[DISPLAYING] [CAUSING TO BE DISPLAYED] [PERMITTING TO BE DISPLAYED] [POSSESSING] A

G.S. 20-111(2). INFRACTION

General Criminal Volume

Replacement June 2011

The defendant has been charged with [displaying] [causing to be displayed] [permitting to be displayed] [possessing] a [registration card] [certificate of title] [registration number plate] for a vehicle knowing that the [[registration card] [certificate of title] [registration number plate]] [[was fictitious] [had been [canceled] [revoked] [suspended] [altered]]].

For you to find the defendant responsible of this offense, the State must prove two things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant [displayed] [caused to be displayed] [permitted to be displayed] [possessed] a [registration card] [certificate of title] [registration number plate] on a vehicle.

And Second, that the defendant knew that the [[registration card] [certificate of title] [registration number plate]] [[was fictitious] [had been [canceled] [revoked] [suspended] [altered]]].

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date, the defendant [displayed] [caused to be displayed] [permitted to be displayed] [possessed] a [registration card] [certificate of title] [registration number plate] for a vehicle and that the defendant knew the [[registration card] [certificate of title] [registration number plate]] [[was fictitious] [had been [canceled] [revoked] [suspended] [altered]]], it would be your duty to return a verdict of responsible. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not responsible.
