply with the constitutional requirements can result in adverse effects on both the state and the officer executing the search warrant. The courts refuse to admit into evidence information and objects obtained from a search based on an invalid search warrant. The result is that the state is unable to convict some offenders because the constitutional requirements for a valid search were not satisfied. The warrant may in some cases be so defective as to subject the officer executing it to civil and criminal penalties and disciplinary action by the officer's employing agency.

Two practical consequences of an invalid search warrant are the real possibilities that the state may find that information critical to a conviction is in _____ in evidence or that the officer executing the invalid warrant faces _____ and _____ sanctions for doing so.

The invalid search warrant presents real problems for the prosecution because essential evidence may be inadmissible and may subject the law enforcement officer to criminal and civil sanctions.

Of course the most serious result is a weakness in our system of criminal justice that comes from the failure of the judicial officer to exercise independent judgment as a _____ on the power of the state to invade the _____ of its citizens.

The most serious consequence of the magistrate's failure to observe constitutional requirements in issuing a search warrant is the harm that is done to our system of criminal justice because the magistrate does not act as a check on the state's power to interfere with a person's privacy.

---

Section A

The purpose of this section is to develop the skill to determine whether a given set of facts justifies the issuance of a search warrant.

As discussed in the introduction, a basic constitutional requirement for any search is probable cause. One of the judicial officer's most difficult problems is determining whether the facts related by an officer establish probable cause to support the issuance of a valid search warrant. This determination, however, is one of the most valuable contributions that a magistrate makes. An independent evaluation of the facts when an officer applies for a search warrant can prevent an illegal search, the results of which may be excluded from evidence at trial. Probable cause for a search requires enough knowledge to lead a reasonable person to believe that there is a fair probability that the object of the search is in the place to be searched. Probable cause, then, is based on the use of judgment by a _____ person. It is (more/less) than reasonable suspicion but (more/less) than proof beyond a reasonable doubt.

Probable cause is based on the judgment of a reasonable person. It must be more than reasonable suspicion but less than proof beyond a reasonable doubt.

CASE: Several residents living near a bank which had just been robbed described to police a car (including license number) which had been at the bank before the robbery and left immediately after the robbery occurred. They saw a man with a satchel run from the bank into the car at the time of robbery. Is this information sufficient to establish probable cause that the fruits of the robbery are in the suspect's car?

The evidence provided by the residents was sufficient to show probable cause for a warrant. A reasonable man would believe that it was likely that the stolen money would be in the car, even though it is not certain.

CASE: A woman called the police that The Cove, a local night club, was selling crack cocaine. Her son had come home apparently having just used cocaine, and she said that it was common knowledge that The Cove was the only place her son could obtain cocaine in her small rural community. Does probable cause exist to indicate that cocaine is present at The Cove?

Probable cause does not exist. The only indication that cocaine were there was the woman's vague belief that her son obtained cocaine at The Cove. She did not see anyone sell cocaine to her son, nor did she claim that her son had ever told her that he purchased cocaine from The Cove. This information would not convince a reasonable person of the likelihood of finding cocaine for sale at The Cove.

CASE: A city law enforcement officer comes into your office and says that the officer has just received an anonymous telephone call which said that a noted drug dealer had heroin in his house. The officer wants you to issue a warrant to search the house for heroin. What should you do?

---

The facts given by the officer, based solely on an anonymous telephone call, are no more than speculation about what is in the house. You should refuse to issue the warrant unless the officer can swear to specific facts that would lead a reasonable person to believe there is a fair probability that heroin is in the house. The next section contains instruction about obtaining those specific facts.

One of the most difficult situations in which you will have to determine if probable cause exists is the case when an officer wants a search warrant based on a confidential informant's report. The officer naturally wishes to protect the informant's identity as much as possible, but must show enough facts to indicate probable cause for the search. Specific information must be included in the search warrant application when an informant's report is being used. The officer should state specifically why the informant is probably telling the truth and give enough information to convince a reasonable person that the informant is indeed telling the truth. In other words, the informant should be shown to be reliable (or the informant's information should be shown to be reliable). However, the informant's name does not have to be revealed to the magistrate or appear in the application.

An informant's _____ or the _____ of the informant's information should be established when a search warrant is based on an informant's report.

It is important to establish an informant's reliability or the reliability of the informant's information when an informant's report is used in a search warrant application.

Just exactly what information will be sufficient to establish an informant's reliability in any given case is unclear. But it helps if the officer can state how often the officer has relied on the informant's information and how often this information has led to an arrest and/or conviction.

Determine whether the following statement is adequate to establish the informant's reliability: "A reliable and confidential informant who has in the past given me, Detective Don Smith, information that has resulted in arrests and convictions in court on drug charges six times."

This is a fairly common way of stating an informant's record of reliability and is sufficient. But the statement can be strengthened considerably if the officer states how often the informant has volunteered information and that the information has generally been accurate.

The informant's good track record is not the only factor to be considered. Especially when the informant is used for the first time, you should consider the informant's relationship to the suspect, the likelihood of that informant having the particular information, and any other factor the officer would know that would increase the likelihood that the informant was not an irresponsible person giving false information.

Another way to show that the informant's report is reliable is for the officer requesting the warrant to offer evidence of independent personal information about the suspect that supports or corroborates the informant's report. This knowledge must be shown in the affidavit by specific facts and not by the mere assertion that the officer has such information. Determine whether the following statement is adequate: "This officer has personal knowledge that the person named in the warrant is a user of narcotics."

The officer may indeed have such information, but has not said what it is. This statement establishes no more than a mere assertion that such information exists. The court will want to know (and so should you) just exactly what the officer knows to support a belief that the suspect is a narcotics user.

---

The informant should be able to supply enough information to convince a reasonable person that the suspect is indeed engaging in an illegal activity and that the informant is not merely passing on a rumor. Consider the following statement: "The informant states that his roommate told him that a man, whose name he thinks is John Doe, was on Main Street last night selling amphetamine pills." Is this informant's report sufficient probable cause to issue a warrant?

It is evident from the statement that the informant has no firsthand knowledge of the alleged offense. Further, assuming as a court will, that the statement contains all the information that the informant has, the informant is unable to accurately identify the suspect or give enough facts about the alleged offense to be sure that a violation of law actually took place. A warrant based on this information would be invalid, and evidence obtained in a search in executing the warrant would be inadmissible in court.

In other words, even though the informant is reliable, there should be an indication of the basis of the informant's conclusion and not just the conclusion itself.

In short, an application for a search warrant based on an informant's report should contain enough facts to indicate the source of the informant's conclusion and that the information is not a mere r_____. And it should establish the informant's r_____, including, when possible, the officer's p_____ k_____ that supports the informant's report.

Before an informant's information may be used as a basis for a valid warrant, the application should indicate enough to establish that the information is not a mere rumor. The informant's reliability should also be shown, and it's especially helpful if the officer's personal knowledge corroborates the informant's report.

Is the following affidavit adequate under the guidelines discussed above?

"A reliable informant, who has in the past volunteered information on three occasions that resulted in an arrest and conviction each time, within the past 24 hours told me, Detective Jane Miller, that Henry Smith has in his house located at 24 Main St., Dunn, N.C., a quantity of the controlled substance, amphetamine. The informant told me he saw the a large quantity of amphetamines in the house within the past 72 hours, and at that time he received several amphetamine pills that came from Henry Smith while he was in the kitchen. I have suspected Henry Smith of possessing amphetamines since three months ago when I arrested him during a raid at a party at which amphetamines and other narcotics were being used. I have seen Henry Smith since that time in the company of other confirmed users of narcotic drugs on several occasions."

This is a good example of the type of information that an affidavit should contain when based on an informant's report. The basis of his conclusion is stated (he saw the drugs) and his reliability is shown by his track record and by the officer's information which corroborates the informant's report. In addition, the report gives the time when the informant saw the drugs in the house as well as the time the informant gave his information to Detective Jane Miller.

Sometimes information is supplied by informants who are not merely confidential—they are anonymous. Even the officer does not know the identity of the person who has given the information. Anonymous information by itself is insufficient to establish probable cause. In some cases, however, anonymous information may help to establish probable cause if the officer provides other corroborating and reliable information so that the totality of circumstances establish a fair probability that the object of the search is in the place to be searched.

Anonymous information by itself is _____ to establish probable cause. However, anonymous information along with other corroborating and reliable information may establish probable cause when the t _____ of the circumstances establish a f _____ p _____ that the object of the search is in the place to be searched.

Anonymous information by itself is insufficient to establish probable cause. However, when the totality of circumstances presented, including the anonymous information, establishes a fair probability that the object of the search can be found in the place to be searched, then probable cause exists to issue a search warrant.

Section B

The purpose of this section is to develop the ability to draw out information from an officer which will support probable cause.

In the previous section we took a look at what facts constitute probable cause. As you have probably guessed, probable cause is a fairly ambiguous concept. Often an officer will actually have good reason to believe that contraband may be found in a certain place but fail to articulate reasons adequately to establish probable cause for issuance of the warrant. In these situations you will need to be able to spot weaknesses in the officer's statement of facts and then question the officer to see if the information is sufficient to justify the issuance of a warrant. In this section you will practice picking out the weak spots in various statements of facts.

As we have seen before, probable cause is information which would lead a _____ person to believe that the object of the search is in the place to be searched.

The information should be sufficient to cause a reasonable person to believe that the object of the search is really in the place to be searched.

From the list that follows, choose the items which would lead a reasonable person to believe that contraband could be found in a certain house:

- A. A detailed report from a confidential informant whose previous reports had been accurate and which showed that he had seen a suspect selling drugs in his house, confirming what the police already had suspected.

- B. A tip from a Department of Social Services caseworker who during a house call had seen marijuana growing behind the house.
- C. A complaint from an irate woman that her neighbors were car thieves because they had several cars in their yard which they were apparently "stripping."
- D. A report by an officer that she saw and smelled what appeared to be several gallon jugs of whiskey partially covered by a sheet in the kitchen of a house when called to the house concerning a possible domestic dispute.

Answers "A" and "D" are fairly clearly facts that would cause a reasonable person to believe that contraband could indeed be found at the location described by the officer or informant. Answer "B" could be very strong evidence that marijuana could be found behind the house, but what additional information would you want to know? Wouldn't it be reasonable to first satisfy yourself that the caseworker was capable of identify growing marijuana? Answer "C" pretty clearly could not stand by itself. A reasonable person could think of several explanations for the presence of the automobiles which would be at least as reasonable as the possibility that they were stolen. If an officer had come to you with the woman's complaint and asked for a warrant, what additional information would you want? At the very least the officer should drive by the house to see if any of the cars resemble those reported stolen, and to make other inquiries regarding the activities of the occupants of the house.

Consider the case situations which follow and write in the space provided the kind of additional information that would be required to establish probable cause.

CASE: An officer comes to you and says that the officer has been watching a suspect who previously has been convicted of possessing stolen goods. This man has been meeting another man who has also been convicted of possessing stolen goods in the latter's house at regular intervals. The officer states that the officer has personally seen the suspect enter the house several times with VCR's, stereo equipment, and television sets, and that the suspect's wife has also been seen at the house.

---

The facts that the officer gave simply do not establish illegal activity any more than legal activity. The facts that will constitute probable cause are (1) facts that are inconsistent with lawful activity (or if the facts by themselves are consistent with lawful activity, what makes those facts collectively appear to be indicators of illegal activity, based on the officer's training or experience), or (2) the presence of evidence of illegal activity. The facts in the stolen goods case described above can be explained just as easily by legal as illegal conduct, so there is not yet probable cause. You might try to find out whether the officer has evidence of whether the goods being brought to the house are stolen, whether there have been recent break-ins in the community which these kind of goods have been stolen, whether a reliable informant had passed on information indicating that the suspect is currently dealing in these kind of stolen goods, etc.

CASE: An officer comes to you and says that the officer has a report from an informant that there is going to be a drug party at a certain house tonight in which marijuana, LSD, and possibly cocaine will be distributed to the guests. The officer has a list of names, including the occupant of the house and several of the guests. The officer knows what time it is going to be held and how much of each drug will be available. The officer knows that several of the persons listed have been convicted of possessing drugs and that almost all have been suspected of being drug users.

---

---

The officer has information indicating that there will indeed be contraband at the place to be searched, but the officer has neglected to give any information concerning the reliability of the informant and how the informant knew that the party is going to be held there (that is, the informant's basis of knowledge). You will want to know what the officer's experience has been with this informant and any other information that would tend to show that the informant knew what he was talking about.

CASE: An officer asks for a warrant to search a house based on an informant's report. This informant has cooperated with the department several times. Most of the informant's reports have resulted in convictions and all have resulted in arrests. The informant states that yesterday he was playing poker in a regularly held game out in a house in the country when one of the players, who lived in the house, put a quart of nontaxpaid whiskey on the table. When the other players questioned him about where he had gotten it, he jokingly said that he was "picking up a little extra money between Asheville and Morganton on Friday nights." The informant also stated that he had seen in the kitchen two cardboard cartons of quart jars identical to the one on the table that looked like they had white liquor in them. He also said that the man's name was Harry James and provided the exact location of the house. The officer said that the officer has had Harry James under surveillance off and on for several months.

Although this information might be sufficient to establish probable cause (especially if something was said about the informant's ability to recognize nontaxpaid liquor), it would be helped by providing more specific information about the officer's own personal knowledge of Harry James's involvement with nontaxpaid liquor that would support the informant's report. A statement that the officer "suspected" or had "been watching" the suspect for some time is not particularly useful. What had the officer seen while having James under surveillance?

CASE: An officer requests a warrant to search a house based on an informant's report. The informant has volunteered information about drug cases on six separate occasions, and all have resulted in convictions. The informant stated that the informant thinks that the occupant of a house (giving its address) is selling crack cocaine. The basis of his conclusion is the fact that he has seen several young people stop briefly at the house, talk to the occupant, and then leave. The informant knows one of the young people to be a user of cocaine. This person is also known to the officer as having been convicted of possession of cocaine and is now on probation.

---

The facts given by the informant do not establish probable cause. There are just as many legitimate reasons for the people to be going to the house as illegal, and there is no specific information about selling cocaine. Don't be fooled by the proven reliability of the informant. The facts given in each case must be considered independently. In this case the officer will have to get more specific information, if possible, from the informant or from other sources to support a belief that cocaine is being sold from the house. You probably noticed that the officer's personal corroboration of the informant's report concerned only one of the people going to the house.

Section C

The purpose of this section is to develop the skill to write an adequate description of the property to be searched for.

The search warrant must describe as accurately as possible what the officer is to look for, so that it will not appear to authorize the officer to grab everything in the place and so that the officer can identify the property to be seized. The warrant must describe _____ the officer is looking for and the description must be detailed enough that the officer can _____ the property if the officer finds it.

The officer must know as accurately as possible what to be looking for and to be able to recognize/identify the property if the officer sees it.

If the officer is searching for a stolen refrigerator, the officer needs a clear idea of what this stolen refrigerator looks like (identifying marks, model number, serial number, etc.) so that the officer will be unlikely to take one that is legally owned.

Below are three descriptions of property to be searched for. In each case indicate whether you think the description was precise enough to be considered valid.

Description 1: ". . . certain evidence of the crime (possession of stolen goods) was to be found on the defendant's person and his residence . . ." (valid/invalid) Why?

Invalid. Not specific in any way.

---

Description 2: The warrant directed the officers to seize any property ". . . being used and/or possessed in violation of . . ." the obscenity statute. (valid/invalid) Why?

---

Invalid. The court ruled that the warrant was too general in that it gave no guidelines to the officers as to what is obscene and what is not.

Description 3: The warrant described ". . . a set of Wilson Staff golf clubs with rubber grips, in fairly worn condition . . ." to be searched for in the defendant's house. (valid/invalid) Why?

---

Valid. The description indicates the item which should be seized with enough precision so that it would be unlikely that legally owned property would be taken by mistake.

When the kind of property the officer is searching for can never be possessed legally, the description need not be as detailed as when the property the officer is searching for can be confused with something that can be legally possessed.

If the warrant says only to seize "heroin" then it (can/cannot) be interpreted to permit the officer to take something that the owner is entitled to have. This is because the owner can (sometimes/never/always) have heroin.

Describing "heroin" as the property to be seized cannot be interpreted as permitting the officer to take away something the owner is entitled to have, because the owner can never legally possess heroin.

---

Section D

The purpose of this section is to develop the skill to write an adequate description of the place to be searched.

The search warrant must accurately describe the place to be searched so that the officer may reasonably be expected to find the place to be searched; otherwise it would not be clear that the warrant authorized the search actually made by the officer. The description of the place must be complete enough so that the officer _____ reasonably make a mistake and search the _____ place.

An officer cannot reasonably make a mistake and search the wrong place if the description of the place to be searched is detailed enough.

This rule ensures that the search covers only the place for which _____ to search has been shown. It is also a good idea, whenever possible, to state in the warrant the name of the person who possesses the place to be searched.

---

A full description of the place to be searched ensures that the search covers only the place for which probable cause to search has been demonstrated.

---

CASE: The affidavit reads "to search an apartment located at Colonial Arms Apts. located at 714 W. Henderson Street, Monroe, N.C." Is this description is adequate?

---

The affidavit is inadequate since there is more than one apartment at the given address. An adequate description would include the apartment number and the tenant's name, if available.

CASE: The affidavit reads, "to search apartments occupied by John Doe at 413 W. Franklin Street (Apt. 22B), Chapel Hill, N.C. and at 117 Canal Street (Apt. 6), Chapel Hill, N.C. for appliances stolen from Hill Office Supply: two IBM computers model 118, serial numbers 473-Z11368 and 356-X4629." Is this affidavit is adequate?

---

This affidavit is adequate. There's not much chance of using the warrant at the wrong place. Although not discussed before, it is better to issue a separate warrant for each of two separate places to be searched, even if they belong to the same person.

---

Section E

The purpose of this section is to develop the ability to follow the proper steps in issuing a search warrant.

In the preceding sections you have learned that p _____ c _____ consists of facts that would lead a _____ person to believe that the object of a search can be found in the place to be searched; that an adequate description of the _____ to be searched is one that would not lead the officer to make a _____ and to search the wrong place; that an adequate description of the _____ of the search is one that would prevent an officer from making a _____ and from taking property which should not be taken.

Probable cause is a factual situation that would lead a reasonable person to believe that the object of the search can be found in the place to be searched. An adequate description of the place to be searched is one that would prevent an officer from making a mistake about the place to be searched, and an adequate description of the object of the search is one that would prevent the officer from making a mistake about what to take.

If you can do what has been taught so far, you have the most important aspects of the law's requirements. Meeting these requirements is part of the general warrant-issuing procedure, which must be followed to make sure that the validity of the warrant cannot be successfully attacked.

The steps you as a magistrate must be sure to follow in issuing a search warrant are these:

1. Make sure there is a completed application for a search warrant. Either the applicant or you may complete the application (other than where signatures are required).
2. Place the applicant under oath or affirmation and swear the applicant to the truth of facts stated in application.

3. Examine the officer about the facts stated in the application.
4. If applicant tells you facts that are not stated in application, they must be added in writing to the application OR you may tape-record the testimony OR reduce it to writing on separate paper, provided you file the tape-recording or separate paper with clerk when you file the copy of the search warrant and application.
5. You may take affidavits from persons other than applicant, provided you attach them to application.
6. Determine whether descriptions of the premises and property are adequate.
7. Make sure the applicant has signed the application. Sign and date the application.
8. If a tape-recording or separate paper writing of oral testimony has been made or additional affidavits have been attached, indicate that at bottom of application and sign your name.
9. Complete the search warrant, including date and hour, signature, names of applicant and others giving information.
10. Give original (white copy) and one copy (pink copy) of warrant and application to officer.
11. File a copy (green copy) of warrant and application and tape-recording or separate writing or oral testimony, if any, with clerk.

Using these steps means, for example, that immediately after getting a completed search warrant application, you would _____ the applicant to the truth of facts in the application, and _____ the applicant about those facts.

You would swear the applicant to the truth of facts stated in the application, and examine the applicant concerning those facts.

If the applicant tells you facts that are not stated in the _____, they must be _____ to the application OR _____ or _____ AND you must file them with the clerk when you file the _____.

---

If the applicant testifies about facts not stated in the application, they must be added in writing to the application OR tape-recorded or reduced in writing on a separate paper AND you must file them with the clerk when you file the application and warrant.

---

It is important to tape-record or reduce oral testimony to writing in the application or on separate paper because the failure to do so will mean that the testimony cannot be considered in court when the validity of the search warrant is challenged.

In summary, carefully see that all the information provided for in the application and search warrant form is filled in. Remember to:

- place the applicant under oath or affirmation;
- examine the applicant about the facts stated in the application;
- if the applicant gives oral testimony about facts not stated in the application, either add facts in writing to the application or tape-record or write on a separate paper and file with the clerk;
- determine probable cause;
- check to make sure the application and the search warrant are properly signed and completed;
- file a copy (green copy) of the search warrant and application with clerk;
- give the original (white copy) and a copy (pink copy) to the officer.

Briefly these seven requirements are:

- (1) _____.
- (2) _____.
- (3) _____.
- (4) _____.
- (5) _____.
- (6) _____.
- (7) _____.

---

Briefly these seven requirements are:

- (1) swear the applicant.
  - (2) examine the applicant.
  - (3) write or record oral testimony about facts not in application.
  - (4) determine probable cause.
  - (5) make sure application and warrant complete.
  - (6) file copy (green copy) of warrant and application with clerk.
  - (7) give original (white copy) and copy (pink copy) to officer.

These are the steps that make up the whole search warrant procedure. Follow these steps, make sure probable cause has been shown, see that the descriptions are adequate . . . and you have done your job.

STATEMENTS OF PROBABLE CAUSE FOR SEARCH WARRANTS

1. The applicant states that yesterday , he purchased two ounces of cocaine. The cocaine was delivered to the applicant by Gene Orendorff, Jeff Manning, and Kenny Woods, who were arrested when they delivered the cocaine. The applicant further states that he paid $1650.00 in marked U.S. currency (listed above) for the cocaine. During the time spent on the purchase of cocaine, the applicant and the suspects were under surveillance by other officers. The applicant states that from the movement of the suspects during and before the purchase and information received from two confidential sources of information after the purchase, the applicant has reason to believe the U.S. currency (listed above) and other controlled substances are at this time located in the above described location.

Good/Bad

Why?

See State v. Hyleman, 324 N.C. 506 (1989).

2. The information contained in this application is based upon my personal knowledge and upon factual information I have received from others. A reliable informant who had provided information in the past and whose information in the past had led to arrest and conviction under the N.C. Controlled Substances Act has told the undersigned that approximately one week ago the informant saw Lilly Ann Beam with approximately one pound of marijuana at her home on Ridge Road. Another informant told the undersigned that Lilly Ann Beam sold marijuana to them today. Lilly Ann Beam is on probation for a violation of the Controlled Substances Act.

Good/Bad

Why?

See State v. Beam, 325 N.C. 217 (1989).

3. We have been informed by a reliable confidential informant that he has been inside the above address within the past 48 hours and has seen cocaine inside the residence and cocaine is being sold at this time by the above occupants. The informant is familiar with how cocaine is packaged and sold on the streets, and he has used cocaine in the past. We have known this informant for three weeks and information provided by this informant has resulted in the seizure of controlled substances included in the N.C. Controlled Substances Act and led to the arrest of at least six individuals for violations of the N.C. Controlled Substances Act.

Good/Bad

Why?

See State v. Graham, 90 N.C. App. 564 (1988).

4. I, the undersigned applicant, have been a law enforcement officer for more than three years with the Smith County Sheriff's Department. During this time I have received extensive training including Basic Law Enforcement Officer's Certification and Advanced Criminal Investigation courses presented through the North Carolina Justice Academy. During the last year I have been involved in several investigations concerning drug offenses in Smith County. Within the past five days, the person who I will refer to as "He," regardless of the person's sex, contacted me. This person offered his assistance to the city/county vice unit in the investigation of drug sales in the city and county. This person told me that he had been inside the residence described above where he observed a room filled with marijuana plants. He stated that the suspect Charles Wayne Newcomb was maintaining the plants. This applicant confirmed the identity of the suspect to be Charles Wayne Newcomb. This information was obtained through D.M.V. records through vehicle registration. This applicant further checked with Duke Power Company and found this residence to have Charles Wayne Newcomb listed as the current occupant.

Good/Bad

Why?

See State v. Newcomb, 84 N.C. App. 92 (1987).

5. Sometime between one and five days ago, the Fairchild Christian School in the City of Livingston was broken into and two microscopes (described above) were stolen. That sometime before the date of this application a reliable and confidential informant personally contacted the applicant with the information that the stolen microscopes are in the above described residence of Mark Timothy Roark.

Good/Bad

Why?

See State v. Roark, 83 N.C. App. 425 (1986).

6. I and other officers have received information from a confidential and reliable informant that the Bo King is residing at 1509 Luther Street and is possessing cocaine for the purpose of sale at 1509 Luther Street. This informant has been to 1509 Luther Street within the past 48 hours and has observed Bo King possessing cocaine. This informant is familiar with cocaine and how it is packaged for street use. We officers have known this informant for approximately one year and during this time this informant's information has led to the arrests and convictions of many people for violations of the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act.

Good/Bad

Why?

See State v. King, 92 N.C. App. 75 (1988).

7. I have received information from a confidential and reliable informant that occupants of the dwelling described above have in their possession and are selling a large quantity of cocaine. I have known this informant only one week, but during that time he has given me information that I know from police intelligence files is true. He has also introduced me to two individuals (while I was in an undercover capacity) from whom I have bought controlled substances. He has also given me information that has allowed me to buy cocaine from two other individuals. Based upon the proven reliability of this informant, I request a warrant to search the above described premises for cocaine.

