

PERMITTING THE ALTERATION OR CHANGE OF ENGINE OR OTHER NUMBERS ON A VEHICLE. G.S. 20-109(a)(2). FELONY.

The defendant has been charged with knowingly permitting the alteration of the [manufacturer's serial number] [transmission number] [engine number] on a vehicle which he owned.

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove two things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant knowingly permitted the [manufacturer's serial number] [transmission number] [engine number] to be [defaced] [destroyed] [removed] [covered] [altered] on a vehicle.

And Second, that the defendant owned the vehicle.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date the defendant knowingly permitted the [defacing] [destroying] [removing] [covering] [altering] of the [manufacturer's serial] [transmission] [engine] number on the vehicle that he owned, it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.
