

HUNTING, ETC. WHILE LICENSE IS REVOKED. G.S. § 113-300.8. MISDEMEANOR.

The defendant has been charged with unlawfully [hunting] [fishing] [trapping] [possessing] [transporting] wildlife while the defendant's [license] [privilege] [right] was [suspended] [revoked].

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove two things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant [hunted] [fished] [trapped] [possessed] [transported] wildlife.

And Second, that the defendant's [license] [privilege] [right] was [suspended] [revoked] at that time.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date, the defendant [hunted] [fished] [trapped] [possessed] [transported] wildlife while the defendant's [license] [privilege] [right] was [suspended] [revoked], it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or both of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.