Good/Bad

Why?

8. A confidential and reliable informant has given me information that occupants of the above described premises are selling large quantities of cocaine. This informant has been inside the dwelling within the past 48 hours and has seen large quantities of cocaine. Within the past 48 hours, this informant has, at my direction and while under my control, purchased a small quantity of cocaine from the dwelling occupants. The informant was searched prior to entering the dwelling. At that time he had no cocaine in his possession. I then gave the informant $200 in Department funds. I maintained constant observation while the informant entered the dwelling and until he exited the building. All other exits were observed by other officers. After the informant exited, he was again searched. A small quantity of cocaine and $75 was found on his person.

Good/Bad

Why:

9. Three days ago, an armed robbery occurred at the 7/11 Store on Main Street. Cash in the amount of $78 and a derringer pistol (pearl handles; owner applied number of 237-72-8451 on barrel) were stolen by the robber. A customer who identified himself as David Kiser stated to this affiant that he recognized the robber. He states that robber sells newspapers (the Daily Gazette) on the corner of Main Street and Elm Street. I have personally observed the subject described above selling newspapers on this corner. Employees of the Gazette confirm that this is the only subject that has sold papers on the corner of Main and Elm for the past year. The city telephone directory indicates that the suspect resides in the above described dwelling, and I have observed an automobile registered to the suspect in the driveway of the dwelling. I met my informant, Mr. Kiser, only as a result of investigating this crime. I have never before received information from Mr. Kiser. Based on this information, I request a search warrant for the above described dwelling to search for the above described derringer pistol.

Good/Bad

Why?

10. A search warrant issued on the basis of information supplied by a person named in an affidavit is usually valid if there is no reason to believe the named person's information is unreliable.

True/False

11. A search warrant issued on the basis of information supplied by a person whose identity must remain confidential is usually valid even if no other basis for reliability appears in the affidavit.

True/False

12. A magistrate may not issue a search warrant based upon hearsay.

True/False

13. Which of the following are adequate descriptions of things to be seized?
- a. “quantity of marijuana”
  - b. “quantity of stolen TV's”
  - c. “cocaine”
  - d. “stolen property”
  - e. “evidence of any crime”
  - f. “obscene magazines”
  - g. “RCA XL 100 Color TV set with a broken antenna”
  - h. “journals, registers, ledgers, canceled checks, and similar records and documents that constitute evidence of the embezzlement described in the affidavit”
  - i. “Smith & Wesson .38 Cal. revolver (4 inch barrel)”
14. Which of the following describe the place to be searched adequately?
- a. single family dwelling at 1132 Yale Place, Durham, N.C.
  - b. an apartment in the building at 198 West Cameron Avenue, Chapel Hill, N.C.
  - c. single family dwelling at 1818 Jameston Drive, Greensboro, N.C. and a 1990 Oldsmobile Delta 88, N.C. license number SFL 298, located in the driveway there
  - d. John Smith's apartment at the Oaks Apartments, Chapel Hill, N.C.
  - e. yellow 2 story stucco, Dutch colonial dwelling, located on Arrow Wood Drive (street number unknown), exactly 1 mile north of the intersection of US 15, on the east side of the road, Bahama, N.C. The dwelling has a green roof, green shutters, and a driveway with an oak tree on either side.
15. If you have a street address, there is no reason to include a physical description of the building.

True/False

16. Failure to include a physical description of the building will render a search warrant invalid even if the address (street and number) is given and is correct.

True/False

17. If the officer who applies for a search warrant gives the magistrate information other than that in the affidavit, the magistrate
- a. may not consider this information under any circumstances.
  - b. may always consider this information.
  - c. may consider this information only if the affidavit is amended or a new affidavit is submitted.
  - d. may consider this information only if the affidavit is amended or a new affidavit is submitted or if magistrate reduces the information to writing and files it with clerk, or if magistrate prepares a tape recording of the oral testimony.

OTHERS CASH MONEY FOR PIPES AND COIL. MR. BARTLETT GOES OUT TO NEW HOUSING DEVELOPMENTS, APARTMENT COMPLEXES AND ANYWHERE ELSE HE CAN FIND PIPES AND COILS AND STEALS IT FROM THESE LOCATIONS. MR. BARTLETT USES ONE OF MR. WEAVERS VEHICLES TO TRANSPORT THIS STOLEN PIPE AND COIL BACK TO MR. WEAVER. MR. WEAVER THEN SELLS THE COPPER WIRE TO A SCRAP YARD AND SPLITS THE PROFITS WITH MR. BARTLETT. MY INDEPENDENT WITNESSES TOLD ME THAT ON 3/24/07 MR. BARTLETT WENT INTO CARY DRIVING A VEHICLE THAT MR. WEAVER GAVE TO HIM TO USE. MR. BARTLETT THEN WENT WITH HIS GIRLFRIEND (KIMBERLY GRAY) TO CARY WHERE THEY MADE FOUR TRIPS BACK AND FORTH FROM CARY TO DURHAM WITH COPPER WIRE MR. BARTLETT HAD STOLEN FROM THE HOUSES. THE COPPER WIRE INCLUDED THE LARGE COPPER PIPE THAT HAD THE PLACEMENT LOCATION INSIDE THE HOUSE WRITTEN ON IT. MR. WEAVER THEN WENT TO AMERICAN METALS IN GARNER NORTH CAROLINA ON THE MORNING OF 3/25/07 AND SOLD IT. I KNOW FROM DEALING WITH AMERICAN METALS THAT THEY ONLY BUY COPPER ON WEDNESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

MY TWO INDEPENDENT WITNESSES ALSO TOLD ME THAT MR. WEAVER IS IN POSSESSION OF A SHOTGUN. MR. WEAVER KEEPS THE SHOTGUN HIDDEN INSIDE 507 PARK AVENUE. MR. WEAVER IS ALSO A CONVICTED FELON AND DOES NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO POSSESS A FIREARM.

ON 4/26/07 I SPOKE WITH A REPRESENTATIVE FROM AMERICAN METALS WHO TOLD ME THAT TIMOTHY WEAVER WAS AT THAT LOCATION THE MORNING OF 4/25/07 SELLING WIRE AND COIL. THE REPRESENTATIVE SAID MR. WEAVER WAS THERE AROUND 0900 HOURS.

Description of Evidence to be Seized

There is probable cause to believe that the following property will be contained in the residence.

- 1- STOLEN COPPER WIRE TO INCLUDE PIPE AND COIL.
- 2- FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION
- 3- TOOLS USED FOR BUGLARIES INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WIRE CUTTERS, SAWS, SCREW DRIVERS, PLIERS AND WRENCHES.
- 4- U.S. CURRENCY THAT IS THE FRUIT OF ILLEGAL SALES OF COPPER WIRE
- 5- TIMOTHY WEAVER WHITE MALE D/O/B 1/26/1960

-That it is common for persons involved in the illegal drug trade to keep on hand, that is on their person, in their residences, and / or other locations in which they have dominion and control over, paraphernalia. That this Paraphernalia would be used to weigh, manufacture, sell, distribute, package, re-package, store, secret, ingest, inhale, inject, or otherwise introduce into the body a controlled substance which would be illegal to possess;

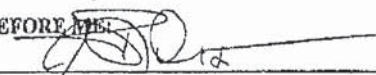

-In addition, the Affiant is aware that: during the past several months the Special Investigations Division of the Sampson County Sheriff's Office has received several complaints in reference to the sale of the controlled substance Cocaine, a controlled substance that is included in Schedule II of the North Carolina Controlled Substance Act, at the above location.

Due to these complaints, this applicant began an investigation that included surveillance and the use of a Confidential Informant.

Within the past seventy-two, (72) hours, a Confidential Informant had visited the described location at the direction and surveillance of this Applicant and while at the location the Confidential Informant made a purchase of the controlled substance. Immediately after leaving the location, the Confidential Informant met with the applicant and turned over the controlled substance.

The Confidential Informant has proven reliable by making numerous controlled buys of controlled substances at the direction of the Applicant. This was accomplished by insuring the Confidential Informant has no controlled substances in his / her possession, then furnishing the informant with Special Funds, then directing the Confidential Informant to a predetermined location known as an illegal outlet for the sale of controlled substances. The Confidential Informant was observed entering the location and after only a few minutes leaving, then meeting with the applicant and turning over the substance purchased.

-Based on the above-mentioned facts, the Applicant prays to the Court for the issuance of this Search Warrant.

CONTINUATION OF "PROBABLE CAUSE AFFIDAVIT"

This applicant swears to the following facts to establish probable cause for a search warrant: Officer M.F. Warren #353 has received information from a confidential and reliable informant who has been in 5228 Statesville Road and has seen a large quantity of the Schedule II drug Hydrocodone in the residence without a prescription. This informant states that they have been in the above described location within the past 48 hours and have seen various forms of Hydrocodone throughout the house. This officer has known this informant for approximately 9 years. During this time, this officer has used information provided by this confidential and reliable informant to be true through independent investigations. This informant is familiar with various forms of Hydrocodone and the uses of various forms of Schedule II drugs.

Officer M.F. Warren #353 has been a Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police officer for 24 years and 6 months, including 7 years of Street level Drug Interdiction. I have been to various drug schools at the federal, state and local level. I have been directly or indirectly involved with over 1,900 drug arrests and have assisted with the execution of approximately 550 search warrants. Based on this affiant's training and experience, I have knowledge that firearms, beepers, cellular phones, and U.S. Currency are commonly used in the furtherance of drug distribution.

Based on the information contained in this application, I have knowledge that firearms, beepers, cellular phones, and US currency are commonly used in the furtherance of drug distribution. Based on the information contained in this application and the proven reliability of this informant, I request that a search warrant be issued for a single story, single family dwelling, constructed of white vinyl siding with brick underpinning and black shutters, located at 5228 Statesville Road, Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, N.C., USA.

Questions on Conspiracy, Solicitation, Attempts, Principals, and Accessories

1. Tonya Hardnose, world class roller skater, suspects that her husband, Jeff McGillicuddy, and her bodyguard, Bill Moose, are planning to assault Hardnose's chief rollerskating rival, Bambi Carrigan. The plan is to break Bambi's nose with a baseball bat so that potential sponsors will not be interested in using her in commercials even if she wins the upcoming world rollerskating championship. Hardnose says nothing to the authorities, and Bambi is later assaulted. What crimes, if any, has Hardnose committed?
2. Hardnose is concerned that if the World Rollerskating Association (WSA) learns of her prior knowledge of the planned assault on Bambi, the WSA will not let her skate at the world rollerskating championship next month. After the assault takes place, Hardnose agrees with McGillicuddy that she will not report him to the police if he will not say anything to the WSA. What crimes, if any, has Hardnose committed?
3. Assume Bill Moose, Hardnose's bodyguard, goes to John Indifferent and offers him $10,000 to break Bambi's nose with a baseball bat. Indifferent says he's not interested. What crimes, if any, has Moose committed? What about John Indifferent?
4. Same facts as Question # 3, except Indifferent accepts the money. However, three weeks later he changes his mind and does not commit the assault. What crimes, if any, have Moose and Indifferent committed? What if Indifferent returns the money?
5. Suppose Bill Moose goes to Jim Survivalist and makes the same offer. Survivalist accepts the money and agrees to break Bambi's nose. Two weeks later Survivalist follows through on the plan. At the time of the assault, Moose is home asleep. What crimes, if any, has Moose committed?

NORTH CAROLINA CRIMES: REVIEW QUESTIONS ON ASSAULT AND RELATED OFFENSES

Which assault offense would be the proper charge under these facts?

1. A city law enforcement officer is on the way home, still wearing his uniform, after completing his shift for that day. For no apparent reason, another man comes up behind the officer, shoves him to the ground, and runs.

2. A husband beats his wife about her head and body with his fists, and she suffers a broken arm and lacerations to her face that requires 35 stitches.

3. A man is standing next to his house when his angry neighbor, about 50 yards away, fires a pistol at him—wanting to scare him. The shot misses about five feet to the left of the man.

4. After having a violent argument in a bar, a man is walking through the parking lot when the man he was arguing with comes at him in his car, going about 50 m.p.h. The man jumps out of the way and just avoids being hit.

5. Smith shoots a law enforcement officer who is attempting to execute a search warrant at his house. The officer suffers serious chest injuries but survives.

6. An 18 year-old male kicks a 5 year-old boy one time.

7. While being tried in district court for impaired driving, a man gets angry at the judge, jumps up on the judge's bench, and hits her twice in the shoulder.
8. While on patrol in a residential neighborhood, a city law enforcement officer has the back side window of his car shot out with a rifle.
9. An officer arrests Jones for armed robbery. While taking Jones to the magistrate's office for the initial appearance, he spits in the officer's face.
10. Unhappy with the amount of noise they are making, a theater manager grabs two 10-year old boys, drags them into his office, spansks them both, and sends them out of the theater.
11. At the end of a heated argument in a bar, one man yells at the other, "I'm going to kill you some day, you damn bastard!" He then leaves.
12. After stopping a car for impaired driving, a state trooper is jumped on by the driver. The man has a knife in his hand but the trooper manages to subdue him without being cut.
13. After being called by the neighbors, an officer finds a man standing on his front porch holding a butcher knife in his hand. He is yelling at his wife in the front yard that he will kill her if she tries to come back in the house.

14. Two men have an argument in a bar. One leaves and hides behind a car in the parking lot. When the second man comes out, the first jumps from behind the car with a knife in his hand and makes several superficial cuts before two other men intervene and stop the attack.

15. When two men pull into a parking space at the same time, one driver gets out of his car, pulls the other driver out and hits him with his fist several times, knocking the man unconscious. When he is taken to the hospital, the doctor says he has a mild concussion and will have to stay overnight.

16. Two neighbors get in an argument about the noise made by one of the neighbor's kids. After saying "I'll get even with you for those damn noisy brats of yours; I'm going to cut your damn head off," one man stabs the other in the shoulder with a nine-inch knife. He is about to stab again when stopped by another neighbor.

17. While his wallet is being taken, a man is beaten over the head with a pistol carried by the thief. When the victim raises his arm to protect himself, his arm is broken.

18. Angry that her two-year-old daughter will not stop crying, a mother deliberately places her in a bathtub with extremely hot water. The daughter suffers third-degree burns.

19. John Jones is the former husband of Susan Jones. She is now dating Howard Findley. John Jones follows her to work every day for a week, after having told her over the telephone that if she continues to date Findley, "something serious might happen" to her. Findley calls John Jones and tells him that Susan Jones wants him to stop following her to work. The next day, John Jones follows her to work again.

20. An officer arrests Peter Smith for assault on a female. Smith shoved the female in the back, and she fell down and bruised her elbow. Smith has previously been convicted of simple assault, and assault by pointing a gun. Both convictions have occurred within the past 3 years. Assuming the magistrate finds probable cause for assault on a female, what is the most serious charge that may be brought against Smith?
21. An officer arrests John Jones for assault by pointing a gun. The victim of the assault suffered no injury. He has previously been convicted of simple assault and assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury. Both convictions have occurred within the past 12 years. Assuming the magistrate finds probable cause for assault on a female, what is the most serious charge that may be brought against Jones?

NORTH CAROLINA CRIMES: REVIEW QUESTIONS ON LARCENY AND ROBBERY

Which offense would be the proper charge under these facts?

1. A man picks a lock and enters a home at 2 p.m., then takes three Playboy magazines and nothing else.

2. A man goes to another man's farm and takes a hunting dog worth about $300.

3. A woman is trying on dresses at a department store. While the sales clerk is busy elsewhere, the woman puts on one of the store's dresses worth $500 and walks out without paying for it.

4. At the State Fair a man picks the wallet out of another man's back pocket without being noticed. The wallet has about $40 in cash and four gasoline credit cards.

5. Two men are working together at the State Fair. While one bumps into a man, starts a scuffle, and pushes the man, the other slips behind the victim and takes his wallet. There is $25 in the wallet.

6. Two teenage boys see a car with the keys still in it, get in, and drive the car around town for about five hours. They then leave the car parked on the street about two miles from where they took it.

7. A man enters a grocery store and tells the clerk that he will shoot her unless she gives him the cash from her cash register. He has an object in his pocket which he points at her. She hands over the cash. The man is captured as he leaves the store; all that is found in his pocket other than the cash is a carrot. The amount of cash was $327.
8. Seeing that the clerk at a jewelry store has gone to the back of the store, a man tells a 6-year old kid that he left his ring on the store counter. The child goes in, picks up the ring off the counter, and brings it out to the man. The ring, which belongs to the store, is worth about $1,750.
9. A man has a television set worth $450 and a stereo worth $600 he is holding for a friend. The friend, who is taking a short vacation at the beach, tells him the goods are stolen. The man will be giving the goods back to the friend when he returns in a week.
10. A man puts a watch worth $50 in his pocket and walks out of the department store without paying for it.
11. A store employee sees a man put a pen worth $3.00 in his pocket while shopping in the store.
12. Two neighbors have been arguing for several months about which one owns a lawn mower. Each asserts that another neighbor who moved recently gave it to him. One night one of the two men sneaks over to the other's yard and takes the mower. It is worth about $80.
13. A man hits another man over the head with a blackjack and takes from him a wallet containing $12.

14. While searching a house for drugs, officers finds iPods which were stolen one week earlier in a housebreaking. The iPods are worth about $75 each.

15. A man goes into a sporting goods store, puts on a tennis racket a price tag which was on another racket, listing the price at $25 instead of $35, then takes the racket to the cashier to pay for it.

16. A man steals two television sets from the beach cottage he is renting. The sets were bought for $1,500 about a year and a half before. The owner says he recently had someone offer to buy the sets for $950.

NORTH CAROLINA CRIMES: REVIEW QUESTIONS ON SEXUAL ASSAULTS

Which sexual assault offense would be the proper charge under these facts?

1. A 21 year-old man forces a 19 year-old woman to have sexual intercourse with him by holding a knife to her face and threatening to cut her.

3. A 21 year-old man holds a 19 year-old woman down to make her submit to sexual intercourse. Although he says nothing about it, a large knife strapped to his waist is plainly visible.
4. A 21 year-old man holds a 19 year-old woman down and makes her submit to sexual intercourse. When she fights, he twists her arm and breaks it.
5. A 19 year-old woman is pulled off the street by a 21 year-old man and shoved into a car driven by another man. The 21 year-old holds her down and has sexual intercourse with her on the back seat while the other man drives through a wooded area.
6. A 21 year-old woman holds a 25 year-old woman down while her boyfriend has sexual intercourse with her.

7. A 17 year-old male (whose birthday is on July 15) has sexual intercourse with a 13 year-old female (whose birthday is on August 21) with her consent.

8. On April 22, a 16 year-old male (whose birthday is on January 2) makes a 12 year-old female (whose birthday is on March 15) have sexual intercourse with him by holding a knife to her throat and threatening to kill her.

9. A 17 year-old male holds a 12 year-old female down and has sexual intercourse with her against her will.

10. A 22 year-old man commits fellatio with a 15 year-old female with her consent.

11. A 26 year-old man gives his date, a 25 year-old woman, a great deal to drink during the evening. After she passes out, he has sexual intercourse with her.

12. Same facts as #11 except that he has cunnilingus with her instead of intercourse.

13. A man and woman are husband and wife, but they have been separated for a year and a half without a written agreement. One night the man comes over to his wife's apartment and forces her to have sexual intercourse with him.

14. A 28 year-old woman has consensual sexual intercourse with a 12 year-old male.

15. Three 30 year-old men pick up a 16 year-old woman who is hitchhiking, drive her to a wooded area and make her perform fellatio on each by threatening to beat her and abandon her.

16. A 16 year-old male and a 12 year-old female are dating. His birthday is on July 15; hers is on July 1. On August 1, she voluntarily performs fellatio on him.

17. A 15 year-old male and a 15 year-old female voluntarily have sexual intercourse with each other.

18. Two 30 year-old men hold down a 24 year-old woman and threaten to beat her, making her perform fellatio on one man. After that, the second man forces a soft drink bottle into her vagina.

NORTH CAROLINA CRIMES: REVIEW QUESTIONS ON BURGLARY AND BREAKING AND ENTERING

Which burglary or breaking and entering offense would be the proper charge under these facts, and why?

1. A man breaks a window and enters a home at 3 a.m., takes a $150 television set, and leaves. No one is home at the time.
2. A man breaks a window and enters a home at 3 a.m., takes a $150 television set, and leaves. The woman who is at home upstairs is too scared to do anything while the man is there.
3. A man breaks a window and enters a home at 1 p.m. He takes a tape recorder worth $75 and leaves. No one was home at the time.
4. A man breaks a window and enters a store at 3 a.m. He takes jewelry worth $800 and leaves.
5. At 3 a.m., a man knocks on the door of a house saying "police." Mrs. Jones opens the door, the man rushes in, steals her pocketbook, and leaves.
6. Because of the hot weather, all the doors and windows of a house are open. A man walks through an open door at 11 a.m., takes a tape recorder worth $40, and leaves. The man and woman who live in the house are across the street visiting a neighbor at the time.
7. Because of the hot weather, all the doors and windows of a house are open. A man walks through an open door at 11 a.m., takes a television set worth $90, and leaves. The woman working in the kitchen does not notice the man come and leave.

8. A man lifts open an unlocked store window, goes into the store at 2 a.m., takes six radios worth about $40 each, and leaves.
9. A man lifts open an unlocked store window at 2 a.m., but before he enters is scared away by a passing patrol car.
10. A man breaks into a closed jewelry store at 1 p.m., takes a dozen watches worth a total of $1,500, and leaves.
11. A man breaks into Harold Smith's beach cottage at 11 p.m. and takes several pieces of furniture worth a total of about $300. This happens in January; the cottage has not been used for two months and probably will not be used again for three more months.
12. A man picks the lock and enters a motel room at 1 a.m. He takes an $80 watch and a wallet with $150 in cash and several credit cards, without disturbing the man who is sleeping in the room.
13. A man loans his radio to his neighbor; the neighbor tells him he can get his radio back whenever he wants. The neighbor is not home one night when the man wants the radio back to listen to a ball game, so the man lifts open an unlocked window, climbs in, gets his radio, and leaves.

14. A man breaks into a garage about 20 feet from a house and takes a bicycle worth $150. This takes place at 4:30 in the morning.

15. A man goes into a house under construction at 11:00 p.m. to take shelter from the rain.

16. A man enters an open window of a house at 3 a.m., walks down the hallway, opens a closed bedroom door, and enters and takes a watch worth $12 and leaves, while Thelma Jones is sleeping in the room.

DAMAGE TO PROPERTY

Which trespass or property damage offense would be the proper charge under these facts?

1. Elmo Suggins takes his shotgun and goes hunting for doves on the property of John James without his consent. The property is not posted.

2. Peter Ryder, a college student, has a one-year lease with Paul Jones to rent an apartment; there are no restrictions in the lease about visitors. Jones realizes that Ryder is inviting Sylvia Sweetheart over to Ryder's apartment each night. Jones tells Sweetheart that she cannot come to Ryder's apartment, but she ignores him.

3. John Alston lives in his house at 312 Main Street. His neighbor, Jim Billerman, and he get into an argument in Alston's living room. Alston tells him to leave and never come back. Billerman leaves, but he comes back an hour later into Alston's house and begins to argue with him again.

4. At 4:30 a.m., Howard Garfield climbs over the ten-foot high chain link fence surrounding Powe's Lumber Yard. As he begins to examine the lumber, a law enforcement officer drives by and arrests him.

5. Phil Garner enters the woods surrounding Sally Jeffrey's house where there are posted "NO TRESPASSING" signs every twenty feet. There is no direct evidence that Garner saw the signs.

6. Sam and Alice Simmons, who are married, are living separate and apart by written agreement. Alice tells Sam that she never wants him entering her property. One night Sam (after a few drinks) enters her property and knocks on her door, because he wants to tell her how happy he is that he is no longer living with her.

7. Howard Jones, owner of the Eastowne Shopping Mall, signs an agreement with the West Orange Police Department authorizing its officers to give trespass warnings to anyone who is on Mall property from 12 midnight to 6 a.m. without a reasonable basis for being there. Officer Jones tells three teenagers parked on Mall property at 3 a.m. to leave because they give no reason for being there. The teenagers refuse to leave.

8. A person hired by the owner of a tavern to keep order there tells an unruly person to leave the tavern. He refuses to leave.
9. Fred Smith is using his neighbor's mountain cabin for the weekend. Three deer hunters, carrying deer rifles, appear and tell Smith to get off the property because they want to use the cabin that night. Smith leaves because he is afraid he will get hurt.
10. Husband and wife orally agree to break up, with the wife staying in the house and the husband renting an apartment. A boyfriend moves into the house with the wife. One night the husband, angry about his wife having a boyfriend, enters the house and refuses to leave when asked by the boyfriend.
11. Sam Jones gets into an argument with his neighbor while both are on Jones's front lawn and tells the neighbor to leave. The neighbor refuses to leave.
12. A neighbor deliberately throws one brick through a window of his neighbor's house and another brick through a window of this neighbor's car, causing a total of $100 damage.
13. Fred Smertz deliberately and maliciously spray paints his brother's car, causing $750 damage.
14. Peter Jones puts a bomb in the car of his ex-wife, hoping that it will kill her when she turns the ignition switch. Instead it goes off prematurely before she enters the car, destroying the car but not injuring her.
15. Sylvia Kitchens plants a bomb in the local movie theater. It goes off during a movie, damaging the movie screen but not injuring any person.

