

Can Your Board Member Accept the Gift?

Pick the gift(s) below that your Board Member is legally permitted to accept:

A city council awards a grant to a nonprofit arts council to fund a local jazz festival; the nonprofit gives each council member a complimentary ticket to the festival.

A consultant not under contract with the county invites the commissioners to join her for dinner during the NCACC Annual Conference.

A city's solid waste contractor delivers a holiday gift basket to City Hall addressed to "Our Beloved Mayor and Council, With Our Gratitude."

A county commissioner and her childhood best friend take annual family trips together to the friend's beach house; after the friend wins a multi-million-dollar consulting contract with the county, she invites the commissioner to their annual beach trip.

