

N.C.P.I.—Crim. 207.79 FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH SEX OFFENDER PROHIBITIONS ON WORKING OR VOLUNTEERING FOR CHILD-INVOLVED ACTIVITIES. – G.S. 14-208.17(a).
Felony.

The defendant has been charged with unlawfully working or volunteering for child-involved activities.

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove three things beyond a reasonable doubt.

First, that the defendant had previously been convicted of a reportable offense for which he must register. If you find beyond a reasonable doubt that on (name date) in (name court), the defendant was convicted of (name offense; e.g., second degree rape), then this would constitute a reportable offense for which the defendant must register.

Second, that the defendant worked [for any person] [as a sole proprietor], with or without compensation, at a place where a minor is present.

And Third, that the defendant's responsibilities or activities included the [instruction] [supervision] (or) [care] of (a) minor(s).

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date, the defendant had previously been convicted of a reportable offense for which he must register, that the defendant worked [for any person] [as a sole proprietor], with or without compensation, at a place where a minor was present, and that the defendant's responsibilities included the [instruction][supervision] (or) [care] of that minor, it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.