NORTH CAROLINA CRIMES: REVIEW QUESTIONS ON DRUG OFFENSES

Which drug offense(s) would be the proper charge(s) under these facts?
(Note: 28.34 grams equals 1 ounce)

1. A person arrested for shoplifting has 87 phenobarbital (Schedule IV) tablets in his pocket and no valid prescription for them. He offers no explanation why he has them.
2. When law enforcement officers execute a search warrant at Smith's house, they find an ounce of heroin, a spoon, and a hypodermic needle on the dresser in his bedroom.
3. A college student writes a prescription for Miltown (meprobamate, Schedule IV) on a stolen prescription form, goes to the pharmacist, and obtains 20 tablets.
4. What a dealer sells to an undercover agent as cocaine turns out to be pieces of chalk.
5. A valid search discloses that a farmer has 90 pounds of marijuana stored in his barn.

6. When they enter a man's house to arrest him for receiving stolen goods, officers find approximately 10 ounces of marijuana, some of which is in eight small envelopes but most of which is in one large bag, plus about 30 empty envelopes and a small scale.

7. Officers execute a search warrant to search a house rented by Jack Sterling for cocaine. There is no cocaine there, but the officers find 450 Ritalin (methylphenidate, Schedule II) tablets. On the dresser are some credit cards in the name of Jack Sterling and on the kitchen table are some letters addressed to him at that address. Sterling's name is also on the mailbox.

8. Two college students are sitting on a bench on campus. One puffs on a marijuana cigarette and passes it to the other.

9. When a car is stopped for speeding, the officer smells marijuana and asks for permission to search. The driver-owner gives consent and the driver and three passengers (one in front, two in back) step out. The remains of a marijuana cigarette are found in the ash tray below the radio.

Think you know Chapter 20? Test yourself.

1. Darren Driver was stopped at a checkpoint on Country Club Road in Chapel Hill, NC. When the law enforcement officer asked for his license, Darren said that he did not have a license because it had been revoked three years ago for a DWI. Darren said he drove because all of his friends were trashed. Further investigation revealed that Darren's license was revoked for one year as the result of a DWI conviction. Darren completed his substance abuse treatment and the revocation ended, but he never applied to have his license restored. With which of the following offenses may Darren properly be charged?
  - A. No operator's license (G.S. 20-7)
  - B. Driving while license revoked (G.S. 20-28)
  - C. Both A and B
  - D. No charge. Serving as a designated driver is an affirmative defense to any motor vehicle charge.

2. Dana Driver was convicted of impaired driving in January 2012. Her license was restored in January 2013 with a 0.04 alcohol concentration restriction. Dana is stopped at a checkpoint in August 2013. After the officer examined Dana's driver's license, he noticed that Dana's eyes were red and detected a "moderate odor" of alcohol on her breath. The officer requested that Dana submit to a chemical analysis of her breath in the BATmobile stationed at the checkpoint. The resulting blood alcohol concentration was 0.04. The officer performed no field sobriety tests. Dana may properly be charged with:
  - A. No operator's license (G.S. 20-7)
  - B. Driving while license revoked (G.S. 20-28)
  - C. Driving while impaired (G.S. 20-138.1)
  - D. Both A and B

3. Same facts as above except Dana also was subject to an ignition interlock restriction. The car she was driving when she was stopped at the checkpoint belonged to a friend and was not equipped with ignition interlock. Dana may properly be charged with:
  - A. Reckless Driving (G.S. 20-140)
  - B. Driving while license revoked (G.S. 20-28)
  - C. Driving while impaired (G.S. 20-138.1)

4. While driving northbound on Highway 421, Dave Driver passed a car in the bend of a sharp curve marked with a double yellow line. Dave was traveling 50 miles per hour. The speed limit was 45 miles per hour. The car Dave attempted to pass was traveling 35 miles per hour. The southbound lane of traffic approaching the curve was not visible from the point at which Dave began his maneuver. As Dave's car rounded the curve, he encountered a truck headed southbound. The truck swerved to avoid Dave's car, driving off the shoulder and crashing into a fence. Which of the following offenses did Dave commit?
- A. Improper Passing (G.S. 20-150)
  - B. Reckless Driving (G.S. 20-140)
  - C. Aggressive Driving (G.S. 20-141.6)
  - D. Both A and B
  - E. All of the above
5. See problem 4. The driver of the truck who swerved to avoid Dave was not injured, though the front of his truck was dented and scratched. A six-foot long section of the wooden fence also was destroyed. Total damages are $2,000. Dave saw the truck run off the road, but did not see it collide with the fence. Dave did not stop at the scene. Which of the following offenses has Dave committed?
- A. Failure to Notify Authorities (G.S. 20-166.1)
  - B. Failure to Stop at Scene When Property Damage Occurs (G.S. 20-166(c)) (Class 1 misdemeanor)
  - C. Failure to Stop at Scene When Injury Occurs (G.S. 20-166(a1)) (Class H felony)
  - D. Both A and B
  - E. All of the Above
6. A law enforcement officer patrolling I-40 during the morning rush hour sees Harriet Hurry change lanes without signaling. Hurry moved into a lane to her left. Vehicles in the lane Hurry moved out of and the one she moved into were traveling a single car length behind her. Has Hurry violated a traffic law? If so, which one?
- A. Failure to maintain lane (G.S. 20-146(d)(1))
  - B. Failure to signal when required or "unsafe movement" (G.S. 20-154)
  - C. Both A and B
  - D. Hurry has not committed a traffic violation.

7. Ashley Angel, who is 21 and a senior in college, leaves the library, where she has been diligently studying for mid-term exams for the previous six hours, to drive to a party a few miles from campus. On the way, she picks up her friend, Bethany Bedlam who also is 21. Bedlam has spent the last few hours gearing up for the party rather than studying. Bedlam gets into the cab of Angel's pick-up truck with a 40-ounce bottle of King Cobra malt liquor in her hand. At the next stoplight, Angel drives up next to a police vehicle. The officer sees Bedlam holding the bottle of malt liquor, which clearly is half-full, though the cap is screwed on top of the bottle. When the light turns green, the police officer pulls behind Angel's car and activates the blue lights and siren on her cruiser. Which of the following is a true statement?
- E. Angel has violated G.S. 20-138.7 by driving a motor vehicle on a highway while there is an open alcoholic beverage in the passenger area of the motor vehicle.
  - F. Bedlam has violated G.S. 20-138.7 by possessing an open alcoholic beverage in the passenger area of a motor vehicle.
  - G. Both A and B
  - H. None of the above
8. Officer Able is called to the scene of a single-car accident on the shoulder of Interstate 40. Trooper Barnes arrives after Able. The two see Cynthia Carter's car upside down in a ditch next to an exit ramp, where it came to rest after rolling several times. Able asks Carter to submit to an alcosensor test. Carter provides one sample. It is positive. Carter says she is unable to blow again because of the intense pain in her neck from the accident. Carter explains: "My left front tire looked flat. I was going to stop to check the air pressure but I couldn't find a gas station. I was having an argument on the phone. The next thing I knew I ran off the road." Before handing the investigation over to Barnes, Able told him he smelled alcohol on Carter's breath and that the alcosensor result was positive. Barnes smelled no alcohol on Carter. Barnes arrested Carter for impaired driving. Carter failed to provide a sufficient breath sample for the Intoximeter, again saying that the pain in her neck prevented her from blowing any harder. Do you find probable cause that Carter was driving while impaired?
- I. Yes
  - J. No

9. A sheriff's deputy testifies as follows: I noticed a car parked near the entrance of a pawn shop in the downtown area at 1 a.m. The pawn shop was closed, but the car was parked near the entrance, and the engine was running. I pulled into the parking lot and walked up to the car. I saw the defendant slumped over the steering wheel asleep. I knocked on the window and called out to him. He woke up and turned off the car engine. I motioned for him to roll down the window. When he did, I smelled a strong odor of alcohol coming from the defendant and saw that his eyes were red and glassy. I asked him to step out of the car. He fell down in the parking lot. I arrested the defendant for impaired driving. I took him downtown, and administered an Intox EC/IR II. He registered a 0.14. Do you find probable cause that the defendant committed the offense of impaired driving?

K. Yes

L. No

10. The North Carolina driver's license of the defendant in the previous example was revoked. The officer also charged him with driving while license revoked in violation of G.S. 20-28(a). Is there probable cause that the defendant committed the offense of driving while license revoked?

M. Yes

N. No

Impaired Driving: Test Yourself

1. Donna Driver was charged with impaired driving on September 2, 2011, and her license was civilly revoked. Donna was convicted of impaired driving on March 1, 2012. Donna completed a substance abuse assessment and ADET school. She did not, however, pay the $100 fee required to end the civil license revocation. Donna is again charged with impaired driving on August 22, 2013, based upon driving that occurred on that date. Donna was driving a car registered to Edwin Elms. The charging officer has presented to you an AOC-CR-323, an affidavit for seizure and impoundment of the vehicle Donna was driving when she was stopped on August 22, 2013. Do you order seizure and impoundment of the vehicle?
  - a. Yes
  - b. No
2. Sam Speedy was convicted of impaired driving on December 15, 2012. His license was revoked upon conviction. Sam, who is 19, was charged on August 22, 2013 with driving while license revoked and driving by a person under 21 after consuming alcohol, in violation of G.S. 20-28 and G.S. 20-138.3. At his initial appearance the law enforcement officer presents an affidavit for seizure and impoundment of the car Sam was driving on August 22, 2013. Do you order seizure and impoundment of the vehicle?
  - a. Yes
  - b. No

3. Which official may sign the "Release from Detention Order" section of AOC-CR-270, thereby releasing a person from an impaired driving hold?
  - a. Jailer
  - b. Magistrate
  - c. Probation officer
  - d. Defendant's attorney

4. To save time and paperwork, it is acceptable to impose a detention of an impaired driver on the Conditions of Release form, AOC-CR-200, instead of on the Detention of Impaired Driver form, AOC-CR-270.
  - a. Yes
  - b. No

5. A law enforcement officer may request that a person submit to chemical analysis of his or her blood after the person has already submitted to a chemical analysis of his or her breath.
  - a. True
  - b. False

6. Helen Heart is charged with impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1 as well as driving by a person less than 21 years old after consuming under G.S. 20-138.3. Both charges arise from the same incident of driving. Helen submitted to a breath test that revealed an alcohol concentration of .08. Assuming that other statutory factors are met, should the magistrate order two civil license revocations?
  - a. Yes, the magistrate should issue two civil license revocations. Both of these offenses are implied consent offenses that, along with other statutory factors, require civil license revocation
  - b. No, only one civil license revocation should issue. When more than one offense requiring civil license revocation results from a single transaction, a magistrate should order only one civil license revocation.

7. A magistrate orders civil revocation of James Johnson's driver's license. James is licensed in California. Should the magistrate order James to surrender his California driver's license?
- a. Yes. The magistrate should order James to surrender his California driver's license. Licenses issued by jurisdictions other than North Carolina are covered by the surrender provisions and must, like North Carolina driver's licenses, be surrendered to the magistrate.
  - b. No. A magistrate may only order surrender of a North Carolina driver's license

Introduction

In addition to enacting the pretrial motions and appeals procedures for implied consent cases recently upheld by the North Carolina Court of Appeals in State v. Fowler<sup>1</sup> and State v. Palmer,<sup>2</sup> the Motor Vehicle Driver Protection Act of 2006, S.L. 2006-53, created statutory provisions designed to, in the words of the task force recommending the changes, “avoid a dismissal under Knoll.”<sup>3</sup> The Knoll reference is to the North Carolina Supreme Court’s opinion in State v. Knoll<sup>4</sup> ordering that charges of impaired driving against defendants in three separate cases be dismissed. The court had found in each case that the magistrate committed substantial statutory violations related to the setting of conditions of pretrial release that prejudiced the defendant’s ability to gain access to witnesses. Though Knoll is most widely recognized for its outcome—the dismissal of charges in three impaired driving cases—the Knoll court’s holding actually increased the showing required from certain defendants to warrant dismissal of impaired driving charges. Before Knoll, to obtain dismissal of the charges a defendant charged with impaired driving had only to demonstrate that he or she was denied access to witnesses during the time in which such witnesses might provide testimony as to his or her lack of intoxication; prejudice from such a denial was presumed. Knoll requires that to establish a basis for dismissal of charges a defendant charged with impaired driving based upon driving with an alcohol concentration that equals or exceeds the per se limit in Section 20-138.1(a)(2) of the North Carolina General Statutes (hereinafter G.S.) must not only demonstrate a substantial statutory violation of the defendant’s right to pretrial release, but also prove that he or she was prejudiced by the violation.

Among the implied consent–offense procedures enacted in 2006 to prevent dismissals based on Knoll is G.S. 20-38.4, which governs initial appearances in implied consent cases. This statute requires, among other things, that a magistrate who finds probable cause for an offense involving impaired driving consider whether the defendant is “impaired to the extent that the provisions of G.S. 15A-534.2 should be imposed.”<sup>5</sup> G.S. 15A-534.2, enacted by the Safe Roads Act of 1983, provides that if a magistrate “finds by clear and convincing evidence that the impairment of the defendant’s physical or mental faculties presents a danger, if he is released, of physical injury to himself or others or damage to property, the judicial official must order that the defendant be held in custody and inform the defendant that he will be held in custody until” (1) the defendant is no longer impaired to the extent that the defendant poses a danger or (2) a sober, responsible adult is willing and able to assume responsibility for the defendant until the defendant is no longer impaired.<sup>6</sup> G.S. 20-38.4 also requires a magistrate conducting an initial appearance for an implied consent offense<sup>7</sup> to “[i]nform the person in writing of the established procedure to have others appear at the jail to observe his condition or to administer an additional chemical analysis if the person is unable to make bond.”<sup>8</sup> Magistrates must also “[r]equire the person who is unable to make bond to list all persons he wishes to contact and telephone numbers on a form that sets forth the procedure for contacting the persons listed.”<sup>9</sup>

Because of the adoption of implied consent–offense procedures in 2006 and their relationship to Knoll motions, the twenty-year-old Knoll case and its progeny (which are seldom mentioned) deserve examination to determine (1) under what circumstances dismissal of impaired driving charges is warranted based upon the denial to a detained defendant of access to family and friends and (2) how the implied consent–offense procedures may impact such motions.

5. N. C. GEN. STAT. (hereinafter G.S.) § 20-38.4(a)(3).

6. G.S. 15A-534.2(b), (c).

7. The following are implied consent offenses:

- Impaired driving (G.S. 20-138.1)
- Driving after consuming alcohol or drugs by a person under 21 (G.S. 20-138.3)
- Violating no-alcohol condition of limited privilege (G.S. 20-179.3)
- Impaired instruction (G.S. 20-12.1)
- Impaired driving in commercial vehicle (G.S. 20-138.2)
- Operating commercial vehicle after drinking (G.S. 20-138.2A)
- Operating school bus, school activity bus, or child care vehicle after drinking (G.S. 20-138.2B)
- Habitual impaired driving (G.S. 20-138.5)
- Open container (G.S. 20-138.7)
- Driving in violation of restriction requiring ignition interlock (G.S. 20-17.8(f))
- Felony death by vehicle or felony serious injury by vehicle (G.S. 20-141.4)
- First- or second-degree murder or involuntary manslaughter if the offense involved impaired driving (G.S. 14-17; G.S. 14-18)

G.S. 20-16.2(a1). While first-degree murder is statutorily defined as an implied consent offense, the state supreme court in State v. Jones, 53 N.C. 159, 538 S.E.2d 917 (2000), reversed the defendant’s first-degree murder convictions, which were based upon deaths resulting from the defendant’s commission of the felony offense of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to inflict serious injury. The court held that because the intent required to prove the felony assault was not actual intent but instead was implied from defendant’s culpable negligence in driving while impaired, the felony assault could not serve as the underlying felony for felony murder under G.S. 14-17.

8. G.S. 20-38.4(a)(4)a.

9. G.S. 20-38.4(a)(4)b.

Denial of Access to Family and Friends in Implied Consent Cases

To understand Knoll, one must first consider State v. Hill,<sup>10</sup> which established a defendant's right to the extraordinary remedy of dismissal based upon the denial of access to witnesses.

State v. Hill, 277 N.C. 547, 178 S.E.2d 462 (1971)

The North Carolina Supreme Court held in Hill that the defendant's Sixth Amendment right to obtain witnesses on his behalf was violated when his brother-in-law, who also was his attorney, was not allowed to see him after his arrest. The jailer holding Hill refused to release him after his brother-in-law posted bond and further refused to allow the brother-in-law to see Hill. From the time Hill was arrested at 11 p.m. until 7 a.m. the next morning, only law enforcement officers saw or had access to him.

The Hill court recognized that for offenses "of which intoxication is an essential element," the denial of immediate access to witnesses may deprive "a defendant of his only opportunity to obtain evidence which might prove his innocence."<sup>11</sup> Because the guilt or innocence of a defendant charged with impaired driving "depends upon whether he was intoxicated at the time of his arrest," such a defendant "must have access to his counsel, friends, relatives, or some disinterested person within a relatively short time after his arrest" in order to have "witnesses for his defense."<sup>12</sup> The court held that in Hill's case "the right . . . to communicate with counsel and friends implies, at the very least, the right to have them see him, observe and examine him, with reference to his alleged intoxication."<sup>13</sup>

The court concluded, therefore, that Hill was denied his constitutional and statutory right to communicate with counsel and friends at a time when the denial deprived him of any opportunity to confront the State's witnesses with other testimony.<sup>14</sup> The court held that "[u]nder these circumstances, to say that the denial was not prejudicial is to assume that which is incapable of proof."<sup>15</sup>

The General Assembly codified the holding in Hill by enacting G.S. 15A-954(a)(4), which requires that a court dismiss criminal charges upon determining that "[t]he defendant's constitutional rights have been flagrantly violated and there is such irreparable prejudice to the defendant's preparation of his case that there is no remedy but to dismiss the prosecution."<sup>16</sup> The Official Commentary notes the assumption "that the drastic relief called for under this motion would be granted most sparingly."<sup>17</sup>

13. Id.

14. Hill moved for dismissal before the superior court on the basis that he was denied counsel at a critical stage of the proceedings, but the supreme court based its ruling on the defendant's right to communicate with counsel and friends generally, noting that these rights were "not limited to receiving professional advice from his attorney." Id. at 552, 178 S.E.2d at 465.

State v. Knoll*, 322 N.C. 535, 369 S.E.2d 558 (1988)

Three impaired driving cases were consolidated for hearing in Knoll. In each case, the defendant was charged with impaired driving in Wake County, North Carolina, and made a pretrial motion to dismiss the charge based upon a violation of statutory and constitutional rights.

Defendant Knoll

David Knoll was stopped at 1:15 p.m. and charged with driving while impaired. He submitted to a chemical analysis of his breath at 2:31 p.m., which revealed a breath alcohol concentration of 0.30. Knoll then appeared before a magistrate, who set bond at $300 without inquiring into any of the factors relevant to conditions of pretrial release. Between 4 p.m. and 5 p.m., Knoll made several requests to call his father. He was allowed to call him at about 5 p.m. After speaking to Knoll, Knoll's father spoke to the magistrate, telling him that he wanted to come right away to get his son. The magistrate told Knoll's father that Knoll could not be released until 11 p.m. As a result, Knoll's father waited until 11 p.m. to go to the jail to post bond. Knoll's father stated that when he talked with his son on the phone, his son was oriented and coherent and not noticeably impaired in either his manner of speech or in the substance of what he said.

Defendant Warren

The second defendant, Samson Warren Jr., was stopped at 10:11 p.m. and charged with driving while impaired. Warren submitted to a chemical analysis of his breath at 11:08 p.m., which revealed a breath alcohol concentration of 0.25. Warren then appeared before a magistrate, who set a $500 secured bond. The magistrate did not inform Warren of his right to communicate with counsel and friends. Two adult friends of Warren attempted to secure his release. The first, Donald Martin, arrived at the magistrate's office between 11 p.m. and 11:30 p.m., while Warren was in the breath-testing room. Martin spoke with Warren and observed his condition. Martin had $300 in cash and was willing to assume responsibility for Warren, but the magistrate told Martin that Warren would have to go to jail until 6 a.m. in order to sober up.

John Lewis went to the courthouse between 1 a.m. and 1:30 a.m. following Warren's arrest. The magistrate informed Lewis, who had $200 in cash with him, that Warren could not be released until 6 a.m. After being so advised, Lewis did not request to see Warren. Warren was released from the Wake County Jail at 8 a.m. when Martin posted bond for him.

Defendant Hicks

The third defendant, Bennie Hicks, was arrested for driving while impaired at 12:45 a.m. He submitted to a chemical analysis of his breath, which revealed a breath alcohol concentration of 0.18. Hicks appeared before a magistrate, who set a $200 bond without informing Hicks of his right to communicate with counsel and friends and without asking questions about matters relevant to conditions of release. Hicks had $2,200 in cash but was not allowed to post his own bond. At 1:30 a.m., Hicks called his wife at their home, which was about thirty minutes away from the Wake County courthouse. Hicks's wife did not have a vehicle at the time and could not come to the courthouse to pick him up. Hicks was released from jail at 6 a.m.

Knoll court's analysis

The court began its analysis in Knoll by reviewing "the general obligations of the magistrate" in impaired driving cases.<sup>18</sup> Curiously, however, this exposition failed to mention provisions of G.S. 15A-534.2 requiring in certain circumstances that a defendant charged with an offense involving impaired driving be detained. Though the court later acknowledged a magistrate's authority to "refuse to release one who is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision,"<sup>19</sup> this was a reference to G.S. 15A-534(c), which governs the setting of conditions of pretrial release generally and permits a magistrate to consider, among other factors, "whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision," rather than the more specific requirements of G.S. 15A-534.2.

The court found that Knoll and Warren were unlawfully detained because they could have been released into the custody of "appropriate people who were seeking their release."<sup>20</sup> As for Hicks, the court concluded that though his "wife was temporarily unavailable to pick him up, he could have, by the use of a taxi, been in the presence of his wife within a short period of time."<sup>21</sup> The high court agreed with the superior court's determination that the magistrate failed to comply with statutory provisions governing the setting of conditions of pretrial release, and that, but for these statutory deprivations, each defendant could have had access to friends and family.

The court of appeals in State v. Knoll<sup>22</sup> had distinguished Hill, concluding that the creation of a per se impaired driving offense meant that denial of access was "no longer inherently prejudicial to a defendant's ability to gather evidence in support of his innocence in every driving while impaired case."<sup>23</sup> The appellate court opined that "[p]rejudice may or may not occur since a chemical analysis result of 0.10 or more is sufficient, on its face, to convict."<sup>24</sup> Prejudice might result from "a denial of access or unwarranted detention," explained the court of appeals, if the "defendant was not advised of his right to a second chemical test . . . or where his right to secure a second test was denied."<sup>25</sup> The court of appeals explained that "[p]rejudice might also occur . . . if pertinent evidence relating to contested elements of the offense, such as whether the defendant was in fact driving, became unavailable as a result of the denial of access."<sup>26</sup> The court of appeals found nothing in the record to support the trial court's finding that the statutory deprivations caused Knoll to lose significant evidence or testimony helpful to his defense, noting that the result of the chemical analysis alone was sufficient to convict Knoll.

Though the state supreme court adopted the rule articulated by the court of appeals that a defendant charged with a per se violation of the impaired driving statute must demonstrate prejudice resulting from a substantial statutory violation,<sup>27</sup> the supreme court, unlike the court of appeals, found that each defendant made a sufficient showing that "lost evidence or testimony would have been helpful to his defense, that the evidence would have been significant, and that the evidence or testimony was lost" because of the statutory violations.<sup>28</sup> The court based this determination on each defendant's confinement "during the crucial period" in which friends and family could have observed him to "form opinions as to his condition following arrest."<sup>29</sup> The court explained that "[t]his opportunity to gather evidence and to prepare a case in his own defense was lost to each defendant as a direct result of a lack of information during processing as to numerous important rights and because of the commitment to jail.”<sup>30</sup> The court found that “[t]he lost opportunities, in all three cases, to secure independent proof of sobriety, and the lost chance, in one case, to secure a second test for blood alcohol content” constituted prejudice to the defendants.<sup>31</sup>

The court’s reliance upon “lost opportunities” and “a lost chance” as establishing prejudice raises questions regarding whether the prejudice requirement as applied in Knoll requires any showing additional to that presumed prejudicial in Hill. Knoll, like Hill, was denied access to a witness who sought his release. One might interpret Knoll as adhering to the proposition that denial of sought-after access during the “crucial period” is always prejudicial. But if denial of access is presumptively prejudicial, then the rule announced in Knoll did not, in fact, depart from Hill. And while the basis for the finding of prejudice in Knoll’s case is not clearly specified, it is even more difficult to ascertain in Warren’s and Hicks’s cases.

Shortly after he submitted to the chemical analysis, Warren spoke in person to Martin, one of the people who attempted to secure his release. Thus Warren did not suffer a complete denial of access to witnesses. One might argue that his ability to communicate with a friend so soon after his arrest eliminated any prejudice resulting from his unlawful detention.

In Hicks’s case, the finding of prejudice is difficult to reconcile with a magistrate’s statutory obligation to hold certain impaired drivers. While the court held that Hicks should have been released to take a taxi home to his wife, G.S. 15A-534.2 makes clear that a defendant who is detained pursuant its provisions may only be released to the custody of a sober, responsible adult who appears before the judicial official ordering the release. And while Hicks attempted to procure his release by posting bond, there is no evidence that he requested to see anyone while confined or that anyone requested to see him.

Perhaps the court based its determination in part on the fact that neither Warren nor Hicks were informed by the magistrate that they had the right to access counsel and friends; yet, again, any determination that such a statutory violation is presumptively prejudicial does not comport with the standard articulated by the court requiring that the defendant demonstrate prejudice.

These curious aspects of the court’s holding may explain why Knoll, which purported to increase the showing required to obtain dismissal of charges, is widely perceived as the seminal case entitling defendants charged with impaired driving to the dismissal of charges.

