Canvas Login Instructions
You can sign-in to the School of Government's new learning management system Canvas in three easy steps outlined below.

Step 1: Set Up Your Password

When you log in to Canvas for the first time, you need to set your password. You only need to do this once. ==Remember your password for future School of Government courses==.

Go to https://sso.sog.unc.edu/user/password and enter your email. This should be the same email that you used to register for the course.

Step 2: Follow the Reset Password Instructions

Upon entering your email, you will see a confirmation that further instructions have been sent to your email address.
The email will have the title 'Replacement login information for placeholderforyouremail@address.com at School of Government Single Sign-On Service.' The password reset link in the email will lead you to a one-time login that will allow you to choose your password.

The email should look like this:

This is a one-time login for liebestefanie@gmail.com.

Click on this button to log in to the site and change your password.

This login can be used only once.

Log in

Upon setting your password, you will see a confirmation that changes have been saved.
TIP: You can go through these two steps anytime you forgot your password and need to reset it.

The changes have been saved.                                                    ×
