WILLFULLY DISPLAYING AN EXPIRED [LICENSE] [REGISTRATION PLATE] ON A VEHICLE KNOWING THE SAME TO BE EXPIRED. G.S. 20-111(2). INFRACTION

General Criminal Volume

Replacement June 2011

The defendant has been charged with willfully displaying an expired [license] [registration plate] on a vehicle knowing the same to be expired.

For you to find the defendant responsible of this offense, the State must prove two things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant willfully displayed an expired [license] [registration plate] on a vehicle.

And Second, that the defendant knew that the [license] [registration plate] was expired.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date, the defendant willfully displayed an expired [license] [registration plate] on a vehicle and that the defendant knew that the [license] [registration plate] was expired, it would be your duty to return a verdict of responsible. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not responsible.