Right to dismissal based upon a constitutional, versus statutory, claim

Though the Knoll defendants argued that dismissal was warranted on the basis of a violation of constitutional as well as statutory rights, the court did not rule on the defendants’ constitutional claims. In State v. Gilbert,<sup>32</sup> the court of appeals distinguished statutory violations resulting from a magistrate’s failure to comply with statutory procedures governing the setting of conditions of pretrial release from constitutional violations. The Gilbert court found a magistrate’s refusal to set conditions of release and the ensuing five-hour detention of a defendant to constitute statutory,

App. 228, 352 S.E.2d 463 (1987), but before the supreme court’s ruling reversing the court of appeals, see 322 N.C. 535, 369 S.E.2d 558 (1988). Gilbert is still good law, however, as it relied upon the determination of the court of appeals in Knoll that the presumptive prejudice rule of Hill did not govern in statutory per se cases—a rule adopted by the supreme court.

but not constitutional, violations.<sup>33</sup> The court explained that Gilbert, who saw his brother shortly after he was administered a breath test, did not request and was not denied access to anyone. For this reason, the court determined that Gilbert failed to establish a constitutional violation. Gilbert further explained that a defendant seeking dismissal of per se impaired driving charges based upon a violation of the constitutional right to access witnesses must, like a defendant seeking dismissal for a statutory violation, demonstrate irreparable prejudice resulting from the violation.<sup>34</sup>

Prejudice: Proven or presumed?

Because the Knoll requirement that a defendant demonstrate prejudice resulting from a violation of statutory rights related to pretrial release or the constitutional right to have access to witnesses applies only in cases in which the defendant is charged with a per se violation of the impaired driving statute, two lines of cases exist post-Knoll: the Knoll branch, requiring proof of prejudice for dismissal of charges pursuant to G.S. 20-138.1(a)(2) (the per se prong), and the presumptive prejudice branch,<sup>35</sup> for cases in which a defendant prosecuted solely pursuant to G.S. 20-138.1(a)(1) (the impairment prong) is denied access to witnesses. Furthermore, post-Knoll jurisprudence suggests that dismissal is an appropriate remedy in an impairment-prong case only when the defendant is denied his or her constitutional right to obtain evidence in his or her defense; less serious statutory violations warrant suppression of evidence rather than dismissal of charges.<sup>36</sup>

Haas*, 131 N.C. App. 113, 505 S.E.2d 311 (1998) (explaining that “[a] motion to dismiss will only be granted when the statutory or constitutional violation caused irreparable prejudice to the development of [the defendant’s] case.”). Note that this standard differs from that set forth in G.S. 15A-1443(b), which provides that “[a] violation of the defendant’s rights under the Constitution of the United States is prejudicial unless the appellate court finds that it was harmless beyond a reasonable doubt” and places the burden upon the state to “demonstrate, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the error was harmless.”

35. See State v. Hill, 277 N.C. 547, 178 S.E.2d 462 (1971).

36. The court of appeals decided State v. Ferguson, 90 N.C. App. 513, 369 S.E.2d 378 (1988), another presumptive prejudice case, one week before the supreme court decided Knoll. Knoll made no mention of Ferguson. In Ferguson, the defendant was advised of his right to have a witness observe his breath test. Ferguson called his wife and told her to arrive at the jail in twenty minutes. When the twenty minutes expired, Ferguson refused the test because his wife was not there. Ferguson did not see his wife until he was released from jail later that evening. She had arrived at the jail within the twenty minutes and informed the desk officer that she was there to witness her husband’s breath test but was told that she was too late. She waited an hour and a half before seeing her husband.

Ferguson moved to dismiss the charges because he was denied his constitutional and statutory right of access to a witness to observe the breath test. While the trial court expressed its “distress” over the “regrettable” circumstances, it denied Ferguson’s motion. Id. at 518–19, 369 S.E.2d at 381. The court of appeals remanded to the trial court noting that if, upon remand, it found “that Mrs. Ferguson’s arrival to the jail was timely and she made reasonable efforts to gain access to the defendant, then defendant was denied access to a potential witness.” Id. at 519, 369 S.E.2d at 382. The appellate court concluded that “[t]he denial of access to a witness in this case—when the State’s sole evidence of the offense is the personal observations of the authorities—would constitute a flagrant violation of the defendant’s constitutional right to obtain witnesses under N.C. Const. Art. 1 Sec. 23 as a matter of law and would require that the charges be dismissed.” Id. (citing Hill, 277 N.C. 547, 178 S.E.2d 462).

Were Knoll the end of the matter, one might conclude that any time a magistrate fails to comply with statutory provisions governing initial appearances and the setting of conditions of pretrial release, resulting in the detention of a defendant charged with impaired driving, a defendant suffers prejudice requiring dismissal of the charges. But cases following Knoll emphasize that to warrant dismissal of charges, a defendant must make more than a perfunctory showing of prejudice resulting from such a violation to be entitled to the drastic relief of dismissal.

Knoll's Progeny

Cases in Knoll's wake have identified numerous circumstances in which the complained-of violations were deemed unfounded, insubstantial, or not prejudicial to the defendant. Indeed, there are no reported appellate court opinions post-Knoll in which the courts have found dismissal of implied consent charges an appropriate remedy for an alleged violation of provisions governing pretrial release. Instead, the court of appeals has made the following determinations in post-Knoll cases:

State v. Eliason, 100 N.C. App. 313, 395 S.E.2d 702 (1990), cited Ferguson for the proposition that “if a witness arrived timely under the breathalyzer statute and was unable to gain access to the accused despite reasonable efforts to do so, it would constitute a flagrant violation of defendant’s constitutional right to gather witnesses and would require dismissal of all charges.” Id. at 317, 395 S.E.2d at 704. Eliason was charged with a per se violation of the impaired driving statute and alleged that the magistrate’s failure to inquire into all of the statutory considerations before setting the conditions of his pretrial release violated his statutory and constitutional rights to access to counsel and friends. The court determined that Eliason failed to show that he was prejudiced by this denial as required by Knoll and was not entitled to relief on constitutional grounds as there was no showing that he was denied access to anyone. The court found that “[t]here was no violation of defendant’s constitutional rights which would warrant dismissal of the charges against him.” Id. at 318, 395 S.E.2d at 704.

In subsequent cases in which a defendant has been denied the right to have a witness observe the breath test, the court of appeals has characterized this as a denial of a statutory, rather than a constitutional, right, which requires suppression of the test results rather than dismissal of the charges. In State v. Myers, 118 N.C. App. 452, 455 S.E.2d 492 (1995), the defendant moved to suppress the results of the chemical analysis based upon the officer’s statement, after Myers requested that his wife come into the breath-testing room, that “that might not be a good idea because she had been drinking also.” Id. at 453, 455 S.E.2d at 493. Myers’s wife then left the police department. The court of appeals held that the breath test results should have been suppressed based on the refusal of Myers’s request to have his wife witness the test. Myers did not argue that the case should have been dismissed because of the violation, and the court did not intimate that dismissal would have been an appropriate remedy.

In State v. Hatley, ___ N.C. App. ___, 661 S.E.2d 43 (2008), the defendant likewise moved to suppress the results of a chemical analysis of her breath based upon the denial of her right to have a witness observe the testing procedures. The court of appeals cited Ferguson for the proposition that “[a] witness who has been selected to observe the testing procedures must make reasonable efforts to gain access to the defendant.” Id. at ___, 661 S.E.2d at 45. The court held that the denial of this right “requires suppression of the intoxilyzer results” but again did not intimate that dismissal was the appropriate remedy. Id. at ___, 661 S.E.2d at 45.

Thus, while the presumptive prejudice rule of Hill has survived, post-Ferguson cases suggest that while suppression of a chemical analysis is warranted when defendant is denied the right to have a witness observe the procedures, dismissal of the case is not necessarily warranted upon such a denial. Instead, it appears that there must be outright denial of access to witnesses during the relevant time frame to warrant dismissal based upon a flagrant violation of a defendant’s constitutional rights.

- Dismissal was not warranted based upon the defendant's allegation that law enforcement officials refused to take him to the hospital for additional testing or to withdraw blood for later testing. The alleged refusal did not violate the defendant's statutory rights under G.S. 20-139.1 or his constitutional right to due process. Law enforcement officials met their statutory and constitutional obligations by providing the defendant access to a telephone and by allowing access to the defendant for purposes of conducting an initial test.<sup>37</sup>
- The defendant was not entitled to dismissal of charges based upon the magistrate's failure to inquire into every statutorily enumerated factor relevant to setting conditions of pretrial release where he failed to show that consideration of other factors would have required different conditions of release.<sup>38</sup>
- To warrant dismissal, a defendant must prove that he or she was denied access to witnesses and friends during the crucial period during which exculpatory evidence could have been gathered.<sup>39</sup>
- Suppression of evidence regarding field sobriety tests and dismissal of appreciable impairment theory cured any prejudice resulting from denial of the defendant's request to allow a witness to observe field sobriety tests. The defendant was not entitled to have charges under the per se prong of G.S. 20-138.1 dismissed.<sup>40</sup>
- Substantial violation of the defendant's right to pretrial release does not establish basis for dismissal of charges when she was not denied access to family and friends while in jail. Defendant, who was unlawfully detained, saw her friends at the jail but did not ask to speak to them.<sup>41</sup>

Juxtaposing Knoll and the latest case of its progeny, State v. Labinski,<sup>42</sup> reveals the heightened evidentiary standard applied by the appellate courts post-Knoll to defendants' claims that they have suffered irreparable prejudice arising from an unlawful detention. In Labinski, the defendant was arrested for impaired driving and taken to the jail for a breath test. On the way to the jail, Labinski sent a text message to her friend Brian Anderson to let him know she was in trouble. The officer who administered the breath test notified Labinski of her rights, including her right to have a witness present. Labinski did not call anyone. She submitted to the chemical analysis of her breath at 3 a.m., which revealed a breath alcohol concentration of 0.08.

Around the time Labinski was performing her breath test, four of her friends, including Anderson, arrived at the jail. Labinski saw her friends while she was walking with the officer from the breath-testing room to the magistrate's office, but she did not ask to speak with them, and they did not ask to speak to her. Labinski appeared before the magistrate at 3:25 a.m. The magistrate set a $500 secured bond and conditioned Labinski's release upon release to a sober, responsible adult or would release her either when she had a breath alcohol concentration of 0.05 or at 9 a.m.

Labinski was logged into the jail at 3:47 a.m. She was placed in an interview room with a phone and given a list of bail bondsmen. A detention officer allowed Labinski to retrieve telephone numbers from her mobile phone, and she called three of her friends who were already at the jail. She did not call a bail bondsman. Ultimately, a bail bondsman contacted by one of her friends posted bond for her release. At 5:02 a.m. she was released to the bail bondsman and one of her friends who had been waiting at the jail.

Labinski moved to dismiss the impaired driving charges based upon violation of her right to timely pretrial release and thus, access to family and friends. Labinski contended that the magistrate violated G.S. 15A-534.2 by ordering her detained without considering whether she was so intoxicated that she posed a danger to herself or others. She also argued that the magistrate required a secured bond without making the findings required by G.S. 15A-534(b) and considering the factors listed in G.S. 15A-534(c). Labinski alleged that the magistrate's failure to grant her timely pretrial release and access to friends and family resulted in the loss of evidence, which prejudiced her defense to the impaired driving charges. She asserted that, under Knoll, the appropriate remedy for the violation was dismissal of the charges.

In considering Labinski's appeal, the court noted that a noncapital defendant generally has the right to pretrial release. Citing Knoll, the court explained that if statutory provisions governing conditions of pretrial release in an impaired driving case are violated and the defendant can show irreparable prejudice directly resulting from a lost opportunity to gather evidence in her behalf by having family and friends observe her and form opinions about her condition after her arrest and to prepare a case in her own defense, the charges must be dismissed.

The court recognized the magistrate's authority under G.S. 15A-534.2 to hold Labinski in custody if he found clear and convincing evidence that her impairment presented a danger, if she was released, of physical injury to herself or others or damage to property. The trial court found that "based on [the magistrate's] opinion that anyone charged with driving while impaired who blows a 0.08 or above on the Intoxilyzer 5000 would possibly hurt himself or someone else, [the magistrate] set the defendant's bond at $500 secured."<sup>43</sup> The court of appeals held that this finding was not supported by the evidence. The magistrate did not testify regarding his reason for setting a $500 secured bond but said he required that Labinski be released to a sober, responsible adult "[b]ecause that's what the statute requires me to do."<sup>44</sup> The magistrate did not testify that he had any concern about Labinski hurting herself or anyone else or to having an opinion regarding her behavior based on a particular alcohol concentration alone. Indeed, the magistrate stated that Labinski was polite and cooperative. Thus the court concluded that the magistrate substantially violated Labinski's right to pretrial release by ordering her held without evidence that her impairment presented a danger to herself or others or of damage to property.

The court then considered whether Labinski suffered irreparable prejudice resulting from the statutory violation. Labinski alleged that her commitment to jail under improper release conditions prevented her friends from observing her physical and mental condition during the time period crucial to her defense. The court concluded, however, that even though Labinski was not timely released from detention, she was not denied access to friends and family such that she lost the opportunity to gather evidence in her behalf. The court noted that Labinski was informed of her right to have a witness present for the breath test and that she did not request a witness, even though four of her friends were at the jail and could have witnessed the test. The court further noted that these friends were at the jail by the time Labinski left the breath-testing room and remained there until she was released. The court reported that Labinski could see her friends and they could see her but that she did not ask to speak to them or that they be permitted to come to her. Finally, the court noted that Labinski had access to a telephone and made several phone calls.

In Knoll, the court determined that the detention of Warren, like that of Labinski, amounted to a statutory violation. Warren's friends, like Labinski's, came to the jail notwithstanding his unlawful detention. And Warren spoke to one of his friends in person, while Labinski only saw her friends. When another of Warren's friends was informed that Warren could not be released to him, the friend did not ask to see Warren. The Knoll court found prejudice, but the Labinski court did not, reasoning in part that Labinski did not ask to speak to her friends, nor they to her. Knoll's progeny, including Labinski, demonstrate that despite the curious circumstances in Knoll, prejudice will not be automatically—or even readily—inferred from a statutory violation, even one that results in the defendant's unlawful detention.

Procedural Requirements Enacted in 2006

As previously noted, the Motor Vehicle Driver Protection Act of 2006 includes several procedural requirements designed to ensure that defendants in impaired driving cases are detained when appropriate and that detained defendants are not denied access to witnesses.

Impaired Driving Holds

Among the new provisions is G.S. 20-38.4, which requires a magistrate, upon finding probable cause for an implied consent offense, to consider whether the defendant “is impaired to the extent that the provisions of G.S. 15A-534.2 should be imposed.” G.S. 15A-534.2 applies to initial appearances for offenses involving impaired driving. These offenses are as follows:

1. Impaired driving (G.S. 20-138.1)
2. Habitual impaired driving (G.S. 20-138.5)
3. Impaired driving in a commercial vehicle
4. Death by vehicle based upon impaired driving (G.S. 20-141.4)
5. First- or second-degree murder under G.S. 14-17 based on impaired driving
6. Involuntary manslaughter under G.S. 14-18 based on impaired driving
7. Substantially similar offenses committed in another state or jurisdiction

If a magistrate conducting an initial appearance for an offense involving impaired driving finds clear and convincing evidence that the impairment of the defendant's physical or mental faculties presents a danger, if the defendant is released, of physical injury to the defendant or others or damage to property, the magistrate must order that the defendant be held in custody. Such detentions commonly are referred to as “impaired driving holds.” A magistrate ordering such a detention must inform the defendant that he or she will be held in custody until (a) the magistrate determines that the defendant's physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired to the extent that the defendant presents a danger of physical injury to himself, herself, or others, or of damage to property if released or (b) a sober, responsible adult is willing and able to assume responsibility for the defendant until the defendant's physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired. A magistrate who orders a defendant detained pursuant to these provisions must also determine the appropriate conditions for pretrial release in accordance with G.S. 15A-534, which governs the setting of conditions of pretrial release generally.

A defendant subject to detention under G.S. 15A-534.2 may be denied pretrial release based upon the defendant's impairment for no longer than twenty-four hours. After twenty-four hours, a defendant held pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.2 must be released upon meeting the conditions of pretrial release imposed at the initial appearance. In determining whether a defendant subject to an impaired driver hold remains impaired, a magistrate may request the defendant to submit to periodic tests to determine his or her alcohol concentration. Approved alcohol screening devices as well as other approved chemical analysis instruments may be used for this purpose. A magistrate must determine that a defendant with an alcohol concentration of 0.05 or less is no longer impaired unless there is evidence that the defendant is still impaired from a combination of alcohol and some other impairing substance or condition.

It bears noting that G.S. 15A-534.2 itself was unchanged by the Motor Vehicle Driver Protection Act of 2006. Its statutory provisions have authorized impaired driving holds since the provisions were enacted in 1983. The significance of the 2006 legislation for impaired driving is its explicit requirement that magistrates consider whether such a hold be imposed. In addition, G.S. 20-38.4(b) requires that the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) adopt a form implementing its requirements. The implementing form is AOC-CR-270, which must be completed by a magistrate who detains an impaired driver pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.2. The magistrate must set forth in writing in the "Findings" section of AOC-CR-270 the reasons for the detention. When the defendant is released, the magistrate must complete the corresponding section of the form. If release is to a sober, responsible adult, that person's name must be entered on the form. The sober, responsible adult must sign the form certifying that he or she is a sober, responsible person, at least 18 years old, and is willing and able to assume responsibility for the defendant until the defendant's physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired.

In determining whether an adult who seeks to secure a defendant's release qualifies as a "sober, responsible adult," a magistrate may rely upon his or her own observations as well as reports from others.<sup>45</sup> There is no statutory or case law guidance for determining whether an adult is responsible. A magistrate making this determination might reasonably consider factors such as whether the person was a passenger in the car at the time the defendant was driving while impaired, whether the person has a driver's license, the person's criminal record, and the person's relationship to the defendant. The ultimate determination must be based upon the magistrate's exercise of reasonable discretion. In addition to being sober and responsible, an adult who assumes responsibility for an impaired defendant must be "willing and able" to do so. While a magistrate generally may base his or her determination that someone is willing to assume responsibility upon that person's request to assume custody, further inquiry may be necessary to determine the person's ability to secure the safety of the defendant and others. These determinations likewise are left to the magistrate's reasonable exercise of discretion.

The completion of AOC-CR-270, which requires a magistrate ordering an impaired driving hold to provide reasons for the detention, may reduce the risk that a defendant will be unlawfully held pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.2. The "Findings" section of the form disabuses the notion that persons who commit an offense involving impaired driving are, without additional findings, subject to detention based on impairment simply based on the finding of probable cause to believe the offense occurred. The form also makes clear that it is the magistrate, rather than the

App. 113, 505 S.E.2d 311 (1998) (finding that magistrate had no duty to release defendant to the custody of an adult who was a passenger in the car driven by the defendant when officer informed magistrate that that adult was extremely intoxicated eighty minutes earlier).

jailer, who determines whether a defendant is no longer impaired such that the defendant is subject to the impaired driving hold and whether an adult meets the criteria for assuming custody of the defendant during the time the defendant is impaired.

Procedures for Gaining Access to Witnesses

In addition to enacting procedures designed to ensure that defendants charged with implied consent offenses are detained in appropriate cases involving impaired driving, the Motor Vehicle Protection Act of 2006 enacted provisions designed to ensure that defendants confined to jail are informed of the manner in which they may gain access to witnesses while detained. G.S. 20-38.4(a)(4) requires the magistrate to inform a defendant “unable to make bond” of “the established procedure to have others appear at the jail to observe his condition or to administer an additional chemical analysis if the person is unable to make bond.”

The established procedures must be approved by the chief district court judge, the Department of Health and Human Services, the district attorney, and the sheriff.<sup>46</sup> County procedures vary. Guilford County’s procedures are included in the appendix as an example. A magistrate who conducts an initial appearance in an implied consent case for a defendant who will be detained in jail, however briefly, must certify on form AOC-CR-271 that the magistrate has informed the defendant of the procedures to access others while in jail and that he or she has required the defendant to list all persons the defendant wishes to contact and their telephone numbers.

Some argue that the requirement that a magistrate inform a defendant charged with an implied consent offense who is “unable to make bond” of the procedures for access to witnesses while in jail does not apply to defendants subject to an impaired driving hold, but instead applies to persons detained solely because of their inability to post bond sufficient to satisfy pretrial release conditions set in G.S. 15A-534. Under this interpretation, a defendant who has posted bond but is held based upon his or her impairment is not entitled to the notice. This reading of the statute is problematic for several reasons. First, a defendant subject to an impaired driving hold could be described as “unable to make bond” given that the posting of bond will not secure the defendant’s release. Moreover, interpreting G.S. 20-38.4(a)(4) as requiring notice to all defendants charged with implied consent offenses who are detained better aligns it with the task force goal of “prevent[ing] dismissals related to delays in processing and by the defendant’s lack of access to witnesses.”<sup>47</sup> Informing all defendants about how to access witnesses and health care professionals in jail serves to counter any argument that a defendant was prejudiced by his or her detention.

The magistrate must complete AOC-CR-271 and provide the defendant, along with that form, a copy of written local procedures explaining how the defendant may contact others and how others can observe the defendant at the jail and administer an additional chemical analysis. The magistrate also must require a defendant unable to make bond to list on form AOC-CR-271 names and telephone numbers for anyone the defendant wishes to contact. If the defendant returns the AOC-CR-271, the magistrate must note the return and place a copy of the form in the case file. If the defendant does not return the form, the magistrate must note in the space provided on a separate AOC-CR-271 that the defendant failed to return the form. The magistrate must place the form on which this notation is made in the file.

New Procedures and *Knoll

North Carolina's appellate courts have not ruled on the merits of any appeals from Knoll motions in cases governed by the 2006 procedures, which became effective December 1, 2006. Indeed, compliance with the amended procedural requirements may render Knoll motions obsolete, since a defendant seeking dismissal under Knoll must demonstrate a substantial statutory violation, and the requirement that a magistrate consider whether an impaired driving hold should be imposed and make written findings supporting that determination reduces the likelihood a defendant will be detained when the detainment is not statutorily authorized. In addition, to warrant dismissal of the charges, a defendant must demonstrate prejudice resulting from the violation. It will be difficult for a defendant to meet this burden if he or she is informed of the procedures for gaining access to witnesses but fails to avail him- or herself of the available access.

Procedures Governing Consideration of Knoll Motions in District and Superior Court Motion to Dismiss

District court

A defendant seeking dismissal of implied consent charges in district court must move for dismissal before trial begins unless the defendant can establish that the motion is based upon facts not previously known that are discovered during the trial.<sup>48</sup> Given that Knoll motions are premised upon the denial of access to witnesses, it seems unlikely that such motions ever will be founded on facts unknown to the defendant before trial. There is no requirement that such motions be made in writing in district court.<sup>49</sup>

Superior court

In superior court, a defendant may file a motion to dismiss based upon a denial of constitutional rights prior to trial<sup>50</sup> but is not required to do so.<sup>51</sup> Motions made pretrial in superior court must be filed in writing, but motions made during trial may be oral.<sup>52</sup> A defendant may file a motion to dismiss upon trial de novo in superior court regardless of whether the defendant filed such a motion in district court.<sup>53</sup> A defendant whose motion to dismiss is denied by the district court may again move to dismiss upon trial de novo in superior court.<sup>54</sup>

Motion Hearings

A defendant who makes a timely motion for dismissal in district or superior court must be heard on the motion. The court is not required, however, to conduct a full evidentiary hearing unless the defendant has sufficiently alleged a denial of constitutional or statutory rights.<sup>55</sup> The court may summarily deny a motion to dismiss that contains only conjectural and conclusory allegations of possible constitutional or statutory violations or of prejudice resulting therefrom.<sup>56</sup>

A defendant who files a motion to dismiss for denial of access to witnesses bears both the burden of producing evidence in support of the motion and establishing the violation and resulting prejudice.<sup>57</sup> The dismissal of charges on this basis is “drastic relief” that “should be granted sparingly.”<sup>58</sup> A district or superior court hearing such a motion may summarily rule on the motion if the defendant fails to produce sufficient evidence to warrant an evidentiary hearing. If an evidentiary hearing is required, the court must conduct a hearing at which testimony is provided under oath.<sup>59</sup> A superior court must issue a final written ruling on the motion, containing findings of fact and conclusions of law,<sup>60</sup> while a district court must issue a written preliminary determination containing findings of fact and conclusions of law and indicating how the court intends to rule on the motion.<sup>61</sup> The State may appeal a district court’s preliminary determination granting a motion to dismiss to superior court<sup>62</sup> and may appeal to the court of appeals a superior court order dismissing charges based upon denial of access to family and friends.<sup>63</sup>

Conclusion

Knoll and its progeny permit the dismissal of impaired driving charges only in extraordinary cases. To succeed in establishing a basis for the dismissal of charges, a defendant charged with driving while impaired under the per se prong of G.S. 20-138.1 must show not only a constitutional or substantial statutory violation, but also must establish that the defendant was prejudiced by the violation. Appellate court opinions following Knoll reveal that establishing prejudice is a high hurdle for the defense. Magistrates’ compliance with implied consent procedures enacted in 2006 further reduces the likelihood that a defendant will successfully establish a basis for relief on these grounds. These procedures are designed to ensure that defendants are detained only as authorized by statute and, furthermore, that when defendants are detained, they are informed about how to gain access to witnesses while in custody and are afforded such access pursuant to established and agreed-upon methods.

