

VERDICT MUST BE UNANIMOUS.¹

I instruct you that a verdict is not a verdict until all twelve jurors agree unanimously as to what your decision shall be. You may not render a verdict by majority vote.

¹This instruction should not be given if the parties agree to a majority verdict.

