

DISRUPTING TELEPHONE SERVICE OF ANOTHER.
G.S. 14-196(a)(4). MISDEMEANOR.

The defendant has been charged with disrupting the telephone service of another.

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove three things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant telephoned (name person or phone number).

Second, that the defendant failed to [hang up] [disengage the connection].

And Third, that the defendant acted with the intent to disrupt the telephone service of another.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date, the defendant telephoned (name person or phone number) and failed to [hang up] [disengage the connection] with the intent to disrupt the telephone service of another it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.