Guilford County Implied Consent Procedures

Procedures for the Observation of Prisoners Charged with Implied Consent Offenses Pursuant to N.C.G.S. 20-38.5

1. Any person seeking to observe jailed or incarcerated impaired drivers shall first check in with the Staff Duty Officer or Detention staff on duty at the Guilford County Sheriff's Office. Observations are limited to the first twenty-four hours following the defendant's admission into the jail.
2. The Staff Duty or Detention Officer shall immediately notify the arresting officer and Booking officer that a witness is present to observe the defendant. The time of this notification shall be documented by Booking in the Booking log book and by the dispatcher on the attached witness observation form.
3. Booking shall inform the jail supervisor on-duty of the witness's presence in the facility. The supervisor shall send a detention officer to escort the witness to the jail or appropriate viewing area. The escorting officer shall obtain the form and complete the information concerning the name of the witness, the person to be observed, the time and date the witness was escorted to the jail and the time and date of the completion of the observation.
4. A witness seeking to observe the defendant shall be admitted to observe the defendant in an area designated by the Sheriff for observation of the defendant. Jail staff shall note the time the witness is admitted to the jail and the time the observation begins.
5. All witnesses shall be required to submit to a search of their person and belongings prior to entry into the jail. Witnesses must comply with all jail or facility regulations prior to being admitted into any secured area.
6. Guilford County Sheriff's Office staff shall not hold or retain any personal property items for the witness.
7. No person under the age of 16 will be admitted to the jail as a witness to observe impaired defendants.
8. The jail supervisor shall determine the number of persons that may be admitted at one time to observe defendants in jail.
9. Observations of defendants will be limited to five (5) minutes and will include the ability for the witness to observe the person by sight, sound, and smell.
10. No physical contact will be allowed between the witness and the person charged.
11. All witnesses will be searched initially and supervised by jail detention officers during the entire observation period.

Magistrate Procedures for Ordering Civil License Revocations and the Seizure and Impoundment of Motor Vehicles

Shea Riggsbee Denning

I. Introduction

Several issues in this series focus on the procedures magistrates should follow in conducting initial appearances. The procedures involving criminal cases generally are described in detail in Jessie Smith, Criminal Procedure for Magistrates, ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE BULLETIN No. 2009/08 (UNC School of Government, Dec. 2009). Criminal cases involving implied consent laws, such as a charge of suspicion of impaired driving or an alcohol-related offense, may require magistrates to carry out several additional processes during the initial appearance. For example, magistrates may be required to revoke a defendant's driver's license, order that a vehicle driven by a defendant be seized and impounded, consider whether a defendant should be detained because his or her impairment poses a danger to others, and inform a defendant of the procedure for having witnesses appear at the jail to observe his or her condition or perform additional chemical analyses. The applicability of these procedures depends on the existence of factors specific to each. The procedures for detaining impaired drivers and for informing defendants of their right to secure witnesses and to obtain further chemical analyses are described in Shea Riggsbee Denning, What's Knoll Got to Do with It? Procedures in Implied Consent Cases to Prevent Dismissals under Knoll, ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE BULLETIN No. 2009/07 (UNC School of Government, Dec. 2009).

This bulletin focuses on the aforementioned procedures governing civil license revocation and the seizure and impoundment of motor vehicles. This discussion is flanked at the beginning by a review of police processing procedures in implied consent cases and at the end by two appendixes. Appendix A contains Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) forms referenced in the discussion, and Appendix B presents flowcharts illustrating the processes for ordering the revocation of a civil license and the seizure of motor vehicles.

II. Police Processing Duties in Implied Consent Cases

To understand the procedures applicable in connection with an initial appearance for an implied consent offense, one must first consider the activities undertaken by law enforcement officers and chemical analysts before that appearance.

When a person is arrested for an implied consent offense, or if criminal process has been issued, including a citation, a law enforcement officer who has reasonable grounds to believe that the person charged has committed the offense may require that person to undergo chemical analysis.<sup>1</sup> The officer is authorized to transport the accused to any location within North Carolina for the purposes of administering one or more chemical analyses.<sup>2</sup>

North Carolina law defines “chemical analysis” as a test or tests of the breath, blood, or other bodily fluid or substance of a person performed in compliance with statutory requirements to determine the person’s blood alcohol level or the presence of an impairing substance.<sup>3</sup> The concentration of alcohol in a person is expressed either as grams of alcohol per 100 milliliters of blood or as grams of alcohol per 210 liters of breath.<sup>4</sup> The results of a defendant’s alcohol concentration determined by a chemical analysis are reported to the hundredths, with any result between hundredths reported to the next-lower hundredth.<sup>5</sup>

Before any type of chemical analysis is administered, a person charged with an implied consent offense must be taken before a “chemical analyst,” defined as a person granted a permit by the Department of Health and Human Services under Section 20-139.1 of the North Carolina General Statutes (hereinafter G.S.) to perform such analyses.<sup>6</sup> The analyst must first inform the person charged as to, and provide that person with notice in writing of, the following rights:

- (1) You have been charged with an implied-consent offense. Under the implied-consent law, you can refuse any test, but your drivers license will be revoked for one year and could be revoked for a longer period of time under certain circumstances, and an officer can compel you to be tested under other laws.
- (2) [repealed, 2006]
- (3) The test results, or the fact of your refusal, will be admissible in evidence at trial.
- (4) Your driving privilege will be revoked immediately for at least 30 days if you refuse any test or if the test result is 0.08 or more, 0.04 or more if you were driving a commercial vehicle, or 0.01 or more if you are under the age of 21.
- (5) After you are released, you may seek your own test in addition to this test.
- (6) You may call an attorney for advice and select a witness to view the testing procedures remaining after the witness arrives, but the testing may not be delayed for these purposes longer than 30 minutes from the time you are notified of these rights. You must take the test at the end of 30 minutes even if you have not contacted an attorney or your witness has not arrived.<sup>7</sup>

2. G.S. 20-38.3(2).

3. Id. § 20-4.01(3a).

4. Id. § 20-4.01(1b). The alcohol concentration for breath tests is based on an assumption that a breath alcohol concentration of 0.10 grams per 210 liters of breath is equivalent to a blood alcohol concentration of .10 percent, or, in other words, a 2100 to 1 blood-breath ratio. See State v. Cothran, 120 N.C. App. 633, 635, 463 S.E.2d 423, 424 (1995).

6. Id. § 20-4.01(3b).

7. Id. § 20-16.2(a).

If a law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has committed an implied consent offense, and the person is unconscious or otherwise in a condition that makes the person incapable of refusing the test, the officer may direct the taking of a blood sample or the administration of any other type of chemical analysis that may be effectively performed.<sup>8</sup> There is no requirement under state law that the chemical analyst inform such a person of the implied consent rights in G.S. 20-16.2(a) or that the person be asked to submit to the analysis pursuant to G.S. 20-16.2(c).<sup>9</sup>

The law enforcement officer or the chemical analyst designates the type of test or tests to be administered, that is, a test of blood, breath, or urine.<sup>10</sup> The officer or chemical analyst then asks the person to submit to the designated type of chemical analysis.<sup>11</sup> A person's refusal prevents testing under the implied consent laws but does not preclude testing pursuant to other applicable procedures of law,<sup>12</sup> such as pursuant to a search warrant or the exigency exception to the search warrant requirement of the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.<sup>13</sup>

Chemical analyses are most frequently obtained through utilization of a breath-testing instrument.<sup>14</sup> The North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services approves breath-testing instruments on the basis of results of evaluations by the department's Forensic Tests for

13. See G.S. 20-139.1(d1) (providing that if a person refuses to submit to a test, a law enforcement officer with probable cause may, without a court order, compel the person to provide blood or urine for analysis if the officer reasonably believes that the delay necessary to obtain a court order would result in the dissipation of the percentage of alcohol in the person's blood or urine) and State v. Fletcher, 202 N.C. App. 107, 688 S.E.2d 94 (2010) (finding exigent circumstances warranting blood draw and upholding G.S. 20-139.1 as constitutional); see also Schmerber v. California, 384 U.S. 757 (1966) (concluding that an officer's warrantless taking of the defendant's blood incident to his arrest for driving while impaired was constitutional under the Fourth Amendment where the officer reasonably believed he was confronted with an emergency in which the delay necessary to obtain a warrant threatened the dissipation of alcohol in the defendant's blood and where the blood was taken in a hospital environment according to accepted medical practices); State v. Steimel, 921 A.2d 378 (N.H. 2007) (upholding as constitutional warrantless blood draw to detect drugs incident to defendant's arrest for aggravated driving while intoxicated and refusing to distinguish between metabolization of alcohol and controlled drugs for purposes of applying the Fourth Amendment's exigency exception); People v. Ritchie, 181 Cal. Rptr. 773 (Cal. Ct. App. 1982) (upholding as constitutional warrantless blood draw to detect drugs incident to defendant's arrest for driving under the influence of drugs).

See Title 10A, Subchapter 41B, Section .0101(2) of the North Carolina Administrative Code (hereinafter N.C.A.C.); see also G.S. 20-139.1 (rendering a chemical analysis of the breath administered pursuant to the implied consent law admissible in court if it is performed in accordance with rules of the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) and the person performing the analysis had a current permit issued by DHHS authorizing him or her to perform a breath test using the type of instrument employed).

Alcohol Branch.<sup>15</sup> The breath-testing instrument currently authorized and used is the Intoximeter, Model Intox EC/IR II.<sup>16</sup> The operational procedures for the instrument are prescribed by statute and administrative regulation.<sup>17</sup> The person being tested must be observed to ensure that he or she has not ingested alcohol or other fluids or regurgitated, vomited, eaten, or smoked in the fifteen minutes immediately prior to the collection of a breath specimen.<sup>18</sup> At least two sequential breath samples must be tested.<sup>19</sup> The results of the chemical analysis of all breath samples is admissible in evidence in any court or administrative hearing if the test results from any two consecutively collected breath samples do not differ from each other by an alcohol concentration of more than 0.02.<sup>20</sup> Only the lower of the two test results of the consecutively administered tests may be used to prove a particular alcohol concentration.<sup>21</sup> A person's refusal to give the sequential breath samples necessary to constitute a valid chemical analysis amounts to a refusal to submit to testing under G.S. 20-16.2(c).<sup>22</sup> A person's refusal to give the second or subsequent breath sample renders the result of the first breath sample, or the result of the sample providing the lowest alcohol concentration if more than one breath sample is provided, admissible in any judicial or administrative hearing for any relevant purpose.<sup>23</sup>

A person's willful refusal to submit to a chemical analysis may, depending on other factors, result in the revocation of his or her driver's license for a period of twelve months—in addition to resulting in the immediate civil revocation of his or her driver's license for a period of at least thirty days.<sup>24</sup> A refusal is “the declination of a request or demand, or the omission to comply with some requirement of law, as the result of a positive intention to disobey.”<sup>25</sup> A willful refusal occurs when a person (1) is aware that he or she has a choice to take or refuse a test, (2) is aware of the time limit within which he or she must take the test, and (3) voluntarily elects not to take the test or knowingly permits the prescribed thirty-minute time limit to expire before electing to take the test.<sup>26</sup> In essence, a willful refusal is a refusal that occurs after the defendant is advised of his or her implied consent rights and is asked to submit to a chemical analysis.<sup>27</sup>

At a law enforcement officer's discretion, a person may be asked to submit to a chemical analysis of his or her blood or urine in addition to or in lieu of a chemical analysis of his or her breath.<sup>28</sup> If a subsequent chemical analysis is requested, the person must again be advised of the implied consent rights under G.S. 20-16.2(a).<sup>29</sup> When a law enforcement officer specifies a blood or urine test as the type of chemical analysis to be conducted, a physician, registered nurse, emergency medical technician, or other qualified person must withdraw the blood sample or obtain the urine sample.<sup>30</sup> A person's willful refusal to submit to a blood or urine test constitutes a willful refusal to submit to testing under G.S. 20-16.2.<sup>31</sup>

In an implied consent case in which a defendant is asked to submit to a chemical analysis, the law enforcement officer and the chemical analyst (who may be the same person) complete a form called AOC-CVR-1A (Affidavit and Revocation Report; see Appendix A) averring that the implied consent testing procedures have been followed. The affidavit, which in certain cases (discussed below) serves also as a revocation report, typically is sworn and subscribed before a magistrate at the charged person's initial appearance.

After completing all investigatory and other specified procedures, crash reports, and chemical analyses, a law enforcement officer must take the person charged before a judicial official for an initial appearance.<sup>32</sup>

The procedures set forth in Article 24 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes govern initial appearances in implied consent cases just as they do in other criminal cases, except where those procedures are modified by the implied consent offense procedures set forth in Article 2D of G.S. Chapter 20. The implied consent offense procedures permit a magistrate to hold an initial appearance at any place within the county and require, "to the extent practicable," that a magistrate "be available at locations other than the courthouse when it will expedite the initial appearance."<sup>33</sup> To determine whether there is probable cause to believe a person charged with an implied consent offense is impaired, a magistrate may review all alcohol screening tests<sup>34</sup> and chemical analyses and may receive testimony from any law enforcement officer concerning impairment and the circumstances of the arrest.<sup>35</sup> The magistrate also may observe the person arrested.<sup>36</sup>

30. Id. § 20-139.1(c).

31. Id. § 20-139.1(b5).

32. Id. § 20-38.3(5).

33. Id. § 20-38.4(a)(1).

34. A valid alcohol screening test must be performed with an approved portable breath-testing device, such as an ALCO-SENSOR. G.S. 20-16.3(b), (c); 10A N.C.A.C. §§ 41B .0501-.0503. A law enforcement officer may use "[t]he fact that a driver showed a positive or negative result on an alcohol screening test, but not the actual alcohol concentration result," in determining probable cause for an implied consent offense. G.S. 20-16.3(d). An officer also may use a driver's refusal to submit to an alcohol screening test in determining probable cause. Id.

A different rule governs the use of alcohol screening tests in cases in which a defendant is charged with driving by a person less than 21 years old after consuming alcohol. See G.S. 20-138.3(b2). In such cases, a law enforcement officer, court, or administrative agency may use the results of an alcohol screening test to determine whether alcohol was present in the driver's body. Id. Thus, not only may the results of the test be used in such cases, but reliance on the results also is not limited to determining probable cause.

III. Civil License Revocations

State law requires the immediate civil revocation of driver's licenses of certain persons charged with implied consent offenses.<sup>37</sup> When the results of a chemical analysis or reports indicating a refusal to submit to a chemical analysis are available at the time of the initial appearance, the law enforcement officer and chemical analyst involved in the case must execute a revocation report before the magistrate.<sup>38</sup> The magistrate must, after completing any other proceedings involving the person charged, determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the conditions requiring civil license revocation are met.<sup>39</sup>

A. Conditions Requiring Civil License Revocation

A person's driver's license is subject to civil revocation under G.S. 20-16.5 if each of the following four conditions is satisfied:

1. A law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person has committed an implied consent offense (see sidebar).
2. The person is charged with an implied consent offense.
3. The law enforcement officer and the chemical analyst comply with the procedures of G.S. 20-16.2 and -139.1 in requiring the person to submit to or in procuring a chemical analysis.
4. The person:
  - a. willfully refuses to submit to the chemical analysis,
  - b. has an alcohol concentration of .08 or more within a relevant time after the driving,
  - c. has an alcohol concentration of .04 or more at any relevant time after the driving of a commercial motor vehicle, or
5. has any alcohol concentration at any relevant time after the driving and the person is under 21 years of age.

Notwithstanding the statutory use of the present tense "has," it appears that a magistrate must base the determination of the first condition, namely, whether a law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person has committed an implied consent offense, on whether those grounds existed at the time the implied consent testing procedures were initiated and not upon

Implied Consent Offenses

1. Impaired driving (G.S. 20-138.1).
2. Impaired driving in a commercial vehicle (G.S. 20-138.2).
3. Habitual impaired driving (G.S. 20-138.5).
4. Death by vehicle or serious injury by vehicle (G.S. 20-141.4).
5. First- or second-degree murder (G.S. 14-17) or involuntary manslaughter (G.S. 14-18) when based on impaired driving.
6. Driving by a person less than 21 years old after consuming alcohol or drugs (G.S. 20-138.3).
7. Violating no-alcohol condition of limited driving privilege (G.S. 20-179.3).
8. Impaired instruction (G.S. 20-12.1).
9. Operating commercial motor vehicle after consuming alcohol (G.S. 20-138.2A).
10. Operating school bus, school activity bus, or child care vehicle after consuming alcohol (G.S. 20-138.2B).
11. Transporting an open container of alcohol (G.S. 20-138.7(a)).
12. Driving in violation of restriction requiring ignition interlock (G.S. 20-17.8(f)).

Note: See G.S. 20-16.2(a1); -4.01(24a).

whether reasonable grounds exist at the time of the initial appearance. If this interpretation is correct, the magistrate must not base the reasonable grounds determination on the results of the chemical analysis or on the defendant's willful refusal. This construction of G.S. 20-16.5 best comports with the statutory provisions that (1) permit implied consent testing only in circumstances in which a law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has committed an implied consent offense<sup>40</sup> and (2) require the magistrate also to determine, before issuing a civil license revocation under G.S. 20-16.5, that "the law enforcement officer and the chemical analyst compl[ie]d with the procedure of G.S. 20-16.2 and G.S. 20-139.1 in requiring the person's submission to or [in] procuring a chemical analysis."<sup>41</sup>

The second condition for civil revocation of a person's driver's license requires that the person be charged with an implied consent offense. Again, this condition appears to refer to the grounds that existed before the implied consent testing procedures were initiated. A person is charged with an implied consent offense if the person is arrested for the offense or if criminal process for the offense has been issued.<sup>42</sup>

The third condition requires that the magistrate determine whether the law enforcement officer and chemical analyst complied with the implied consent testing procedures set forth in G.S. 20-16.2 and -139.1, which were discussed earlier in this bulletin in the section on the police processing duties in implied consent cases.

Finally, before civil license revocation can occur, the magistrate must determine whether the person charged willfully refused to submit to a chemical analysis or had an alcohol concentration at or exceeding the threshold level. The concept of willful refusal and the requirements for reported alcohol concentrations likewise are discussed in the earlier section on police processing duties.

Although normally a person submits to chemical analysis only after he or she is arrested and charged with an implied consent offense, a person who is stopped or questioned by a law enforcement officer who is investigating whether that person may have committed an implied consent offense may request that a chemical analysis be administered before any arrest or other charge is made.<sup>43</sup> Upon such a request, the officer must afford the person the opportunity to have a chemical analysis of his or her breath, if available, in accordance with the procedures required by G.S. 20-139.1(b).<sup>44</sup> The notice of rights required prior to administration of a pre-charge test is prescribed by statute and differs slightly from the notice provided in a case in which the person already has been charged with an implied consent offense.<sup>45</sup> A pre-charge chemical analysis can give rise to a license revocation if the following conditions are satisfied:<sup>46</sup>

1. The person requested a pre-charge chemical analysis pursuant to G.S. 20-16.2(i) and
2. The person has
  - a. an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more at any relevant time after driving,
  - b. an alcohol concentration of 0.04 or more at any relevant time after driving a commercial motor vehicle, or

Driving in Violation of an Alcohol Restriction That Is Not an Implied Consent Offense

When a person's license is restored after having been revoked as a result of his or her conviction for being under the age of 21 and driving after consuming alcohol or drugs, for impaired driving, or for another offense involving impaired driving specified in G.S. 20-19, the license is restored with the restriction that the person not operate a motor vehicle while having an alcohol concentration greater than 0.04 or, in the case of a second or subsequent restoration or conviction of certain specified offenses involving impaired driving, a concentration exceeding 0.00.<sup>47</sup> A person seeking to have his or her license restored must agree to submit to a chemical analysis in accordance with G.S. 20-16.2 at the request of a law enforcement officer who has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is operating a motor vehicle on a highway or public vehicular area in violation of the restriction. The person must also agree to be transported by the officer to the place where the chemical analysis is to be administered.

Magistrates frequently question whether a person who drives in violation of such a restriction is subject to civil license revocation based merely on the violation of the alcohol restriction. The usual answer is no. Driving in violation of an alcohol restriction imposed as a condition of a license restoration pursuant to G.S. 20-19(c3) is not an implied consent offense, so the conditions for civil license revocation are not met based merely on violating such a restriction. That said, there may be instances in which there is probable cause to believe that a person with an alcohol restriction has, in addition to violating the conditions of a restricted license, also committed an implied consent offense. In such a case, if the other conditions for civil license revocation exist, the civil revocation must be issued.

One reason for the confusion may be that in addition to its use in the civil revocation context, the AOC-CVR-1A form is used also to report violations of alcohol concentration restrictions to the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). G.S. 20-16.2(c1) requires that when a person's driver's license has an alcohol concentration restriction and the results of a chemical analysis establish a violation of that restriction, or when a law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person has violated another provision of the restriction, the law enforcement officer must execute an affidavit regarding the violation and "immediately mail" it to the DMV.

The officer must designate in item 2 of AOC-CVR-1A the type of driver's license restriction and specify in item 3 of the form the nature of the restriction violation. Upon receipt of a properly executed AOC-CVR-1A setting forth a restriction violation, the DMV must notify the person that his or her driver's license is revoked for the period of time specified under G.S. 20-19, effective on the tenth calendar day after the mailing of the revocation order, unless before the effective date of the order the person requests in writing a hearing before the DMV.<sup>48</sup>

Driving in Violation of Ignition Interlock Restriction

Certain persons convicted of impaired driving may have their licenses restored only in conjunction with an ignition interlock restriction.<sup>49</sup> A person whose license is revoked as a result of a conviction of impaired driving pursuant to G.S. 20-138.1 who had either (1) an alcohol concentration level of 0.15 or higher or (2) a prior conviction for an offense involving impaired driving, that offense having occurred within seven years immediately preceding the date of the offense for which the person's license is revoked, may have his or her license restored only with an ignition interlock restriction.<sup>50</sup> This requires that a person operate only a vehicle that is equipped with a functioning ignition interlock system.<sup>51</sup> The person must personally activate the ignition interlock system before driving the vehicle.<sup>52</sup> An alcohol concentration restriction of 0.04 or 0.00 also applies, with the level dependent on the circumstances of the conviction giving rise to the ignition interlock requirement.<sup>53</sup>

A person who violates an ignition interlock restriction commits the offense of driving while license revoked (DWLR) under G.S. 20-28(a) and is subject to punishment and license revocation as provided in that section.<sup>54</sup> If a law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person subject to an ignition interlock restriction has consumed alcohol while driving or has driven while any previously consumed alcohol remains in his or her body, the suspected offense of DWLR is an alcohol-related offense subject to the implied consent provisions of G.S. 20-16.2.<sup>55</sup>

Thus, certain violations of ignition interlock restrictions constitute implied consent offenses. If a person is charged with such an offense and the other requirements of G.S. 20-16.5 are satisfied, the magistrate must order the person's driver's license civilly revoked under G.S. 20-16.5.

The person's license also will be suspended pursuant to G.S. 20-17.8, which provides that when a person subject to an ignition interlock restriction is charged with DWLR based on a violation of the ignition interlock restrictions set forth in G.S. 20-17.8(b)<sup>56</sup> and the judicial official finds probable cause for the charge, the person's license is suspended pending resolution of the case. G.S. 20-17.8 provides that the judicial official must require the person to surrender the license and inform the person that he or she is not entitled to drive until the case is resolved.

49. Id. § 20-17.8.

50. G.S. 20-17.8(l) sets forth a medical exception to the ignition interlock requirement for people who establish that they are not capable of personally activating the ignition interlock system.

51. Id. § 20-17.8(b)(1).

52. Id. § 20-17.8(b)(2).

53. Id. § 20-17.8(b)(3).

54. Id. § 20-17.8(f).

55. Id.

56. These restrictions are that the person (1) operate only a vehicle equipped with interlock, (2) personally activate the ignition interlock before driving, and (3) comply with the alcohol concentration restrictions. The requirement that a person subject to ignition interlock have all registered vehicles owned by him or her equipped with ignition interlock unless the DMV determines that one or more vehicles owned by that person are relied upon by a family member for transportation and that such a vehicle is not in the possession of the restricted person is contained in G.S. 20-17.8(c1). Thus, a violation of this requirement alone does not give rise to a G.S. 20-17.8(f) revocation. Nor would it constitute an implied consent offense, since it would not involve the consumption of alcohol while driving or driving while previously consumed alcohol remains in the body.

B. Affidavit and Revocation Report (AOC-CVR-1A)

In implied consent cases in which a law enforcement officer and a chemical analyst determine that the conditions requiring an immediate civil license revocation exist, the law enforcement officer and chemical analyst (who may be the same person) must execute an AOC-CVR-1A.<sup>57</sup> This report is a sworn statement (affidavit) by a law enforcement officer and chemical analyst containing facts indicating that the conditions requiring a civil license revocation are met and reporting whether the person has a pending offense for which his or her license had been or is revoked under the civil revocation statute.<sup>58</sup>

A law enforcement officer must ensure that the AOC-CVR-1A is expeditiously filed with the appropriate judicial official. If no revocation report has previously been filed and the results of the chemical analysis or the reports indicating the defendant's willful refusal to submit to a chemical analysis are available, the law enforcement officer must file the report with the judicial official conducting the initial appearance on the underlying criminal charge—typically a magistrate.<sup>59</sup>

After completing any other proceedings involving the person charged, the magistrate must determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the conditions requiring civil license revocation are satisfied.<sup>60</sup> If the magistrate determines that the requirements are met, the magistrate must enter an order revoking the defendant's license for the requisite period, unless the exception for revoked licenses, described below, applies.<sup>61</sup> The revocation begins at the time the order is issued.<sup>62</sup>

57. The charging officer may also perform the work of the chemical analyst—the person authorized to conduct chemical analyses of the breath—if the officer has a current permit issued by the Department of Health and Human Services authorizing him or her to perform a breath test using the type of instrument employed. G.S. 20-139.1(b1).

58. Id. § 20-16.5(a)(4). If the charging officer and the chemical analyst are different people, the officer will complete the pertinent part of one AOC-CVR-1A (paragraphs 1–5), and the chemical analyst will complete the remaining portions (paragraphs 6–14) of a separate AOC-CVR-1A. If one chemical analyst analyzes a person's blood and another chemical analyst informs a person of his or her rights and responsibilities under G.S. 20-16.2, the affidavit and report must include the statements of both analysts. The officer also must state in the last block of paragraph 4 of the AOC-CVR-1A whether the person charged has a pending offense for which the person's license has been or is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5, as this will affect the length of the revocation period.

59. Id. § 20-16.5(d)(1). If no report has previously been filed and the results or reports indicating a refusal were not available at the initial appearance, the report must be filed with a judicial official conducting any other proceeding relating to the underlying criminal charge at which the person is present. Id. § 20-16.5(d)(2). If neither G.S. 20-16.5(d)(1) nor (d)(2) is applicable at the time the law enforcement officer must file the report, the report must be filed with the clerk of superior court in the county in which the underlying criminal charge has been brought. Id. § 20-16.5(e).

60. Id. § 20-16.5(e).

61. A person's license is subject to immediate civil revocation if the aforementioned statutory requirements are met—even if the person was driving a vehicle for which no license was required, such as a moped, bicycle, or lawn mower.

62. G.S. 20-16.5(e).

Exception for Revoked Licenses

If the magistrate finds that the person whose license is subject to civil revocation has a currently revoked driver's license, no limited driving privilege, and will not become eligible for restoration of his or her license or a limited driving privilege during the period of civil revocation, the magistrate is not required to issue the civil revocation order.<sup>63</sup> If this exception applies and the revocation order is not issued, the magistrate must file in the records of the civil proceeding a copy of any documentary evidence and set out in writing all other evidence on which he or she relied in making that determination.<sup>64</sup>

Multiple Offenses

A person may be charged with more than one implied consent offense arising from a single event. For example, as a result of one episode of driving while impaired, a person may be charged under G.S. 20-138.1 as well as under G.S. 20-138.3 if the driver is less than 21 years old. Both of these offenses are implied consent offenses that, when combined with other requisite factors, require a civil license revocation. However, when a defendant is charged with more than one offense requiring a civil license revocation based on conduct arising from a single occurrence, only one civil license revocation should be issued.

C. Revocation Order When the Person Is Present (AOC-CVR-2)

The form a magistrate must use to enter a revocation order is AOC-CVR-2 (Revocation Order When Person Present; see Appendix A). The magistrate must check the appropriate box under paragraph 4 of the findings for probable cause section of the form to indicate whether the defendant (a) willfully refused to submit to a chemical analysis, (b) had an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more at any relevant time after driving, (c) had an alcohol concentration of 0.04 or more at any relevant time after the driving of a commercial motor vehicle, or (d) had any alcohol concentration at any relevant time after the driving and, at the time of the offense, was under 21 years of age. If the defendant has been charged with an offense for which his or her license had been or is revoked pursuant to G.S. 20-16.5 and that offense is pending, the magistrate must so indicate by checking paragraph 5 in the same section.

The magistrate must then complete the order portion of AOC-CVR-2. There, the magistrate must indicate that the revocation is in effect for at least thirty days from one of three dates: (1) the date the order is entered [box 1], (2) the date the defendant surrenders his or her driver's license to the court or demonstrates that he or she is not currently licensed to drive [box 2], or (3) the date the defendant, if found in the probable cause section of AOC-CVR-2 to have certain offenses pending against him or her, surrenders his or her driver's license to the court or demonstrates that he or she is not currently licensed to drive; in this circumstance, the magistrate must also indicate that the defendant will remain ineligible to drive indefinitely, until a final judgment, including all appeals, has been entered for the current offense and for all pending offenses for which his or her driver's license had been or is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5 [box 3]. If the person surrenders his or her license at the time of revocation and has no pending offenses for which the license was or is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5, the magistrate checks box 1. If the person does not surrender his or her license at the time of the revocation but has no pending offenses for which the license was revoked, the magistrate checks box 2. If the magistrate checked box 5 in the findings for probable cause section, indicating that the person has a pending offense for which his or her license is or was civilly revoked, the magistrate must check box 3 in the order portion of the form, indicating that the current civil revocation is indefinite in duration. Again, these provisions provide the starting date for measuring the minimum term of the revocation. The revocation begins at the time the revocation order is issued by the magistrate.<sup>65</sup>

63. Id. § 20-16.5(n).

Notifying the Defendant

The magistrate must give the defendant a copy of the revocation order. Although G.S. 20-16.5 does not require that the magistrate orally notify the defendant of the revocation period, a magistrate should, in the interest of securing compliance with the revocation, inform the defendant that his or her license is revoked for at least thirty days. If box 3 of the order portion of AOC-CVR-2 is checked, indicating an indefinite revocation, the magistrate should inform the defendant that his or her license is revoked for at least thirty days and that it remains revoked indefinitely, until a final judgment is entered for the current offense and all pending offenses for which his or her license had been or is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5. The magistrate must state in the order and personally inform the defendant that he or she may request a hearing to contest the validity of the revocation order and that his or her license remains revoked pending that hearing.<sup>66</sup>

Surrender of License

Upon entering the revocation order, the magistrate must order the person charged to surrender his or her license and, if necessary, may order a law enforcement officer to seize the license.<sup>67</sup> Licenses issued by jurisdictions other than North Carolina are covered by the surrender provisions and must, like North Carolina driver's licenses, be surrendered to the magistrate.<sup>68</sup>

If within five working days of the effective date of the order the person does not surrender his or her license or demonstrate that he or she is not currently licensed, the clerk must immediately enter a Drivers License Pick-Up Order (AOC-CVR-4; see Appendix A).<sup>69</sup>

A person may surrender a driver's license by turning over to a court or a law enforcement officer his or her most recent, valid driver's license or learner's permit or a limited driving privilege issued by a North Carolina court.<sup>70</sup> In July 2008, the North Carolina DMV launched a central system for issuing licenses.<sup>71</sup> Under this system, a person who applies to renew his or her driver's license does not receive a newly minted license from the local DMV office.<sup>72</sup> Instead, the person receives a temporary driving certificate valid for twenty days.<sup>73</sup> In the interim, the person's driver's license is produced at a central location and then mailed to the applicant.<sup>74</sup> When a magistrate orders a civil license revocation for a person who has a temporary driving certificate rather than a renewed license, the magistrate should require the driver to surrender the temporary certificate. The magistrate should further instruct the person that upon receiving his or her renewed license in the mail, he or she must surrender it to the office of the clerk for superior court for the remainder of the revocation period.

No License or Lost License (AOC-CVR-8)

A person who is validly licensed but is unable to locate his or her license may surrender the license by filing with the clerk of superior court form AOC-CVR-8 (Affidavit—No License; see Appendix A), indicating why, though validly licensed, he or she does not possess the license card.<sup>75</sup> Because an affidavit establishing that a person has lost his or her license may only be filed with the clerk, the magistrate should never check box 2 in the supplemental findings section of the AOC-CVR-2.<sup>76</sup> Instead, the clerk must check this box upon his or her receipt of the affidavit of lost license. In contrast, a person who is not licensed to drive by North Carolina or by any other jurisdiction and who, thus, has no license may complete form AOC-CVR-8 and submit the affidavit to either the magistrate or the clerk. A charged person also may demonstrate to the magistrate that he or she is not licensed by producing appropriate identification that the magistrate can check against North Carolina DMV records. If a person submits AOC-CVR-8 to establish that he or she does not have a license or otherwise demonstrates to the magistrate that he or she has no license, the magistrate must check box 3 in the supplemental findings and order section on side two of AOC-CVR-2, indicating that the person demonstrated that he or she was not currently authorized to drive in North Carolina, and must record the time and date in the first sentence of this section of the form. The magistrate must then sign and date the supplemental findings and order section.

Revocation Period

A civil license revocation ordered by a magistrate begins at the time the revocation order is issued and continues until the person's license has been surrendered for the minimum revocation period (discussed below) and the person has paid the applicable costs.<sup>77</sup> Revocations under G.S. 20-16.5 are never shorter than thirty days from the date the person surrenders the license. The revocation period may be longer, depending on whether, at the time of the present implied consent offense, the person has a pending offense for which his or her license was or has been revoked under G.S. 20-16.5.

The sidebar sets forth the revocation period for persons who do not have an implied consent charge pending at the time of the current offense. For a person who, at the time of the new offense has a pending implied consent charge for which his or her license was or is civilly revoked under

For Persons Who Do Not Have a Pending Implied Consent Charge at the Time of the Current Offense, the Civil Revocation Concludes When:

1. The person has surrendered his or her license or has demonstrated to the court that he or she has no license or has lost his or her license;
2. Thirty days (forty-five days if the person fails to surrender his or her license within five working days after the effective date of a revocation order issued by a clerk and served by mail) have passed since the license was surrendered; and
3. The person has paid the $100 in costs.

G.S. 20-16.5, the new civil revocation is indefinite and lasts until a final judgment (including all appeals) has been entered for the current offense and all pending implied consent offenses. In no event may the revocation period be shorter than thirty days. This indefinite revocation period applies regardless of whether the civil revocation in the earlier case was in place at the time of the instant offense; the key is whether the prior implied consent charge itself is still pending.

D. Contesting a License Revocation (AOC-CVR-5)

As previously mentioned, a person whose license is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5 may request a hearing to contest the validity of the revocation. The request must be in writing and may be made at the time of the person's initial appearance or within ten days of the effective date of the revocation.<sup>78</sup> The appropriate form for the hearing request is AOC-CVR-5 (Request for Hearing to Contest License Revocation; see Appendix A). The hearing request must be made to the magistrate at the initial appearance or, if made after the initial appearance, to the clerk or a magistrate designated by the clerk.<sup>79</sup> The written request must specify the grounds upon which the revocation is challenged.<sup>80</sup> The ensuing hearing must be limited to the grounds specified in that request.<sup>81</sup>

The person may specifically request that the hearing be conducted by a district court judge.<sup>82</sup> If the person does not make that request, the hearing must be conducted by a magistrate assigned by the chief district court judge to conduct such hearings.<sup>83</sup> The General Statutes are silent on the matter, but in order to ensure an impartial review, the hearing where the validity of the license revocation is being challenged should be held by a magistrate other than the magistrate who entered the initial revocation order. If the person does request that a district court judge hold the hearing, it must be conducted within the district court district by a district court judge assigned to conduct such hearings.<sup>84</sup> The revocation remains in effect pending the hearing.<sup>85</sup> The hearing must be held within three working days following the request if the hearing is before a magistrate or within five working days if before a district court judge.<sup>86</sup> If the hearing is not held and completed by a magistrate within three working days or by a district court judge within five working days of the written request, the judicial official must enter an order rescinding the revocation, unless the person contesting the revocation contributed to the delay.<sup>87</sup> If the person requesting the hearing fails to appear at the hearing or at any rescheduled hearing after having been properly notified, he or she forfeits the right to a hearing.<sup>88</sup>

A witness may submit evidence via affidavit at the hearing unless the witness is subpoenaed.<sup>89</sup> Any person who appears and testifies is subject to questioning by the judicial official conducting the hearing, and the judicial official may adjourn the hearing to seek additional evidence if he or she deems it necessary.<sup>90</sup> If the hearing is adjourned, it must be reconvened and the matter resolved within the applicable time limit (three working days if held by the magistrate, five working days if held by a district court judge).<sup>91</sup> The person contesting the validity of the revocation may, but is not required to, testify on his or her own behalf.<sup>92</sup> Unless contested by the person requesting the hearing, statements in the revocation report may be accepted as true by the judicial official.<sup>93</sup> If any relevant condition under G.S. 20-16.5(b) is contested, the judicial official must find by the greater weight of the evidence that the condition was met in order to sustain the revocation.<sup>94</sup> At the end of the hearing, the judicial official must enter an order on side two of AOC-CVR-5 sustaining or rescinding the revocation. The decision of the judicial official is final and may not be appealed.<sup>95</sup>

E. Return of License

After the applicable period of revocation has passed, or if a magistrate or judge orders the revocation rescinded, the person whose license was revoked may apply to the clerk for return of the surrendered license. The clerk generally keeps surrendered licenses rather than mailing them to the DMV. An exception applies if the person's license is revoked pursuant to G.S. 20-16.5 and revoked under another section of G.S. Chapter 20. In such cases, the clerk must surrender the license to the DMV if the G.S. 20-16.5 revocation can end before the other revocation.<sup>96</sup> The $100 in costs<sup>97</sup> still must be paid before the G.S. 20-16.5 civil revocation may be terminated, even after the other revocation ends.<sup>98</sup>

96. An exception applies for out-of-state licenses revoked because the driver refused to submit to a chemical analysis. When a person refuses to submit to a chemical analysis, the person's license is revoked by the DMV for twelve months, unless the person requests a hearing on the matter and the DMV concludes that certain statutory requirements are not met. G.S. 20-16.2(d). Upon refusal to submit to testing by a nonresident and out-of-state license holder, the DMV may revoke only the person's privilege to drive in North Carolina—not the person's privilege to drive in his or her home state. See id. § 20-16.2(f) (providing for notice to other states of revocation of nonresident's privilege to drive a motor vehicle in North Carolina based on a refusal to submit to a chemical analysis); see also State v. Streckfuss, 171 N.C. App. 81, 85–87, 614 S.E.2d 323, 326–327 (2005) (implicitly recognizing that North Carolina lacks authority to prohibit a nonresident from driving in his or her home state). For this reason, the DMV will not accept out-of-state licenses, and the clerk must return such licenses to the license holder upon satisfaction of the conditional revocation period and payment of costs. The DMV will, however, pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 20-16.2(f), notify both the state of the person's residence and any state in which the person is licensed of the revocation of the North Carolina driving privilege.

97. Of the total fee, 50 percent is credited to the state's general fund; 25 percent must be used for the statewide chemical alcohol testing program administered by the Forensic Tests for Alcohol Branch of the Department of Health and Human Services; and the remaining 25 percent must be remitted to the county as reimbursement for jail expenses incurred due to enforcement of the impaired driving laws. G.S. 20-16.5(j).

98. Id. § 20-16.5(h).

Upon application, a clerk must return a person's license if (1) the applicable period of revocation has passed and the person has paid the $100 in costs or (2) the magistrate or judge has rescinded the revocation.<sup>99</sup> If the license has expired, the clerk may return it to the person with a caution that it is no longer valid.<sup>100</sup> If the person has surrendered his or her copy of a limited driving privilege and is no longer eligible to use it, the clerk must make a record that the limited driving privilege was withheld.<sup>101</sup> The clerk must then forward that record to the clerk in the county in which the limited driving privilege was issued for inclusion in the case file.<sup>102</sup>

F. Nature of Revocation

Civil license revocations imposed pursuant to G.S. 20-16.5 are intended to “prevent unsafe and unfit drivers from operating vehicles and endangering the citizens of North Carolina”<sup>103</sup> rather than to punish drivers for conduct for which they have not yet been convicted. A civil revocation pursuant to G.S. 20-16.5 revokes a person's privilege to drive in North Carolina regardless of the source of his or her authorization to drive.<sup>104</sup> Revocations under G.S. 20-16.5 are independent of and run concurrently with other revocations.<sup>105</sup> A court that imposes a period of revocation upon conviction of an offense involving impaired driving may not give credit for any period of revocation imposed under G.S. 20-16.5.<sup>106</sup>

G. Limited Driving Privileges

A person whose license is civilly revoked under G.S. 20-16.5 for thirty or forty-five days may apply to the court for a limited driving privilege<sup>107</sup> if the following conditions are met: (1) at the time of the alleged offense, the person held a valid driver's license or one that had been expired for less than one year; (2) except for the charge for which the license is currently revoked, the person does not have (a) an unresolved pending charge involving impaired driving or (b) additional convictions for an offense involving impaired driving since being charged for the violation for which the license is currently revoked under G.S. 20-16.5; (3) the person's license has been revoked for at least ten days if the revocation period is thirty days or for at least thirty days if the revocation period is forty-five days; and (4) the person has obtained a substance abuse assessment from a mental health facility and registers for and agrees to participate in any recommended training or treatment program.<sup>108</sup> Any district court judge authorized to hold court in the judicial district where the case is pending is authorized to issue such a limited privilege.<sup>109</sup> Other judicial officials, such as clerks and magistrates, are not authorized to do so.

H. Driving While License Civilly Revoked

A person who drives while his or her license is civilly revoked commits the offense of driving while license revoked (DWLR) under G.S. 20-28. This is true even when the minimum revocation period has expired at the time of the driving and the person is eligible to have his or her license returned upon payment of costs. G.S. 20-28(a1) provides that a person convicted of DWLR for driving after the minimum revocation period had expired but before reclaiming his or her license is punished as if the person has been convicted of the less serious offense of driving without a license. This reduced punishment does not alter the charge or conviction of DWLR.

IV. Vehicle Seizure and Impoundment

The final procedure discussed in this bulletin is vehicle seizure and impoundment. This procedure applies only to offenses involving impaired driving, which constitute a subset of the broader category of implied consent offenses. G.S. 20-28.3 provides that a motor vehicle driven by a person charged with an offense involving impaired driving is subject to seizure if at the time of the violation (1) the driver's license of the person driving the motor vehicle was revoked as the result of a prior impaired driving license revocation as defined in G.S. 20-28.2(a) or (2) the person was not validly licensed and was not covered by an automobile liability policy.<sup>112</sup>

A judge later determines at the defendant's sentencing or other hearing whether a motor vehicle driven by an impaired driver and seized and impounded pursuant to G.S. 20-28.3 is subject to an order of forfeiture.<sup>113</sup> The proceeds of any forfeiture sale are disbursed to the county board of education.<sup>114</sup>

A. Key Terms Defined

An understanding of several terms is required to determine whether a motor vehicle is subject to seizure pursuant to G.S. 20-28.3. The terms "motor vehicle," "offenses involving impaired driving," "prior impaired driving license revocations," "driving without a valid drivers license," and driving while “not covered by an automobile liability policy” are defined in the following paragraphs. The second and third terms also are defined on side two of form AOC-CR-323 (Officer’s Affidavit for Seizure and Impoundment and Magistrate’s Order; see Appendix A).

Motor Vehicle

The term “motor vehicle” is defined as “[e]very vehicle which is self-propelled and every vehicle designed to run upon the highways which is pulled by a self-propelled vehicle.”<sup>115</sup> The term does not include mopeds,<sup>116</sup> which are vehicles with “two or three wheels, no external shifting device, and a motor that does not exceed 50 cubic centimeters piston displacement and cannot propel the vehicle at a speed greater than 30 miles per hour on a level surface.”<sup>117</sup> Only motor vehicles are subject to seizure pursuant to G.S. 20-28.3.

Offenses Involving Impaired Driving

The term “offenses involving impaired driving” is defined in G.S.20-4.01(24a) to consist of the following offenses:

- impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1;
- habitual impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.5;
- impaired driving in commercial vehicle under G.S. 20-138.2;
- any offense under G.S. 20-141.4 based on impaired driving (felony death by vehicle and felony serious injury by vehicle);
- first- or second-degree murder under G.S. 14-17 based on impaired driving;
- involuntary manslaughter under G.S. 14-18 based on impaired driving;
- substantially similar offenses committed in another state or jurisdiction.

As previously noted, a motor vehicle driven by a person during the commission of an impaired driving offense (defined above) is subject to seizure in two circumstances: (1) if, at the time of the violation, the person’s driver’s license was revoked as a result of a prior impaired driving license revocation or (2) if, at the time of the violation, the person was not validly licensed and was not covered by an automobile liability policy.

Prior Impaired Driving License Revocations

This term is defined by G.S. 20-28.2(a) to include revocations made under any of the following statutes:

- G.S. 20-13.2: consuming alcohol or drugs or willful refusal by driver under age 21 to submit to chemical analysis;
- G.S. 20-16(a)(8b): driving while impaired on a military installation;
- G.S. 20-16.2: refusal to take a chemical test;
- G.S. 20-16.5: pretrial civil license revocation;
- G.S. 20-17(a)(2): impaired driving or impaired driving in a commercial vehicle;
- G.S. 20-138.5: habitual impaired driving;
- G.S. 20-17(a)(12): transporting an open container of alcohol;
- G.S. 20-17.2: court order not to operate motor vehicle (repealed effective December 1, 2006);

115. Id. § 20-4.01(23).

116. Id.

117. See id. § 20-4.01(27)(d1) (incorporating definition of moped in G.S. 105-164.3(22)).

- G.S. 20-16(a)(7): impaired driving while out of state resulting in revocation of North Carolina driver's license;
- G.S. 20-17(a)(1): manslaughter or second-degree murder involving impaired driving;
- G.S. 20-17(a)(3): felony involving use of motor vehicle involving impaired driving;
- G.S. 20-17(a)(9): felony or misdemeanor death or felony serious injury by vehicle involving impaired driving;
- G.S. 20-17(a)(11): assault with motor vehicle involving impaired driving;
- G.S. 20-28.2(a)(3): the laws of another state and the offense for which the person's license is revoked prohibit substantially similar conduct that, if committed in North Carolina, would result in a revocation under any of the statutes listed above.

Driving without a Valid Driver's License

With respect to the provision for seizure of a vehicle driven by a person charged with an impaired driving offense who was driving without a license and without liability insurance, it is important to note that a person who has a complete defense pursuant to G.S. 20-35 to a charge of driving without a driver's license is considered to have had a valid driver's license at the time of the violation. Thus, a motor vehicle driven by such a person is not subject to seizure.<sup>118</sup> A person may not be convicted of the offense of driving a motor vehicle without a driver's license if the person demonstrates the following: (1) that at the time of the offense, the person had an expired license, (2) that the person renewed the license within thirty days after it expired, and (3) that the person could not have been charged with driving without a license if the person had the renewed license when charged with the offense.<sup>119</sup> In essence, this provision establishes a thirty-day grace period for renewing one's driver's license. Moreover, a person's simple failure to carry a license on his or her person does not satisfy the "driving without a license" prong so as to subject his or her vehicle to seizure.

Driving While Not Covered by Automobile Liability Policy

In addition to having probable cause to believe that the driver was charged with an impaired driving offense and did not have a valid license, in order to seize a motor vehicle under G.S. 20-28.3(a)(2), a law enforcement officer must have probable cause to believe that the driver was not at the time of the violation covered by an automobile liability policy. G.S. 20-309 requires financial responsibility in the form of a liability insurance policy, financial security bond, or financial security deposit or by qualification as a self-insurer, as a prerequisite to registration. G.S. 20-313 makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor for the owner of a motor vehicle registered or required to be registered in North Carolina to operate the motor vehicle or permit the motor vehicle to be operated in the state without having the required financial responsibility. It is important to note that G.S. 20-28.3(a)(2)b. refers to whether the driver—not the motor vehicle—is covered by an automobile liability policy. A person who drives a motor vehicle owned by someone else with the owner's permission is covered by the automobile liability policy for the motor vehicle being driven, if such a policy exists.<sup>120</sup> In addition, the authorized driver may be covered by an automobile liability insurance policy under which he or she is an insured driver, even if the motor vehicle itself is not listed on a policy.

119. Id. § 20-35(c).

120. Id. § 20-279.21(b)(2).

B. Procedure for Ordering Seizure and Impoundment

Law enforcement officers who seize or plan to seize a motor vehicle pursuant to G.S. 20-28.3 must present to a magistrate within the county where the driver was charged an affidavit of impoundment setting forth the basis upon which the motor vehicle has been or will be seized for forfeiture.<sup>121</sup> AOC-CR-323 is the form on which the officer may complete an affidavit in support of the seizure and/or impoundment. Upon determining that the statutory requirements for seizure are met, the magistrate must order the vehicle held. The magistrate may do so on the bottom portion of the same form (designated magistrate's order). In addition to reviewing the officer's affidavit, the magistrate may request additional information and may hear from the defendant if the defendant is present.<sup>122</sup> If the motor vehicle has not yet been seized and the magistrate determines that seizure is warranted, the magistrate must issue an order of seizure.<sup>123</sup> If the vehicle already has been seized and the statutory conditions for seizure are satisfied, the magistrate will order that the seized vehicle be impounded and held.<sup>124</sup> The magistrate must provide a copy of the order to the clerk of court, who, in turn, must provide copies to the district attorney and the attorney for the county board of education.<sup>125</sup> If the magistrate determines that the statutory requirements for seizure and impoundment are not satisfied, he or she must order the vehicle released to its owner upon payment of towing and storage fees.<sup>126</sup> Towing and storage fees may not be waived—even when the magistrate orders the vehicle released based on a finding that the statutory requirements for seizure have not been met.<sup>127</sup>

C. Exceptions to Seizure

There are two important exceptions to the above-described requirements for seizure of a motor vehicle. A motor vehicle may not be seized if it has been reported stolen or if it is a rental vehicle and the driver is not listed as an authorized driver under the rental contract.<sup>128</sup> Other types of what the statute refers to as “innocent owners” may secure the release of their motor vehicles from impoundment, but those circumstances are not relevant to the magistrate's consideration of whether to order the vehicle seized and impounded.<sup>129</sup>

D. Executing an Order of Seizure

Orders of seizure under G.S. 20-28.3 are valid anywhere in North Carolina and may be carried out by any officer with territorial jurisdiction who has subject matter jurisdiction for violations of G.S. Chapter 20.<sup>130</sup> Such an officer may use reasonable force to seize the motor vehicle and may enter upon the property of the defendant in order to accomplish the seizure.<sup>131</sup> If an officer has probable cause to believe that the motor vehicle is located on the property of someone other than the defendant, the officer may obtain a search warrant to enter that property for the purpose of seizing the vehicle.<sup>132</sup>

V. Conclusion

In conducting initial appearances in implied consent cases, magistrates may be required to carry out procedures in addition to those generally required for all criminal offenses. This bulletin has described the steps for two of those additional processes: civil license revocation, required in certain implied consent cases, and vehicle seizure and impoundment, required in connection with offenses involving impaired driving, a subset of implied consent cases. The following AOC forms and procedural flowcharts are presented (in the appendixes) to assist magistrates in completing the procedures associated with initial appearances in implied consent cases.

(List Sufficient Facts To Establish Probable Cause)

- 2. The driver has a drivers license restriction: ___ alcohol concentration. ___ ignition interlock. ___ conditional restoration (Restr: *9).
3. The driver violated a drivers license restriction by: ___ refusing to be transported for testing. ___ not having an operable ignition interlock on the vehicle being driven. ___ failing to personally activate the ignition interlock on the vehicle being driven. ___ exceeding the driver's alcohol concentration limitation.
4. The driver was charged with the implied-consent offense of: ___ G.S. 20-138.1; ___ Other Implied-Consent Offense: ___; ___ and the driver has one or more pending offenses in the following county(ies) ___ for which the drivers license had been or is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5.
5. After the driver was charged, I took the driver before ___, a chemical analyst authorized to administer a test of the driver's breath.
6. I am a chemical analyst and possess a current permit issued by the Department of Health and Human Services authorizing me to conduct chemical analyses of the breath utilizing the Intox EC/IR II.
7. I informed the driver orally and also gave notice in writing of the rights specified in G.S. 20-16.2(a). I completed informing the driver of the rights as indicated on the attached DHHS 4081.
8. I began observing the driver for the purpose of complying with the observation period requirements for a breath analysis in accordance with the methods/rules approved by the Department of Health and Human Services at ___ (a.) (p.) m. on the ___ day of ___, ___.
9. On the ___ day of ___, ___, at ___ (a.) (p.) m., I requested the driver to submit to a chemical analysis of his/her breath or blood or urine. For blood or urine, I directed the taking of a blood or urine sample by a person qualified under G.S. 20-139.1.
10. The driver was unconscious or otherwise incapable of refusal and therefore the notification of rights and request to submit to a chemical analysis were not made. I directed the taking of a blood sample by a person qualified under G.S. 20-139.1.
11. The driver submitted to a chemical analysis of his/her breath. I administered the chemical analysis to the driver in accordance with the methods/rules approved by the Department of Health and Human Services using an Intox EC/IR II, and it printed the results of the driver's chemical analysis on the attached test record, DHHS 4082, which is made part of this Affidavit. ### NOTES TO LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER/CHEMICAL ANALYST

NOTE TO LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER WHO IS NOT GOING TO administer breath test or read the implied-consent rights:

1. Complete the identifying information at the top,
2. Check the "Law Enforcement Officer" block under "Affidavit and Revocation Report of" in the title section,
3. Review and check as appropriate for this case paragraphs 1-5 (and if the driver is unconscious or incapable of refusing so that the implied-consent rights need not be read, also review and check as appropriate paragraph 10), and
4. Swear or affirm before notary or magistrate, sign and file copies as indicated.

NOTE TO LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER WHO CHARGES DRIVER AND IS CHEMICAL ANALYST who administers the breath test or reads the implied-consent rights for a blood test:

1. Complete the identifying information at the top,
2. Check both the "Law Enforcement Officer" and "Chemical Analyst" blocks under "Affidavit and Revocation Report of" in the title section,
3. Review and check as appropriate for this case paragraphs 1-14, and
4. Swear or affirm before notary or magistrate, sign and file copies as indicated.

NOTE TO CHEMICAL ANALYST WHO IS NOT THE CHARGING OFFICER:

1. Complete the identifying information at the top,
2. Check the "Chemical Analyst" block under "Affidavit and Revocation Report of" in the title section,
3. Review and check as appropriate for this case paragraphs 6-14, and
4. Swear or affirm before notary or magistrate, sign and file copies as indicated.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. This form should be used in District Court to prove alcohol concentration in implied-consent criminal cases.
2. This form should be used before the Magistrate for the pretrial civil revocation (CVR) when the driver is charged with DWI or another implied-consent offense and the driver
  - a. has an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more;
  - b. has an alcohol concentration of 0.04 or more and was operating a commercial motor vehicle;
  - c. is under age 21 and has an alcohol concentration of 0.01 or more; or
  - d. refuses the breath test and/or a blood or urine test.
3. This form should be used to notify DMV of (i) an alcohol concentration of 0.15 or more or (ii) a refusal to submit to a breath test and/or a blood or urine test.
4. This form should be used to notify DMV of violations of the following drivers license restrictions‡:
  - a. *9= the driver has a Conditional Restoration of his or her drivers license
  - b. 19= alcohol concentration (A/C) of 0.04
  - c. 20= A/C 0.04+ignition interlock
  - d. 21= A/C 0.00
  - e. 22= A/C 0.00+ignition interlock
  - f. 23= ignition interlock only

+ When a driver has violated a restriction and Paragraphs 2 and 3 on Side One are completed, ALL sections in these paragraphs that apply must be checked. For example, if the driver had a restriction 20 and violated both the alcohol concentration and the ignition interlock provisions, both the "alcohol concentration" and the "ignition interlock" blocks should be checked in Paragraph 2. The same applies to Paragraph 3.
5. File the original and copies of this form, with a copy of the test record ticket attached, as follows:
  - a. Original - To the Magistrate for the pretrial civil revocation (CVR).
  - b. Second copy - To the Court for the criminal case.
  - c. Yellow copy - To DMV for violation of any alcohol or ignition interlock restriction on drivers license, alcohol concentration of 0.15 or more, or for refusal to submit to a breath test and/or a blood or urine test. DMV's address is: DMV, Information Processing Services, 3120 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-3120.
  - d. Pink copy - To the Law Enforcement Officer/Chemical Analyst.
  - e. Green copy - To the driver.

IN THE MATTER OF		REQUEST FOR HEARING TO CONTEST LICENSE REVOCATION
Name And Address Of Petitioner
Home Telephone No.	Work Telephone No.
G.S. 20-16.5

TO THE APPROPRIATE JUDICIAL OFFICIAL:

I request a hearing to contest the validity of the revocation of my drivers license which was ordered revoked on the date set forth below.

I challenge the validity of the revocation on the following specific ground(s):

(NOTE: List the finding(s) for probable cause, as set forth on the Revocation Order, which you believe to be wrong.)

---

---

---

I specifically request that the hearing be conducted by a District Court Judge.

I understand that the hearing will be limited to the grounds I specify in this request and that the revocation of my drivers license remains in effect pending the hearing. I further understand that this hearing must be held and completed within three (3) working days following the date of this request, or within five (5) working days if I have requested a District Court Judge to conduct the hearing. I also understand that my failure to appear at the hearing will result in the forfeiture of my right to a hearing.

I understand that the decision of the Magistrate or District Court Judge at the hearing is final, and that there is no right of appeal from the decision.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS

This request must be filed by the Petitioner within ten (10) days of the effective date of the revocation order with one of the following:

1. Judicial official at the initial appearance; or
2. The Clerk of Superior Court; or
3. A Magistrate designated by the Clerk of Superior Court to receive such requests.

_____ County	In The General Court Of Justice District Court Division
IN THE MATTER OF Name And Address Of Petitioner	FINDINGS AND ORDER IN CONTESTED LICENSE REVOCATION
G.S. 20-16.5

The Court finds that the petitioner filed a timely Request For Hearing To Contest License Revocation form setting forth the specific grounds upon which the validity of the revocation is challenged.

The Court, having considered the evidence and arguments presented at the hearing, finds by the greater weight of the evidence the following:

1. The hearing

- a. was held and completed within the required time limits.
- b. was not held and completed within the required time limits.

2. As to each condition alleged by the law enforcement officer and chemical analyst in this matter,

- a. all were met.
- b. at least one was not met.
- c. other than the current offense, there are no additional pending offenses for which the person's drivers license had been or is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5.

Based upon the foregoing findings of fact, the Court CONCLUDES and ORDERS that the revocation of the petitioner's license be:

- a. sustained.
- b. rescinded.
- c. the indefinite suspension is rescinded and a separate order shall be entered by an appropriate judicial official revoking the petitioner's drivers license for an appropriate period.

III. OFFENSES INVOLVING IMPAIRED DRIVING

G.S. 20-4.01(24a) defines "offense involving impaired driving" to include the following:

- impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1;
- any offense set forth under G.S. 20-141.4 based on impaired driving;
- first or second degree murder under G.S. 14-17 or involuntary manslaughter under G.S. 14-18 when the charge is based on impaired driving;
- impaired driving in a commercial vehicle under G.S. 20-138.2;
- habitual impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.5.

IV. IMPAIRED DRIVING LICENSE REVOCATIONS - G.S. 20-28.2(a)

Under G.S. 20-28.2(a), the revocation of a person's drivers license is an impaired driving license revocation if the revocation is pursuant to any of the following statutes:

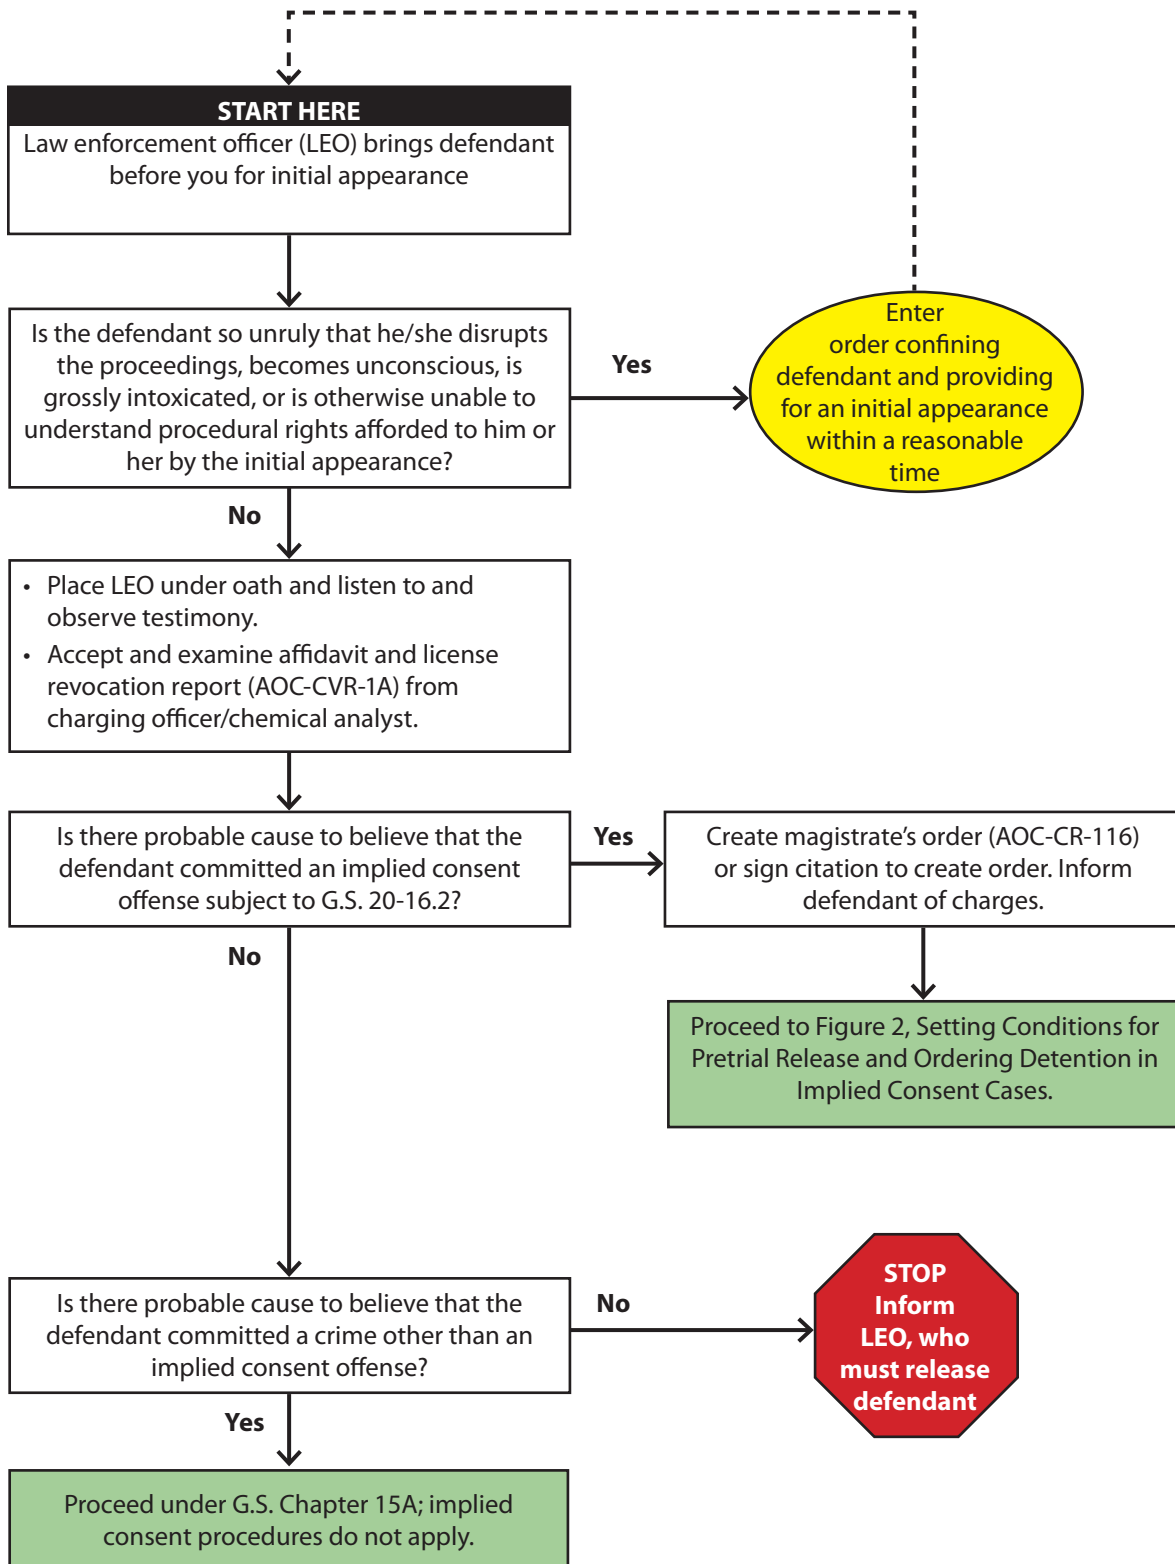

- G.S. 20-13.2 - Driving After Consuming Alcohol/Drugs While Less Than 21
- G.S. 20-16(a)(8b) - Military Driving While Impaired
- G.S. 20-16.2 - Refused Chemical Test
- G.S. 20-16.5 - Civil Revocation
- G.S. 20-17(a)(2) - Driving While Impaired
Driving While Impaired In Commercial Motor Vehicle
- G.S. 20-138.5 - Habitual Driving While Impaired
- G.S. 20-17(a)(12) - Transporting Open Container - 2nd Or Subsequent
- G.S. 20-16(a)(7) - Out-Of-State Offense Similar To Driving While Impaired Resulting In NC Revocation
- G.S. 20-17(a)(1) - Manslaughter Involving Driving While Impaired
- G.S. 20-17(a)(3) - Any Felony In The Commission Of Which A Motor Vehicle Is Used, If The Offense Involves Impaired Driving
- G.S. 20-17(a)(9) - Any Offense Set Forth Under G.S. 20-141.4 Based On Impaired Driving
- G.S. 20-17(a)(11) - Conviction Of Assault With A Motor Vehicle If Offense Involves Impaired Driving
- G.S. 20-28.2(a)(3) - Laws of another state when the offense for which the person's drivers license is revoked prohibits substantially similar conduct that if committed in this state would result in a revocation based on one of the offenses listed above.

V. GROUNDS FOR SEIZURE - G.S. 20-28.3(a)

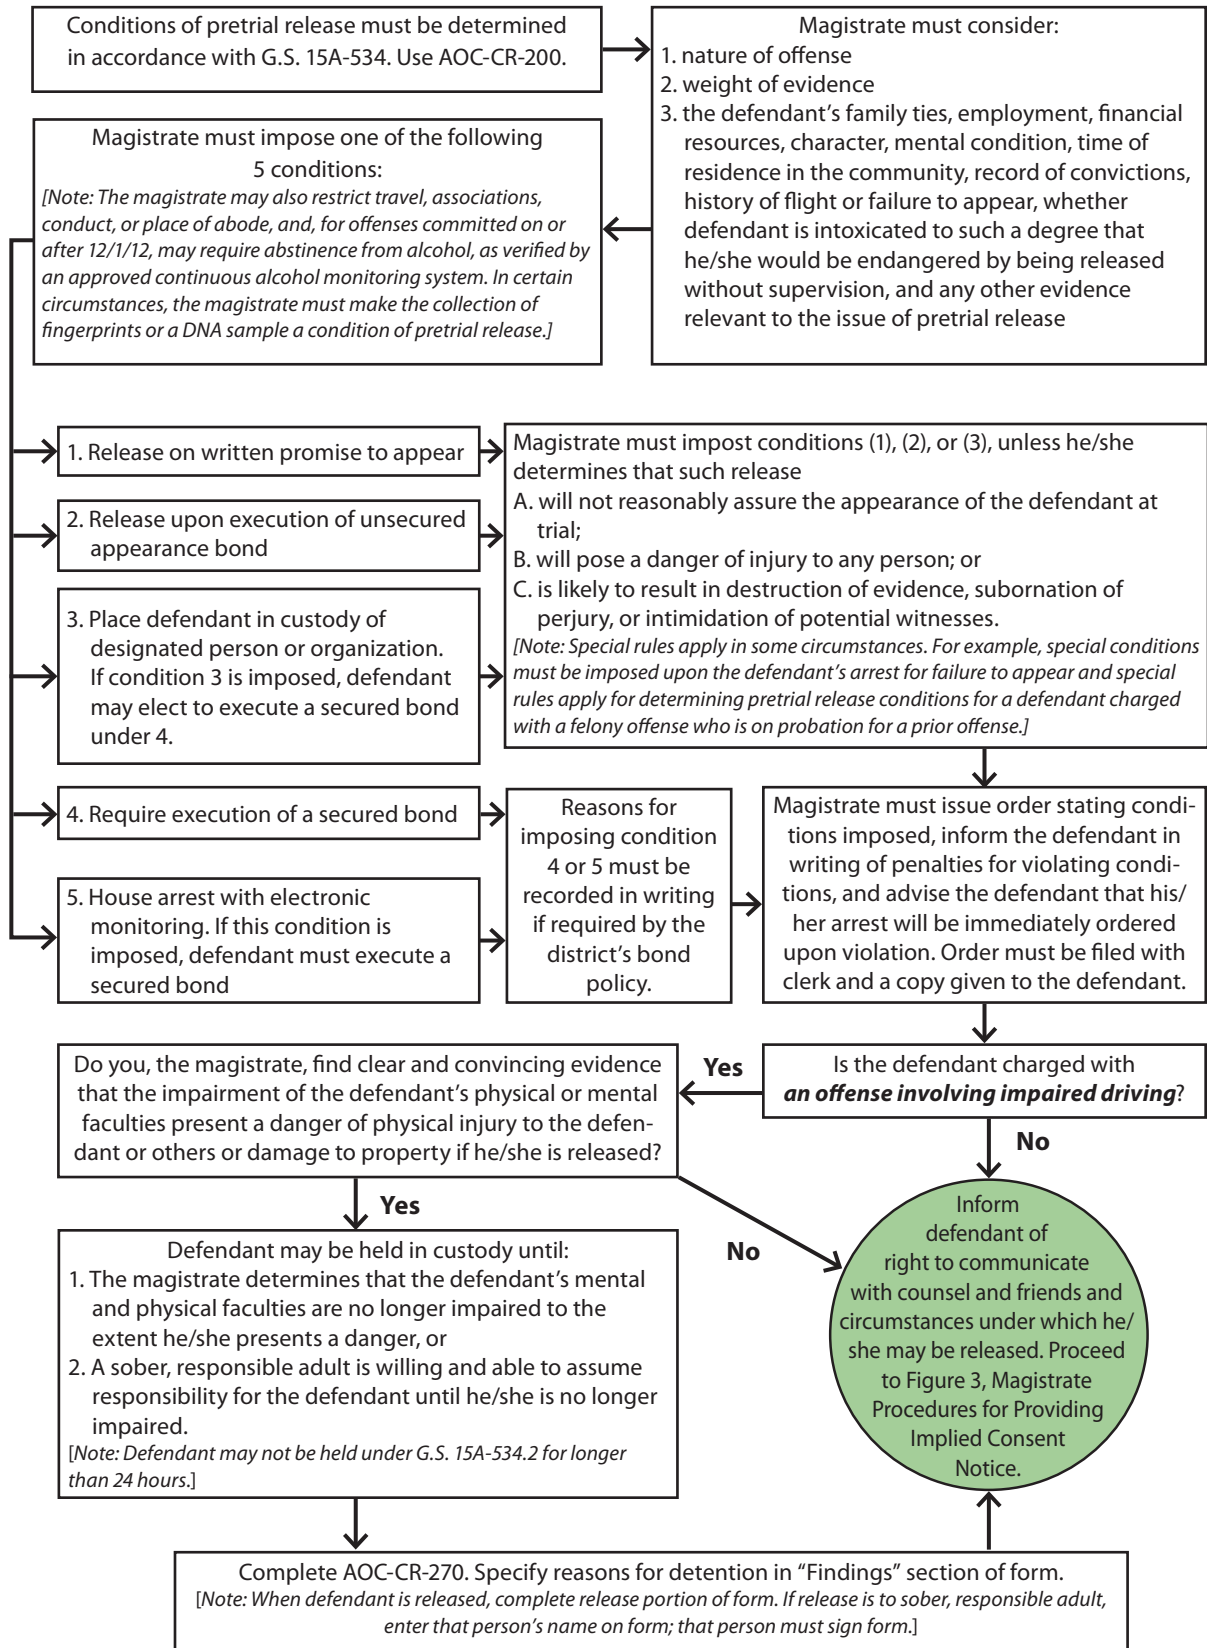

A motor vehicle is subject to seizure if the driver is charged with an offense involving impaired driving as listed in Section III above and at the time of the offense

- the driver's license is revoked for one of the reasons listed in Section IV above or
- the driver does not have a valid drivers license and is not covered by an automobile liability insurance policy.

AOC-CVR-1A

NOTE TO OFFICER: The officer should review and follow the instructions on State Form of this form. ATTACH TEST RECORD TICKET HERE.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

NOTE: A commercial motor vehicle is an offender in G.S. 20-16.5(d).

IN THE MATTER OF: _____

AFFIDAVIT AND REVOCATION REPORT OF

CHEMICAL ANALYST

The undersigned being first duly sworn depose and say:

I am a law enforcement officer. On the _____ day of _____, 2014, at _____, I saw _____, a law enforcement officer, who reasonably grounds to believe the above named person, hereinafter referred to as driver, operated a vehicle _____ (commercial motor vehicle) in the above named county/city _____ while committing an implied consent offense in that _____.

The driver has a driver's license restriction:  alcohol concentration,  ignition interlock,  conditional restoration (see 16-1).

The driver violated a driver's license restriction by:  refusing to be transported for testing,  not having an operable ignition interlock on the vehicle being driven,  being in physical custody of the ignition interlock on the vehicle being driven,  the driver is a driver's license restriction.

A law enforcement officer charged the driver with the implied consent offense of _____, G.S. 20-158.1, _____ and the driver has one or more pending offenses in the following county/cities: _____.

After the driver was charged, I took the driver before _____, a chemical analyst authorized to administer a test of the driver's breath.

I administered a chemical analysis and provided a verbal report to the Department of Health and Human Services authorizing me to conduct chemical analysis of the breath utilizing the Intox EC/8 DS.

I informed the driver, orally and also gave written a copy of the rights specified in G.S. 20-16.2(a), completed advising the driver of the rights as indicated on the attached DS-825.

I began observing the driver for the purpose of complying with the observation period requirements for a breath analysis in accordance with the methodologies approved by the Department of Health and Human Services at _____.

On the _____ day of _____, 2014, at _____, I requested the driver to submit to a chemical analysis of his/her breath or blood or urine. For blood or urine, I decided the taking of a blood or urine sample by a chemical analyst under G.S. 20-158.1.

The driver was conscious or otherwise incapable of refusal and therefore the notification of rights and request to submit to a chemical analysis were not made or received by the taking of a blood sample by a person qualified under G.S. 20-158.1.

The driver submitted a chemical analysis of his/her breath, I administered the chemical analysis to the driver in accordance with _____.

Compliance with procedures

- 5. After the driver was charged, I took the driver before _____, a chemical analyst authorized to administer a test of the driver's breath.
- 6. I am a chemical analyst and possess a current permit issued by the Department of Health and Human Services authorizing me to conduct chemical analyses of the breath utilizing the Intox ECIR II.
- 7. I informed the driver, orally and also gave notice in writing of the rights specified in G.S. 20-16.2(a). I completed informing the driver of the rights as indicated on the attached DHHS 4081.
- 8. I began observing the driver for the purpose of complying with the observation period requirements for a breath analysis in accordance with the methods/rules approved by the Department of Health and Human Services at _____ (a) (p) m, on the _____ day of _____.
- 9. On the _____ day of _____ at _____ (a) (p) m, I requested the driver to submit to a chemical analysis of his/her breath or blood or urine. For blood or urine, I directed the taking of a blood or urine sample by a person qualified under G.S. 20-139.1.
- 10. The driver was unconscious or otherwise incapable of refusal and therefore the notification of rights and request to submit to a chemical analysis were not made. I directed the taking of a blood sample by a person qualified under G.S. 20-139.1.
- 11. The driver submitted to a chemical analysis of his/her breath. I administered the chemical analysis to the driver in accordance with the methods/rules approved by the Department of Health and Human Services using an Intox ECIR II, and I printed the results of the driver's chemical analysis on the attached test record, DHHS 4082, which is made part of this Affidavit. The most recent preventive maintenance was performed on this Intox ECIR II on the _____ day of _____ as shown on the preventive maintenance record. I provided the driver with a copy of the attached test record before any trial or proceeding in which the results of the chemical analysis may be used.

(c) A defendant subject to detention under this section has the right to pretrial release under G.S. 15A-534 when the judicial official determines either that:

- (1) The defendant's physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired to the extent that he presents a danger of physical injury to himself or others or of damage to property if he is released; or
- (2) A sober, responsible adult is willing and able to assume responsibility for the defendant until his physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired. If the defendant is released from the custody of another, the judicial official may impose any other condition of pretrial release authorized by G.S. 15A-534, including a requirement that the defendant execute a secured appearance bond.

The defendant may be detained for pretrial release under this section for a period no longer than 24 hours, unless the defendant is released only upon meeting the conditions of pretrial release under G.S. 15A-534. If the defendant is detained for more than 24 hours, a judicial official shall determine the appropriate conditions of pretrial release in accordance with G.S. 15A-534.

No longer impaired to extent that he presents danger

No longer than 24 hours

---

---

---

G.S. 15A-534.2(d)

(d) In making his determination whether a defendant detained under this section remains impaired, the judicial official may request that the defendant submit to periodic tests to determine his alcohol concentration. Instruments acceptable for making preliminary breath tests under G.S. 20-16.3 may be used for this purpose as well as instruments for making evidentiary chemical analyses. Unless there is evidence that the defendant is still impaired from a combination of alcohol and some other impairing substance or condition, a judicial official must determine that a defendant with an alcohol concentration less than 0.05 is no longer impaired. The results of any periodic test to determine alcohol concentration may not be introduced in evidence:

- (1) Against the defendant by the State in any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding arising out of an offense involving impaired driving; or
- (2) For any purpose in any proceeding if the test was not performed by a method approved by the Commission for Public Health under G.S. 20-139.1 and by a person licensed to administer the test by the Department of Health and Human Services.

The fact that a defendant refused to comply with a judicial official's request that he submit to a chemical analysis may not be admitted into evidence in any criminal action, administrative proceeding, or a civil action to review a decision reached by an administrative agency in which the defendant is a party. (1983, c. 435, s. 4; 1997-443, s. 11A.118(a); 2007-182, s. 2.)

---

---

---

---

---

---

May request periodic breath tests

- Less than 0.05, no longer impaired
- Unless evidence that defendant still impaired from combination of alcohol and some other impairing substance or condition

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Who is a sober, responsible adult willing and able to assume responsibility for the defendant?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

State v. Haas,
131 N.C. App. 113 (1998)

- Magistrate had no duty to release defendant to custody of an adult who was a passenger in the car driven by defendant when officer informed magistrate that the adult was extremely intoxicated 80 minutes earlier

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

State v. Daniel,
208 N.C. App. 364 (2010)

- No statutory violation when magistrate refused at 11 p.m. to release defendant to adult who earlier in evening had odor of alcohol and who said he had beer with dinner
- Defendant met with friend for 8 minutes during crucial period of time after her arrest, so no prejudice

NOTES ON CASH BONDS:

(1) To Official Taking The Bond. Use this form for all cash bonds. Complete this form as follows:

When Cash Deposited By Defendant Or By Another Person Who Intends For The Cash To Be Used To Satisfy The Defendant's Obligations. Enter defendant's name, address and SS# at the top of Side One. Check "Cash Appearance Bond." Have defendant sign. Do no more. No other person's name should appear on this form. Enter your name, sign and enter receipt number under "Complete If Cash Deposited." Make receipt out to DEFENDANT, not to any other person.

When Cash Deposited By Another Person Who Does NOT Intend For The Cash To Be Used To Satisfy The Defendant's Obligations. Enter defendant's name, address and SS# at the top of Side One. Check "Surety Appearance Bond." Also check "Cash Deposited By Surety." Have defendant sign. Enter name, address and SS# of person depositing cash under "Accommodation Bondsman." Have that person sign under "Signature of Surety." Complete notarization for that person. Enter your name, sign and enter receipt number under "Complete If Cash Deposited." Make receipt out to person depositing the cash.

(2) To Bookkeeper. If case disposed without forfeiture, disburse cash as follows: (1) If "Cash Appearance Bond" checked on Side One, disburse to Defendant or apply to defendant's obligations if court so orders. (2) If "Surety Appearance Bond" and "Cash Deposited by Surety" are checked on Side One, disburse only to person named under "Accommodation Bondsman."

(3) Bond By Insurance Company Or Professional Bondsman As Surety Is Same As Cash Except In Child Support. G.S. 15A-531(4) provides that an appearance bond executed by an insurance company or a professional bondsman (or a bail agent or runner on behalf of one of those sureties) is considered the same as a cash deposit, except in child support contempt proceedings for which only cash may satisfy a cash bond requirement.

I, the undersigned surety for the named defendant, request that the Court release me from the defendant's Appearance Bond which I signed as indicated above.

(You must complete both I. and II. below.)

I. Form Of Surrender (check only one)

- (a) I arrested the defendant and now surrender the defendant to the jail in this county where the defendant  is to appear on these charges.  was bonded on these charges.
- (b) I surrender the defendant who is currently in the jail in this county where the defendant  is to appear on these charges.  was bonded on these charges.  Other: _____

II. Status Of Order Of Forfeiture (check only one)

- (a) The surrender of the defendant has occurred after an Order of Forfeiture was entered for the appearance bond for the offense(s) listed above, and after an order for arrest was issued. A copy of the bail bond, forfeiture, or release order is attached.
- (b) The surrender of the defendant has occurred before an Order of Forfeiture was entered for the appearance bond for the offense(s) listed above.

I understand that this Surrender does not relieve me from my responsibility if an Order of Forfeiture has been entered before this Surrender. I also understand that I must apply to the Court for relief in that matter.

RECEIPT OR ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF CUSTODIAN

NOTES TO CUSTODIAN:

- (1) Only an actual surety may surrender the defendant. If the person offering the defendant for surrender presents an appearance bond form (AOC-CR-201) with the box checked for a "Cash Appearance Bond," then the person is not the surety for the defendant's appearance. Do not accept the surrender of the defendant. If the boxes for "Surety Appearance Bond" and "Cash Deposited By Surety" are checked, and the person attempting to surrender the defendant is the same person who signed the bond as surety, then that person is the surety and you may accept the surrender.
- (2) G.S. 15A-540(b) requires that a defendant surrendered by a surety must have an immediate hearing on whether the defendant is again entitled to release and, if so, upon what conditions. Take the defendant, with this form, to a judicial official for this hearing. When the above Receipt is completed, provide surety with a copy of this form.

(See NOTES TO MAGISTRATE on reverse)

Original-Clerk Copy-Surety Copy-Custodian

NOTES TO MAGISTRATE:

- (1) If the defendant was surrendered before a breach of the conditions of release, the original conditions of release should be reentered. The defendant remains in custody until conditions of original release order are again satisfied. The court date remains the same.
- (2) If the defendant was surrendered after a breach of the conditions of release, G.S. 15A-540(c) requires that a judicial official determine whether the defendant is again entitled to pretrial release and, if so, upon what conditions. If the breach was a failure to appear for any charge(s) covered by the appearance bond provided at the time of surrender, G.S. 15A-534(d1) provides that the official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of release recommended in an order for arrest issued for that failure to appear. If no conditions were recommended, the judicial official shall require a secured bond at least double the amount of the most recent secured or unsecured bond, or at least $500 if there was no monetary bond previously required. On the new release order, check the appropriate box(es) indicating the failure to appear.
- (3) If an order for arrest was issued for the defendant's failure to appear, the court date in the new release order should be the same as the court date, if any, in the order for arrest. The order for arrest should be served on the defendant, if possible, without detaining the defendant beyond the time when he or she should be released under the new release order. If the order for arrest cannot be served in that time, use the court's records to learn the court date in the order for arrest, and arrange to have order for arrest recalled.
- (4) If the defendant was surrendered in a county other than the county where the defendant is to appear, return original order for arrest, if any, with return of service completed, along with this form and a copy of the new release order, to the county where the defendant is to appear. When conditions of pretrial release are satisfied, return original of the new release order with any custodian's entries completed, together with the original appearance bond, if any, to the county where the defendant is to appear.

NOTICE TO PERSONS REQUESTING A COURT-APPOINTED LAWYER

1. When answering the questions on the Affidavit Of Indigency (reverse side of this form), please do not discuss your case with the interviewer. The interviewer can be called as a witness to testify about any statements made in his/her presence. Please wait and speak with your lawyer. Do not ask the interviewer for any advice or opinion concerning your case.
2. A court-appointed lawyer is not free. If you are convicted or plead guilty or no contest, you may be required to repay the cost of your lawyer as a part of your sentence. The Court may also enter a civil judgment against you, which will accrue interest at the legal rate set out in G.S. 24-1 from the date of the entry of judgment. Your North Carolina Tax Refund may be taken to pay for the cost of your court-appointed lawyer. In addition, if you are convicted or plead guilty or no contest, the Court must charge you an attorney appointment fee and may enter this fee as a civil judgment against you pursuant to G.S. 7A-455.1.
3. The information you provide may be verified, and your signature below will serve as a release permitting the interviewer to contact your creditors, employers, family members, and others concerning your eligibility for a court-appointed lawyer. A false or dishonest answer concerning your financial status could lead to prosecution for perjury. See G.S. 7A-456(a) ("A false material statement made by a person under oath or affirmation in regard to the question of his indigency constitutes a Class I felony.").

Under penalty of perjury, I declare that the information provided on this form is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, and that I am financially unable to employ a lawyer to represent me. I now request the Court to assign a lawyer to represent me in this case. I authorize the Court to contact my creditors, employers, or family members, any governmental agencies or any other entities listed below concerning my eligibility for a court-appointed lawyer.

I further authorize my creditors, employers, or family members, any governmental agencies or any other entities listed below to release financial information concerning my eligibility for a court-appointed lawyer upon request of the Court.

INSTRUCTIONS

THE LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY IN POSSESSION OF THE ORIGINAL PROCESS SHOULD:

1. Enter the applicable information in the boxes in the top portion and in the Verification on the reverse side.
2. Under "Name Of Initiating Officer, If Any," enter the name of the officer whose name appears as a complaining witness on the warrant in this case, if any. If the process is an order for arrest, refer to the warrant for this information.
3. If the charges are all misdemeanor(s), under "Initiating Officer's Court Date(s)" enter all the dates on which the initiating officer is scheduled to be in district court during the next month. Otherwise do not enter a date in this box.
4. Complete and sign the Verification on the reverse.
5. Fax this form, and the process, to the law enforcement agency that arrested the defendant.
6. Enter the following notation in the Return of Service on the original: "Defendant has been arrested in (name of county where defendant arrested) _____ County."
7. Immediately return the original, with that notation, to the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of the county where the process was issued, to be filed in the defendant's file.
8. Make no further effort to arrest the defendant on this process.
9. If you entered the defendant and the charges in DCI, update DCI with the arrest information.

THE LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY THAT ARRESTED THE DEFENDANT SHOULD:

1. By fax or other means, obtain the following from the law enforcement agency in possession of the process:
  - a. the original process,
  - b. this form, with the Verification on Side One of this form completed and signed.
2. Make a copy of the process, serve it on the defendant, and make a return of service on the original or duplicate original.
3. Take the defendant, and these papers, to a magistrate for an initial appearance without unnecessary delay.
4. Give the process bearing your return of service and two (2) copies of this form to the magistrate.
5. Notify DCI that the defendant has been arrested on these charges, if the process was entered.

THE MAGISTRATE SHOULD:

1. Enter the applicable information in the boxes under "RECALL OF PROCESS AND TRANSMISSION TO CLERK."
2. Conduct an initial appearance immediately and set conditions of pretrial release as soon as sufficient information is available.
3. Assign a court date in the county where the charges are pending. Communicate with that county to obtain an appropriate date. Enter this date under "Defendant's Next Court Date In Your County, As Assigned By The Undersigned."
4. Release the defendant upon satisfaction of the conditions of pretrial release.
5. Complete the "Recall Of Process And Transmission To Clerk" on the reverse.
6. Send this form to the Clerk of Superior Court of the issuing county. Attach the following:
  - a. the process bearing the return of service,

FINDINGS

The undersigned judicial official conducting an initial appearance for the defendant named above finds the following by clear and convincing evidence:

- 1. The defendant has been charged with an offense involving impaired driving as defined in G.S. 20-4.01(24a).
2. At the time of the defendant's initial appearance, the impairment of the defendant's physical or mental faculties presents a danger, if the defendant is released, of physical injury to the defendant or others or damage to property in that (specify reasons):

DETENTION ORDER

Based upon the foregoing findings, the undersigned judicial official ORDERS that the defendant be detained in the custody of the Sheriff until an appropriate judicial official determines that

- 1. the defendant's physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired to the extent that the defendant presents a danger of physical injury to the defendant or others or of damage to property if the defendant is released or
2. a sober, responsible adult is willing and able to assume responsibility for the defendant until the defendant's physical and mental faculties are no longer impaired.

The period of detention under this Order shall not exceed twenty-four (24) hours.

DETENTION FOR COMMUNICABLE DISEASE TESTING

G.S. 15A-534.3

FINDINGS

The undersigned judicial official conducting an initial appearance or first appearance for the defendant named above finds probable cause that an individual had a nonsexual exposure to the defendant in a manner that poses a significant risk of transmission of the AIDS virus or Hepatitis B by the defendant to the individual in that (specify reasons):

[NOTE: Do not include any information indicating that the defendant has or may have a communicable disease. Describe only the nature of the exposure that would pose a significant risk of transmission of the AIDS or Hepatitis B virus if the defendant were infected. Note that mere contact of the defendant's bodily fluids with a subject's clothing or unbroken skin does not pose a significant risk of transmission of either virus. A significant risk of transmission occurs when the defendant's bodily fluids come into contact with the subject's broken skin or mucous membranes. For example, a bite by the defendant that does not break the subject's skin does not pose a significant risk of transmission. Contact that may pose a significant risk includes things like a needlestick or a bite that actually breaks the subject's skin.]

DETENTION ORDER

Based upon the foregoing findings, the undersigned judicial official ORDERS that the defendant be detained in the custody of the Sheriff to allow for investigation by public health officials and for testing for AIDS virus infection and Hepatitis B infection if required by public health officials pursuant to G.S. 130A-144 and G.S. 130A-148.

ARRESTED FOR FELONY

G.S. 15A-534(d2)

NOTE: Use this form in conjunction with form AOC-CR-200, Conditions Of Release And Release Order.

FINDINGS AND DETENTION ORDER

The undersigned, having found on the attached AOC-CR-200, incorporated herein by reference, that the defendant has been charged with a felony offense while on probation for a prior offense, hereby finds in addition that (check only one)

- 1. the defendant poses a danger to the public, and therefore a secured bond or electronic house arrest with secured bond is required if release is otherwise authorized.
2. the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, and therefore conditions of release are set on the attached AOC-CR-200 as otherwise provided in G.S. Chapter 15A, Article 26.
3. there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, and therefore makes the following additional findings and orders below. (NOTE: Nos. 3.a. and 3.b. must be completed when making this finding.)
a. The undersigned finds the following basis for the decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public:
b. The undersigned further finds that the following additional information is necessary to make that determination:
c. The custodian of the detention facility named on the attached AOC-CR-200 is ORDERED to detain the defendant pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d2)(3). The custodian is further ORDERED to bring the defendant before a judge for first appearance at the location, date and time specified on the attached AOC-CR-200, but if the information identified in No. 3.b. becomes available before that time, the custodian is ORDERED to bring the defendant immediately before any judicial official to set conditions of release.

The undersigned being first duly sworn says:

1. I am a law enforcement officer. On the _____ day of _____, _____, at _____ (a.)(p.)m., a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the above named person, hereinafter referred to as driver, operated a vehicle ( commercial motor vehicle) in the above named county upon _____ while committing an implied-consent offense in that _____
(Give Street, Highway, Or Public Vehicular Area)

(List Sufficient Facts To Establish Probable Cause)

- 2. The driver has a drivers license restriction:  alcohol concentration.  ignition interlock.  conditional restoration (Restr: *9).
- 3. The driver violated a drivers license restriction by:  refusing to be transported for testing.  not having an operable ignition interlock on the vehicle being driven.  failing to personally activate the ignition interlock on the vehicle being driven.  exceeding the driver's alcohol concentration limitation.  refusing a chemical analysis (if refusal, also complete item no. 14 below).
- 4. The driver was charged with the implied-consent offense of:  G.S. 20-138.1;  Other Implied-Consent Offense: _____;  and the driver has one or more pending offenses in the following county(ies) _____ for which the drivers license had been or is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5.
- 5. After the driver was charged, I took the driver before _____, a chemical analyst authorized to administer a test of the driver's breath.
- 6. I am a chemical analyst and possess a current permit issued by the Department of Health and Human Services authorizing me to conduct chemical analyses of the breath utilizing the Intox EC/IR II.
- 7. I informed the driver orally and also gave notice in writing of the rights specified in G.S. 20-16.2(a). I completed informing the driver of the rights as indicated on the attached DHHS 4081.
- 8. I began observing the driver for the purpose of complying with the observation period requirements for a breath analysis in accordance with the methods/rules approved by the Department of Health and Human Services at _____ (a.)(p.)m. on the _____ day of _____, _____.
- 9. On the _____ day of _____, _____, at _____ (a.)(p.)m., I requested the driver to submit to a chemical analysis of his/her breath or blood or urine. For blood or urine, I directed the taking of a blood or urine sample by a person qualified under G.S. 20-139.1.
- 10. The driver was unconscious or otherwise incapable of refusal and therefore the notification of rights and request to submit to a chemical analysis were not made. I directed the taking of a blood sample by a person qualified under G.S. 20-139.1.
- 11. The driver submitted to a chemical analysis of his/her breath. I administered the chemical analysis to the driver in accordance with the methods/rules approved by the Department of Health and Human Services using an Intox EC/IR II, and it printed the results of the driver's chemical analysis on the attached test record, DHHS 4082, which is made part of this Affidavit. The most recent preventive maintenance was performed on this Intox EC/IR II on the _____ day of _____, _____, as shown on the preventive maintenance record. I provided the driver with a copy of the attached test record before any trial or proceeding in which the results of the chemical analysis may be used.
- 12. The chemical analysis of the driver's breath indicated an alcohol concentration of 0.15 or more.
- 13. A sample of the driver's blood or urine was collected for a chemical analysis as indicated on the attached DHHS 4081.
- 14. The driver willfully refused to submit to a chemical analysis as indicated on the attached  DHHS 4082.  DHHS 4081.  The willful refusal occurred in an implied-consent offense involving death or critical injury to another person.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. This form should be used in District Court to prove alcohol concentration in implied-consent criminal cases.
2. This form should be used before the Magistrate for the pretrial civil revocation (CVR) when the driver is charged with DWI or another implied-consent offense and the driver
  - a. has an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more;
  - b. has an alcohol concentration of 0.04 or more and was operating a commercial motor vehicle;
  - c. is under age 21 and has an alcohol concentration of 0.01 or more; or
  - d. refuses the breath test and/or a blood or urine test.
3. This form should be used to notify DMV of (i) an alcohol concentration of 0.15 or more or (ii) a refusal to submit to a breath test and/or a blood or urine test.
4. This form should be used to notify DMV of violations of the following drivers license restrictions+
  - a. *9= the driver has a Conditional Restoration of his or her drivers license
  - b. 19= alcohol concentration (A/C) of 0.04
  - c. 20= A/C 0.04+ignition interlock
  - d. 21= A/C 0.00
  - e. 22= A/C 0.00+ignition interlock
  - f. 23= ignition interlock only

+ When a driver has violated a restriction and Paragraphs 2 and 3 on Side One are completed, ALL sections in these paragraphs that apply must be checked. For example, if the driver had a restriction 20 and violated both the alcohol concentration and the ignition interlock provisions, both the "alcohol concentration" and the "ignition interlock" blocks should be checked in Paragraph 2. The same applies to Paragraph 3.
5. File the original and copies of this form, with a copy of the test record ticket attached, as follows:
  - a. Original - To the Magistrate for the pretrial civil revocation (CVR).
  - b. Second copy - To the Court for the criminal case.
  - c. Yellow copy - To DMV for violation of any alcohol or ignition interlock restriction on drivers license, alcohol concentration of 0.15 or more, or for refusal to submit to a breath test and/or a blood or urine test. DMV's address is: DMV, Information Processing Services, 3120 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-3120.
  - d. Pink copy - To the Law Enforcement Officer/Chemical Analyst.
  - e. Green copy - To the driver.

REVOCATION ORDER
WHEN PERSON PRESENT

G.S. 20-16.5

FINDINGS FOR PROBABLE CAUSE

The undersigned judicial official finds probable cause to believe that:

- 1. A law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the above named person committed an offense subject to the implied-consent provisions of G.S. 20-16.2;
2. The above named person has been charged with that offense as provided in G.S. 20-16.2(a);
3. Both the law enforcement officer and the chemical analyst(s) complied with the provisions of G.S. 20-16.2 and 20-139.1 in requiring the above named person's submission to or procuring a chemical analysis; and
4. The above named person:
a. willfully refused to submit to a chemical analysis.
b. had an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more at any relevant time after the driving.
c. had an alcohol concentration of 0.04 or more at any relevant time after the driving of a commercial motor vehicle.
d. had any alcohol concentration at any relevant time after the driving, and at the time of the offense, was under 21 years of age.
5. The above named person has one or more pending offenses in the following county(ies) for which the person's drivers license had been or is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the above named person's drivers license or privilege to drive be revoked. The above named person is prohibited from operating a motor vehicle on the highways of North Carolina during the period of revocation. The revocation remains in effect at least thirty (30) days from:

- 1. this date.
2. the date he/she surrenders his/her drivers license to the Court, or demonstrates that he/she is not currently licensed to drive.
3. (check this option if Findings For Probable Cause No. 5 above is checked) the date he/she surrenders his/her drivers license to the Court, or demonstrates that he/she is not currently licensed to drive and indefinitely until a final judgment, including appeals, has been entered for the current offense and for all pending offenses for which his/her drivers license had been or is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5.

The above named person's privilege to drive in North Carolina is revoked and will remain revoked until the person has actually surrendered his/her license for the period specified above and has paid a $100 fee to the Clerk of Superior Court.

NOTE: See reverse for supplemental findings and order, and for disposition of license.

- Judge Magistrate
Deputy CSC Assistant CSC Clerk Of Superior Court

NOTICE

If at the time of this Revocation you were not licensed to drive by the North Carolina Division of Motor Vehicles and did not have a valid drivers license from another state, an additional $50 restoration fee must be paid to the Division of Motor Vehicles before you can drive again in North Carolina. This fee must be paid even though you are a resident of another state.

You have a right to a hearing to contest the validity of this Revocation before a magistrate or judge. To do so, a written request must be made within ten (10) days of the effective date of the revocation. A hearing request form is available from the office of the Clerk of Superior Court or magistrate. Your license will remain revoked and you are not authorized to drive pending the hearing. If you do request a hearing but fail to appear, you forfeit the right to a hearing.

If your license is revoked under Paragraph 1 or 2 of this Order, at the end of the revocation period you are still prohibited from driving until you have paid a fee of $100 to the Clerk of Superior Court.

If your license is revoked under Paragraph 3 of this Order, that revocation remains in effect at least thirty (30) days and until a final judgment, including appeals, is entered for this current offense and for all pending offenses for which your license has been or is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5. At the end of the revocation period you are still prohibited from driving until you have paid a fee of $100 to the Clerk of Superior Court. This fee is in addition to any fee you have paid or are to pay in connection with any other pending offense for which your drivers license has been revoked under G.S. 20-16.5.

The $100 fee may be paid at any time, even prior to the end of the period of revocation, between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Payment in person must be made in cash or by certified check, cashier's check or money order. Payment by mail must be made by certified check, cashier's check or money order, payable to the Clerk of Superior Court. If you wish to have your drivers license returned to you by mail, please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your payment.

SUPPLEMENTAL FINDINGS AND ORDER

It is further found that the person named herein appeared before the undersigned judicial official at _____  AM  PM on this _____ day of _____, _____, and,

- 1. surrendered his/her drivers license to the Court.
- 2. was validly licensed but unable to locate his/her license card and filed an affidavit which constituted surrender of the drivers license.
- 3. demonstrated he/she was not currently authorized to drive in North Carolina.

It is ORDERED that this Revocation of the drivers license of the person named herein:

- 1. remains in effect for at least thirty (30) days from the above date and until payment of a $100 fee has been made to the Clerk of Superior Court.
- 2. (check this option if Findings For Probable Cause No. 5 on reverse side is checked) is indefinite and remains in effect for at least thirty (30) days from the above date and until a final judgment, including appeals, has been entered for the current offense and for all pending offenses for which his/her drivers license had been or is revoked under G.S. 20-16.5, and until payment of a $100 fee to the Clerk of Superior Court.
